III. PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

29. Miscellaneous
I. IN GENERAL

1. Generally

Neither expressly nor impliedly was war power abrogated or limited by Twenty-first Amendment. Jatros v Bowles (1944, CA6 Mich) 143 F2d 453.

When Secretary of State of United States received duly authenticated official notice from requisite number of states, ratification of Twenty-first Amendment was consummated and became, to all intents and purposes, part of Federal Constitution; Secretary’s proclamation certifying states which had ratified Amendment was official notice to world of what had happened and was conclusive upon courts, so as to preclude judicial review of validity of action of state convention called to consider Amendment. Chase v Billings (1934) 106 Vt 149, 170 A 903.

2. Effect of repeal of Eighteenth Amendment

Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment rendered National Prohibition Act unconstitutional and inoperative, even as to pre-existing offenses. Massey v United States (1934) 291 US 608, 78 L Ed 1019, 54 S Ct 532.

Qualifications placed on Tenth Amendment by adoption of Eighteenth Amendment have been abolished, United States v Constantine (1935) 296 US 287, 56 S Ct 223, 80 L Ed 223, 35-2 USTC P 9655, 36-1 USTC P 9009, 16 AFTR 1137 (overl on other grounds as stated in United States v Smith (1952, SD Cal) 106 F Supp 9, 42 AFTR 437); United States v Kesterson (1935) 296 US 299, 56 S Ct 229, 80 L Ed 241, 35-2 USTC P 9656, 36-1 USTC P 9010, 16 AFTR 1143.

Repeal of Eighteenth amendment by Twenty-first Amendment deprived Congress of power to legislate on subject of Eighteenth Amendment or to continue in force statutes based thereon, and repeal being without savings clause, pending prosecutions, either in trial court or on appeal, were suspended. Green v United States (1933, CA9 Idaho) 67 F2d 846.

Conviction under count not based on National Prohibition Act was not annulled by repeal of Eighteenth Amendment. Kajander v United States (1934, CA5 Fla) 69 F2d 222; Shelton v United States (1934, CA5 Fla) 69 F2d 223, cert den (1934) 293 US 574, 79 L Ed 672, 55 S Ct 85.

Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment pending appeal from conviction for violating National Prohibition Act required reversal of conviction. Twenty-first Amendment simply withdraws exclusive control of Congress, under Commerce Clause, over commerce in intoxicating liquors; since police powers of Virgin Islands remain limited by 15 USCS § 3, which is based on plenary power of Congress to govern territory, Virginia Laws Alcoholic Beverages Fair Trade Law conflicts with 15 USCS § 3 is invalid. Norman's on Waterfront, Inc. v Wheatley (1971, CA3 VI) 444 F2d 1011, 1971 CCH Trade Cases P 73606, 15 FR Serv 2d 184 (criticized in Kendall-Jackson Winery, Ltd. v Branson (2000, CA7 Ill) 212 F3d 995).

Twenty-first Amendment does not surrender power of Congress to prohibit or regulate transportation of intoxicating liquor in interstate commerce, and Congress has power to enact legislation to execute Amendment and to penalize its violations. Business Title Corp. v Division of Labor Law Enforcement (1976, App) 17 Cal 3d 877, 132 Cal Rptr 454, 553 F2d 614, 76-2 USTC ¶ 9644, 38 AFTR 2d 5734.

II. STATE POWER TO REGULATE INTOXICATING LIQUORS

A. In General

4. Generally

Twenty-first Amendment conferred upon state power to forbid all intoxicating liquor imports which do not comply with conditions which state prescribes; state may adopt lesser degree of regulation than total prohibition. State Bd. of Equalization v Young's Market Co. (1936) 299 US 59, 57 S Ct 77, 81 L Ed 38, reh den (1936) 299 US 314, 57 S Ct 229, 81 L Ed 458 and (ovrld on other grounds as stated in Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 104 S Ct 3049, 82 L Ed 2d 200) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

Twenty-First Amendment requires presumption in favor of validity of state regulation of establishments licensed to sell intoxicating liquors; wide latitude as to choice of means to accomplish permissible end must be accorded to state agency which is depository of states' power under Twenty-first Amendment. California v La Rue (1972) 409 US 109, 93 S Ct 390, 34 L Ed 2d 342, reh den (1973) 410 US 948, 93 S Ct 1351, 35 L Ed 2d 615 and (ovrld in part by 44 Liq-uormart v Rhode Island (1996) 960 F2d 1133, 116 S Ct 1145, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrld in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 966 F Supp 1131) and (ovrld in part as stated in WFO Corp. v Ohio Liquor Control Comm'n (1996, Ohio App, Franklin Co) 1996 Ohio App LEXIS 4788) and (ovrld in part as stated in Goldrush II v City of Marietta (1997) 267 Ga 683, 482 SE2d 347, 97 Fulton County D R 874) and (ovrld as stated in J.L. Although case for upholding state regulation in area covered by Twenty-first Amendment is undoubtedly strengthened by Amendment, other constitutional provisions are not rendered inapplicable by amendment. White v Fleming (1975, CAT Wis) 522 P2d 730, 11 BNA FEP Cas 619, 10 CCH EPD P 10313.

Analysis of validity of state law regulating liquor does not proceed via traditional route for testing constitutionality of state statutes, rather courts must proceed from vantage point of presumed state power and then ask whether there are any limitations to that power, always keeping in mind that where intoxicating liquors are concerned, great deference must be accorded comprehensive state regulatory scheme; federal laws have prevailed over state regulation of intoxicating liquors in only 2 circumstances: (1) where state regulation was repugnant to overriding national concern with due process and equal protection, and (2) where state had sought to invade area of exclusive federal concern such as federally owned installations, regulation of commerce with foreign nations, and taxation of imports from foreign countries. Castlewood International Corp. v Simon (1979, CA5 Fla) 596 F2d 638, vacated on other grounds (1980) 446 US 949, 64 L Ed 2d 806, 100 S Ct 2914.

State law dealing with sale of alcoholic beverages has priority, under Twenty-First Amendment, when in conflict with federal regulation placing burden on commerce and alcohol which state wishes to avoid, absent federal interest of sufficient magnitude. Wine Industry of Florida, Inc. v Miller (1980, CA5 Fla) 609 F2d 1167.

Police power of states over intoxicating liquors was extremely broad prior to Twenty-first Amendment, and broad sweep of that Amendment has been recognized as conferring something more than normal state authority over public health, welfare, and morals. Arizona State Liquor Bd. v Poulos (1975) 112 Ariz 119, 538 P2d 393.

State may absolutely prohibit manufacture, transportation, sale, or possession of intoxicants, and may adopt measures reasonably appropriate to effectuate these prohibitions and exercise full police authority in respect to them. Francis v Fitzpatrick (1943) 129 Conn 619, 30 A2d 552, 145 ALR 505.

On account of inherent and potential menace to public welfare caused by liquor business, police power to regulate it is of far greater scope and power than is directed toward ordinary business activity; Twenty-first Amendment allows exercise of very broad police powers by states with respect to alcoholic liquors; under Twenty-first Amendment, states may either absolutely prohibit manufacture, sale, or possession of such liquors within their borders or may permit these activities under conditions prescribed by their legislatures. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com. (1952) 138 Conn 669, 88 A2d 388.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state may absolutely prohibit manufacture, transportation, importation, sale, or possession of alcoholic liquors irrespective of when or where produced, or to use to which they may be put, and may adopt measures reasonably appropriate to effectuate these prohibitions and exercise full police authority in respect to them, and this greater power to prohibit includes lesser power to permit under definitely prescribed conditions. State v Payne (1958) 183 Kan 396, 327 P2d 1071.

State or local regulation in field of alcoholic beverages under Amendment 21 must not be discriminatory and must not conflict with other provisions of Constitution. Baxter Springs v Bryant (1979) 226 Kan 383, 598 P2d 1051.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state has full and complete control over all matters relating to intoxicating liquors within its borders; it is purely within prerogative of state to say whether or not citizen shall possess or use intoxicating liquor; regulation pertaining to sale, possession, or use of intoxicating liquors does not violate constitutional rights of any citizens. State v Wood (1966, Miss) 187 So 2d 820.

Under § 2 of Twenty-first Amendment, any state can prohibit transportation or importation of intoxicating liquors into its territory. State v Epps (1939) 213 NC 709, 197 SE 580.

Since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, states may prohibit inhabitants from importing intoxicating liquor for their own use. Riggins v District Court (1935) 89 Utah 183, 51 P2d 645.

5. Power over lands subject to federal jurisdiction

Though Twenty-first Amendment may have increased power of states as to regulation of importation of intoxicating liquors, it did not increase jurisdiction of state so as to extend to possession of national government lying within state, jurisdiction over which possession is in national government. Collins v Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1938) 304 US 518, 82 L Ed 1502, 58 S Ct 1009; Johnson v Yellow Cab Transit Co. (1943, CA10 Okla) 137 F2d 274, affd (1944) 321 US 383, 88 L Ed 814, 64 S Ct 622.

With respect to concessionaire which operated hotels, camps, and stores in national park, exclusive jurisdiction was in United States, so that state was without power to regulate alcoholic beverages and Twenty-first Amendment was not
Twenty-First Amendment does not "repeal" commerce clause wherever regulation of intoxicating liquors is concerned, so as to give states complete and exclusive control over intoxicating liquors unlimited by commerce clause, and Congress is left with regulatory power over interstate or foreign commerce in intoxicating liquor. Hostetter v Idlewild Bon Voyage Liquor Corp. (1964) 377 US 324, 12 L Ed 2d 350, 84 S Ct 1293.

Like other provisions of Federal Constitution, Twenty-first Amendment and commerce clause must each be considered in light of other and in context of issues and interests at stake in any concrete case. Hostetter v Idlewild Bon Voyage Liquor Corp. (1964) 377 US 324, 12 L Ed 2d 350, 84 S Ct 1293.

By virtue of Twenty-first Amendment, state is totally unconfined by traditional commerce clause limitations when it restricts importation of intoxicants destined for use, distribution, or consumption within its borders. Heublen, Inc. v South Carolina Tax Comm’n (1972) 409 US 275, 34 L Ed 2d 472, 93 S Ct 483; United States v State Tax Com. (1973) 412 US 363, 37 L Ed 2d 1, 93 S Ct 2183.

There is no bright line between federal and state powers over liquor; although Twenty-first Amendment grants states virtually complete control over whether to permit importation or sale of liquor and how to structure liquor distribution system, and although states retain substantial discretion to establish other liquor regulations under Amendment, those controls may be subject to federal commerce power under commerce clause of Constitution (Article I, § 8, cl 3) in appropriate situations, and reconciliation of competing state and federal interests in such regard can be made only after careful scrutiny of those concerns in a concrete case. California Retail Liquor Dealers Ass’n v Midcal Aluminum, Inc. (1980) 445 US 97, 100 S Ct 937, 63 L Ed 2d 293, 1980-1 CCH Trade Cases P 63201.

Federal Government retains authority under Commerce clause to regulate even interstate commerce in liquor notwithstanding fact that Twenty-First Amendment reserves to states power to impose burdens on interstate commerce in intoxicating liquors. Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2694, 10 Media L R 1873.

Twenty First Amendment does not entirely remove state regulation of alcoholic beverages from ambit of Commerce clause; question in determining validity of state liquor tax that discriminates against interstate commerce is whether principles underlying Twenty First Amendment are sufficiently implicated to outweigh Commerce clause principles that would otherwise be offended. Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049
State has control over intoxicating liquors, and such control is not restricted by Commerce Clause. Dunell Liquor Co. v. Tawes (1952) 201 Md. 58, 92 A2d 560.

States do not have plenary powers over all of matters relating to alcoholic beverages and when statute enacted pursuant to Twenty-First Amendment conflicts with enactment based on commerce clause, courts must balance policies furthered by each in order to determine which should prevail. Rice v Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal. 3d 431, 146 Cal. Rptr. 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978-1 CCH Trade Cases P 60254, 96 ALR3d 613.

Twenty-First Amendment removes spirited liquors and alcohol from protection of commerce clause to extent necessary to allow states to adopt and enforce appropriate laws and regulations dealing with subject and thus to burden interstate commerce to such extent; state may exercise its power under Twenty-First Amendment to regulate transportation through its territory of intoxicating liquors destined for another state. Atkins v Manning (1949) 206 Ga. 219, 56 SE2d 260.

State has power under Twenty-First Amendment to forbid all importations of liquor which do not comply with state regulations, and state is relieved of limitations of Commerce Clause. Ruppert v Morrison (1952) 117 Vt. 83, 85 A2d 584.

8. Laws and regulations related to wine manufacture and distribution

State law authorizing sale of newly defined wine product in grocery stores if produced exclusively from grapes grown in state is clearly protectionist measure which violates commerce clause and which cannot be saved by § 2 of Twenty-first Amendment. Loretto Winery, Ltd. v. Duffy (1985, CA2 NY) 761 P2d 140.

North Carolina’s regulatory preference of in-state wine manufacturers discriminates against out-of-state wine manufacturers and sellers, in violation of dormant Commerce Clause and preference is not supported by any clear concern of Twenty-first Amendment, and therefore, is not saved by Twenty-first Amendment. Beskind v Easley (2003, CA4 NC) 325 F3d 506, 116 ALR5th 665 (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223) and (overd in part on other grounds as stated in Brooks v Vassar (2006, CA4 Va) 462 F3d 341) and (criticized in Siesta Vill. Mkt., LLC v Perry (2008, ND Tex) 530 F Supp. 2d 849).

Because of absence of identical restriction on Texas wineries, Texas’s statutory prohibition against out-of-state wineries directly selling and shipping wine to Texas consumers was constitutionally defective under Commerce Clause, and enjoinder of administrator of Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission from enforcing challenged provisions was appropriate remedy. Dickerson v Bailey (2003, CA5 Tex) 336 F3d 388 (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223).

N.Y. Alco. Bev. Cont. Law §§ 100(1), 102(1)(a), and 102(1)(b), which prohibit out-of-state wine retailers from selling and delivering wine directly to New York consumers, are valid exercise of state’s rights under Twenty-First Amendment, U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2, and do not violate Commerce Clause, U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3, because regulatory scheme mandates that both in-state and out-of-state liquor pass through same three-tier system before ultimate delivery to consumer. Arnold’s Wines, Inc. v Boyle (2009, CA2 NY) 571 F3d 185.
CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Amend. 21

U.S. Const. amend. 21, § 2 does not allow states to regulate direct shipment of wine on terms that discriminate in favor of in-state producers, and straightforward attempts to discriminate in favor of local producers are not saved by Twenty-first Amendment; so, unless state shows that discrimination is demonstrably justified, statutes regulating alcohol that discriminate against interstate commerce must be invalidated; however, three-tier system itself is unquestionably legitimate, and state policies are protected under Twenty-first Amendment when they treat liquor produced out of state same as its domestic equivalent. Freeman v Corzine (2010, CA3 NJ) 629 F3d 146.

9. Other particular cases

State of New York could not prohibit sale at airport of liquor purchased outside of state to departing international travelers for delivery at their foreign destinations; although state, by virtue of provisions of Twenty-first Amendment, is totally unconfined by traditional commerce clause limitations when it restricts importation of intoxicants destined for use, distribution, or consumption within its borders, nevertheless Twenty-first Amendment does not obliter ate commerce clause so far as to empower state to prohibit absolutely passage of liquor through its territory, under supervision of United States Bureau of Customs, for delivery to consumers in foreign countries; state may not totally prevent transactions carried on under aegis of law passed by Congress in exercise of its explicit power under Federal Constitution to regulate commerce with foreign nations. Hostetter v Idlewild Bon Voyage Liquor Corp. (1964) 377 US 324, 12 L Ed 2d 350, 84 S Ct 1293.

State liquor tax that imposes 20 percent excise tax on sales of liquor at wholesale, and from which certain locally produced alcoholic beverages are exempt, violates Commerce clause because it has both purpose and effect of discriminating in favor of local products, and it is not saved by Twenty First Amendment because, while it violates central tenet of Commerce clause, it is not supported by any clear concern of Twenty First Amendment in combating perceived evils of unrestricted traffic in liquor. Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049 (criticized in Ala. Alcoholic Bev. Control Bd. v Henri-Duval Winery, L.L.C. (2003, Ala) 890 So 2d 70).

Twenty-first Amendment did not immunize state laws from invalidation under Commerce Clause (Art I, § 8, cl 3) when those laws have practical effect of regulating liquor sales in other states, for purposes of state statute requiring brewers and importers of beer to affirm that their posted prices for products sold to in-state wholesalers were as of time of posting no higher than prices at which they sold those products in bordering states. Heiney v Beer Inst. (1989) 491 US 324, 105 L Ed 2d 275, 109 S Ct 2491.

Indiana statute, which makes unlawful all direct shipments from out of state to in-state consumers by any person in business of selling alcoholic beverages in another state or country, is not unconstitutional. Bridenbaugh v Freeman-Wilson (2000, CA7 Ind) 227 F3d 848, cert den, motion gr (2001) 532 US 1002, 121 S Ct 1672, 149 L Ed 2d 652 and (criticized in Bollick v Roberts (2001, ED Va) 199 F Supp 2d 297) and (criticized in Dickerson v Bailey (2002, SD Tex) 201 F Supp 2d 673) and (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2002, SD NY) 234 F Supp 2d 231) and (Overruled as stated in Huber Winery v Wilcher (2006, WD Ky) 2006 US Dist LEXIS 4705).

Local preference provision located in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 18B-1101(3) was declared unconstitutional as discriminatory against interstate commerce in violation of U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3, and provision was not saved by U.S. Const. amend. XXI. Beskind v Easley (2003, CA4 NC) 325 F3d 506, 116 ALR5th 665 (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223) and (ovrld in part on other grounds as stated in Beskind v Vassar (2006, CA4 Va) 462 F3d 341) and (criticized in Siesta Vill. Mkt., LLC v Perry (2008, ND Tex) 539 F Supp 2d 848).

Because Twenty-first Amendment grants states virtually complete control over whether to permit importation or sale of liquor and how to structure liquor distribution system, because dormant Commerce Clause only prevents state from enacting regulation that favors in-state producers and thus discriminates against interstate commerce, Personal Import Exception to state’s Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Va. Code Ann. § 4.1-100 et seq., does not violate Commerce Clause. Brooks v Vassar (2006, CA4 Va) 462 F3d 341, cert den (2007) 550 US 934, 127 S Ct 2251, 167 L Ed 2d 1090.

Personal Import Exception to state’s Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Va. Code Ann. § 4.1-100 et seq., is not eco-nomic protectionism but part of state’s import regulation, as it provides de minimis exception to state’s import regula-tions, allowing consumers to import one gallon or four liters of wine for personal consumption (under no economic construct could such provision be considered economic protectionism of local industry because it actually amounts to disadvantage local wineries whose wine may only be purchased through retailers); accordingly, Personal Import Excep-tion does not violate dormant Commerce Clause. Brooks v Vassar (2006, CA4 Va) 462 F3d 341, cert den (2007) 550 US 934, 127 S Ct 2251, 167 L Ed 2d 1090.

Regulating alcoholic beverage retailing was largely State’s prerogative under Twenty-first Amendment, a limited rights Texas gave state-licensed alcoholic beverage retailers to make deliveries did not transgress Dormant Commerce Clause by requiring that only retailers with physical presence in Texas could deliver to consumers in Texas; court reversed district court’s invalidation of requirement that only retailers with physical presence within State could receive retailer permits or deliver to in-state consumers and reinstated Tex. Alco. Bev. Code Ann. §§ 22.03, 24.03, 54.12, and 107.07(f). Siesta Vill. Mkt. LLC v. Steen (2010, CA5 Tex) 612 F3d 809, cert den (2011, US) 131 S Ct 1602, 179 L Ed 2d 499.

State statute directing wholesalers to fix and maintain prices at which they will sell retailers alcoholic liquor which has been transported in interstate commerce does not impinge upon Congress’ exclusive power to regulate commerce; Twenty-first Amendment accorded to states power to enact such statute unrestricted by commerce clause. Beckankst v Liquor Control Com. (1953) 140 Conn 185, 99 A2d 119.

Kansas statutes which do not prohibit but only reasonably regulate transportation of intoxicating liquors across state and are not in conflict with any federal statutes regulating interstate shipments of intoxicating liquors, do not violate Commerce Clause or Twenty-first Amendment. State v Goldberg (1946) 161 Kan 174, 166 P2d 664.

b. Other Provisions

10. Effect of Supremacy Clause

When state regulations squarely conflict with accomplishment and execution of full purposes of federal law, and state’s central power under Twenty-First Amendment for regulating times, places, and manner under which liquor may be imported and sold is not directly implicated, balance between state and federal power tips decisively in favor of federal law, and enforcement of state statute requiring cable television operators to delete all advertisements for alcoholic beverages contained in out-of-state signals that are retransmitted is barred by Supremacy clause. Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2694, 10 Media L R 1873.

Supremacy clause of United States Constitution made tax lien priorities accorded United States under 26 USCS § 6923 control over any priority scheme established by state law; statute providing scheme of priorities among private creditors of liquor licensees in no way related to state’s interest in regulating consumption and distribution of alcohol, with respect to which Twenty-first Amendment exempted states from traditional commerce clause limitations. Busi-ness Title Corp. v Division of Labor Law Enforcement (1976, App) 17 Cal 3d 878, 132 Cal Rptr 454, 553 P2d 614, 76-2 USTC P 9644, 38 APTR 2d 5734.

11. Effect of equal protection clause

Since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment is not applicable to intoxicating liquor; under Twenty-first Amendment, discrimination against imported liquor is permissible even if it is not incident of reasonable regulation of liquor traffic. Mahoney v Joseph Triner Corp. (1938) 304 US 401, 58 S Ct 952, 82 L Ed 1424 (arguably overrld as stated in Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 104 S Ct 3049, 82 L Ed 2d 200) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

On basis of Twenty-first Amendment, state’s discrimination between domestic and imported intoxicating liquors, or between imported intoxicating liquors, is not prohibited by equal protection clause. Indianapolis Brewing Co. v Liquor Control Com. (1939) 305 US 391, 59 S Ct 254, 83 L Ed 243 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

State statute imposing on nonresident brewers requirements which were not imposed on brewers who resided within state did not violate equal protection clause; classification recognized by Twenty-first Amendment cannot be deemed forbidden by Fourteenth Amendment. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com. (1952) 138 Conn 669, 88 A2d 388.

Twenty-first Amendment does not empower state to invade constitutional rights guaranteed by equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment; however, failure of state statute dealing with sales of liquor to include wines and malt beverages did not constitute invidious discrimination in violation of equal protection clause. Federal Distillers, Inc. v State (1975) 304 Minn 28, 229 NW2d 144, app dismd (1975) 423 US 908, 46 L Ed 2d 137, 96 S Ct 209, 96 S Ct 210.

12. Effect of due process clause

State’s exercise of its power under Twenty-first Amendment to prohibit or regulate liquor traffic within its borders, insofar as such regulations discriminate against or impose special burdens on activities and persons involved in such traffic, is not generally limited by due process clause of Twenty-first Amendment, at least where state’s regulations are reasonably appropriate to effectuate its Twenty-first Amendment powers. Indianapolis Brewing Co. v Liquor Control Com. (1939) 305 US 391, 59 S Ct 254, 83 L Ed 243 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263); Ziffrin, Inc. v Reeves (1939) 308 US 132, 60 S Ct 163, 84 L Ed 128 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263); State v Payne (1958) 183 Kan 396, 327 P2d 1071.

Twenty-First Amendment does not prevent Congress from exercising its spending power in conditioning a portion of state’s federal highway funds on state’s adoption of minimum drinking age of 21; while amendment in no way increased Congress’ authority to legislate with respect to liquor, amendment did not limit or withdraw Congress’ ability to exercise authority under its existing delegated powers, including spending power. South Dakota v Dole (1986, CA8 SD) 791 F2d 628, affd (1987) 483 US 203, 97 L Ed 2d 171, 107 S Ct 2793.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Twenty-first Amendment does not empower states to invade constitutional rights guaranteed by due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment; however, statute regulating sale of liquor did not employ constitutionally impermissible presumption violative of due process. Federal Distillers, Inc. v State (1975) 304 Minn 28, 229 NW2d 144, app dismd (1975) 423 US 908, 46 L Ed 2d 137, 96 S Ct 209, 96 S Ct 210.

13. Effect of export-import clause

State of Kentucky could not require importer of Scotch whiskey to pay tax of ten cents on each proof gallon of whisky which it imported from Scotland, which tax was collected while whisky remained in unbroken packages in hands of original importer and prior to resale or use by importer; export-import clause of Federal Constitution (Art I, § 10, cl 2), which prohibits states from imposing duties or imposts on imports or exports, except as may be absolutely necessary for executing state inspection laws, precludes state from exercising its Twenty-first Amendment powers over intoxicating liquors by imposing tax on imported liquors while in hands of importer in unbroken, original packages, prior to resale or use by importer with state. Department of Revenue v James B. Beam Distilling Co. (1964) 377 US 341, 12 L Ed 2d 362, 84 S Ct 1247.

14. Miscellaneous

Notwithstanding claim of violation of First and Fourteenth Amendment guarantees of freedom of expression, regulations by state department of alcoholic beverage control, prohibiting certain sexually explicit live entertainment or films in licensed bars and nightclubs, were not unconstitutional, in view of state’s regulatory powers under Twenty-first Amendment; although some performances to which regulations addressed themselves were within limits of constitutio-nal protection of freedom of expression, state did not forbid such performances across board, but merely proscribed such performances in establishments which it licensed to sell liquor by drink; department’s conclusion, embodied in regulations, that certain sexual performances and dispensation of liquor by drink not to occur simultaneously at premises which had licenses, was not irrational one. California v La Rue (1972) 409 US 109, 93 S Ct 390, 34 L Ed 2d 342, reh den (1973) 410 US 948, 93 S Ct 1351, 35 L Ed 2d 615 and (ovrld in part by 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 116 S Ct 1495, 194 L Ed 2d 711, 96 CDOS 3358, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrld in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 96 F Supp 1131 and (ovrld in part as stated in WFO Corp. v Ohio Liquor Control Comm’n (1996, Ohio App, Franklin Co) 1996 Ohio App LEXIS 4788) and (ovrld in part as stated in Goldenrill II v City of Marietta (1997) 267 Ga 683, 482 SE2d 347, 97 Fulton County D R 874) and (ovrld as stated in J.L. 2. Other Laws

15. Miscellaneous

Statute prohibiting women from tending bar except when they are licensees, wives of licensees, or, singly or with their husbands, sole shareholders of corporation holding license, has nothing to do with flow of alcoholic beverages into state and therefore does not fall within literal language of Twenty-first Amendment; notwithstanding Twenty-first Amendment, state may not prohibit employment of women bartenders, because to do so would violate provision of Federal Civil Rights Act (42 USC § 2000-2(a)) prohibiting discrimination in employment on basis of sex. Suil’er Inn. Inc v Kirby (1971) 5 Cal 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 P2d 529, 3 BNA FEP Cas 550, 3 CCH EPD P 8222, 46 ALR3d 351 (criticized in In re Marriage Cases (2008) 43 Cal 4th 757, 76 Cal Rptr 3d 683, 183 P3d 384).

16. Slate monopoly on importation or sale

Eleventh Amendment did not bar liquor store’s suit seeking declaration that Maryland’s regulatory scheme for liq-uer wholesales violated Sherman Act since plaintiff was not seeking damages but declaratory and injunctive relief on basis of violation of federal law, and complaint was sufficiently narrow that it did not impeinge on state’s sovereignty under Twenty-first amendment. TFWS, Inc. v Schaefer (2001, CA4 Md) 242 F3d 198, 2001-1 CCH Trade Cases P 73183.

In action against Washington State Liquor Control Board by corporation that operated international chain of membership warehouses, district court properly held that post-and-hold scheme under Wash. Rev. Code § 66.28.180(2) (a) and Wash. Admin. Code §§ 314-20-100(2), (5), 314-24- 190(2), (5) was hybrid restraint of trade, that it was per se violation of Sherman Act, 15 USCS § 1, that restraint was subject to preemption under Sherman Act, and that provisions could not be saved by operation of Washington’s powers under U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2. Costco Wholesale Corp. v Maleng (2008, CA9 Wash) 522 F3d 874, 2008-1 CCH Trade Cases P 78021.

Twenty-first Amendment completely removed any possible doubt as to constitutionality of state statute vesting in state liquor control commission power to import liquor into state, and permitting no person to buy or sell liquor except by or through commission. State v Arnold (1956) 222 Iowa 1, 268 NW 179.

In view of Twenty-first Amendment, commerce clause of Constitution was not violated by state statute prohibiting sale of intoxicating liquor to private individuals or corporations, and providing for sale thereof by state through system of stores. State v Andre (1936) 101 Mont 366, 54 P2d 566.

17. Licenses, permits, fees or taxes

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could constitutionally enact legislation providing that only common carriers licensed by state would have right to transport locally manufactured intoxicating liquors out of state. Zifflin, Inc. v Reeves (1939) 308 US 132, 60 S Ct 163, 84 L Ed 128 (criticized

State statute confining business of transporting intoxicating liquors through state to those who are licensed as common carriers is reasonable regulation. Cartridge v Rainey (1948, CA5 Tex) 168 F2d 841, cert den (1948) 335 US 885, 93 L Ed 424, 69 S Ct 237.

Although state was operating in its “core” power under § 2 of Twenty-First Amendment to Constitution, it did not retained power to implement laws governing transfer of liquor license despite existence of prior federal tax lien; issue involved primacy of federal tax lien over state license rather than regulation of liquor, and state’s ability to regulate delivery or sale of liquor in state, as opposed to licenses, was not impinged. In re Kimura (1992, CA9) 969 F2d 806, 92 CDOS 6090, 92 Daily Journal DAR 5646, CCH Bankr L Rptr P 74777, 92-2 USTC P 50397, 70 APTR 2d 5414.

Amendment did not give state right to condition transfer of liquor license upon satisfaction of claims of trade creditors prior to federal tax lien; case involved primacy of federal tax lien over state license and fact that license happened to regulate liquor establishment was coincidental. United States v Stone (In re Stone) (1993, CA9) 6 F3d 561, 95 CDOS 7040, 93 Daily Journal DAR 12042, 93-2 USTC P 50635, 72 APTR 2d 6103, 93 TNT 202-15.

Since state may, under Twenty-first Amendment, prohibit sale, transportation, and storage of liquors altogether, it may fix license which, if burden on interstate commerce at all, is less burden than prohibiting sale and transportation altogether. McCarroll v Clyde Collins Liquors, Inc. (1939) 198 Ark 896, 132 SW2d 19.

Arkansas statute requiring that persons transporting intoxicating liquor through or across state have state permit, and providing for confiscation in event of noncompliance, is valid under Twenty-first Amendment to Constitution of United States. Welborn v Morley (1951) 219 Ark 569, 243 SW2d 635.

State statute prohibiting liquor permittees and permittee backers of one class from being permittees and backers of any other class was constitutional exercise of state’s legislative power under Twenty-first Amendment. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com. (1952) 138 Conn 669, 88 A2d 388.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state legislatures, subject to constitutional restrictions, may lawfully grant right to engage in traffic of liquor to certain class or classes of persons and withhold it from others, and no one may complain because liquor legislation has denied him privilege of engaging in liquor traffic. Brown Distributing Co. v Oklahoma Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (1979, Okla) 597 P2d 324.

Statute establishing special exemption to quota restrictions on liquor licenses was reasonable decision by legislature to increase number of available liquor licenses, within scope of state’s broad power over regulation of liquor traffic under Twenty First Amendment. Moedern v McGinnis (1975) 70 Wis 2d 1056, 236 NW2d 240.

Unpublished Opinions

Unpublished: Where petitioner attorney challenged forfeiture of defendant’s liquor license and argued district court erred in finding attorney had no standing under Twenty-First Amendment, argument was rejected because attorney’s injury, if any, stemmed from his failure to establish right to license in first instance, not state’s inability to regulate alcohol within its borders and attorney’s claim fell under 21 USC § 853, out of Twenty-First Amendment’s zone of interests, which was state’s interests. United States v Carrie (2006, CA11 Fla) 206 Fed Appx 920, reh den, 2007 CA11 254 Fed Appx 803 and magistrate’s recommendation, habeas corpus proceeding (2010, DC SC) 2010 US Dist LEXIS 140386.

18. Taxes or duties

State of Kentucky could not require importer of Scotch whiskey to pay tax of ten cents on each proof gallon of whiskey which it imported from Scotland, which tax was collected while whiskey remained in unbroken packages in hands of original importer and prior to resale or use by importer; export-import clause of Federal Constitution (Art I, § 10, cl 2), which prohibits states from imposing duties or imposts on imports or exports, except as may be absolutely necessary for executing state inspection laws, precludes state from exercising its Twenty-first Amendment powers over intoxicating liquors by imposing tax on imported liquors while in hands of importer in unbroken, original packages, prior to resale or use by importer within state. Department of Revenue v James B. Beam Distilling Co. (1964) 377 US 341, 12 L Ed 2d 362, 84 S Ct 1247.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could enact statute making it unlawful for any person to evade or attempt to evade payment of tax or duty on alcoholic liquor or to possess any cask or package of such liquor without having thereon each mark or stamp required by law; even if statute was designed only to effectuate collection of taxes and had no relation to protection of public health, safety, or morals, state could, under Twenty-first Amendment, discriminate in favor of alcoholic liquor processed within state as against alcoholic liquor processed elsewhere, and such discrimination was permissible although it was not incident to reasonable regulation of liquor traffic or to protection of health, safety, or general welfare of its citizens. State v Payne (1958) 183 Kan 396, 327 P2d 1071.

Unpublished Opinions

Unpublished: District court’s determination that certain Maryland liquor regulations did not promote temperance because they did not raise liquor and wine prices was clearly erroneous; determination was based on comparison of wholesale and retail liquor prices in Maryland and Delaware, but district court failed to take into account whether difference in two states’ excise tax rates affected price comparison analysis. TFWS, Inc. v Schaefer (2005, CA4 Md) 147 Fed Appx 330, 2005-2 CCH Trade Cases ¶ 74885, corrected (2005, CA4 Md) 2005 US App LEXIS 29555 and on re-mand, injunction gr, motion gr, motion den, judgment entered (2007, DC Md) 2007-2 CCH Trade Cases P 75920, affd (2009, CA4 Md) 572 F3d 186, 2009-2 CCH Trade Cases P 76868.

19. Place of sale

Twenty-First Amendment does not justify state statute which vests in governing bodies of churches and schools power effectively to veto applications for liquor licenses within 500 foot radius of church or school, where state has delegated to churches power relating to liquor sales; state cannot exercise its power under Twenty-First Amendment in way that impinges upon establishment clause of First Amendment. Larkin v Grendel’s Den, Inc. (1982) 450 US 116, 74 L Ed 2d 297, 103 S Ct 505.
20.—Airlines

New Mexico Liquor Control Act, as it governed alcoholic beverage service provided by airline on flights departing from or arriving into New Mexico under N.M. Stat. §§ 60-6E-4, 60-6E-5, and 60-6A-9, was impliedly preempted be-cause it fell within field of aviation safety that Congress intended federal law to occupy exclusively under Supremacy Clause and 49 USCS §§ 44701 and 44728; however, 21st Amendment required balancing of state’s core powers and federal interests of FAA. US Airways, Inc. v O’Donnell (2010, CA10 NM) 627 F3d 1318.

21.—Employment of women

Statute prohibiting women from tending bar except when they are licensees, wives of licensees, or, singly or with their husbands, sole shareholders of corporation holding license, has nothing to do with flow of alcoholic beverages into state and therefore does not fall within literal language of Twenty-first Amendment; notwithstanding Twenty-first Amendment, state may not prohibit employment of women bartenders, because to do so would violate provision of Federal Civil Rights Act (42 USCS § 2000-2(a)) prohibiting discrimination in employment on basis of sex. Sail’er Inn, Inc. v Kirby (1971) 5 Calif 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 F2d 529, 3 BNA FEP Cas 550, 3 CCH EPD P 8222, 46 ALR3d 351 (criticized in In re Marriage Cases (2008) 45 Cal 4th 757, 76 Cal Rptr 3d 683, 183 P3d 384).

22.—Live entertainment

State statute prohibiting nude dancing in establishments licensed by state to sell liquor for on-premises consump-tion does not violate First Amendment since statute is within state’s power conferred by Twenty-First Amendment to regulate sale of liquor within its boundaries; state’s power to ban sale of alcoholic beverages entirely includes lesser power to ban sale of liquor on premises where topless dancing occurs and whatever artistic or communicative value that might attach to topless dancing is overcome by state’s exercise of its broad powers arising under Twenty-First Amendment. New York State Liquor Authority v Bellanca (1981) 452 US 714, 101 S Ct 2599, 69 L Ed 2d 357, 7 Media L R 1500 (ovrd in part by 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 116 S Ct 1495, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrd in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 966 F Supp 1131).

City ordinance prohibiting nude dancing of persons or nearly nude dancing on premises of business establishment licensed to sell liquor for consumption on premises is constitutional under Federal Constitution’s Twenty-first Amendment, even where it is local voters rather than city or state who have authority under state constitution to determine whether liquor may be sold in city; fact that state has delegated one portion of its regulatory power under Twenty-first Amendment to electorate—power to decide if liquor may be served in local establishments—does not mean that each liquor licensing decision must be made by plebiscite. Newport v Iacobucci (1986) 479 US 92, 93 L Ed 2d 334, 107 S Ct 383, reh den (1987) 479 US 1047, 93 L Ed 2d 862, 107 S Ct 913 and (ovrd in part by 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 116 S Ct 1495, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrd in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 966 F Supp 1131).

Municipal ordinance, banning topless dancing in every “cabaret, bar or lounge, dance hall, discotheque, restaurant or coffee shop within municipal boundaries,” was not adequately limited in its impact so as to be validated by Twenty-first Amendment; Amendment does not justify regulatory control over places that serve only food or which provide entertainment but not alcoholic beverages. Salem Inn, Inc. v Frank (1975, CA2 NY) 522 F2d 1045.

County commission had authority to enact ordinance prohibiting nude or seminude dancing under state’s delegation of Twenty-first Amendment powers to municipalities and counties; presumption exists in favor of validity of regulation under Twenty-first Amendment, and by enacting ordinance county commissioners did not act with total irrationality or invidious discrimination in controlling distribution and dispensation of liquor within their jurisdiction. Fillingim v Boone (1988, CA11 Fla) 835 F2d 1389.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, town ordinance prohibiting topless dancing in establishments dealing in alcoholic beverages is constitutional; town council’s findings provided sufficient rationale for ordinance. Lanier v Newton (1988, CA11 Ala) 842 F2d 253.

Ordinance prohibiting topless dancing in establishments dealing in alcoholic beverages falls within ambit of Twenty-first Amendment and is not unconstitutionally overbroad. Lanier v Newton (1988, CA11 Ala) 842 F2d 253.

Because of state’s broad powers under Twenty-first Amendment, ordinance prohibiting exotic dancers in bar did not violate bar owner’s First Amendment rights, for purposes of action by bar owner seeking zoning classification which would permit him to display go-go girls in drinking establishment. Walker v Kansas City (1990, CA8 Mo) 911 F2d 80, reh den, en banc (1990, CA8) 919 F2d 1281 and cert den (1991) 500 US 941, 114 L Ed 2d 476, 111 S Ct 2234.

Ordinance prohibiting exposure of certain body parts in establishments dealing in alcohol was properly analyzed under Twenty-First Amendment rather than First Amendment, under municipality’s broad powers to exercise regulatory power under Twenty-First Amendment. Geaneas v Willets (1990, CA11 Fla) 911 F2d 579, cert den (1991) 499 US 955, 113 L Ed 2d 484, 111 S Ct 1431.

County ordinance regulating nude dancing in businesses serving liquor was not unconstitutionally overbroad because it required more clothing be worn by erotic dancers in establishment serving liquor than by citizens on street or beaches; state’s power to regulate alcohol is broad and outweighs marginal First Amendment interest in totally nude dancing. Dodger’s Bar & Grill v Johnson County Bd. of County Comm’rs (1994, CA10 Kan) 32 F3d 1436.

Resolution of board of county commissioners regulating entertainment within 1000 feet of premises licensed to serve alcoholic beverages was within ambit of Twenty-First Amendment and state’s police power since there is reasonable relationship between area immediately adjacent to licensed premises and licensed premises. Dodger’s Bar & Grill v Johnson County Bd. of County Comm’rs (1996, CA10 Kan) 98 F3d 1262.

Twenty-first Amendment has been recognized as conferring on states something more than normal authority inherent in public power; although amendment did not nullify other provisions of Constitution whenever state seeks to regulate sale of liquor, it did serve to “strengthen” state’s authority in that particular area; however state’s authority to control and regulate sale of alcoholic beverages is designed to protect from abuses relating to alcohol consumption and is not license to censor whatever occurs at premises authorized to sell alcohol; therefore, state statute prohibiting topless dancing in licensed drinking establishment is not authorized by state’s authority under Amendment. Bellanca v New York State Liquor Authority (1980) 50 NY2d 524, 429 NY2d 616, 407 NE2d 460, reh den (1980) 51 NY2d 879 and revd on other grounds (1981) 452 US 714, 101 S Ct 2599, 69 L Ed 2d 357, 7 Media L R 1500 (ovrd in part by 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 116 S Ct 1495, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrd in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 966 F Supp 1131) and (Overruled as stated in Hamilton’s Bogarts, Inc. v Michigan (2007, CA6 Mich) 501 F3d 644, 2007 FED App 351P).

In view of grant to states by Twenty-first Amendment of substantial power to regulate liquor industry; suspension of tavern liquor license by state liquor control commission for improper conduct in violation of commission regulation, in permitting female to dance with insufficient attire, consisting of pasties which covered only nipple and areola portion of her breasts, overall effect of which was to portray female as dancing in topless state, did not violate licensee’s First Amendment rights of free expression. Saelen v Liquor Control Com. (1973) 34 Ohio St 2d 244, 63 Ohio Ops 2d 387, 298 NE2d 138 (criticized in Dayton Tavern v Liquor Control Comm’n (1999, Ohio App, Montgomery Co) 1999 Ohio App LEXIS 4006).

23. Prices and price schedules

Provision of state liquor control statute, stating that monthly price schedules for sales of liquor to wholesalers filed by liquor producers with state liquor authority must be accompanied by affirmation that prices are no higher than lowest price at which sales will be made anywhere in United States during same month, is not valid exercise of state’s powers under Twenty-First Amendment so as to save provision from invalidation under commerce clause, since it attempts to regulate sales in other states of liquor to be consumed in other states. Brown-Forman Distillers Corp. v New York State Liquor Authority (1986) 476 US 573, 106 S Ct 2080, 90 L Ed 2d 552 (criticized in Grant’s Dairy-Maine, LLC v Commissioner of Me. Dept of Agric., Food & Rural Resources (2000, CA1 Me) 232 F3d 8).

Commerce Clause is violated through operation of beer price affirmation provisions of state liquor control act which prevent brewer from selling below state wholesale price to any wholesaler in any neighboring state since effect of provisions is to control minimum price that may be charged by non-state brewer to non-state wholesaler in any sale outside of state; nothing in Twenty-First Amendment permits state to set minimum prices for sale of beer in any other state. United States Brewers Ass’n v Healy (1982, CA2 Conn) 692 F2d 275, 1982-83 CCH Trade Cases P 65523, affd (1983) 464 US 909, 104 S Ct 265, 78 L Ed 2d 248, 1983-2 CCH Trade Cases P 65661.

Under 21st Amendment, state, as part of its regulatory scheme for sale of liquor, may constitutionally insist that liquor prices for domestic wholesalers and retailers be at least as prices offered elsewhere in country. Brown-Forman Corp. v Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Comm’n (1988, CA6 Tenn) 860 F2d 1354, vacated without op, remanded (1989) 492 US 902, 106 L Ed 2d 559, 109 S Ct 3208.

R.I. Gen. Laws § 3-5-11.1(a), enacted under defendant Rhode Island’s power under Twenty-First Amendment to protect consumer choice and ensure equitable pricing of retail liquor products, was economic in nature and did not uti-lize suspect classifications or trench upon fundamental rights; plaintiff package store franchisor failed to show it was irrational for defendant Rhode Island to enact measures aimed at preventing anticompetitive practices by ensuring that holders of Class A liquor licenses operated independently and, thus, district court’s denial of preliminary injunction prohibiting enforcement of statute was upheld. Wine & Spirits Retailers, Inc. v Rhode Island (2005, CA1 RI) 418 F3d 36, subsequent app (2007, CA1 RI) 481 F3d 1, cert den (2007) 552 US 889, 125 S Ct 274, 169 L Ed 2d 149 and reh den, reh, en banc, den (2012, CA1) 2012 US App LEXIS 18007.

State statute which directs liquor wholesalers to fix and maintain prices at which they will sell to retailers alcoholic liquor which has been transported in interstate commerce is constitutional under Twenty-first Amendment. Beckanstin v Liquor Control Com. (1953) 140 Conn 165, 99 A2d 119. Neither Commerce Clause (Art 1, § 8, cl 3) nor Twenty-First Amendment are violated by provision of state’s Discrimination in Selling Act, which provides that no brand of alcoholic liquor could be sold by manufacturers to state liquor wholesalers at any price higher than price sold to any liquor wholesaler anywhere in United States or District of Columbia during immediately preceding calendar month. United States Brewers Ass’n v Director of New Mexico Dept of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1983) 100 NM 216, 668 P2d 1093, 1983-2 CCH Trade Cases P 65750, app dismd (1984) 465 US 1095, 104 S Ct 1581, 80 L Ed 2d 115, 1984-1 CCH Trade Cases P 65902.

If state for its own sufficient reasons deems it desirable policy to standardize price of liquor within its borders, either by direct price-fixing statute or by permissive sanction of such price fixing, in order to discourage temptations of cheap liquor due to cut-throat competition, Twenty-first Amendment gives state such power, notwithstanding commerce clause. Pompei Winery, Inc. v Board of Liquor Control (1957) 167 Ohio St 61, 4 Ohio Ops 2d 29, 146 NE2d 430, cert den (1958) 356 US 357, 78 S Ct 780, reh den (1958) 357 US 915, 2 L Ed 2d 1163, 78 S Ct 1147.

24. Advertising

State’s requirement that cable television operators in state delete all advertisements for alcoholic beverages contained in out-of-state signals that they retransmit by cable to their subscribers is pre-empted by federal law, and is not saved from pre-emption by Twenty-First Amendment. Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2694, 10 Media L R 1873.

State’s complete ban on liquor price advertising abridged speech in violation of First Amendment where State failed to carry burden of justifying complete ban, and ban could not be saved by Twenty-First Amendment which does not qualify First Amendment’s prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech, but rather is limit on commerce clause. 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 116 S Ct 1495, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569.

First Amendment rights of state advertising media are not violated by intrastate ban on advertising of alcoholic beverages except for signs in interior of licensed sales premises which are not visible from exterior, since there is sufficient
Twenty-first Amendment gives state power to prohibit advertising of sale of alcoholic beverages, including advertising via television, free of limitations of commerce clause of Constitution (Article I, § 8, clause 3), Okla. Alcoholic Bev. Control Bd. v Heublein Wines, Int'l (1977, Okla) 566 P2d 1158.

25. Containers and labels

Even if distiller of whiskey had met all federal requirements with respect to bottles and labels of liquor moving in interstate commerce, there was no sound reason why additional state regulation of bottles and labels to further legitimate local policy could be said to run afoul of commerce clause, in view of vast reservoir of power bestowed upon states, under Twenty-first Amendment, to regulate liquor traffic and protect against its evils within their borders pretty much as they see fit. Boller Beverages, Inc. v Davis (1962) 38 NJ 138, 183 A2d 64.

State statute prohibiting sale of beer and ale in nonreturnable glass containers was valid under Twenty-first Amendment, even though statute applied to all sales within state without reference to import; it is not necessary that statute contain words “import” or “importation” to come within purview of Twenty-first Amendment. Anchor Hocking Glass Corp. v Barber (1954) 118 VT 206, 105 A2d 271.

26. Retaliatory prohibition of importation or sale

Michigan statute prohibiting local dealers in beer from selling any beer manufactured in state which, by its law, discriminated against beer manufactured in Michigan, was valid; since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, right of state to prohibit or regulate importation of intoxicating liquor was not limited by commerce clause, and discrimination between domestic and imported intoxicating liquors, or between imported intoxicating liquors, was not protected by equal protection clause. Indianapolis Brewing Co. v Liquor Control Com. (1939) 305 US 391, 59 S Ct 254, 83 L Ed 243 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

Under Twenty-first Amendment, Missouri could constitutionally prohibit transportation or importation into state, or purchase, sale, receipt, or possession therein by any licensee, of any alcoholic liquor manufactured in state which, by its law, discriminated against liquor manufactured in Missouri. Joseph S. Finch & Co. v McKitterick (1939) 305 US 395, 59 S Ct 256, 83 L Ed 246 (ovrd as stated in In re G. Heileman Brewing Co. (1991, BC SD NY) 128 BR 876, 21 BCD 1469, 25 CBC2d 492, CCH Bankr L Rptr P 74077) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

27. Prohibition of importation of liquor lacking patent registration

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could constitutionally prohibit manufacturer or wholesaler from importing any brand of intoxicating liquors, containing more than 25 percent of alcohol by volume, ready for sale without further processing, unless such brand was duly registered in United States Patent Office; although such statute discriminated in favor of liquor processed within state as against liquor completely processed elsewhere, discrimination against imported liquor was permissible under Twenty-first Amendment even if not incident of reasonable regulation of liquor traffic. Mahoney v Joseph Trainer Corp. (1939) 304 US 401, 58 S Ct 952, 82 L Ed 1424 (ovrd on other grounds as stated in Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 104 S Ct 3049, 82 L Ed 2d 200) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005) 544 US 460, 125 S Ct 1885, 161 L Ed 2d 796, 18 FLW Fed S 263).

28. Miscellaneous

Federal Constitution’s Twenty-First Amendment, which reserves power to states to impose restrictions on sale of liquor, does not provide independent constitutional bar to national minimum drinking age statute (23 USCS § 158) which directs Federal Secretary of Transportation to withhold percentage of otherwise allocable federal highway funds from states in which it is lawful for person who is less than 21 years of age to purchase or publicly possess any alcoholic beverage, where statute is otherwise valid exercise of Congress’ power under Federal Constitution’s spending clause; Twenty-First Amendment does not bar such conditional grant of federal funds, since (1) statute does not induce states to engage in unconstitutional activities, and (2) percentage of highway funds that are withheld from state with drinking age below 21 is relatively small, so that Congress’ program does not coerce states to enact higher minimum drinking ages than they would otherwise choose.

In contract case in which beer wholesaler appealed district court’s dismissal of its case against Russian brewer based on forum selection clause in parties’ agreement, wholesaler, on appeal, obliquely suggested that N.Y. Alco. Bev. Cont. Law § 55-c § 55-c was enacted pursuant to powers reserved to states under U.S. Const. Amend, XXI, to promote public’s interest in fair, efficient and competitive distribution of malt beverage products via regulating relationship between brewer and distributor; wholesaler’s contention concerning Twenty-first Amendment consisted of only one sentence, which was not sufficient to preserve argument for appellate review. CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

ARTICLE XX

MISCELLANEOUS SUBJECTS

§ 22. Alcoholic beverage control

The State of California, subject to the internal revenue laws of the United States, shall have the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession and transportation of alcoholic beverages within the State, and subject to the laws of the United States regulating commerce between foreign nations and among the states shall have the exclusive right and power to regulate the importation into and exportation from the State, of alcoholic beverages. In the exercise of these rights and powers, the Legislature shall not constitute the State or any agency thereof a manufacturer or seller of alcoholic beverages.

All alcoholic beverages may be bought, sold, served, consumed and otherwise disposed of in premises which shall be licensed as provided by the Legislature. In providing for the licensing of premises, the Legislature may provide for the issuance of, among other licenses, licenses for the following types of premises where the alcoholic beverages specified in the licenses may be sold and served for consumption upon the premises:

(a) For bona fide public eating places, as defined by the Legislature.

(b) For public premises in which food shall not be sold or served as in a bona fide public eating place, but upon which premises the Legislature may permit the sale or service of food products incidental to the sale and service of alcoholic beverages. No person under the age of 21 years shall be permitted to enter and remain in any such premises without lawful business therein.

(c) For public premises for the sale and service of beers alone.

(d) Under such conditions as the Legislature may impose, for railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, common carriers by air, and bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year.

The sale, furnishing, giving, or causing to be sold, furnished, or giving away of any alcoholic beverage to any person under the age of 21 years is hereby prohibited, and no person shall sell, furnish, give, or cause to be sold, furnished, or given away any alcoholic beverage to any person under the age of 21 years, and no person under the age of 21 years shall purchase any alcoholic beverage.

The Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall be the head of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, shall be appointed by the Governor subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The director may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove the director from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency. The director may appoint three persons who shall be exempt from civil service, in addition to the person he is authorized to appoint by Section 4 of Article XXIV.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall have the exclusive power, except as herein provided and in accordance with laws enacted by the Legislature, to license the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic beverages in this State, and to collect license fees or occupation taxes on account thereof. The department shall have the power, in its discretion, to deny, suspend or revoke any specific alcoholic beverage license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting or continuance of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, or that a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude. It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensee of said department to manufacture, import or sell alcoholic beverages in this State.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall consist of three members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate. Each member, at the time of his initial appointment, shall be a resident of a different county from the one in which either of the other members resides. The members of the board may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove any member from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency.

When any person aggrieved thereby appeals from a decision of the department ordering any penalty assessment, issuing, denying, transferring, suspending or revoking any license for the manufacture, importation, or sale of alcoholic beverages, the board shall review the decision subject to such limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature. In such cases, the board shall not receive evidence in addition to that considered by the department. Review by the board of a decision of the department shall be limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. In appeals where the board finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department it may enter an order remanding the matter to the department for reconsideration in the light of such evidence. In all other appeals the board shall enter an order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department. When the order reverses the decision of the department, the board may direct the reconsideration of the matter in the light of its order and may direct the department to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the order shall not limit or control in any way the discretion vested by law in the department. Orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved by such order.

A concurrent resolution for the removal of either the director or any member of the board may be introduced in the Legislature only if five Members of the Senate, or 10 Members of the Assembly, join as authors.

Until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, serving, and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages in bona fide hotels, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, and other public eating places, and in bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year, for the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, or otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages, shall be the amounts prescribed as of the operative date hereof, subject to the power of the Legislature to change such fees.

The State Board of Equalization shall assess and collect such excise taxes as are or may be imposed by the Legislature on account of the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic beverages in this State.

The Legislature may authorize, subject to reasonable restrictions, the sale in retail stores of alcoholic beverages contained in the original packages, where such alcoholic beverages are not to be consumed on the premises where sold; and may provide for the issuance of all types of licenses necessary to carry on the activities referred to in the first paragraph of this section, including, but not limited to, licenses necessary for the manufacture, production, processing, importation, transportation, wholesaling, distribution, and sale of any and all kinds of alcoholic beverages.

The Legislature shall provide for apportioning the amounts collected for license fees or occupation taxes under the provisions hereof between the State and the cities, counties and cities and counties of the State, in such manner as the Legislature may deem proper.

All constitutional provisions and laws inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

The provisions of this section shall be self-executing, but nothing herein shall prohibit the Legislature from enacting laws implementing and not inconsistent with such provisions.

This amendment shall become operative on January 1, 1957.

Editor's Notes—Const Art XXIV § 4, referred to in the fourth paragraph of § 22, was repealed June 8, 1976. See Const Art VII § 4.

1934 Amendment: Substituted the section for the former section which read: “In the event of the repeal of the State Prohibition Enforcement Law, commonly known as the Wright Act, and if and when it shall become lawful under the Constitution and laws of the United States to manufacture, sell, purchase, possess or transport intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes within the United States, the State of California, subject to the internal revenue laws of the United States, shall have the exclusive right and power to control, license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession, transportation and disposition of intoxicating liquor within the State, and, subject to the laws of the United States regulating commerce between foreign nations and among the States, shall have the exclusive right and power to control and regulate the importation into and the exportation from the State of intoxicating liquor; provided, however, no public saloon, public bar or barroom or other public drinking place where intoxicating liquors to be used for any purpose shall be kept, bought, sold, consumed or otherwise disposed of, shall ever be established, maintained or operated within the State; provided, further, subject to the above provisions, that in hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias and other public eating places, wines and beer may be served and consumed with meals furnished in good faith to the guests and patrons thereof, and the Legislature may authorize, subject to reasonable restrictions, the sale in retail stores of liquor contained in original packages, where such liquor is not to be consumed on the premises where sold.

Intoxicating liquors, other than beers, shall not be consumed, bought, sold, or otherwise disposed of for consumption on the premises, in any public saloon, public bar or public barroom within the State; provided, however, that subject to the aforesaid restriction, all intoxicating liquors may be kept and may be bought, sold, served, consumed, and otherwise disposed of in any bona fide hotel, restaurant, cafe, cafeteria, railroad dining or club car, passenger ship, or other public eating place, or in any bona fide club after such club has been lawfully operated for not less than one year. The State Board of Equalization shall have the exclusive power to license the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors in this State, and to collect license fees or occupation taxes on account thereof and shall have the power, in its discretion, to deny or revoke any specific liquor license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting or continuance of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensee of said board to manufacture, import or sell intoxicating liquors in this State. Until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, serving, and otherwise disposing of intoxicating liquors in bona fide hotels, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, and other public eating places, and in bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year, and the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, serving, and otherwise disposing of beers on any premises open to the general public shall be licensed and regulated under the applicable provisions of the so-called State Liquor Control Act, California Statutes 1933, Chapter 658, insofar as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, and excepting that the license fee to be charged for intoxicating liquors in bona fide clubs, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, and other public eating places, and any bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year, for the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, or otherwise disposing of intoxicating liquors other than beers and wines, shall be $250 per year, or $62.50 per quarter–annum for seasonal businesses, subject to the power of the State Board of Equalization to change such fees.

The Legislature may authorize, subject to reasonable restrictions, the sale in retail stores of liquor contained in the original packages, where such liquor is not to be consumed on the premises where sold.

Prohibited presence of persons under age of 21 years on “public premises” of holder of license to sell alcoholic beverages on such premises; application of prohibition during closing hours from 2 o’clock a.m. to 6 a.m. 55 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 342.

Operator of commercial enterprise who offers and provides complimentary alcoholic beverages to any interested adult guest, customer or passenger of the business or service while at the same time charging for product provided or service rendered will be deemed to have “sold” alcoholic beverages, thereby necessitating alcoholic beverage license. 68 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 263.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is not authorized to adopt a regulation allowing a retail licensee to transport tax paid alcoholic beverages to the retailer’s out-of-state Free Port warehouse for “temporary retention” prior to delivery to retailer’s licensed premises in California if such retention constitutes storage; the department is not authorized to adopt a regulation allowing a retail licensee to transport alcoholic beverages stored by the retailer in a Free Port warehouse facility outside the state to the retailer’s licensed premises in California. 69 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 191.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is authorized under California Constitution to revoke private club license on basis of discriminatory membership practices upon independent determination for good cause that continuance of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. 70 Ops. The 1967 Amendments to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (B & P C §§ 23089 et seq.), vesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review or stay the operation of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, are not unconstitutional as an unauthorized legislative attempt to curtail the constitutional jurisdiction of the superior courts, where Art XX § 222, providing that orders of the Board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved, does not specify the court in which review is to be obtained nor the procedure therefor, and where the new provisions on judicial review do not burden or impair the right of an aggrieved party to obtain the judicial review guaranteed by the Constitution. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

A city ordinance requiring retailers to collect deposits on certain refillable and nonrefillable beer containers was not preempted by provisions of the state Constitution reserving to the state the exclusive right to regulate the sale of alcoholic beverages (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), where the ordinance did not purport to regulate the sale of alcoholic beverages and thus did not stand in the field occupied by Cal. Const., art. XX. It does not appear that the Legislature intended that a person whose license to sell liquor should be immune from supervision, by local government, of any other activity the licensee might pursue in connection with the sale of liquor. Park & Shop Markets, Inc. v. City of Berkeley (1981, Cal App 1st Dist) 116 Cal App 3d 78, 172 Cal Rptr 515, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 1429.

Use by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of an administrative law judge appointed by the director to consider the merits of cases the Department brings, coupled with judicial review as provided for in B & P C § 23090, does not violate a liquor store's constitutional due process and equal protection rights because the California Constitution vests exclusive power in the Department, in accordance with laws enacted by the Legislature, to regulate the manufacture, importation, and sale of alcoholic beverages, and the Department's power includes broad discretion to deny, suspend or revoke any specific alcoholic beverages license for good cause if it determines that permitting a party to hold a license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, or that the party has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude. CMPB Friends, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 2d Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1250, 122 Cal Rptr 2d 914, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4848.

2. Construction

Art XX § 22 by its terms does not become effective until the Wright Act is repealed; and the repeal of the Wright Act alone was not sufficient to make such section operative. People v. Draper (1933, Cal App Dept Super Ct) 134 Cal App 787, 134 Cal App 4th Supp 787, 22 P2d 604, 1933 Cal App LEXIS 854. The question whether a sandwich, consumed or unconsumed, when served with wine or beer, is a meal as contemplated by Art XX § 22 and the Act of 1933 is one of fact depending on the circumstances: if the sandwich be served as a mere subterfuge for a meal it is not such a meal, but if it is served in good faith as a meal the fact that it is not consumed does not as a matter of law classify it as lacking the essential characteristics of a meal. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 33 P2d 1009, 1934 Cal LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 956.

The initiative measure which added Art XX § 22 to its own terms did not become effective until the happening of certain events, and where one of said events had not taken place, the provisions of said section could not be held to declare the public policy of the State or the intention of the people adopting it, until its operative date. Los Angeles Brewing Co. v. Los Angeles (1935, Cal App) 8 Cal App 2d 379, 48 P2d 65, 1935 Cal App LEXIS 670.

The Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Act of 1915 was neither expressly nor impliedly repealed, either by Art XX § 22 or by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of 1935. Hammond v. McDonald (1939, Cal App) 32 Cal App 2d 187, 89 P2d 407, 1939 Cal App LEXIS 334.

In the absence of any definition of the terms used in Art XX § 22, as amended in 1934, the words, having no technical meaning, will be taken in the ordinary and generally accepted sense: “saloon” and “barroom” as used in connection with the sale of intoxicating liquors import a place where such liquors are sold for consumption on the premises; a restaurant is “a public eating house,” and is so regarded in the constitutional provision for the enumeration and taxing of such places. But where it is there followed by the words, “no other public eating place,” Hammond v. McDonald (1942, Cal App) 49 Cal App 2d 671, 122 P2d 332, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 866.

In an action to abate a liquor nuisance, even though the sales of intoxicating liquor by defendants in their restaurant were not in violation of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, they would not for that reason be excluded from operation of the Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Law of 1915, if the restaurant was not a bona fide one and the sales were therefore in direct contravention of Art XX § 22, as amended in 1934. Hammond v. McDonald (1942, Cal App) 49 Cal App 2d 671, 122 P2d 332, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 866.

3. Alcoholic Beverages

A city ordinance, adopted in 1922, which provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to sell any spirituous, vinous, malt or other alcoholic liquor within the city, was not invalid when adopted because of uncertainty in its meaning in failing to define “alcoholic liquor,” and “spirituous, vinous, malt or other alcoholic liquor” have not become so obsolete during the years since passage of the ordinance that its provisions have become uncertain. People v. Draper (1933, Cal App Dept Super Ct) 134 Cal App 787, 134 Cal App 4th Supp 787, 22 P2d 604, 1933 Cal App LEXIS 854.

Under the plain terms of Art XX § 22 intoxicating liquors other than wine and beer may not under any circumstances lawfully be consumed in hotel dining rooms or other public drinking places, in whatsoever manner said liquor may be supplied, and wine and beer may be consumed in the public places specified by the Liquor Control Act of 1933 only with meals. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 33 P2d 1009, 1934 Cal LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 956.
Neither by the terms of the Liquor Control Act nor by legal definition, nor by common understanding of the word, can beverages sought to be sold as "wines," but consisting of a combination of wine, alcohol, flavoring and water, with the added alcohol being three times as much as the wine, be fairly or properly designated as "wines." Tux Ginger Ale Co. v. Davis (1936, Cal App) 12 Cal App 2d 73, 54 P2d 1122, 1936 Cal App LEXIS 979.

Alcoholic concoctions resulting from mixture of fruit juices and certain other ingredients such as alcohol or brandy are "distilled spirits" rather than wine, and are taxable as such. People v. Tux Winery Co. (1937, Cal App) 21 Cal App 2d 586, 69 P2d 876, 1937 Cal App LEXIS 322.

B & P C § 24200.5, authorizing revocation of a liquor license if the licensee employs or permits any person "to solicit or encourage others, ... to buy them drinks in the licensed premises ..." for compensation, authorizes the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a liquor license although the drink solicited is orange juice, since the statute refers to "drinks" and makes no requirement that they be "alcoholic." Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

4. State Board of Equalization

Art XX § 22 gives the State Board broad discretionary powers in the matter of granting or refusing liquor licenses: whether or not "good cause" for denial of a license exists is a matter for determination by the board, and not by the courts. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

In exercising power which State Board of Equalization has under this section to deny, in its discretion, "any specific liquor license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting ... of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals," the board performs a quasi judicial function similar to that of the courts with respect to decisions in a civil action. Ebell v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 256 P2d 1, 1953 Cal LEXIS 236; Chosick v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 125 Cal App 2d 334, 270 P2d 547, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1886.

Since the State Board of Equalization with respect to its functions in controlling and regulating the sale and use of intoxicating beverages is a constitutional agency (prior to the adoption of the 1956 amendment to Art XX § 22), it is subject to the control of a court in determining what is contrary to public welfare or morals. That it may not suspend or revoke liquor licenses is implied by Art XX § 22, which vests such power in the courts. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverages Appeals Board (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

Discretion to be exercised by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Art XX § 22, is not absolute but must be exercised in accordance with the law, and provision that it may revoke or deny a license for "good cause" necessarily implies that its decisions should be based on sufficient evidence and that it should act arbitrarily in determining what is contrary to public welfare and morals. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 39 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268; Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971; Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal LEXIS 314.

Though Art XX § 22, appears to give the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control exclusive control over alcoholic beverage licenses, it cannot interfere with the duty cast on the State Personnel Board by Art XXIV § 3, to administer and enforce any and all laws relating to civil service, including Gov C § 19572, which establishes dishonesty and other failure of good moral character or conduct either during or outside of duty hours as cause for discipline of a civil service employee; that an employee's conduct might also be cause for discipline under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act cannot detract from the board's power to enforce § 19572. Gee v. California State Personnel Board (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 5 Cal App 3d 713, 85 Cal Rptr 762, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 1474.
Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, purportedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that, allegedly, sole ground for revocation was presence of bisexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USC §§ 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1973 US App LEXIS 8706, cert. denied, (1974) 94 S Ct 1413, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

Under constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 24755) invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal 3d 431, 146 Cal Rptr 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978 Cal LEXIS 238, 96 ALR3d 613.

Under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 and Bus. & Prof. Code, § 24200, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is expressly empowered to either suspend or revoke an issued license. The propriety of the penalty to be imposed rests solely within the discretion of the department whose determination may not be disturbed in the absence of a showing of palpable errors. The fact that unconditional revocation may appear too harsh a penalty does not entitle a reviewing agency or court to substitute its own judgment therein; nor does the circumstance of forfeiture of the interest of an otherwise innocent colicenessee sanction a different and less drastic penalty. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 285, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1759.

It is the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and not the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board or the courts, which must determine whether “good cause” exists for denying an alcoholic beverage license upon the ground that its issuance would be contrary to the public welfare or morals. The reviewing body determines whether or not the department acted arbitrarily in making its decision. If the decision is without reason under the evidence, the action of the department constitutes an abuse of discretion and may be set aside. But where the decision is the subject of a choice within reason, the department is vested with the discretion of making the selection which it deems proper, its action is within the scope of a valid exercise of the constitutionally conferred discretion (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), and neither the board nor the courts may interfere therewith. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 133 Cal App 3d 814, 184 Cal Rptr 367, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1759.

Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 (alcoholic beverage control), vests the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with broad discretion to revoke or suspend a liquor license for good cause if continuing the license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. In the absence of a clear abuse of discretion, the courts will uphold the department’s decision to suspend a liquor license for violation of the liquor laws. Provigo Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 601, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

It is well within the authority conferred on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const Art XX § 22, par. 9, 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, par. 9, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to enter an order suspending and revoking an on-sale liquor license under B & P C §§ 23090, 23090.2 applies to the Department’s discretionary powers to suspend a licensee because all of the Department’s powers derive from Cal Const Art XX 22. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

Same deferential standard of review applicable to revocations, grants, or denials of alcoholic beverage licenses by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C §§ 23090, 23090.2 applies to the Department’s discretionary powers to determine whether there is good cause to suspend a license because all of the Department’s powers derive from Cal Const Art XX 22. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s practice of allowing its ultimate decisionmaker to have access to prosecuting attorneys’ reports of hearing violates statutory prohibitions against ex parte communications. The practice is improper regardless of whether the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board adopts the Department’s decision. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 295, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

6. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board

B & P C § 23086, requiring the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to enter its order within a certain time, is not applicable to its dismissal of a purported appeal that was filed beyond the time specified in § 23081, and was never perfected. Hollywood Circle, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 523, 314 P2d 1007, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1526, cert. denied, (1958) 356 US 902, 78 S Ct 562, 2 L Ed 2d 580, 1958 US LEXIS 1394, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Where a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending and revoking an on-sale liquor license was not appealed within the time allowed by law to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, the licensees failed to exhaust their administrative remedies and were not entitled to judicial review of the order complained of. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 817, 318 P2d 686, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1361, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235; Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is a party aggrieved by a judgment of the superior court ordering the issuance of a writ of mandate commanding the appeals board to vacate its decision setting aside an order of the State Board of Equalization. Koehn v. State Board of Equalization (1958) 50 Cal 2d 432, 326 P2d 502, 1958 Cal LEXIS 166.

Under the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, creating the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and prescribing the powers of the Department to create an “order” or of the Appeals Board ordinarily to enter only “an order,” either affirming or reversing the decision of the department,” depending on its determination of the questions of excess of jurisdiction by the department and sufficiency of evidence and findings to support the decision of the department. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.
Provision in the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall determine “whether the findings (of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control) are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record,” signifies no more than adoption of the “substantial evidence” rule, as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this state, rather than the “scintilla” rule which has been applied in judicial proceedings in some other jurisdictions. Martin v. Alcoholic B. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal.2d 238, 340 P.2d 1, 1959 Cal. LEXIS 197.

The same limitation expressly declared in CCP § 1094.5(e), that the court’s “judgment shall not limit on control in any way the discretion legally vested” in an administrative agency, is applicable to the power of the Alcoholic Control Appeals Board in reviewing the propriety of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on the penalty, which the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, has placed in the discretion of the department. Martin v. Alcoholic B. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal.2d 287, 341 P.2d 296, 1959 Cal. LEXIS 203.

The powers conferred on the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board under this section and B & P C § 23084 are strictly limited and no greater than those previously exercised by the courts on judicial review of the decisions of the State Board of Equalization. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal.App.1st Dist) 212 Cal.App.2d 106, 28 Cal.Rptr 74, 1963 Cal.App.LEXIS 2221.

The power of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in reviewing a licensing decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 23084, 23085). Rice v. Alcoholic B. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1978, Cal.App.1st Dist) 79 Cal.App.3d 372, 144 Cal.Rptr 51, 1978 Cal.App.LEXIS 1381.

Finding that a business was a nuisance under the Unlawful Liquor Sale Abatement Law, Pen C §§ 11200-11207, based on sales of alcohol to obviously intoxicated persons, did not impede the jurisdiction of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Cal Const Art XX § 22(d), B & P C § 25602.2. An injunction was also not an improper interference because the restrictions were designed to prevent future sales to obviously intoxicated persons and abate the nuisance, not to restrict the right to sell alcohol to willing purchasers. People v. Schlimbach (2011, 2d Dist) 193 Cal.App.4th 1132, 2011 Cal.App.LEXIS 353.

Exclusive jurisdiction of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Cal Const Art XX § 22(d) does not prevent either a nuisance abatement action under the Unlawful Liquor Sale Abatement Act, Pen C §§ 11200-11207, or entry of an injunction that affects the licensee’s business, when the injunction does not directly affect the licensee’s ability to sell alcoholic beverages to a willing purchaser. People v. Schlimbach (2011, 2d Dist) 193 Cal.App.4th 1132, 2011 Cal.App.LEXIS 353.

7. Licenses and Licensees Generally

A seasonal business within the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, is a business located in a seasonal area in which consumer demand fluctuates during different periods of the year, and to qualify a license the business need not be closed and locked during any part of the year. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App.2d 41, 229 P.2d 9, 1951 Cal.App.LEXIS 1121.

Each applicant for a liquor license must provide the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with certain information with reference to the applicant’s background, crime record, status and other data (B & P C §§ 23950-23958), and must subject himself and the premises where the business will be conducted to a thorough investigation. Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1960, Cal.App.2d Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 873, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2413, cert. denied, (1960) 364 US 870, 81 S Ct 112, 5 L Ed 2d 92, 1960 US LEXIS 325.

The duty to enforce and administer B & P C § 23793, prohibiting the transfer of a retail liquor license to premises within 200 feet of existing premises so licensed, is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with a broad range of discretion, and unless its method of measuring to ascertain the distance between premises was without jurisdiction or contrary to law, its decision must be sustained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal.App.2d Dist) 198 Cal.App.2d 24, 47 Cal.Rptr 424, 1965 Cal.App.LEXIS 1106.

In a hearing on an application for transfer of an on-sale retail liquor license for operation of a bar, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s finding that the proposed premises would appeal to all segments of the community including many residents and business people in the area who were presently reluctant to enter other bars in the vicinity was supported by substantial evidence, and it could not be said on judicial review that the department abused its constitutional or statutory discretion in considering that fact as an aspect of public convenience (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 23958), or in concluding that, on balance, the sale of alcoholic beverages at the proposed premises would not be contrary to public welfare or public morals as that term is used in the agency’s constitutional mandate. Sepatis v. Alcoholic B. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1980, Cal.App.1st Dist) 110 Cal.App.3d 93, 167 Cal.Rptr 729, 1980 Cal.App.LEXIS 2229.

8. Issuance of Licenses

Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Sec 38f, which limits the number of on-sale general liquor licenses issued to one for each 1,000 inhabitants, does not apply such limitation to on-sale seasonal liquor licenses. Johnstone v. State Bd. of Equalization (1950, Cal.App.) 95 Cal.App.2d 527, 215 P.2d 429, 1950 Cal.App.LEXIS 994.

While the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may refuse an “on-sale” liquor license if the premises are in the immediate vicinity of a church (B & P C § 23789), there is no such provision or regulation by the department as to “off-sale” licenses; nevertheless proximity of the licensed premises to a church may supply an adequate basis for denial of an “off-sale” liquor license; nevertheless proximity of the licensed premises to a church may supply an adequate basis for denial of an “off-sale” license as being inimical to public morals and welfare. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal.App.2d Dist) 153 Cal.App.2d 858, 315 P.2d 459, 1957 Cal.App.LEXIS 1570.

Provision in the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall determine “whether the findings (of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control) are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record,” signifies no more than adoption of the “scintilla of evidence” rule, as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this state, rather than the “scintilla rule” which has been applied in judicial proceedings in some other jurisdictions. Martin v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

Ordinarily the ultimate fact for determination by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in passing on an application for a license, or for transfer of a license, is whether the granting “would be contrary to public welfare or morals,” if the department makes a finding that the granting of the application “would be contrary to public welfare,” and there is substantial evidence to show “good cause” for such determination, the finding must be sustained. Martin v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 259, 341 P2d 291, 1959 Cal LEXIS 199.

In considering sufficiency of evidence in proceeding to review decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting denial of license, court is governed by substantial evidence rule generally applied in judicial proceedings; any conflict is resolved in favor of decision, and every reasonably deductible inference in support thereof will be indulged. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 348, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 632.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may consider presence of schools or playgrounds in vicinity of premises seeking either an on-sale or off-sale liquor license in determining whether issuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, regardless of any legislative expression of policy on subject. Bailey v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 348, 20 Cal Rptr 264, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2599.

Cal Adm C tit 4 § 61.1, promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of a university unless the Department is satisfied that the location of the premises is sufficiently distant from the campus and the nature of the licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void, being in conflict with Penal C § 172e, removing the restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to bona fide public eating places. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 2d 479, 45 Cal Rptr 450, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 947.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts’ as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal LEXIS 314.

Convictions of the crimes of possessing cocaine or marijuana for purposes of sale, crimes whose elements include a specific intent to sell the prohibited substances, or to distribute, are cases, constituting a public offense involving moral turpitude as a matter of law within the meaning of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the power to deny, suspend or revoke an alcoholic beverage license if a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude, and within the meaning of Bus. & Prof. Code, § 24200, which authorizes the department to suspend or revoke a license on the basis of a judgment of guilt to any public offense involving moral turpitude. Conviction of such an offense justifies the imposition of administrative sanctions, without a further showing of unfitness or unsuitability or its effect upon the conduct of the licensed business. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 265, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1356.

9. Proper and Improper Denial of License

The exercise of discretion of the State Board in denying a liquor license was not abused where applicant proposed to sell liquor in a community the deeds in which contained restrictive covenants against selling liquor, and where the city was a purely residential center. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not act arbitrarily, nor abuse its discretion, in finding that the issuance of an off-sale license to sell beer and wine would be contrary to public welfare and morals based on evidence, as to which there could be a reasonable difference of opinion, that the applicant’s store, which was 200 feet from a school and which was patronized by approximately 20 children a day, proposed to change its operation to selling take-out food including beer and wine to customers, including children who were permitted to leave the school premises for lunch, during several hours a day that the school was open. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

As a ground for denying a liquor license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department’s finding that “some of the school children pass by, as well as frequent,” the applicant’s supermarket was not in itself substantial evidence that the issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet across the street from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by “lawful pedestrian feet,” where an afternoon check showed that only 17 out of 139 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior advertisements on liquor, experienced no problem of thefts by children of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

There was no substantial evidence that the issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a supermarket should be denied, as being contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department found that an elementary school in the immediate vicinity (a purely commercial district) had a present problem with persons consuming alcoholic beverages nearby and that the license would aggravate the problem, no eyewitness or expert testimony was adduced, where the testimony that the school grounds were sometimes littered with empty liquor bottles, beer cans and wine bottles failed to show how the litter was attributable to the store, not licensed, or even to the two licensed stores within 900 feet of the school, and where testimony of the dangers to be expected from such undesirable practices, was not given. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience-type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals were supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an average daily attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where there were already 11 licensed outlets of the off-sale type within a mile of the school, and where the applicant’s beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

On administrative review of a denial by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of an application by a “disco” music establishment for a beer and wine license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly concluded the department’s determination that issuance of a license would create a law enforcement problem and would be contrary to the public welfare and morals was not supported by the department’s findings that “disturbances” would sometimes occur when several hundred young persons were gathered together in the described surroundings, despite the establishment’s employment of a security force. Whatever the precise parameters of the law enforcement problems contemplated by the statute permitting the denial of a license that would tend to create a law enforcement problem, the department’s reliance on a finding that “disturbances” of undetermined severity would “sometimes” in the indefinite future occur reflected too sweeping a view of what constitutes “good cause” within the meaning of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, requiring “good cause” for the denial of a license. Also, the department’s finding that police officers could not respond quickly to the establishment due to its remote location and the limited number of officers was not supported by the evidence. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 3d Dist) 122 Cal App 3d 549, 175 Cal Rptr 342, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 2048.

10. Suspension of Licenses Generally

A liquor license does not automatically become void, beyond any possibility of revival, whenever licensee fails to sell food on the premises as the language of Art XX § 22 indicates that some action by the State Board is necessary before a license is terminated; under such § 22, the Board is empowered to suspend as well as to revoke a license. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

The fact that when a hearing officer recommended suspension of a liquor license he was an employee of the State Board of Equalization did not deprive the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, to which the pertinent powers of the State Board of Equalization were transferred, of the power to adopt his findings and to order suspension of the license. Bric v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

In the exercise of its discretion the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control can properly consider violations of statutory provisions concerning alcoholic beverages or of rules of the department as good cause for suspension of licenses. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 33 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, the interpretation placed on a written instrument by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where extrinsic evidence has not been resorted to though not binding on appeal, will be accepted by the appellate court where such interpretation is reasonable, or where such interpretation is one of two or more reasonable constructions of the instrument; moreover, where no extrinsic evidence is considered by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in aid of its interpretation of a written instrument, the construction is one of law, and the appellate court is not bound by the Department’s interpretation of the instrument. Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

In a proceeding to suspend a corporation’s liquor license, a finding that the licensee’s sole stockholder and president “is” an unfit and improper person to hold an alcoholic beverage license by reason of his record of arrests and convictions sufficiently established, for review purposes, that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not believe that he was rehabilitated or fit, at the time of decision, to hold a license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 689, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable and necessary limitations including the department’s decision for suspension of a liquor license. B & P C § 24755.1 provides for suspension of a liquor license on findings that the minor was 21, and where, notwithstanding the birth date on the card had been altered, there was no substantial support for the State Board of Equalization’s suspension on finding that the alteration should have been apparent from a reasonably careful inspection, where there was no finding that the licensee acted in bad faith or discovered the alteration, where the card accurately described the minor, and where his physical appearance was that of a person who might be under or over 21. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

In a proceeding for suspension of a liquor license for sale of intoxicating beverages to a minor and allowing the minor to consume them on the licensed premises, the evidence was sufficient to sustain a ruling suspending the license where it showed that the minor was too young in appearance to be 21 years old, that she weighed 19 pounds more than the person described in the identification which she presented, and that she was three and one-half years younger than such person and had blue eyes instead of hazel. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Although bookmaking and gambling are not specifically set as grounds for suspension and revocation of a liquor license, a finding that a single act of bookmaking by a bartender has taken place on the licensed premises is sufficient to support revocation; revocation and suspension were supported by evidence that the licensees’ bartender was engaged in taking bets on horse races and that he was paying off in cash on winning combinations on mechanical gambling devices, since the bartender’s knowledge of such illegal gambling activities on the licensed premises was imputed to the licensees and they were responsible for his acts, it being immaterial that the licensees may have had no actual knowledge of such illegal activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

It is not the past conduct, immoral character or bad reputation of a patron that subjects an on-sale licensee to discipline, but the patron’s present act and condition that offends both the law and public decency; presence of drunkard in a public tavern is an illegal act, and as such mere fact that intoxicated persons were arrested on licensed premises on police “roundups” was evidence of violations of the law though the police were not summoned by the licensee or for any disturbance by such intoxicated persons. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, for retail sales at less than the fair trade price, a finding of the hearing officer that the fair trade contracts were duly filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control raised a presumption that “fair and open” competition was ascertained and found by the Department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

The suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was proper where a relief bartender accepted a bet on a horse race while employed on the licensed premises, despite the fact that there was no evidence that the act was anything but an isolated transaction which occurred at a time when the general manager of the licensed premises, who was in charge of the cocktail lounge, was not on the premises, and neither the manager nor any other responsible officer of the licensee had actual knowledge of the bartender’s bookmaking offense, knowledge of the offense being imputed to the licensee, and evidence that the bartender committed the act of bookmaking being “substantial evidence” that the licensee “permitted and suffered” its employee to commit that act. Keimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 641, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1530.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control correctly decided that a licensee’s license to conduct a bar should be suspended for the period of one year pursuant to B & P C § 24200(d), providing for suspension of license upon conviction of a public offense involving moral turpitude, where the department properly found, after a formal hearing, that the licensee’s conviction in the United States District Court of defrauding the government through the filing of knowingly false income tax returns involved moral turpitude, and that the judgment of conviction had become final after appeal in the federal courts. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

A rule promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to its exclusive power to license and regulate the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state under Cal Const, art. XX, § 22, which regulated “topless” and “bottomless” exposure on licensed premises, was valid and did not conflict with Pen. Code, §§ 318.5 and 318.6, which permit cities and counties to adopt penal ordinances regulating “topless” and “bottomless” exposure in establishments serving food or beverages, and other public places. Furthermore, the rule did not nullify the effect of the legislative enactment, since the rule was promulgated pursuant to the department’s constitutional authority to regulate the sale of drinks in premises with licenses, and thus no issue of preemption was involved. Accordingly, decisions of the department suspending the on-sale liquor licenses of nightclubs for violations of the department rule were valid. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. (1975, Cal App 1st Dist) 47 Cal App 3d 360, 120 Cal Rptr 847, 1975 Cal App LEXIS 1027.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board did not abuse its discretion in upholding the suspensions of the liquor licenses of two grocery stores for selling alcohol to minors in violation of Bus. & Prof. Code, § 25658(a), where the stores had sold alcoholic beverages to minors acting as police decoys. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, prohibits the sale to, or purchase by, minors of alcoholic beverages, the Constitution does not preclude the use of minors as decoys. An interpretation allowing the use of decoys promotes the intent of the constitutional provision to protect minors from harm associated with the consumption of alcohol. To provide licensees a defense based on the use of underage decoys would produce an absurd result. Also, although the Legislature rejected a proposal that would have granted immunity for underage persons who buy alcohol at the direction of peace officers, unpassed bills have little value as evidence of legislative intent. Further, even if the stores were not knowingly engaged in illicit activity, the mature-looking underage decoys did nothing to induce them to violate the law, and routinely checking identification of all purchasers would not have been unduly burdensome. Provigo Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 638, 869 P2d 1163, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board abused its discretion in affirming a suspension of a market’s liquor license based on a single illegal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol by an on-duty employee of the market without the market’s knowledge. The single criminal act of food stamp sales was insufficient to justify the suspension based on the market’s knowledge of any other criminal activity on the licensed premises, since the market had accurate identification of any minor, and the food stamp sales had little value as evidence of legislative intent. Further, even if the stores were not knowingly engaged in illicit activity, the mature-looking underage decoys did nothing to induce them to violate the law, and routinely checking identification of all purchasers would not have been unduly burdensome. Provigo Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 638, 869 P2d 1163, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

unrelated to the sale of alcohol, the licensee has taken strong steps to prevent and deter such crime and is unaware of it before the fact, suspension of the license simply has no rational effect on public welfare or public morals. A peremptory writ of mandate compelling the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to vacate its decision to suspend a corporation's liquor license was improperly issued where uncontradicted evidence of the arrests and convictions of the licensee's sole stockholder and president supported findings of his unfitness to hold an alcoholic beverage license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

12. Revocation of Licenses Generally

A liquor license does not automatically become void, beyond any possibility of revival, whenever licensee fails to sell food on the premises, as the language of Art XX § 22 indicates that some action by the State Board is necessary before termination. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

A finding of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that a licensee had repeatedly violated B & P C §§ 23300, 23355, 23951, 23953, was tantamount to a finding that continuation of the license would be “contrary to public welfare.” Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

A decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license on each of the several counts of the accusation is a valid revocation if any single count can be sustained. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931; Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

13. Appropriate and Inappropriate Revocations

A revocation of a corporation's liquor license on the ground that the corporation was managed by two persons who, because of police records (a history of narcotics violation convictions extending over approximately 12 years in the case of one, and approximately 19 years in the case of the other), could not themselves qualify as licensees, was sustained by evidence that both persons were authorized to sign checks and contracts for the corporation, that one owned one-third of the corporation stock and that the other's son, the vice-president of the corporation, had given the father a power of attorney to do anything in relation to ownership of the corporation. Ciro's of San Francisco v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 636, 299 P2d 703, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2028.
A liquor license held in the name of a corporation may be revoked for the illegal conduct of two individuals as sole stockholders, though their acts were committed off the licensed premises where no minutes of the corporation were kept, no meetings were held by the stockholders or any officers of the corporation, and the two individuals considered themselves as the only owners and that they could do as they pleased in the management and control of the licensed business, since they were the real parties involved and were the alter ego of the corporation, and their acts were also the acts of the corporation.

In a mandamus proceeding to compel the State Board of Equalization to annul its decision revoking a liquor license, a finding that the licensee participated in procuring, counseling and assisting lewd shows at premises owned and controlled by him was sustained from his admitted knowledge that lewd performances had been given there on several past occasions, from his former association with the man who rented the place from him, from his failure at any time to do anything to stop the lewd performances, and from the fact that because of the rental terms he was to some extent a partner in the enterprise.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was not under a misapprehension as to the facts or the law in finding that the licensee was convicted of taking bets on the licensed premises in "violation of Penal C § 337a subd 3 ..., a felony, as charged in the information," and it did not appear that any such misapprehension led into the determination that the conviction of the licensee holding of a license by the licensee would be contrary to public welfare or morals or contributed to the decision that the license should be revoked rather than suspended, where the Department's decision was based on the acts committed by the licensee which constituted a violation of the code section and on the fact that he had been convicted of the violation rather than on any determination that the crime was a felony or a misdemeanor.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse its discretion in revoking the general on-sale liquor license of a licensee where he repeatedly failed on each of several occasions for renewal of the license to disclose that the business was in fact operated by a partnership. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal LEXIS 203.

An accusation that "the portions of premises of liquor licensees, have been and still are a resort for sexual perverts," is insufficient to charge the licensees with conduct subjecting their license to revocation other than pursuant to B & P C § 24208(b); to sustain revocation of the license under Art XX § 22, on the ground that its continuance would be contrary to public welfare or morals, would violate due process of law in view of limited charge contained in the accusation and findings made thereon. Vallerga v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 313, 1 Cal Rptr 494, 347 P2d 908, 1959 Cal LEXIS 349.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse its discretion in revoking the general on-sale liquor license of a licensee where the conduct for which the license was revoked, namely, the taking of unlawful bets on horse races at the licensed premises, constituted a crime under the state laws and was thus at least technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

Revocation of a liquor license authorizing revocation for engaging in or permitting any person to solicit drinks on the licensed premises for compensation, was supported by evidence that a bar girl asked agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to buy her drinks, which they consented to do and that drinks at exorbitant prices were served to her; revocation was supported by further evidence that the licensee paid the bar girl who solicited the drinks a salary, permitted her to solicit drinks from patrons, and kept track roughly of the solicited drinks for the purpose of seeing that the girl had "friends." Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

Revocation of the licensees' liquor license for allowing known prostitutes to enter and remain in the licensed premises and there solicit acts of prostitution was supported by the testimony of two agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and that while in the licensees' bar they were each asked by female patrons to engage in acts of prostitution, that the bartender not only permitted the acts and conduct alleged but also aided and abetted them. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 292, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal LEXIS 2228.

Revocation of the licensee's license was arbitrary because "legions" of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where a claim of liquor licensees that revocation of their license was arbitrary because "legions" of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where proceedings against other licensees are not a part of the record before the appellate court and thus there is nothing to show what charges were made or what evidence produced in the other cases; in any event, there is no requirement that charges similar in nature must result in identical penalties. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

In proceeding to revoke an on-sale liquor license, findings that there had been misconduct on the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601, concerning the keeping of a disorderly house, need not specify that the misconduct occurred within the, conscious presence of the licensee or his employees. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

A claim of liquor licensees that revocation of their license was arbitrary because "legions" of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where proceedings against other licensees are not a part of the record before the appellate court and thus there is nothing to show what charges were made or what evidence produced in the other cases; in any event, there is no requirement that charges similar in nature must result in identical penalties. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

In a proceeding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a corporate liquor license, good cause for the revocation of the license was not shown where, though it appeared that the licensee’s president and sole shareholder had an arrest record involving the intemperate use of alcoholic beverages, there was no evidence that his offenses had an actual effect on the conduct of the licensed business, nor was there any rational relationship between the offenses and the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals, and where there was no substantial evidence that continuation of the license would be contrary to the public welfare or morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

The structuring of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license resulted in a failure to make any findings as to the portion of the accusation alleging that the licensee, who was employed as a "waitress," had "offered to receive stolen property from miscreants," and that such factual recitation was prefaced by the introductory statement that the licensee had "been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, as follows": findings by implication cannot be substituted for specific findings when they are required. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that injured public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 590.

The employment of "topless" waitresses and the distribution of their photographs to a liquor licensee’s patrons was not illegal per se or in violation of any duly issued rule or regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; and though it is not entirely implausible that "topless" waitresses present the same danger of exploitation of customers that "B-Girls" did, it is insufficient as a ground for revocation of a license where there is no evidence that the waitresses have solicited customers to purchase drinks for them or that the licensee knowingly bought and received stolen merchandise, such factual recitation was prefaced by the introductory statement that the licensee had "been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, as follows": findings by implication cannot be substituted for specific findings when they are required. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, purportedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that, allegedly, sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USC § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1975 US App LEXIS 8706, cert. denied, (1974) 94 S Ct 1413, 39 L.Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly determined to revoke the license of a business establishment licensed to sell liquor on public premises based on a finding that the licensee had engaged in a sexually discriminatory admittance policy. Apart from testimony of the licensee’s own personnel which chronicled their conceded attempts to dissuade potential male customers, the testimony of the department investigators and the licensee’s advertisements placed in a newspaper clearly constituted substantial evidence upon which to base a finding of a sexually discriminatory admittance policy. Such discrimination having been established, the department’s authority to revoke the liquor license was clear. Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, vests in the department the power to revoke “any specific alcoholic beverage license if it shall determine for good cause that … continuation of such license would be contrary to the public welfare …” The aforesaid public policy is set forth in Civ. Code, § 51 (the Unruh Civil Rights Act), which provides that “[a]ll persons within the jurisdiction of this state are free and equal, and no matter what their sex… are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever.” Easebe Enterprises, Inc. v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1983, Cal App 2d Dist) 141 Cal App 3d 981, 190 Cal Rptr 678, 1983 Cal App LEXIS 1596, 38 ALR4th 322.

14. Importation, Manufacture, Transportation

Where licensed manufacturer of distilled spirits which also held distilled spirits wholesaler’s license under B & P C § 23774 exempting certain persons from provisions of §§ 23771, 23772, was acquired by merger of another manufacturer of distilled spirits not otherwise able to possess wholesaler’s license, later manufacturer was not, through such merger, entitled to possess wholesaler’s license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964) 61 Cal 2d 305, 38 Cal Rptr 409, 392 P2d 1, 1964 Cal LEXIS 202.

Penal C § 367(d), making it unlawful to operate a motor vehicle while intoxicated, is included within scope of Veh C § 13352(e), providing for suspension of driving privileges. Wallace v. Department of Motor Vehicles (1970, Cal App 2d Dist) 12 Cal App 3d 356, 90 Cal Rptr 657, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 1632.

Provisions of B & P C § 23661, exempting from taxation quantities of alcoholic beverages imported into California, as prescribed by federal law, are controlled by any and all determinations of the referenced federal law. Somermeier v. District Director of Customs (1971, 9th Cir Cal) 448 F2d 1243, 1971 US App LEXIS 7931.

15. Regulation of Sales Generally

Where it appeared that the discrepancy between the disbursements and the returns of liquor amounted to 1,280 cases per annum, and plaintiff’s manager testified he could not give the name, place, and time of a single transfer, the State Board was not bound by such testimony to the extent that the court could say as a matter of law that the Board’s finding that sales were made without necessary stamps, ignoring claimed gifts and exchanges, was arbitrary and capricious. 16. Distribution to Minors

If a liquor licensee delegates to an employee, such as a waitress, the task of ascertaining the bona fides of documentary evidence of majority and identity, required by B & P C § 25660, as a defense to a proceeding for suspension of a license for selling intoxicating liquor to a minor, he is bound by her conduct as if he had acted in person. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

A licensee has no inherent right to sell liquor and his engaging in the business may legitimately be subject to rigid conditions that will limit the possibilities of sales to children under 21; the words “immediately prior,” as used in B & P C § 25660, are words of limitation in time, and the act of questioning a minor and seeing some proof of age two or three weeks before a sale is not “immediately prior” to the sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

In proceedings for suspension of a license under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act for violation of B & P C § 25658(a), (b), by selling and furnishing an alcoholic beverage to a minor and by permitting the minor to consume an alcoholic beverage in the licensee’s premises, the licensee may assert reliance on the original demand and exhibition of evidence of majority and identity, on entry upon the premises, in selling, furnishing or permitting the consumption of an alcoholic beverage by that minor following the entry and such defense is not lost because a second employee pursued an inadequate inquiry before serving the minor, where the minor patron had exhibited to one employee on entry on the premises, and at all times thereafter had on his person, what was found to be bona fide evidence of majority and identity. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

17. Price Controls

The General Fair Trade Act, although designed in part to reduce cut-throat competition, is primarily intended to protect the property rights of producers and wholesalers, whereas the primary purpose of the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is to promote orderly marketing conditions. This difference in primary purpose had no significant bearing on the question of delegation of legislative power because it does not change the functions of the persons to whom a delegation is assertedly made. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The classification made by the Legislature in regulating retail prices in the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act without regulating wholesale prices is reasonable since the Legislature could properly conclude that competition among the relatively few producers and wholesalers would not result in disorderly marketing conditions but that price stabilization with respect to the far larger number of retailers, who sell directly to the consumers, was necessary to prevent selling practices tending to increase sales and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The legislative purpose of preventing price cutting and price wars among retailers is effectively attained under the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act by having each producer or wholesaler establish the retail price of its own brand, and the Legislature may reasonably proceed on the theory that the public will be adequately protected against excessive prices, by the ordinary play of competition between manufacturers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act requires, rather than permits, producers and wholesalers to set retail prices does not render the function of a producer or wholesaler legislative in character but, to the contrary, decreases his discretion since he is not free to determine whether fair trading should occur; nor does fact that the Act’s fair trade provisions provide for administrative and criminal sanctions does not involve any delegation of power, the sanctions being prescribed by the Legislature, not by the producers or wholesalers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Fair trade contracts providing that the buyer shall not resell the alcoholic beverage except at a price stipulated by the vendor serve the legislative purpose of preventing price cutting at the retail level and reducing excessive purchases of alcoholic beverages, thus promoting temperance in their use and consumption; it is only agreements between producers or between wholesalers or between retailers as to the sale or retail prices that the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act interdict. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 833, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Price regulation by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of quantity of sales of distilled spirits to retailers does not come within the meaning or purview of “public welfare or morals” as that term is used in Art XX § 22. Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 46, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 285, overruled on other grounds, Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

Failure of the Legislature to seek to prevent intemperance by limiting the volume of liquor sales, by regulating competition among producers and wholesalers, or by establishing high liquor prices generally, creates no constitutional infirmity in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act; the Act's mandatory retail price maintenance provisions (B & P C §§ 24750, 24752, former 24755, 24757) are constitutional. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal. 2d 349, 55 Cal. Rptr. 23, 420 P.2d 735, 1966 Cal. LEXIS 208.

A prohibition of quantity discounts of beer, effectively required by Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, constitutes not “price-fixing” requiring explicit legislative authorization, but merely a prohibition against price discrimination, for which no explicit legislative authorization is required. Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal. 2d 172, 70 Cal. Rptr. 407, 444 P.2d 79, 1968 Cal. LEXIS 234.

States are not authorized under the Twenty-first Amendment to require out-of-state distillers and suppliers to collect and remit to the state a wholesale markup on liquor sold to officers’ clubs and post exchanges located on military bases within the state over which the United States exercises either exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction. United States v. State Tax Com. (1973) 412 U.S. 363, 37 L.Ed.2d 1, 93 S.Ct. 2183, 1973 US LEXIS 126.

18. Premises Controls

If the proprietor of a hotel permits his patrons to bring into his dining room, which is a public drinking place as contemplated by Art XX § 22 liquor in original packages (other than wine or beer), and consumes the contents thereof while occupying seats at the dining room tables, he is maintaining a public drinking place in violation of the Constitution and the Act of 1933 (Stats. 1933, p. 1697). Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal. 2d 147, 33 P.2d 1009, 1934 Cal. LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 956.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Sec. 2, subd. (1), which states that a room is not a saloon unless it contains a “bar” or counter, places an unwarranted limitation on Art XX § 22, and, if intended as a definition of this term as used in that provision, it is to that extent ineffective. Hammond v. McDonald (1942, Cal. App.) 49 Cal. App. 2d 671, 122 P.2d 332, 1942 Cal. App. LEXIS 856.

The statutory definition of “public saloon, public bar, or public barroom” in Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Sec. 2 (m), which is of persuasive although not controlling authority, is consistent with Art XX § 22. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal. 2d 125, 173 P.2d 545, 1946 Cal. LEXIS 283.

Since Art XX § 22 permits the sale of liquor in a bona fide restaurant without prescribing any quantitative test, the mere fact that the business of selling food does not produce as much income as the business of selling liquor does not destroy the bona fide character of a restaurant. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal. 2d 125, 173 P.2d 545, 1946 Cal. LEXIS 283.

The gross food sales of a restaurant or cafe need not constitute its principal business in order to qualify it as a bona fide public eating place. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal. 2d 125, 173 P.2d 545, 1946 Cal. LEXIS 283.

Art XX § 22 which provides that liquor may be sold in a restaurant, does not create a presumption that a person who places his liquor license in a restaurant becomes a partner of the operator. Weichman v. Vetri (1950, Cal. App.) 100 Cal. App. 2d 177, 232 P.2d 288, 1950 Cal. LEXIS 1185.

The rule of the Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit the purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises, is reasonable, and the rule has a reasonable relation to the legitimate ends for which the board was created. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 144 Cal. App. 2d 626, 301 P.2d 474, 1956 Cal. LEXIS 1773.

It is used in B & P C § 25601, making it a misdemeanor for a liquor licensee to keep or suffer his premises to be used as a disorderly house, the word “suffers” means to permit, allow or not to forbid activities which constitute the premises a “disorderly house.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal. App. 2d Dist) 176 Cal. App. 2d 529, 1 Cal. Rptr. 446, 1959 Cal. LEXIS 1515.

B & P C § 25604, making it unlawful for any one person to maintain a clubroom in which alcoholic beverages were served without a license, does not conflict with federal or state constitutional provisions relating to disposition of individual liberty and private property without due process of law, but is a valid exercise of the police power. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 184 Cal. App. 2d 540, 7 Cal. Rptr. 776, 1960 Cal. LEXIS 1904.

Holder of liquor license has affirmative duty to make sure that licensed premises are not used in violation of law and knowledge and acts of his employees are imputable to license. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1965, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 204 Cal. App. 2d 504, 22 Cal. Rptr. 405, 1962 Cal. App. LEXIS 2270.

Though the mere employment of “topless” waitresses by a liquor licensee is not ground for revocation of a license, licensees are not generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly undressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplinary action if they do; where such purveying of liquor is attended by deleterious consequences, the Department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the Department can adopt regulations covering the situation. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 85, 84 Cal. Rptr. 113, 465 P.2d 1, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 258.

A county ordinance proscribing the presence in model studios of persons possessing, consuming, using, or under the influence of alcoholic beverages, as applied to a model studio operated in conjunction with a cocktail bar could not be said to conflict with Art XX § 22, giving the State the exclusive right to regulate in the field of alcoholic beverages; several opinions of the Attorney General have upheld the right of local authorities to regulate places of public entertainment including premises licensed for the sale of liquor, and amendments to the constitutional provision adopted after the issuance of such opinions have made no significant change in its language; thus it is reasonable to conclude that the Attorney General’s opinions correctly interpreted the intent of the legislature and that such intent remains unchanged. Cristmat, Inc. v. County of Los Angeles (1971, Cal. App. 2d Dist) 15 Cal. App. 3d 590, 93 Cal. Rptr. 325, 1971 Cal. LEXIS 926.

19. Zoning Restrictions

The provision in B & P C § 23790, which exempts a nonconforming use, such as an on-sale liquor establishment, from a zoning ordinance does not include a use which had ceased four years before the effective date of the ordinance and eleven years before a renewal application was made; granting an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to an establishment operating with only a beer and wine license under a nonconforming use is an unwarranted enlargement of the use. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1851.

“Campus,” as used in Penal C § 172a, prohibiting the sale of intoxicants within a certain distance of a university campus, includes more than the areas actually occupied by the principal administrative offices and includes the lands surrounding the offices and buildings used for educational purposes. Vanoli v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 147 Cal App 2d 179, 304 P2d 722, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1260.

City zoning ordinance prohibiting establishment of cocktail bar or lounge within 200 feet of residential district without use permit did not covertly design local option, since it did not seek to eliminate use of alcoholic beverages by city’s residents, but permitted sale of liquors and presence of cocktail bars elsewhere in city. Floresta, Inc. v. City Council of San Leandro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 190 Cal App 2d 599, 12 Cal Rptr 182, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2345.

Cal Adm C tit 4 § 61.1, promulgated by the Department of Alcohol Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of a university unless the Department is satisfied that the location of the premises is sufficiently distant from the campus and the nature of the licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void in conflict with Penal C § 172c, removing the restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to bona fide public eating places. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 2d 479, 45 Cal Rptr 450, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 947.

A city’s ordinance imposing a plan approval process for the rebuilding of businesses destroyed or damaged during a civil disturbance and providing for revocation hearings as to businesses that had become or were threatening to become a nuisance or law enforcement problem were not expressly preempted by Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 (state shall have exclusive power to license and regulate manufacture, sale, possession, and transportation of alcoholic beverages). The purpose and effect of the ordinance was not to dictate, restrict, or regulate the actual sale of alcoholic beverages; instead, it focused on abating or eradicating nuisance activities in a particular geographic area by imposing conditions aimed at mitigating those effects. These are typical and natural goals of zoning and land use regulations. That these conditions might have some indirect impact on the sale of alcoholic beverages did not transmute the ordinance into regulations merely seeking to control alcohol sales. The ordinance constituted a valid exercise of the city’s police powers under Cal. Const., art. XI, § 7, to control and abate nuisances. Korean American Legal Advocacy Foundation v. City of Los Angeles (1984, Cal App 2d Dist) 23 Cal App 4th 376, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 530, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 238, reh’g denied, (1994, Cal App 2d Dist) 23 Cal App 4th 1861d, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 530, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 331, review denied, Korean Am. Legal Advocacy Found. v. City of Los Angeles (1994) 1994 Cal. LEXIS 3928.

20. Possession and Intoxication

It was not only the right of a police officer but his duty to check any suspicious activity and it was proper that the officer should find out more about a panel truck, which he had never seen before, observed in the middle of the night parked in a questionably illegal way in an alley located in a home area; the officer had the right to stop the car and require identification, and when he discovered that there was an active breach of the law by the minor occupants, under circumstances which prima facie made them guilty of an offense through the use of an open jug of wine, he was not remiss in ordering their arrest. Bramlett v. Superior Court (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 273 Cal App 2d 799, 78 Cal Rptr 532, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

Defendant, placed under arrest for possession of alcohol by a minor, could not be arrested or prosecuted under B & P C § 25662, relating to possession of an alcoholic beverage by a minor in a public place, but was chargeable under Veh C § 23125.5, covering such possession “in a motor vehicle”; defendant was not only subject to the extra penalties imposed by that section but was also entitled to the rights of a person charged thereunder, including the right to be taken before a magistrate so that he might be admitted to jail. People v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 1st Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 935, 92 Cal Rptr 545, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1043.

A complaint in a personal injury action against the employer of an allegedly intoxicated minor whose automobile collided with an automobile in which plaintiffs were riding stated a cause of action, where it was alleged that the minor’s intoxication was induced by his employer as the result of a Christmas party where the employer knowingly made available to minor copious amounts of liquor with knowledge he would eventually depart in an auto. Brockett v. Kitchen Boyd Motor Co. (1972, Cal App 5th Dist) 24 Cal App 3d 87, 100 Cal Rptr 752, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1120, superseded by statute as stated in DeBolt v. Kragen Auto Supply, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 182 Cal App 3d 269, 227 Cal Rptr 258, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1703.

The trial court properly dismissed charges that defendant violated a city’s municipal code by possessing an open container of an alcoholic beverage in public with intent to consume the contents in public, since the local ordinance was an improper attempt to regulate possession of alcohol in any public place under Pen. Code, § 647e (possession of open container on posted premises of off-sale alcoholic beverage licensee), which does not authorize such broad regulation. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, provides that the state shall have the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the possession of alcoholic beverages within the state, the wording of the local ordinance clearly showed that it sought to prohibit possession of an alcoholic beverage under certain circumstances. The fact that the person with the alcoholic beverage must also intend to consume some part of it in public did not change the act (possession) that was prohibited by the ordinance. People v. Duran (1995, Cal App Dep’t Super Ct) 43 Cal App 4th Supp 1, 52 Cal Rptr 2d 79, 1995 Cal App LEXIS 1296.

21. Taxation

Art XX § 22 does not exempt the owner of liquors from paying a personal property tax thereon levied by local tax agencies, such as a city, school district and water district. Three G Distillery Corp. v. County of Los Angeles (1941, Cal App 2d Dist) 498, 116 P2d 143, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 1419.

Liquor licenses are not subject to ad valorem taxation as personal property, since they are not included in the list of intangibles specified in Art XIII § 14 and Rev & Tax C § 111. Roehm v. County of Orange (1948) 32 Cal 2d 280, 196 P2d 550, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 223.

An ordinance of the City and County of San Francisco imposing an excise tax of one-half of 1 percent on the retail purchase of tangible personal property does not, when applied to the sale of intoxicating liquors, enter into the field of taxation pre-empted by the State commensurate with its exclusive power to levy license fees or occupation taxes

thereon, and hence does not violate Art XX § 22. Ainsworth v. Bryant (1949) 34 Cal 2d 465, 211 P2d 564, 1949 Cal LEXIS 180. Application of a payroll expense tax ordinance adopted by a chartered city and county to wholesale liquor and beer distributors doing business in the city was not precluded by the provision of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, giving the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to collect license fees or occupation taxes on account of the manufacture, importation, and sale of alcoholic beverages. The tax is not paid in consideration of the issuance of a license granting the privilege to engage in business, but is imposed for general revenue purposes on all businesses with employees who perform services within the city and county, and where there was no evidentiary support for an assertion that only persons engaged in the business of manufacturing or selling alcoholic beverages were in fact subject to the tax. A.B.C. Distributing Co. v. San Francisco (1975) 15 Cal 3d 566, 125 Cal Rptr 465, 542 P2d 625, 1975 Cal LEXIS 254.

Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, grants the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to tax alcoholic beverage sales, and a local tax on alcoholic beverage sales is preempted by state law. However, alcoholic beverages retailers may properly be required to pay their fair share of the cost of government. If a business imposes an unusual burden on city services, a municipality may properly impose fees pursuant to its police powers, but may not impose a tax on alcoholic beverage retailers under the guise of a fee. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 446, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

22. Penalty Assessments

The amount of penalty to be assessed against a licensee who violates a provision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is solely within the discretion of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; it is beyond the jurisdiction of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to order the department to reconsider a specific penalty imposed by it, such action amounting to an attempt to limit and control the department's discretion. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 169 Cal App 2d 294, 337 P2d 83, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2068.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal LEXIS 314.

23. Conduct of Proceedings

The provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, relating to notice and hearing prior to revocation of licenses, merely prescribe the procedure by which jurisdiction of the State Board is to be exercised, and merely regulate procedure and are not designed to, nor do they in any way, impair the constitutional power of said Board or even remotely attempt to regulate or define what jurisdiction that Board shall possess, and do not conflict with Art XX § 22; while § 22 does not provide for any notice and hearing as a prerequisite to revocation of a license, the Board cannot claim that, when it acts independently and without any verified complaint being filed with it, no notice of such hearing is required, and that the license may be revoked without notice to the licensee and without affording him an opportunity to be heard. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1940, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 283, 104 P2d 847, 1940 Cal App LEXIS 103.

In an administrative proceeding against a liquor licensee accused of suffering his premises to be used as a disorderly house was not denied the right to counsel of his choice where the notice of hearing, served on him pursuant to Gov C § 11509, stated that “You may be present at the hearing, but it need not be represented by counsel.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

In an administrative proceeding against a liquor licensee accused of suffering his premises to be used as a disorderly house, there is no absolute right to a continuance in view of the provisions of Gov C § 11524, for continuances in such proceedings at the discretion of the hearing officer and for “good cause shown.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, complaint charging that “On or about [a certain date the licensee], at his above-mentioned licensed premises, did employ or permit woman known only as Brownie, to solicit or encourage other persons to buy her alcoholic beverages, to-wit, beer, on above-mentioned premises” was sufficient to state offense, since it gave licensee fair notice of acts or omissions with which he was charged so that he could prepare his defense, licensee indicating no lack of preparation of his case before hearing officer and no surprise appearing in transcript as to charge or evidence produced against him. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the principal objective of Gov C § 11503, specifying the form of accusation in administrative proceedings, is to safeguard the licensee against an accusation that does not sufficiently enable him to prepare his defense; adherence to technical rules of pleading is not required. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the accusation, in addition to alleging a criminal conviction, sufficiently alleged a separate cause for discipline on the ground that continuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals (B & P C § 24200(a)) where the allegation, based on the involvement of the licensee in illegal activity, preceded the allegation dealing with the criminal court proceedings relating to the same activity, where the substantive content of the paragraph, the punctuation, and the use of the conjunctive “and” to precede the allegation detailing the criminal court proceedings were all indicative of the several nature of the allegations, and where the licensee indicated no lack of preparation of his case before the hearing officer and the record showed no surprise on his part as to the charges or evidence produced against him. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C §§ 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Departmet's prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department's decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

Although the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's decision-maker rejected an administrative law judge's (ALJ) proposed decision in a recent California Supreme Court case that held that the California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C §§ 11340 et seq., was violated by the Department's practice of having the Department's prosecuting attorney send a "report of hearing" to the Department's decision-maker before a final decision was made, the APA is also violated even where the Department's decision-maker decides to adopt the ALJ's proposed decision. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

24. Reconsideration Determinations

25. Judicial Review Generally

The rule that no appeal lies from findings or conclusions is based on CCP § 664 which provides that no judgment is final until entered, and on the rule that until entry of judgment the judge can change his previously rendered judgment. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

It was not error to sustain, without leave to amend, a demurrer to a complaint in mandamus to review proceedings of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board in which it had properly dismissed, for lack of jurisdiction, a purported appeal from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's order revoking a liquor license. Hollywood Circle, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 523, 314 P2d 1007, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1526, cert. denied, (1958) 356 US 902, 78 S Ct 562, 2 L Ed 2d 580, 1958 US LEXIS 1394, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Under CCP § 1194.5, mandamus in the superior court is a proper procedure to review the decision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing an order of the State Board of Equalization indefinitely suspending a liquor license; judicial review of the Appeals Board's acts is not limited to certiorari in the District Court of Appeal. Koehn v. State Board of Equalization (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 109, 333 P2d 125, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1377.

In a proceeding to obtain a writ of mandamus commanding the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to vacate an order reversing an order of the State Board of Equalization, no findings are necessary and the correctness of the judgment is not be determined by the appellate court where the only question submitted to the trial court was one of law. Koehn v. State Board of Equalization (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 109, 333 P2d 125, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1377.

Where Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board has reversed decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying application for on-sale liquor license, judicial review by mandamus is necessarily directed at decision of Appeals Board but any judicial determination of whether Appeals Board has exceeded its "limited" powers would incidentally require review of decision of Department and of record on which Department's decision had been based. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Though the fact that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or its predecessor agency has been consistent for over eleven years in accepting for filing fair trade agreements between producers and retailers, even though such parties were not and under applicable regulations could not be in a lawful seller-buyer relationship, is not necessarily controlling, this fact is entitled to De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 686, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 653, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Under B & P C § 23090.5, only the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal have jurisdiction to review decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and in a mandamus proceeding attacking the revocation of a liquor license proceeding in the superior court and the effective date of the statute. The constitutional proscription against ex post facto laws applies only to criminal statutes and the fact that jurisdiction is taken away from a
26. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

An appeal from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing the issuance of an on-sale liquor license has no right to seek judicial review of such decision under Gov C § 11523 without first filing an appeal with the appeals board of the department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1112.

Where an appeal from an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license was filed before the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board after expiration of the time limit set in B & P C § 23081, the Board had no jurisdiction over the proceeding, the Department's decision became final, and the courts had no jurisdiction to review the proceeding. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 817, 318 P2d 686, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1361, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

The rule that exhaustion of the administrative remedy is a jurisdictional prerequisite to resort to the courts is applicable even where the statute sought to be applied and enforced by the administrative agency is challenged on constitutional grounds. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 160 Cal App 2d 658, 325 P2d 601, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2169, cert. denied, (1958) 355 US 907, 78 S Ct 194, 3 L Ed 2d 229, 1958 US LEXIS 76.

There was no jurisdiction in a court for judicial review of an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking an on-sale liquor license where an appeal from such order was not taken to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board within the time allowed by law, despite the fact that the licensees alleged that they had exhausted all remedies provided by applicable laws and had no further adequate remedy at law or further right of appeal except to file a petition for writ of mandate. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 160 Cal App 2d 658, 325 P2d 601, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2169, cert. denied, (1958) 358 US 907, 78 S Ct 194, 3 L Ed 2d 229, 1958 US LEXIS 76.

An appeal from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is not a useless or meaningless step, notwithstanding the "limited" powers conferred on the Appeals Board by the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, in view of the fact that applicants for liquor licenses have freely availed themselves of the relatively expeditious and inexpensive remedy of appeal to the Appeals Board, and that the vast majority of applicants, as well as the department, have ordinarily been willing to accept the decision of the Appeals Board without resort to the courts. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

In a mandamus proceeding to review an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the superior court properly sustained the department's demurrer on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, and stay of the suspension order was thereafter improperly granted by a judge of the same superior court, where the licensee failed to seek judicial review in accordance with B & P C § 23090, within 30 days after the final order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions of the department, the right to judicial review of the order of suspension did not mature until some six months after the effective date, and where application of the revised review procedures involved no impairment of the licensee's right to judicial review nor a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefit of the revised procedures. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 7, 73 Cal Rptr 671, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1267.

27. Scope and Standards of Judicial Review

In determining whether or not a particular establishment qualifies as a bona fide eating place under Art XX § 22, it is the province of the State Board to ascertain the facts, such as physical aspects, equipment and supplies, amount of food and liquor sold, and the manner in which the business is conducted: after the probative facts have been settled, the construction and application of the Constitution and pertinent statutes are questions of law for the courts to decide. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 125, 173 P2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 283.

On appeal from a judgment for defendants in a proceeding to review revocation of a liquor license, the appellate court will not upset the Director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's action in resolving a conflict between testimony and the presumption in B & P C § 24200.5, where substantial evidence supports the Department's resolution of the conflict. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

A decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license is final, subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion and insufficiency of evidence, and where there is error the matter ordinarily should be remanded to the Department for further proceedings.

Neither the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor the courts may disregard or overturn a finding of fact that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting the issuance of a liquor license simply because it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable.

There is no precise, lasting and inflexible definition of a municipal affair; and while the licensing of a liquor business was a municipal affair prior to adoption of Art XX § 22, its public nature and public concern is not lost by the repeal of said Act, said ordinance revived and became fully effective.

City ordinance providing that no person could operate any public place where food or beverages were sold and any form of live entertainment was provided, without written permit, did not conflict with state statutes regulating sale of liquor; neither was the ordinance vague, uncertain or indefinite where it included sufficient rules to guide government body, whose duty it was to issue permit, in determining existence or nonexistence of necessary facts.

Considering provisions of B & P C §§ 23790, 23791, municipal zoning ordinance that no liquor-serving dance hall be established closer than 200 feet to the boundary of a residential district absent a permit, upheld over pre-emptive contentions.

invalid. Local legislation that contradicts general law is void, and under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, the state has the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the possession of alcoholic beverages. Although there is case law approving the local regulation of places of entertainment where alcohol is sold, the issue in such cases concerned the regulation of the licensee, not the person in possession of the alcohol. People v. Ramirez (1994, Cal App Dep't Super Ct) 25 Cal App 4th Supp 1, 30 Cal Rptr 2d 626, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 795.

State law did not preempt an ordinance that prohibited underage drinking, as shown by blood alcohol, because Cal Const Art XX, § 22, does not refer to consumption and the ordinance was not duplicative of H & S C § 11999(e); B & P C §§ 25662(a), 25665, 25658(b); or Veh C §§ 23136, 23140. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Legislative Intent

The short title of this act, and the provisions of its full title, indicated at the outset an intention to tax alcoholic liquors used for beverage purposes, and disclosed no intent to tax industrial alcohol as such. Commercial Solvents Corp. v. Riley (1936) 7 Cal 2d 731, 62 P2d 588, 1936 Cal LEXIS 702.

2. Constitutionality

Price regulating provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act do not violate due process clause of US Const 14th Amend; power of states to control traffic in liquor is unconditional and includes complete prohibition, as well as any restriction falling short of prohibition, even if discriminatory in nature and disconnected to public health, safety or morals. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

Because of the particular problems presented by traffic in liquor, such traffic is subject to regulation by the state in the exercise of its police power. Hargens v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 263 Cal App 2d 601, 69 Cal Rptr 868, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2245, overruled on other grounds, Sail’er Inn, Inc. v. Kirby (1971) 5 Cal 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 P2d 529, 1971 Cal LEXIS 230, 46 ALR3d 351.

Regulation prohibiting certain sexually explicit live entertainment or films in licensed bars and nightclubs upheld notwithstanding that regulations proscribe some forms of visual presentation not obscene, considering the states’ broad authority under the Twenty-First Amendment to control intoxicating liquors, and evidence before the Board showing a greater incidence of prostitution, rape, indecent exposure, and assaults near liquor-vending premises. California v. La Rue (1972) 409 US 109, 34 L Ed 2d 542, 93 S Ct 390, 1972 US

3. Construction
Alcoholic Beverage Control Act contains special provisions regulating fair trade contracts relating to alcoholic beverages, and such provisions, though similar to, are separate from general provisions for fair trade contracts found in Fair Trade Act. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 666, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

4. Penalties
Penalty for breach of price fixing regulation of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is both civil and penal, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may suspend or revoke licenses, or institute criminal action. Peck's Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

§ 23001. Purposes of division; Construction
This division is an exercise of the police powers of the State for the protection of the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the State, to eliminate the evils of unlicensed and unlawful manufacture, selling, and disposing of alcoholic beverages, and to promote temperance in the use and consumption of alcoholic beverages. It is hereby declared that the subject matter of this division involves in the highest degree the economic, social, and moral well-being and the safety of the State and of all its people. All provisions of this division shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of these purposes.

6. Regulation

1. Generally
Alcoholic beverage wholesaler's sponsorship of athletic events conducted by a promotional company on behalf of a licensee violated B & P C §§ 25500, 25503, because the wholesaler indirectly furnished a thing of value by providing a marketing subsidy to the licensee and promotional materials were placed in retail locations; such conduct was incompatible with the goals of California's Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, as set forth in B & P C § 23001. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 682.

2. Constitutionality
There is no inherent right in citizen to sell intoxicating liquors at retail; it is not privilege of citizen of United States or of State, and it may be entirely prohibited by State legislation, or be permitted under such conditions as will limit its evils. Crowley v. Christensen (1890) 137 US 86, 11 S Ct 13, 34 L Ed 266, 1890 US LEXIS 2070.
The right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege, nor such a property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

3. Construction
Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Act of 1915 which provided in effect that every place where intoxicating liquors were unlawfully sold, served or given away was nuisance, and which authorized private citizen in his own name to maintain action in equity to abate and prevent such nuisance, and to enjoin same, was neither expressly nor by implication repealed, either by Const Art XX § 22 or by Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of 1935. Hammond v. McDonald (1939, Cal App) 32 Cal App 2d 187, 89 P2d 407, 1939 Cal App LEXIS 334.

Word “economic,” as used in section, when read in connection with preceding sentence indicates that economic welfare of people is that welfare which is achieved by strict regulation and curtailment of use of liquor, and economic benefits resulting to people from promotion of temperance, rather than those resulting from promotion of liquor industry. American Distilling Co. v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 457, 301 P2d 495, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1742.

Rule of Board of Alcoholic Beverage Control, forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises, is in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. Mercuro v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

The business of selling intoxicating liquor which is the “welfare” of people as the result of strict regulation and curtailment of use of liquor and economic benefit resulting to people from promotion of temperance, is the “welfare” meant by this section, stating purpose of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to be, among other things, “protection of the...welfare...of the people of the State.” Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1961, Cal App 2d Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 873, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1742.

Rule of Board of Alcoholic Beverage Control, forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises, is in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. Mercuro v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Since Alcoholic Beverage Control Act was enacted to protect safety, welfare, health, peace and morals of people, violation of any of regulatory provisions relating to prohibited sales constitutes misdemeanor within meaning of § 25617. Peck’s Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

It is well within the authority conferred on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const Art XX § 22, par. 9, B & P C §§ 23001, 23049 for the Department to determine that the “tied-house” law, B & P C § 25502 applies to certain transactions but not to others. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

4. Purpose

Alcoholic Beverage Control Act was enacted for protection of safety and welfare of people of this State, and is generally regarded as regulatory measure. Ainsworth v. Bryant (1949) 34 Cal 2d 465, 211 P2d 564, 1949 Cal LEXIS 180.

One of the purposes of the provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act relating to wholesale liquor dealers is to bring into being a class of true wholesalers to whom retailers can come for wholesales and be certain they are dealing with bona fide wholesaler and not with phone-order business concern, commission merchant, or distiller’s representative. Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 873, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2413, cert. denied, (1960) 364 US 870, 81 S Ct 112, 5 L Ed 2d 92, 1960 US LEXIS 325.

In enacting Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, it was not purpose of legislature to reduce intemperance by establishing higher prices generally but only to prevent increase of consumption of alcoholic beverages resulting from retail price cutting and bargain sales; legislature may take reasonable measures to eliminate some of causes of an evil without attacking all of them. Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

5. Right to Manufacture or Sell

Because of nature of products sold, courts have taken view that there is no inherent or natural right to manufacture or sell alcoholic beverages, and no vested right in business or property with which business is carried on to prevent its control or entire destruction by legislative process. Premier-Pabet Sales Co. v. State Bd. of Equalization (1953, D Cal) 13 F Supp 90, 1935 US Dist LEXIS 1069.

6. Regulation

A state may, in exercise of its police power, and without offending commerce clause of Federal Constitution, regulate or control traffic in intoxicating liquors, within its own borders, to extent either of regulating or altogether preventing business of soliciting proposals in such state for purchase of liquors, which proposals are to be consumed outside of state, and liquors to which such proposals relate are also situated outside state. In re Application of Anixter (1913, Cal App) 22 Cal App 117, 134 P 193, 1913 Cal App LEXIS 47.

Under Const Art XX § 22, State, subject to certain federal laws, has exclusive right and power to control, license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession, transportation and disposition of intoxicating liquors within this State, and may prohibit entirely manufacture and traffic of intoxicating liquor; this can also be under the police power of State, and State, having power to prohibit entirely, can impose such conditions and regulations as it may deem proper. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 33 P2d 1099, 1934 Cal LEXIS 345, 93 ALR 956.

Retail sale of intoxicating liquors is business attended with danger to community, and it may be entirely prohibited or permitted under such conditions as will limit to utmost its evils, and manner and extent of regulation rest in discretion of governing authority. Schaubs, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

The business of selling intoxicating liquor is one attendant with dangers, and under the police power the state may limit the operation of such business to conditions which will minimize its evils. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

§ 23001.5. Severability of provisions of division

If any provision of this division or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this division that can be given effect without the invalid portion or application, and to this end the provisions of this division are severable. It is the intent of the Legislature that this division would have been adopted regardless if such invalid provision had not been included or any invalid application had not been made.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Particular Actions

1. Generally

2. Particular Actions

By adopting regulations that defined distilled spirits to include flavored malt beverages, the California State Board of Equalization exceeded its rulemaking authority under Rev & Tax C § 32451, because the regulations were inconsistent with the definitions of distilled spirits and beer in B & P C §§ 23005, 23006. Pursuant to Rev & Tax C §§ 32002, 32152, the board was required to apply those definitions and to coordinate with federal regulations that classified flavored malt beverages as beer; moreover, B & P C § 25750, gave the authority to interpret those definitions to the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Diageo-Guinness USA, Inc. v. State Bd. of Equalization (2012, 3d Dist) 205 Cal App 4th 907, 140 Cal Rptr 3d 358, 2012 Cal App LEXIS 505, review denied, Diageo-Guinness USA, Inc. v. § 23007. “Wine”

“Wine” means the product obtained from normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound ripe grapes or other agricultural products containing natural or added sugar or any such alcoholic beverage to which is added grape brandy, fruit brandy, or spirits of wine, which is distilled from the particular agricultural product or products of which the wine is made and other rectified wine products and by whatever name and which does not contain more than 15 percent added flavoring, coloring, and blending material and which contains not more than 24 percent of alcohol by volume, and includes vermouth and sake, known as Japanese rice wine.

Nothing contained in this section affects or limits the power, authority, or duty of the State Department of Health Services in the enforcement of the laws directed toward preventing the manufacture, production, sale, or transportation of adulterated, misbranded, or mislabeled alcoholic beverages, and the definition of “wine” contained in this section is limited strictly to the purposes of this division and does not extend to, or repeal by implication, any law preventing the production, manufacture, sale, or transportation of adulterated, misbranded, or mislabeled alcoholic beverages.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Transactions constituted sales in this State within Alcoholic Beverage Control Act so as to render seller liable for excise taxes thereon, where orders for liquor were solicited by seller's salesman out of this State and by them delivered to seller's place of business in this State, where liquor was sold to out of state corporations not holding licenses under laws of this State, where orders called for delivery f.o.b. at seller's warehouse in this State and where, after orders had been filled therefrom and also delivered to purchasers in this State, liquor was transported out of State by purchasers' employees. Gooderham & Worts, Ltd. v. Collins (1943, Cal App) 59 Cal App 2d 309, 138 P2d 785, 1943 Cal App LEXIS 318.

In order for a sale to take place within the meaning of this statute there need not be a transfer of title from one person to another as the word “person” is defined in this statute, it is sufficient that there is a delivery of the distilled spirits within the state of California. National Distillers Products Corp. v. Board of Equalization (1947, Cal App) 83 Cal App 2d 35, 187 P2d 821, 1947 Cal App LEXIS 1365.

2. Applicability

In a wrongful death action, a social host’s act of charging guests a fee in exchange for entrance to her party and access to the alcoholic beverages she provided constituted a sale under B & P C §§ 23025 and 25602.1, because the beverages were purveyed for consideration and therefore not free. 1. Constitutionality
Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege or such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates US Const, Fourteenth Amendment. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality

1. Generally

Though there are procedural differences between applications for, and disciplinary matters concerning, licenses to sell alcoholic beverages, in both procedures, it is responsibility of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to safeguard public interest. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

2. Constitutionality

Cal Const Art XX § 22 confers on Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to deny liquor license for “good cause” where granting thereof “would be contrary to public welfare or morals.” Bailey v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 348, 20 Cal Rptr 264, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2599.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction
2. Constitutionality

1. Construction
B & P C § 23053.1, construed so as to allow the issuance of an injunction only when a licensee continues to violate the same rules after its license has been revoked by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control after an administrative hearing concerning violation of such rules, is a valid legislative addition to the remedies of the department in the exercise of its alcoholic beverage control activities, and thus the superior court did not lack jurisdiction to issue an injunction restraining a licensee from violating Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually-oriented live entertainment occurs), once the department had revoked the licensee’s license for violating that section, notwithstanding the licensee’s contention that previously enacted statutes granting the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal exclusive jurisdiction to review or otherwise determine the propriety of departmental activities precluded operation of § 23053.1. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

There are no unresolvable inconsistencies between B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), and B & P C §§ 23082-23089 (pertaining to appeals from decisions of department); § 23053.1 gives the department no power to revoke a license or otherwise interfere with a licensee’s license, but only a limited power to ask the court to enjoin continued violations of the license. Further, operation of the statute is not restricted to the period after the appellate process is completed; such restriction would render the statute almost superfluous, since the license revocation is then final. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

2. Constitutionality
Issuance of an injunction under B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), did not violate the equal protection rights of a licensee whose license the department had decided to revoke for violation of Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually-oriented live entertainment occurs), even though only the department has access to the superior court under § 23053.1. A licensee and the department are not similarly situated, and even if they were, the state has
The department shall have the function of investigation of violations of Chapters 10, 11 and 15 of this division and rules of the department relating thereto. To the end that such provisions are more adequately and strictly enforced, funds for support of this program shall be derived as follows: In addition to fees otherwise provided for in this division, the following amounts shall be paid to the department by holders of the following types of licenses:

(a) Retail package off-sale general license $24 per year
(b) Rectifier's license $52 per year
(c) Distilled spirits wholesaler's license $52 per year
(d) Distilled spirits manufacturer's agent's license $52 per year
(e) Distilled spirits manufacturer's license $52 per year
(f) Distilled spirits importer's general license $52 per year
(g) California winegrower's agent's license $52 per year

Payment of those amounts shall be made upon issuance or transfer of these types of licenses, and shall be made by the holders of these types of licenses at the time specified in this division for payment of annual renewal fees therefor.

The provisions of Section 23322 shall apply to the amounts to be paid under this section. All money collected from the fees provided for in this section shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

Editor's Notes—Section 23322 of the Business and Professions Code, referred to in this section, was repealed Stats 1992 ch 839 § 2 (AB 2858).

Amendments:

1973 Amendment: Added subd. (g).
1992 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, substituted the last sentence of the last paragraph for the former last sentence which read: “The provisions of Section 25761 shall not apply to the amounts to be paid under this section, and such amounts shall be deposited directly in the General Fund in the State Treasury.”

Note—Stats 1992 ch 900 provides:

The text as modified by § 33, reads: “There is in the state government, in the Business and Consumer Services Agency, an Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board the members of which shall be appointed and shall serve as provided in Section 22 of Article XX of the Constitution, and shall receive an annual salary as provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code."

2012 Amendment: Added "in the Business and Consumer Services Agency."

Note—2012 Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 provides:
SEC. 309. (a) Except as provided for in subdivision (b), the provisions of this plan shall become operative on July 1, 2013.
(b) A state agency, department, or entity may take actions prior to July 1, 2013, that are necessary to ensure that the provisions of the plan become operative on July 1, 2013, and are implemented in a timely fashion. These actions may include, but are not limited to, reassignment of duties between state agencies, departments, or entities, activities included in Section 12080.3 of the Government Code, actions relating to planning for the changes provided for in the plan, and the expenditure of funds necessary for the transfer of authority and responsibilities accomplished by the plan.

Stats 2012 ch 147 provides:
SEC. 23. (a) Notwithstanding Section 12080.8 of the Government Code or any other law, Sections 1 to 19, inclusive, and Sections 21 and 22 of this act shall prevail over Sections 1, 23, 32, 33, 45, 158, 159, 178, 188, 196, 199, 202, 203, 207, 208, 209, 210, 215, 285, 287, and 288 of the Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 2012, regardless of the dates on which this act and that plan take effect.
(b) This act, including subdivision (a), shall become operative only if the Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 2012 becomes effective.
(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), Sections 1 to 22, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 2013.

Amendments:
1983 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subdiv (a); (2) deleted ", and shall receive an annual salary as provided for by Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code" at the end of subdiv (a); and (3) added subdiv (b).

1988 Amendment: (1) Deleted former subdivision designations; (2) added "and shall receive an annual salary as provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code"; and (3) deleted former subdiv (b) which read: "(b) No member of the board shall receive a salary but shall receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day actually spent in the discharge of official duties, and shall be reimbursed for traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his or her duties."

2012 Amendment: Added ", in the Business, Consumer Services, and Housing Agency."

ARTICLE 4

Appeals From Decisions of the Department

[Added Stats 1st Ex Sess 1954 ch 20 § 3, operative January 1, 1955.]

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

There are no unresolvable inconsistencies between B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee's license), and B & P C §§ 23082-23089 (pertaining to appeals from decisions of department); § 23053.1 gives the department no power to revoke a license or otherwise interfere with a licensee's license, but only a limited power to ask the court to enjoin continued violations of the license. Further, operation of the statute is not restricted to the period after the appellate process is completed; such restriction would render the statute almost superfluous, since the license revocation is then final. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

§ 23080. "Decision"

As used in this article "decision" means any determination of the department imposing a penalty assessment or affecting a license which may be appealed to the board under Section 22 of Article XX of the Constitution.

§ 23081. Perfecting appeal; Time for filing; Procedure; Right to appeal despite failure to seek reconsideration

On or before the tenth day after the last day on which reconsideration of a final decision of the department can be ordered, any party aggrieved by a final decision of the department may file an appeal with the board from such decision. The appeal shall be in writing and shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought. A copy of the appeal shall be mailed by the appellant to each party who appeared in the proceeding before the department, including the department which shall thereafter be treated in all respects as a party to the appeal. The right to appeal shall not be affected by failure to seek reconsideration before the department.

Amendments:
1959 Amendment: (1) Amended the first sentence by substituting (a) “On or before the tenth day after the last day on which reconsideration of a final decision of the department can be ordered” for “Within 40 days after the decision of the department is delivered or mailed to the parties”; and (b) “file an appeal with the board” for “appeal to the board”; and (2) added the last sentence.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

2. Time For Appeal

3. Extension of Time to Appeal
4. Failure To Appeal Within Time Specified
5. Appeal as Prerequisite to Judicial Review

1. Generally

This section reasonably permits construction which would include application of CCP § 1013, relating to service of notices by mail, in its entirety to filing of notice of appeal from decision of department. Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

2. Time For Appeal

Filing notice of appeal from decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending liquor license with that department constituted filing with Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board under latter's policy to consider appeals mailed to department as received by and filed with it on date notice is received by department. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 169 Cal App 2d 785, 338 P2d 50, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2143.

Under Gov C § 6800, in computing 10-day period for appealing from final decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, last day on which department could act to order reconsideration of its denial of petition for on-sale beer license is excluded, and appeal period begins next day. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 223 Cal App 2d 563, 35 Cal Rptr 865, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1569.

An appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage control appeals Board from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending the license of a licensee was not timely filed, where it was not filed on or before the 10th day after the last day on which reconsideration could be ordered (B & P C § 23081)—that is, on or before the 10th day following the 30th day after the mailing of the decision to the licensee (Gov C § 11521), where the decision contained no effective date, and where no application was made by the licensee for a stay of the effective date nor a stay ordered by the department. Reimel v. House (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 264 Cal App 2d 173, 70 Cal Rptr 224, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2064.

3. Extension of Time to Appeal

Proceedings for reconsideration by Department of its decision denying application for transfer of off-sale liquor license do not extend time for appeal to board as limited by section. Rishwain v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 162 Cal App 2d 207, 328 P2d 473, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1856.

Though it had been consistent practice of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, both before and after 1959 amendment of this section, providing for time to file appeal, to apply CCP § 1013 to extend time within which appeal could be filed, and though construction of statute by state board is entitled to weight, practice of board cannot grant jurisdiction in face of jurisdictional limitation. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 223 Cal App 2d 563, 35 Cal Rptr 865, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1569.

Though 30-day period during which Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control had power to reconsider its final decision denying application for on-sale beer license expired on Saturday, filing by applicants of appeal to Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board 12 days thereafter was too late under this section; Gov C § 6707, which extends to next business day time for party to act when last day to act falls on Saturday or holiday, does not refer to time for department to act and does not apply to extend time for reconsideration. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 223 Cal App 2d 563, 35 Cal Rptr 865, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1569.

4. Failure To Appeal Within Time Specified

Where appeal is filed after expiration of time limit set in this section, board has no jurisdiction over proceeding, department’s decision became final, and courts have no jurisdiction to review proceeding. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 817, 318 P2d 686, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1361, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Where department’s decision suspending and revoking on-sale liquor license was not appeal within time allowed by law to appeals board, licensees failed to exhaust their administrative remedies and were not entitled to judicial review of order complained of. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 160 Cal App 2d 658, 325 P2d 601, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2169, cert. denied, (1958) 358 US 907, 79 S Ct 234, 3 L Ed 2d 229, 1958 US LEXIS 76.

5. Appeal as Prerequisite to Judicial Review

Gov C § 11523, relating to judicial review of administrative decisions, does not authorize appeal to courts directly from department’s revocation of liquor license; but to secure judicial review, licensee must first appeal to appeals board, pursuant to this section, and then may seek judicial review of board’s decision. Hollywood Circle, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 523, 314 P2d 1007, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1526, cert. denied, (1958) 356 US 902, 78 S Ct 562, 2 L Ed 2d 580, 1958 US LEXIS 1394, overruled on other grounds, Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 335 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Party aggrieved by decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing issuance of on-sale liquor license has no right to seek judicial review of such decision without first filing appeal with appeals board of department. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

Only decision from which liquor licensee whose license was revoked can appeal is decision of department of alcoholic beverage control revoking his license, and timely appeal to alcoholic beverage control appeals board is necessary to exhaust administrative remedies. Anderson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 4th Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 413, 324 P2d 24, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2014, overruled § 23083. Determination of appeal by board
(a) The board shall determine the appeal upon the record of the department and upon any briefs which may be filed by the parties. If any party to the appeal requests the right to appear before the board, the board shall fix a time and place for argument. The board shall not receive any evidence other than that contained in the record of the proceedings of the department.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 11425.10 of the Government Code, Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11400) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the determination.

Amendments:
1995 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); and (2) added subd (b).

Note—Stats 1995 ch 938 § 98, in part, provides:
SEC. 98. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), this act shall be operative on July 1, 1997.
SEC. 100. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

Law Revision Commission Comments:
1995—Section 23083 is amended to add subdivision (b). Subdivision (b) makes the general administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act inapplicable to determination of an appeal by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. Exemption of the agency’s hearings from the Administrative Procedure Act does not exempt the hearings from the language assistance requirements of that act. Govt Code 11435.15(d). Although Section 23083 is silent on the question, the formal hearing provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) do not apply to determination of an appeal by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. Cf. Govt Code 11501 (application of chapter). Nothing in Section 23083 excuses compliance with procedural protections required by due process of law.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
1. Generally
Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C § 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department’s prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department’s decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

Attorney General's Opinions:
The provisions of Cal Const Art III § 3.5 apply to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board in the exercise of its authority under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and B & P C §§ 23080 through 23087. 62 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 788.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
Decisions of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are final except as they are subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion, and insufficiency of evidence. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.
Section merely enacts in statutory form the same provisions for “limited” review by appeals board as are found in 1954 amendment. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.
Powers conferred on Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and this section are strictly limited and no greater than those previously exercised by courts on judicial review of decisions of State Board of Equalization. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.
Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s practice of allowing its ultimate decisionmaker to have access to prosecuting attorneys’ reports of hearing violates statutory prohibitions against ex parte communications. The practice is improper, regardless of whether the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board adopts the Department’s decision. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 295, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

2. Scope of Review of Department’s Decisions
Scope of review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to determining whether there is substantial support to be found in record, and both superior court in mandate proceedings, and district court of appeals on appeal are without authority to reweigh evidence. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1484, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1484.
With minor exceptions, review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by appeals board is limited to whether department proceeded with jurisdiction and as required by law, whether decision is supported by findings, and whether findings are supported by substantial evidence. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App
The scope of review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to a determination whether there is substantial evidence to support the findings. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1535.

The scope of review by the Appeals Board and the courts, of decisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department, is limited, under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and B & P C § 23084, to whether the department's "findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record"; in other words, the scope of review is governed by the substantial evidence rule as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this state. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

With minor exceptions, the review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of the decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without jurisdiction, whether it has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record viewed in its entirety, including the body of evidence opposed to the department's findings. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 263 Cal App 2d 706, 69 Cal Rptr 744, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2260.

The power of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in reviewing a licensing decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23085). Rice v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1975, Cal App 1st Dist) 79 Cal App 3d 372, 144 Cal Rptr 851, 1978 Cal App LEXIS 1381.

5. Substantial Evidence Rule
Constitutional and statutory provisions providing for review of decisions of department of alcoholic beverage control to determine whether "findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record" signify no more than adoption of substantial evidence rule as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this State. Rosales v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 171 Cal App 2d 624, 341 P2d 366, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1875.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is not empowered to exercise full discretion and independent judgment on conflicting evidence, its powers being strictly limited by "substantial evidence" rule. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 352 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is governed by substantial evidence rule in its review of sufficiency of evidence to support administrative findings of department concerning revocation of on-sale beer and wine license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

6. Hearsay
On review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the license could not properly raise a hearsay objection to testimony received by the department, where no hearsay objection was interposed at the hearing on which the department's decision rested, and where an appropriate objection, if sustained, would have enabled the department to elaborate on the issue involved; in such a proceeding, hearsay admitted without objection has probative value unless there is some evidence, admissible in administrative proceedings, to the contrary, that is, unless objected to, such evidence will serve to shift the burden of producing evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the fact disclosed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 8 Cal App 3d 1009, 87 Cal Rptr 908, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2117.

7. Entrapment
The action of the appeals board in reversing the department's suspension of a liquor license on the ground that the department's investigators, by inviting the waitress concerned to have drink with them, instigated the offense and transgressed the bounds of sound public policy as to enforcement measures was ultra vires where there was no showing of entrapment as a matter of law. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1535.

The action of the Appeals Board, in reversing, on grounds of entrapment, the revocation of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not violate the rule that a party may not deprive his opponent of an opportunity to meet an issue at the trial by changing his theory on appeal, where, although entrapment was not raised as an affirmative defense at the initial hearing, the board determined the undisputed facts to show entrapment as a matter of law. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1535.

8. Relief and Review

Since Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is vested with "power, in its discretion to deny" liquor license on its determination "for good cause that the granting . . . would be contrary to public welfare," finding by department of ultimate fact that granting "would be contrary to public welfare" is unavailable on appeal to appeals board if there is substantial evidence in record to show that such determination was made "for good cause." Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Neither Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor trial court in mandamus proceeding erred in concluding that there was no substantial evidence to sustain determination of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that good cause existed for denying application for transfer of on-sale beer and wine license to premises operated as restaurant across street from church and within block from school where evidence tended to establish that applicants were law-abiding persons who operated superior restaurant and were endeavoring to make its services still better and attractive to a larger number of patrons, and that proximity of church, when considered in light of facts that church did not protest issuance of license to premises already existed eight licensed premises, of which only one held on-sale beer and wine license, did not appear of such significance as to support department's decision. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Since the power to determine the facts in licensing matters is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and not in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board or the courts, a review of the department's action is governed by the rule that where there is room for reasonable difference of opinion with respect to the correctness of a finding of fact it will not be disturbed by the receiving tribunal. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

Neither the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeal Board nor the courts may disregard or overturn a finding of fact of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the reason that it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

On review, under B & P C § 23090, of an order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying an off-sale beer and wine license, the issue before the court is the same as it was before the Appeals Board, namely, whether the department's ultimate finding that issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23090.2). Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

§ 23085. Remand to department for reconsideration; Grounds; Reversal; Effect

In appeals where the board finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department, it may enter an order remanding the matter to the department for reconsideration in the light of such evidence. In all other appeals the board shall enter an order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department. When the order reverses the decision of the department, the board may direct the reconsideration of the matter in the light of its order and may direct the department to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the order shall not limit or control in any way the discretion vested by law in the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Findings of Fact
3. Procedure
4. Penalties

1. Generally
The power of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in reviewing a licensing decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23085). Rice v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1978, Cal App 1st Dist) 79 Cal App 3d 372, 144 Cal Rptr 851, 1978 Cal App LEXIS 1381.

2. Findings of Fact
Where Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control granted liquor license to grocery store after having previously refused to issue such license, fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in affirming order granting application for license, erroneously held (if such holding was erroneous) that res judicata was under no circumstances applicable in such proceeding, did not affect validity of its decision since such statement was not finding of fact, Appeals Board having no power to make findings of fact, and since there was a change of conditions which was found to exist by Department, and by affirming Department’s order Appeals Board ruled that findings supported Department’s decision and order; Appeals Board’s decision was thus correct and it was immaterial that its reasons were erroneous. Hasselbach v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.
Neither Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor courts may disregard or overturn finding of fact by department for reasons that contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2921.

3. Procedure
Where Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversed order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying application for on-sale beer license, Appeals Board could appeal from judgment of trial court in mandamus proceeding permitting it to affirm department’s order. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

4. Penalties
Under Cal Const Art XX § 22 and §§ 24200, 23084, 23085 of this code, propriety of penalty for misuse of liquor license is matter vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; its determination may not be disturbed unless there is clear abuse of discretion. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

§ 23086. Order; Time for entering
In all cases, the board shall enter its order within 60 days after the filing of an appeal.

2. Construction

1. Generally
Mandamus in superior court was proper procedure to review decision of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing order of State Board of Equalization indefinitely suspending liquor license; judicial review of Appeals Board’s acts was not limited to certiorari in district courts of appeal. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

The 1967 Amendments divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review or stay the operation of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, are not constitutional as an unauthorized legislative attempt to curtail the constitutional jurisdiction of the superior courts, where Cal Const Art XX § 22, providing that orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved, does not specify the court in which review is to be obtained nor the procedure therefor, and where the new provisions on judicial review do not burden or impair the right of an aggrieved party to obtain the judicial review guaranteed by the Constitution. § 23090

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

1. Generally

Both superior court in mandate proceedings and district court on appeal are without authority to reweigh evidence in reviewing board's decision. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1551.

Department's decisions should be affirmed by courts when supported by substantial evidence. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

In a mandamus proceeding to review an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the superior court properly sustained the department's demurrer on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, and stay of the suspension order was thereafter improperly granted by a judge of the same superior court, where the licensee failed to seek judicial review in accordance with B & P C § 23090, within 30 days after the final order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of B & P C § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions of the department, the right to judicial review of the order of suspension did not mature until some six months after the effective date, and where application of the revised review proceedings involved no impairment of the licensee's right to judicial review nor a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefit of the revised procedures. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

Constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (Cal Const XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal 3d 431, 146 Cal Rptr 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978 Cal LEXIS 238, 96 ALR3d 613.

2. Scope of Review

Scope of review of board's decisions is limited to determining whether or not there is substantial support to be found in record. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

3. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

Only decision from which liquor licensee whose license was revoked in a single accusation, imposed cumulative penalties, each based on a single sale, but measured in severity by the prior number of illegal sales in the series, where the licensee had not exhausted its administrative remedy of appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, and § 23090, in specifying the conditions under which applications may be made for a writ of review, limits such applications to those persons affected by a "final order of the board." Top Hat Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1974) 13 Cal 3d 107, 118 Cal Rptr 10, 529 P2d 42, 1974 Cal LEXIS 196.

4. Appeal and Error

Party aggrieved by decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing issuance of on-sale liquor license has no right to seek judicial review of such decision without first filing appeal with appeals board of department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

Where respondent did not appeal from judgment annulling revocation of license on one count of charges against licensees, that count was not before appellate court and claim that it was erroneously annulled by trial court could not be considered, on appeal by licensees from judgment in mandamus proceedings to review determination by department. Garcia v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1753.

Where licensee was charged by department in two counts in almost identical language with permitting female employee to solicit purchase of alcoholic beverage, penalty imposed under first count being sixty-day suspension of license, penalty under second being revocation of license, because department considered, erroneously, that acts under second count were also violation of Pen C § 303a, appellate court could, in interests of justice, consider violation of Penal Code section, notwithstanding that licensee did not exhaust his administrative remedies in either department or alcoholic beverage control board of appeal and did not raise question in trial court, and could remand case to permit department to reassess penalty imposed under second count. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

It was error, requiring remand to reassess penalty imposed, for department to revoke on-sale liquor license on ground that the violation of Pen C § 303a, making it unlawful for anyone to loiter in licensed premises to solicit purchase of alcoholic drinks, where licensee was not charged with violation of section himself or with permitting his employee to violate section, there was no finding that employee loitered about premises, and where it could not be assumed that department found as fact element of crime that was not even charged, that is, loitering. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board exceeded its jurisdiction in reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the revocation of an alcoholic beverage license, where there was no question that the department's decision-maker, and where the department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6; 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

§ 23090.1. Time and place for return of writ; New evidence; Hearing on certified record

The writ of review shall be made returnable at a time and place then or thereafter specified by court order and shall direct the board to certify the whole record of the department in the case to the court within the time specified. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in such court, but the cause shall be heard on the whole record of the department as certified to by the board.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

B & P C § 23090.1’s limitation on the introduction of new or additional evidence is in keeping with the typical practice for writs of review. However, an exception to that limitation applies where the evidence is not offered to undermine the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s substantive factual findings, but is intended to shed light on whether an illegal practice in fact took place. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 295, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

§ 23090.2. Extent of review; Trial de novo

The review by the court shall not extend further than to determine, based on the whole record of the department as certified by the board, whether:

(a) The department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction.

(b) The department has proceeded in the manner required by law.

(c) The decision of the department is supported by the findings.

(d) The findings in the department’s decision are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.

(e) There is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department.

Nothing in this article shall permit the court to hold a trial de novo, to take evidence, or to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Discretion of Department
4. Standard of Review
5. Department Action Proper

1. Generally

On review, under B & P C § 23090, of an order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying an off-sale beer and wine license, the issue before the court is the same as it was before the Appeals Board, namely, whether the department’s ultimate finding that issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23090.2). Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control must be sustained if they are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record; and neither the appeals board nor a reviewing court may disregard or overturn a finding of fact of the department because it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

2. Construction with Other Law

In accumulating evidence of recurring sales of distilled spirits below established minimum retail prices in violation of B & P C § 24755 [repealed], before filing its accusation charging the licensee with the whole series of violations and assessing the concomitant cumulative penalties provided by B & P C § 24755.1 [repealed], the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control failed to proceed “in a manner required by law,” thus subjecting its action to judicial review and intervention under B & P C § 23090.2. The purpose of the penal statute is to induce conformance with the fair trade requirements, and a practice whereby notice is withheld while the licensee is afforded an opportunity to engage in a series of violations, defeats the very purposes of the fair trade law. Moreover, the imposition of cumulative penalties on the licensee in question, which resulted in the de facto revocation of his license, was contrary to the provisions and purposes of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, was arbitrary and capricious in light of those purposes, and constituted a denial of due process of law. Walsh v. Kirby (1974) 13 Cal 3d 95, 118 Cal Rptr 1, 529 P2d 33, 1974 Cal LEXIS 195.

3. Discretion of Department

The discretion vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const, art XX § 22, to deny any specific liquor license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is not absolute, but must be exercised in accordance with law; and the provision necessarily implies that the department’s decisions should be based on sufficient evidence and that it should not act arbitrarily in determining what is contrary to public welfare or morals, but in considering the sufficiency of the evidence issue, a court is governed by the substantial evidence rule of resolving any conflict in the evidence in favor of the decision, and indulging every reasonably deductible inference in support thereof. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and not the reviewing court determines whether good cause exists for denying a license on the ground that its issuance would be contrary to public welfare or morals, the court merely determining whether or not the department acted arbitrarily in making its decision; and, if the decision is without reason under the evidence, the action of the department is arbitrary, constitutes an abuse of discretion, and may be set aside; but where the decision is the subject of a choice within reason, the department is vested with the discretion of making the selection which it deems proper, and its action, within the scope of its constitutionally-conferred discretion, may not be interfered with. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

The enforcement and administration of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (Bus & Prof Code, §§ 23000 et seq.) is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under the provisions of Cal Const, art XX, § 22; the department has thus been granted a broad range of power and discretion in deciding whether a particular application for a liquor license should be granted or denied; and an abuse of discretion must appear very clearly before the courts will interfere. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 263 Cal App 2d 706, 69 Cal Rptr 744, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2260.

4. Standard of Review

In determining whether a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is arbitrary, its action is measured by the standard set by reason and reasonable people, bearing in mind that such standard may permit a difference of opinion on the same subject; and a reviewing court may not substitute a decision contrary to that made by the department, even though such decision is equally or more reasonable, if the determination by the department is one which could have been made by reasonable people. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

Since the power to determine the facts in licensing matters is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and not in the Appeals Board or the courts, a review of the action of the department is governed by the familiar rule that where there is room for reasonable difference of opinion with respect to the correctness of a finding of fact, it will not be disturbed by the reviewing tribunal. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

In determining whether findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are supported by substantial evidence, a court is required to resolve all conflicts in the evidence in favor of the department's decision. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

Same deferential standard of review applicable to revocations, grants, or denials of alcoholic beverage licenses by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C §§ 23084, 23090.2 apply to the Department's discretionary powers to determine whether there is good cause to suspend a license because all of the Department's powers derive from Cal Const Art XX § 22. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C § 11330 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department's prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department's decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

5. Department Action Proper

It was reversible error under B & P C § 23090.2 for the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to substitute its own interpretation of the "tied-house" law under B & P C § 25502 for that of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control when the Department's interpretation of § 25502 was a reasonable and rational one. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control acted properly in suspending liquor licensees' license after an employee relied on a customer's fake identification. The appellate court's review was limited to whether the Department's findings were supported by substantial evidence. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2004, Cal App 1st Dist) 118 Cal App 4th 1429, 13 Cal Rptr 3d 826, 2004 Cal App LEXIS 819.

California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control acted properly in suspending liquor licensees' license after an employee relied on a customer's fake identification. The appellate court's review was limited to whether the Department's findings were supported by substantial evidence, and the appellate court was obliged to accept the Department's findings of fact. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2004, Cal App 1st Dist) 118 Cal App 4th 1429, 13 Cal Rptr 3d 826, 2004 Cal App LEXIS 819.

§ 23090.3. Findings on questions of fact; Entry of judgment

The findings and conclusions of the department on questions of fact are conclusive and final and are not subject to review. Such questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the department. The board, the department, and each party to the action or proceeding before the board shall have the right to appear in the review proceeding. Following the hearing, the court shall enter judgment either affirming or reversing the decision of the department, or the court may remand the case for further proceedings before or reconsideration by the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

Under constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C § 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal 3d 431, 146 Cal Rptr 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978 Cal LEXIS 298, 96 ALR3d 613.
§ 23090.4. Applicability of Code of Civil Procedure; Service of pleadings

The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to writs of review shall, insofar as applicable, apply to proceedings in the courts as provided by this article. A copy of every pleading filed pursuant to this article shall be served on the board, the department, and on each party who entered an appearance before the board.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

Under constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage and Control Board (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. § 23090.5. Jurisdiction to hear appeals; Mandamus

No court of this state, except the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal to the extent specified in this article, shall have jurisdiction to review, affirm, reverse, correct, or annul any order, rule, or decision of the department or to suspend, stay, or delay the operation or execution thereof, or to restrain, enjoin, or interfere with the department in the performance of its duties, but a writ of mandate shall lie from the Supreme Court or the courts of appeal in any proper case.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

B & P C § 23909.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions or orders of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or to interfere with the operation or execution of such decisions or orders, does not unconstitutionally curtail the jurisdiction of the superior court to issue writs of mandamus. Kirby v. Superior Court (1969, Cal App 1st Dist) 275 Cal App 2d 975, 80 Cal Rptr 381, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2006.

B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal, is not limited in application to only the review of adversary (quasi-judicial) proceedings in which a transcript of an administrative hearing is compiled as a basis for judicial review; the section also applies, as in the instant case, to a rule-making (quasi-legislative) action. Schenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

Although Gov C § 11440, permits declaratory relief actions in superior court to review regulations adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, that provision is partially limited and superseded by B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal.

B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal, does not unconstitutionally interfere with petitioner’s access to the courts. Schenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

A liquor licensee was not entitled to judicial consideration of its challenge to the procedure of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control whereby it had accumulated evidence of successive sales of distilled spirits below minimum retail price and then, in a single accusation, imposed cumulative penalties, each based on a single sale, but measured in severity by the prior number of illegal sales in the series, where the licensee had not exhausted its administrative remedy of appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and had not demonstrated that its situation was unique or distinctive or cited any authority supporting its claim of inadequacy of the administrative remedy. B & P C § 23090.5, expressly withholds from the courts jurisdiction to review or otherwise to interfere with the department or its decision except to the extent specified in B & P C §§ 23090-23090.7, and, § 23090, in specifying the conditions under which applications may be made for a writ of review, limits such applications to those persons affected by a “final order of the board.” Top Hat Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1974) 13 Cal 3d 107, 118 Cal Rptr 10, 529 P2d 42, 1974 Cal LEXIS 196.

Neither Cal Const Art III § 3.5 nor B & P C § 23090.5 preclude state courts from determining constitutional issues arising from administrative discipline of liquor licensees, regardless of whether the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board has jurisdiction to determine said issues. Radtke v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1980, CD Cal) 491 F Supp 42, 1980 US Dist LEXIS 11535.

B & P C § 23090.5, providing that no court except the Supreme Court or Courts of Appeal shall have jurisdiction to review, affirm, or reverse any order, rule, or decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is completely inapplicable to proceedings to abate a nuisance brought pursuant to B & P C § 25604 and Pen C § 11200. Therefore, in an action based on the nuisance statutes, the superior court has jurisdiction to issue a permanent injunction against the illegal sale and serving of alcoholic beverages as a public nuisance. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

Cal Const Art III § 3.5, prohibiting administrative bodies from declaring statutes unconstitutional or refusing enforcement of statutes on the basis of claims that the statutes are unconstitutional, and B & P C § 23090.5, restricting review of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control determinations to petitions for writ of review in state appellate court, did not deny liquor licensees due process of law by forcing them to submit to revocation by an administrative body which could not act on constitutional defenses, while limiting review of the decision to a discretionary petition for writ of review. Dash, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1982, 9th Cir Cal) 683 F2d 1229, 1992 US App LEXIS 16721.

In an action for declaratory and injunctive relief, brought by a holder of a liquor license to preclude the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control from imposing discipline for the licensee's alleged sales of alcohol to minors, the superior court properly sustained the department's demurrer without leave to amend. The exclusive jurisdiction for judicial review of such disciplinary actions is in the Supreme Court and appellate courts by way of writ review (B & P C § 23090.5). Although the case was filed before a disciplinary order was entered, jurisdictional limitations cannot be circumvented by a preemptive lawsuit. Although declaratory relief is a cumulative remedy and the superior court ordinarily has jurisdiction to entertain declaratory relief actions, an action seeking a judgment which will interfere with the department's prospective disciplinary orders is beyond the jurisdiction of the superior court. American Drug Stores, Inc. v. Stroh (1992, Cal App 4th Dist) 10 Cal App 4th 1446, 13 Cal Rptr 2d 432, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 1319.

2. Mandamus

In a proceeding seeking review of an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying petitioner-liquor license holder an extension of time before cancellation of the license became effective and within which to conclude a transfer of the license (Adm Code, tit 4, Rule 65(d)), the appellate court and not the superior court could exercise jurisdiction to grant relief by a writ of mandate, where, though the applicable statute (B & P C § 23090.5) related to the power of the courts to review, affirm, reverse, correct, or annul any order of decision of the department, the legislative intention when adopting the statute was not to establish an alternative procedure for judicial review of the exercise of the limited judicial powers of the department, but was to provide for judicial review only by the Supreme Court or the courts of appeal of the orders, rules or decisions or other acts of the department in the performance of its duties when acting in its administrative capacity. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 671, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1319.

In the determination of the propriety of granting a writ of mandate to compel the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to grant an extension of time for the cancellation of a liquor license under Adm Code, tit 4, Rule 65(d), the writ must be denied, where no clear abuse of discretion on the part of the department was shown by petitioner, though the license would expire under the rule before three disciplinary actions respecting the license could be heard. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1779, dismissed, (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 578, dismissed, National Motor Freight Traffic Assv. v. United States (1968) 393 U.S. 18, 89 S. Ct. 49, 21 L. Ed. 2d 19, 1968 U.S. LEXIS 590.

In a mandamus proceeding to review an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the superior court properly sustained the department's demurrer on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, and stay of the suspension order was thereafter improperly granted by a judge of the same superior court, where the licensee failed to seek judicial review in accordance with B & P C § 23090, within 30 days after the final order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of B & P C § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions of the department, the right to judicial review of the order of suspension did not mature until some six months after the effective date, and where application of the revised review procedures involved no impairment of the licensee's right to judicial review nor a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefit of the revised procedures. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 7, 73 Cal Rptr 671, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1267.

Under B & P C § 23090.5, only the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal have jurisdiction to review decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and, in a mandamus proceeding attacking the revocation of a liquor license filed in a superior court after the effective date of the statute, the superior court should have sustained the department's demurrer based on lack of jurisdiction, even though the departmental hearing on the license revocation was held prior to the effective date of the statute. The constitutional proscription against ex post facto laws applied only to criminal statutes and the fact that jurisdiction is taken away from a particular court to hear one kind of case does not in itself deprive anyone of a vested right; under present law the Supreme Court and the Courts of Appeal have all of the powers of review formerly exercisable by the superior court. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

§ 23090.6. Stay of proceedings

The filing of a petition for, or the pendency of, a writ of review shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of any order, rule, or decision of the department, but the court before which the petition is filed may stay or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the order, rule, or decision of the department subject to review, upon the terms and conditions which it by order directs.

Stay of Suspension

Suspension or revocation of licenses: 4 Cal Code Reg §§ 142 et seq.

§ 23095. Right of licensee to make offer in compromise in lieu of serving suspension; Procedure on receipt of petition; Amount of offer in compromise
(a) Whenever a decision of the department suspending a license becomes final, whether by failure of the licensee to appeal the decision or by exhaustion of all appeals and judicial review, the licensee may, before the operative date of the suspension, petition the department for permission to make an offer in compromise, to be paid into the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund, consisting of a sum of money in lieu of serving the suspension.
(b) No licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise in any case in which the proposed suspension is for a period in excess of 15 days.
(c) Upon the receipt of the petition, the department may stay the proposed suspension and cause any investigation to be made which it deems desirable and may grant the petition if it is satisfied that the following conditions are met:
1. The public welfare and morals would not be impaired by permitting the licensee to operate during the period set for suspension and the payment of the sum of money will achieve the desired disciplinary purposes.
2. The books and records of the licensee are kept in such a manner that the loss of sales of alcoholic beverages that the licensee would have suffered had the suspension gone into effect can be determined with reasonable accuracy therefrom.
3. The offer in compromise for retail licensees shall be the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of the proposed suspension, subject to the following limits:
   1. The offer in compromise may not be less than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) nor more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).
   2. If the petitioning retailer has had any other accusation filed against him or her by the department during the three years prior to the date of the petition that has resulted in a final decision to suspend or revoke the retail license concerned, the offer in compromise may be not less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) nor more than six thousand dollars ($6,000).
   3. Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise for a second violation of Section 25658 that occurs within 36 months of the initial violation without regard to the period of suspension. In these cases, the offer in compromise shall be the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of the proposed suspension, and the offer in compromise may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) unless the nonretail licensee has violated Section 25500, 25502, 25503, or 25600 by giving to any licensee illegal inducements, secret rebates, or free goods amounting to more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in value, in which case the offer in compromise shall be equal to the value of the illegal inducements, secret rebates, or free goods given.
   4. Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any nonretail licensee who pays an offer in compromise based upon a violation in the exercise of any retail privileges of that license shall have the offer in compromise computed on estimated retail gross sales only pursuant to subdivision (d).
   5. All moneys collected as a result of penalties imposed under this subdivision shall be deposited directly in the General Fund in the State Treasury, rather than the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided for in Section 25761.

1959 Amendment: (1) Added “and that the payment of the sum of money will achieve the desired disciplinary purposes" in subd (a); (2) deleted former subd (b) which read: “(b) that public convenience and necessity would be better served by permitting the licensee to operate during the period set for suspension and that the payment of the sum of money will

[Note: This form is only applicable when a decision of the Department suspending a license for thirty days or less becomes final, and before the operative date of such suspension. § 23096. Order
The moneys derived from a payment in compromise under Section 23095 shall be paid to the State Treasury for deposit in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund. Upon such payment, the department shall enter its further order permanently staying the imposition of the suspension.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality

1. Constitutionality
Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s refusal to consider an offer of compromise from a licensee whose license was suspended for 45 days, based on the provision in B & P C § 23095 that limited such compromises to licensees whose licenses were suspended for 30 days or less, was not a denial of due process or of equal protection. Woods v. Alcoholic Beverage Appeals Board (1980, CD Cal) 502 F Supp 528, 1980 US Dist LEXIS 15261.

§ 23097. Limitations on authority of department in connection with petition
In connection with any such petition, the authority of the department is limited to the granting of such stays as are necessary for it to complete its investigation and make its findings and, if it makes such findings, to the granting of an order permanently staying the imposition of the entire suspension or of that portion of the suspension not otherwise conditionally stayed by the decision of the department for “suspension” at the end of the first sentence.

§ 23098. When suspension may go into effect
If the department does not make the findings required in Section 23095, and does not order the suspension permanently stayed, the suspension shall go into effect on the operative date finally set by the department.

A retailer may return wine to the seller or to the successor of the seller and the seller or his or her successor may accept the return thereof, except that the seller or his or her successor may not sell wine to the retailer for a period of one year after the date the returned wine is accepted or received unless any of the following exists:

In these cases, the retailer may, within 15 days after delivery, return the wine to the seller or his or her successor for exchange for the wine actually ordered, or may return the wine delivered in excess of the wine actually ordered. Returns under this subdivision may also be made after 15 days from the date of delivery upon written approval of the department.
§ 23104.2. Return of beer by retail licensee to wholesaler or manufacturer

(a) Subject to the exceptions specified in subdivision (b), a retail licensee may return beer to the wholesaler or manufacturer from whom the retail licensee purchased the beer, or any successor thereto, and the wholesaler, manufacturer, or successor thereto may accept that return if the beer is returned in exchange for an identical package when the return and correction procedures are completed within 15 days from the date the beer was delivered to the retail licensee.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may accept the return of beer purchased from that wholesaler, manufacturer, or successor thereto, as follows:

(1) From a seasonal or temporary licensee if at the termination of the period of the license the seasonal or temporary licensee has beer remaining unsold, or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if at the termination of the temporary period, the annual licensee has beer remaining unsold.

market area or a seasonal brand of beer from a retail licensee, provided that the beer is exchanged for a quantity of beer of a brand produced or sold by the same manufacturer with a value no greater than the original sales price to the retail licensee of the returned beer. For purposes of this subparagraph, “seasonal brand of beer” means a brand of beer, as defined in Section 23006, that is brewed by a manufacturer to commemorate a specific holiday season and is so identified by appropriate product packaging and labeling.

(B) A discontinued brand of beer may not be reintroduced for a period of 12 months in the same California market area in which a return and exchange of that beer as described in subparagraph (A) has taken place. A seasonal brand of beer may not be reintroduced for a period of six months in the same California market area in which a return and exchange of that beer as described in subparagraph (A) has taken place.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may accept the return of beer purchased from that wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, by the holder of a retail license following the revocation of, suspension of, voluntary surrender of, or failure to renew the retail license.

(d) A wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may credit the account of the retailer identified in subdivision (c) in an amount not to exceed the original sales price of the returned beer, provided that the beer has been paid for in full.

(e)(1) Notwithstanding the 15-day time limit for the return of beer described in subdivision (a), beer that is recalled or that is considered by a manufacturer, importer, or governmental entity to present health, safety, or product quality issues if distributed, offered for sale, or sold in the state may be accepted for return at anytime from a retailer and be picked up by the seller of beer. The seller of beer may exchange the returned beer for identical product, if safe inventory or quality-controlled product inventory is available, issue a deferred exchange memorandum showing the beer was picked up and is to be replaced when inventory is available, or issue a credit memorandum to the retailer for the returned beer. The seller of beer may exchange with the manufacturer or importer the returned beer and the seller of beer’s inventory that was recalled or considered to present health, safety, or product quality issues. The returned beer may be exchanged for identical product, if safe inventory or quality-controlled product inventory is available, or the seller of beer may elect to receive either a refund from or be issued a credit memorandum by the manufacturer or importer for the returned beer and seller of beer’s inventory that was recalled or considered to present health, safety, or product quality issues.

(2) Returns for manufacturer or importer product quality issues pursuant to this subdivision are subject to department approval, and shall not include the return of beer due to the aging of beer.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a licensee may accept the return of unsold and unopened beer from an organization that obtained a temporary license pursuant to Section 24045 or 24045.1. The licensee may credit the account of the organization in an amount not to exceed the original sales price of the returned beer, provided that the beer has been paid for in full.

(g)(1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an on-sale retail licensee that purchases beer for sale at an event for which a catering authorization is issued by the department pursuant to Section 23399 may return the unused and unopened beer to the original selling licensee at the conclusion of the catered event or upon expiration of the catering authorization, provided the beer was purchased for use or sale only at that event and the on-sale retail licensee does not also provide any beer for use or sale at the event from its permanent licensed premises. The on-sale retail licensee holding the catering authorization shall record and maintain a record of the inventory of all unused and unopened beer to be returned at the conclusion of the catering event. The original selling licensee shall prepare an invoice to reflect the returned beer that shall reference the original sales invoice and shall provide the on-sale retail licensee holding the catering authorization with a copy of the invoice.

(2) Any beer returned pursuant to this subdivision must be returned to the original selling licensee at the conclusion of the catered event or upon expiration of the catering authorization. The original selling licensee may credit the account of the on-sale retail licensee in an amount not to exceed the original sales price of the returned beer, provided the beer has been paid for in full.

No licensee authorized to sell beer to retailers shall accept the return of any beer from a retailer except when the beer delivered was not the brand or size container ordered by the retailer, or the amount delivered was other than the amount ordered, in which case the order may be corrected. If a package had been broken or otherwise damaged prior to or at the time of actual delivery, a credit memorandum may be issued for the returned package in lieu of exchange for an identical package when the return and corrections are completed within 15 days from the date the beer was delivered to the retailer.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), a seller may accept the return of beer from a seasonal or temporary licensee if at the termination of the period of the license the seasonal or temporary licensee has beer remaining unsold, or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if at the termination of the temporary period the annual licensee has beer remaining unsold.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner’s on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the introduction in evidence of the bar owner’s written admission that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale in his business did not deprive the bar owner of due process of law, such license to sell intoxicants is not a proprietary right within the meaning of due process. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

3. Sale Without License

A person who sells without a license is guilty of a violation, even though the sale was one that could not lawfully be made by a licensee. People v. Minter, 73 Cal App 2d Supp 994, 167 P2d 11.

In a prosecution for selling whiskey without a license, where the defendant was asked if he would sell some good whiskey and he produced a bottle bearing the label “Old Crow Whisky, 100 Proof” upon which were unbroken United States Government revenue stamps, although the bottle was never opened and sampled, it was presumed that the statutes prohibiting misbranding had been obeyed and the bottle contained whiskey. People v. Minter, 73 Cal App 2d Supp 994, 167 P2d 11.

In a prosecution for selling alcoholic beverages without a license (B & P C, § 23300) the trial court correctly ruled, and instructed the jury, that the statute defined a strict liability, malum prohibitum offense wherein neither guilty knowledge nor intent need be shown, and that a good faith belief that one has a legal right to sell alcoholic beverages is not a legal defense to violations alleged if one, in fact, has no then valid license to sell alcoholic beverages. People v. Quinn, (1983, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 3d Supp 1, 196 Cal Rptr 696, 1983 Cal App LEXIS 2471.

4. Transfer of License

Where contract for purchase of partner’s interest in on-sale liquor license, business and assets provided that purchaser and remaining partner should form partnership to operate new business, that all parties should seek transfer of license to new firm, and that title should pass to purchaser on issuance of new license, purchaser had no interest in business, its assets or profits pending transfer of license, and he was precluded from seeking appointment of receiver. Rondos v. Superior Court (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 2d 190, 311 P2d 113, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1743.

If contract for purchase of interest in on-sale business is silent as to when title is to pass, provisions of this section will be read into agreement and prevent transfer of title except coincidentally with transfer of liquor license. Rondos v. Superior Court (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 2d 190, 311 P2d 113, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1743.

5. Particular Determinations

Importer’s denial of approval for a beer distributorship sale, even if unreasonable, provided no basis for the buyer to assert claims for intentional and negligent interference with prospective economic advantage because the importer had a statutory right to unreasonably deny approval if it compensated the seller for any resulting loss; moreover, the importer did not wrongfully exercise the rights of a distributor in doing so. Crown Imports, LLC v. Superior Court (2014, 2d Dist) 2014 Cal App LEXIS 157.

§ 23301. Penalty for operation without license.

Any person violating Section 23300 is guilty of a misdemeanor, except that any person, without having a still license, exercising the privileges or performing any act which a still licensee may exercise or perform is guilty of a felony.

(b) Beginning January 1, 2013, and each January 1 thereafter, the department may adjust each of the fees specified in this section by increasing each fee by an amount not to exceed the percentage that the Consumer Price Index (United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, West Region, All Urban Consumers, All Items, Base Period 1982-84 =100) for the preceding April 2011, and each April annually thereafter, has increased under the same index over the month of April 2010, which shall be the base period. No fee shall be decreased pursuant to this adjustment below the fee currently in effect on each December 31. In the event that this index is discontinued, the department shall consult with the Department of Finance to convert the increase calculations to an index then available. When approved by the Department of Finance, the new index shall replace the discontinued index.

(c) The department shall calculate the percentage increase as specified in subdivision (b) and shall apply this increase to each fee. The increase to each fee shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. The adjusted fee list shall be published by the department and transmitted to the Legislature for approval as part of the department’s budget submission for the fiscal year in which the adjusted fees would be implemented. This adjustment of fees and publication of the adjusted fee list is not subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
   Where the prescribed fee is not tendered with an application for a license and the license is issued or renewed without its payment because of an injunction prohibiting collection pending ultimate determination of the validity of the licensing statute, an action to collect the fee may be brought following the reversal of the judgment in the injunction suit. People v. Schmidt (1941, Cal App) 48 Cal App 2d 255, 119 P2d 766, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 788.
   This statute provides for a complete scheme of beer licensing, and the board of equalization may not add to that scheme a license not contemplated or directly or indirectly authorized by the legislature. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 438, 199 P2d 34, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1487.

2. Applicability

3. Legislative Intent
   By providing for types of licenses to be issued legislature demonstrated its intent to keep clubs separate and apart from public eating places and public premises that may obtain on-sale general licenses for alcoholic beverages. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 567, 20 Cal Rptr 227, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2628.
   Legislature demonstrated its recognition of bona fide club as distinct type of licensee when it provided for annual fees of each type of license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 567, 20 Cal Rptr 227, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2628.

4. Seasonal Business
   The constitution and the statutes use the terms “seasonal business” and “seasonal license” to mean the same thing. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App 2d 41, 229 P2d 9, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1121.
   A seasonal business is a business located in a seasonal area in which consumer demand fluctuates during different periods of the year, and the business need not be closed and locked during any part of the year. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App 2d 41, 229 P2d 9, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1121.

§ 23320.1. Special on-sale general licenses
   In addition to the licenses specified in Section 23320, the department may issue special onsale general licenses. The annual fee for such licenses shall be the same as the fee prescribed for onsale general licenses in Section 23320.

§ 23320.6. Wine Safety Fund
   (a) The Wine Safety Fund is hereby created as a special fund in the State Treasury, in trust, to the State Department of Health Services for the purpose of providing funds to better enable its Food and Drug Branch to carry out and supervise a statistically valid testing program to ensure that levels of lead in wine sold in this state remain safe and within tolerances established by applicable laws and regulations, for the health and safety of the consuming public upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. The fees collected pursuant to Section 23320.7 shall be sufficient to cover, but shall not exceed, the costs of administering the testing program, including the reimbursement of any importer or retailer for the wholesale cost of any wine tested, conducted pursuant to this section. All moneys collected under Section 23320.7, including any interest accrued thereon, shall be deposited in the Wine Safety Fund.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to appropriate moneys in the Wine Safety Fund in equal amounts of fifty-five thousand three hundred dollars ($55,300) over five years to the State Department of Health Services for expenditure exclusively for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a).

Amendments:
1999 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); (2) amended subd (a) by adding (a) "statistically valid testing" after "and supervise a" in the first sentence; and (b) ", including the reimbursement of any importer or retailer for the wholesale cost of any wine tested," in the second sentence; and (3) added subd (b).

Note—Stats 1993 ch 1025 provides:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
(a) The wine industry plays a significant role in California’s economy, providing jobs and revenue, attracting foreign investment, promoting exports and tourism, and enhancing the state’s image around the world.
(b) California’s wine industry is a world leader in quality and production techniques, with California wines enjoying increasing popularity throughout the world.
(c) Past reports concerning minute traces of lead detectable in a handful of wines produced in other states and regions have prompted consumer concerns about the safety of wines generally.
(d) Testing by state and federal regulators has since demonstrated that the vast majority of wine sold in California contains lead at levels no higher than those often seen in many fresh fruits, vegetables, and other wholesome agricultural products, and that the levels of lead, if any, in California’s wines are generally among the world’s lowest.
(e) An industry–funded program already provides warnings advising pregnant women not to drink, utilizing point–of–sale and point–of–display notices that convey a uniform clear and reasonable warning message specified by the state’s “Proposition 65” regulations.
(f) Compliance with a new more stringent limit on lead levels in wine will obviate any need for new warnings concerning lead that might dilute the impact and undermine the effectiveness of the uniform warnings now provided pursuant to existing federal laws and the state’s “Proposition 65” regulations.
(g) This act, which shall be known, and may be cited, as the “Wine Safety Act” shall establish the world’s most stringent limit on the maximum allowable levels of lead in wines sold in California, and shall establish a mechanism whereby the cost of ensuring industry compliance with the new standard is funded by California’s wine producers and importers.
(h) To minimize the burden on interstate and foreign commerce, it is the intent of the Legislature that the sampling method and testing protocol used by the State Department of Health Services to quantify levels of lead in wine shall be consistent with the testing protocol and, to the extent practicable, the sampling method that may be used by the federal Food and Drug Administration or the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to quantify levels of lead in wine.

In no event shall the rights under any such license be exercised in any county during more than 100 calendar days in any calendar year. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 23815) of Chapter 5 of this division, there shall be no limitation, other than provided in this section, on the number of licenses that may be issued under this section to applicants who meet its requirements. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, all provisions of this division shall apply to any license issued under this section in the same manner as such provisions apply to an on–sale general license issued for a bona fide public eating place, provided that no caterer’s permit may be issued pursuant to Section 23399 with respect to any license issued hereunder, and provided further that any duplicate license issued pursuant to Section 24042 respecting such vessel shall bear the same fee specified by subdivision (35) of Section 23320.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Finding of department that licensee had repeatedly violated section was tantamount to finding that continuance of license would be “contrary to public welfare.” Martin v. Alcoholic Beverages Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal LEXIS 203.

The fact that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly filed charges against partners who had entered into an agreement requiring an independent concessionaire to operate a bar and restaurant under its own name, using the partners’ liquor license, and that the partners admitted the guilt and paid a fine, did not establish any relationship of principal and agent between the partners and the concessionaire so as to make the partners liable for the debts of the concessionaire to food and liquor wholesalers who had sold to the concessionaire. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

2. Constitutionality

Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege or such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates US Const, Fourteenth Amendment. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Liquor license has certain attributes of property, but it is type of property which state, under police power, has power to control and regulate. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

3. Applicability

This section had no application as to right of original licensee to have license retransferred pursuant to lease agreement. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

4. Evidence

Department’s determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee’s husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife’s name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife’s property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 340, 326 P2d 535, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1739.

5. Responsibility of Licensee

Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of law, and as matter of general law knowledge and acts of employee or agent are imputable to licensee. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 796, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

Attorney General’s Opinions:
Absence of necessity for issuance of off–sale general license to holder of wine grower’s or brandy manufacturer’s license despite fact that given county may have excess number of off–sale general licenses allowed by § 23817. 30 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 327.

§ 23356.1. Winetastings conducted by licensee; Sales or orders; Rules
(a) A winegrower’s license also authorizes the person to whom issued to conduct winetastings of wine produced or bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the licensee, either on or off the winegrower’s premises. When a winetasting is held off the winegrower’s premises at an event sponsored by a private nonprofit organization, no wine may be sold, and no sales or orders solicited, except that orders for the sale of wine may be accepted by the winegrower if the sales transaction is completed at the winegrower’s premises. For purposes of this subdivision, “private nonprofit organization” means an organization described in Section 23701a, 23701b, 23701d, 23701e, 23701f, 23701g, 23701i, 23701k, or 23701w of the Revenue and Taxation Code. (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this division, a winegrower who, prior to July 1, 1970, had, at his or her premises of production, sold to consumers for consumption off the premises domestic wine other than wine which was produced or bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the licensee, and which was not sold under a brand or trade name owned by the licensee, and who had, prior to July 1, 1970, conducted winetastings of the domestic wine at his or her licensed premises, is authorized to continue to conduct the winetasting and selling activities at the licensed premises. (c) A winegrower who was licensed as such prior to July 1, 1954, and who prior to July 1, 1970, had, at his or her licensed premises, sold to consumers for consumption off the premises, wine packaged for and imported by him or her, and who conducted winetastings of the wines at his or her licensed premises, may continue to conduct the winetasting and selling activities at the licensed premises. (d) The department may adopt the rules as it determines to be necessary for the administration of this section.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Distilled Spirits
3. Manufacturer
4. California Produced

1. Generally
Corporation that relies on section for asserted privilege of selling distilled spirits directly to retailers cannot at the same time attack its constitutionality. American Distilling Co. v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 457, 301 P2d 495, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1742.

2. Distilled Spirits
Definition of “distilled spirits,” given in § 23005, controls determination whether corporation is manufacturer of distilled spirits under this section, or rectifier with respect to alcohol imported from another state and distilled here to make it fit for beverage purposes. American Distilling Co. v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 457, 301 P2d 495, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1742.

3. Manufacturer
Corporation is, with respect to alcohol imported from another state, manufacturer of distilled spirits, rather than rectifier, under evidence that, when alcohol arrives at corporation’s plant, it is not fit for beverage purposes, but is then distilled, its impurities removed, and its proof reduced to make it fit for beverage purposes. American Distilling Co. v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 457, 301 P2d 495, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1742.

Editor’s Notes—Subd (b)(1) of this section appears as enacted.

Note—Stats 2013 ch 366 provides:
SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a tasting of distilled spirits or brandy is a presentation of samples of one or more distilled spirits or brandies, representing one or more distilled spirits or brandy manufacturers, to a group of consumers for the purpose of acquainting the tasters with the characteristics of the distilled spirits or brandy tasted.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exceptions established by Sections 23363.1 and 23363.3 of the Business and Professions Code to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to their express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that these sections be construed accordingly.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

§ 23378.1. California brandy wholesaler’s license; Number authorized; Fee

(a) A California brandy wholesaler’s license may be issued only to the holder of a beer and wine wholesaler’s license, and authorizes the person to whom it is issued (hereafter in this section called “licensee”) to sell only brandy produced in California to persons holding licenses authorizing the sale of brandy, and to export that brandy, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The licensee shall:

(A) Maintain warehouse space either owned or leased by him or her or dedicated to his or her use in a public warehouse which space is sufficient to store at one time a stock of California brandy whose cost of acquisition is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more.

(B) Maintain at all times in his or her warehouse either owned or leased by him or her or in space dedicated to his or her use in a public warehouse a stock of California brandy whose cost of acquisition is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more. If a licensee has more than one licensed premise, he or she shall be required to maintain warehouse space for and a stock of California brandy whose cost of acquisition is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more only in connection with one licensed premise. For each of the remaining licensed premises, the licensee shall be required to maintain warehouse space for and a stock of California brandy whose cost of acquisition is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more. The stock of California brandy required by this paragraph shall be owned by the licensee, not held on consignment, and not acquired pursuant to a prior agreement to sell it to a specific licensee or licensees.

(2) The licensee shall sell California brandy to retailers generally, rather than a few selected retailers. A licensee who sells to 25 percent of the retailers in the county where his or her California brandy wholesale licensed premises are located, or a licensee whose total volume of sales of California brandy to retailers during any 12-month period consists of 50 percent or more of individual sales in quantities of 10 cases or less, shall be conclusively presumed to be selling to retailers generally.

(3) The licensee may sell only one California brandy of one winegrower, which brandy is produced or bottled by the winegrower, or which is produced for, or is produced and packaged for, the winegrower, and is sold under a brand name owned or controlled by the winegrower.

(4) The licensee, under the authority of his or her beer and wine wholesaler’s license, shall stock and offer to sell to retailers a complete product line of California wines of the winegrower whose brandy the licensee handles. A “complete product line” for the purposes of this paragraph means all of the types of wines sold under a particular label.

(b) The number of California brandy wholesaler’s licenses which may be issued shall not be limited by any rule of the department relating to the number which may be issued in any county, nor shall those licenses be included in any formula used by the department in determining the number of distilled spirits wholesaler’s licenses which may be issued in a county.

(c) The fee for a California brandy wholesaler’s license shall be two hundred seventy-six dollars ($276) per year, which shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund.

Amendments:
2011 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, (1) redesignated former (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) to be subds (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B); (2) added the comma after “10 cases or less” in the second sentence of subd (a)(2); and (3) substituted “Alcohol Beverage Control Fund” for “Alcoholic Beverage Control Fund” in subd (c).

Note—Stats 1988 ch 284 provides:
SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:
Chapter 68 of the Statutes of 1987 inadvertently removed longstanding statutory authority for delicatesseens and groceries holding off–sale beer and wine licenses to wholesale wine in gift packs with food products. As a result, unless this defect is reversed by June 30, 1988, many small markets will be forced to divest themselves of their wine wholesale businesses. Therefore, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Generally
Samples of distilled spirits given away by wholesaler, rather than sales of liquor to another to be used by purchaser for samples, are not gratuitous in true sense, as use of samples is for purpose of encouraging sale of product, and Board of Equalization acted within its rule-making power in adopting rule requiring stamps to be attached to such samples. Tonkin Distributing Co. v. Collins (1942, Cal App) 50 Cal App 2d 790, 123 P2d 938, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 1009.

2. Construction with Other Law
B & P C § 25600 prohibits any licensee from giving away any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage except as provided by rules, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s Rule 52(b) prohibits gifts of alcoholic beverages in connection with the sale of any alcoholic beverage. B & P C § 23386 authorizes wholesalers to give away samples in accordance with rules as shall be prescribed by the Department, and one such rule (Rule 52(a)), allows free samples only to other licensees, and not to consumers. Accordingly, the practice by which a beer brewer purchased its own products in bars or other drinking establishments, and offered customers the opportunity to exchange its product for whatever brand they were currently drinking (a practice commonly known as “trade spending” or “trade sampling”), was unlawful. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 71 Cal App 4th 1518, 84 Cal Rptr 2d 621, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 466, review denied, § 23387. Sales by wholesalers or rectifiers for out-of-State delivery and use

In addition to the other privileges exercised under a wholesaler’s or rectifier’s license, a wholesaler or rectifier may sell the alcoholic beverages mentioned in his or her license to persons who take delivery of the alcoholic beverages within this state for delivery or use outside of the state within 90 days from the date of the sale in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the department.

1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board” at the end of the section.
2006 Amendment: Amended section by (1) adding “or her” after “mentioned in his”; (2) substituted “such” for “the” after “who take delivery of”; (3) substituted “state for delivery or use outside of the state” for “State for delivery or use without the State”; and (4) substituted “the” for “such” after “90 days from the date of”.

The fee for each duplicate license, regardless of type, shall be as specified in Section 23320.

(b) Subject to the limitations set forth in this section, a licensed beer manufacturer may exercise all of the privileges under its manufacturer’s license at branch offices licensed by the department, except for production or manufacture; sales to consumers for consumption on or off the branch office premises, except as provided for in subdivision (c); and the sale of beer and wine to consumers for consumption on the branch office premises where a bona fide public eating place is owned and operated by and for the beer manufacturer, except as provided for in subdivision (c).

(2) A branch office location where consumer tastings or sales for on- or off-premises consumption are authorized shall not sell or serve any alcoholic beverages other than beer that is produced and bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the beer manufacturer.

(3) A branch office location where the sale of beer and wine to consumers for consumption on the premises of a bona fide public eating place is authorized shall not sell or serve alcoholic beverages other than the following:

2. (B) Beer and wine that is purchased by the beer manufacturer from a licensed wholesaler that is not owned, either alone or under common ownership, by the beer manufacturer.

(d) In order to obtain a duplicate license for a branch location or locations with the privileges described in subdivision (c), a beer manufacturer shall submit any application forms as the department may require. Upon request, and upon payment by the beer manufacturer of a fee of one hundred dollars ($100), the department shall issue to a beer manufacturer a beer manufacturer temporary permit for use at a branch office location during the period the application for a duplicate license with privileges pursuant to subdivision (c) is pending. The beer manufacturer temporary permit shall authorize the beer manufacturer to exercise all of the privileges under the duplicate license except for those privileges described in subdivision (c).

(e) A beer manufacturer temporary permit shall be effective for a period of 120 days and may be extended at the discretion of the department for additional 120-day periods as necessary and upon payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(f) In order to obtain a duplicate license for a branch office location or locations without the privileges described in subdivision (c), a beer manufacturer shall submit all application forms as the department may require, and the department shall issue that duplicate license forthwith; provided, however, that any duplicate license issued forthwith by the department shall be contingent on the beer manufacturer consenting to the imposition of a condition that the beer manufacturer shall make no changes in the character or mode of operation of the branch office premises that would directly or indirectly expand the privileges under the duplicate license, such as to include those privileges described in subdivision (c), without notice to and approval by the department. If the department receives any protest concerning the issuance of the duplicate license forthwith under this subdivision, the protest shall be considered as an accusation against the licensee and a hearing had thereon as if an accusation had been filed. Any proposed changes in the character or mode of operation of the branch office premises that would directly or indirectly expand the privileges under the duplicate license, such as to include those privileges described in subdivision (c), shall require reapplication and reissuance of the duplicate license pursuant to subdivision (d).

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this division, a beer manufacturer may continue to exercise privileges at all of its licensed branch offices that were in existence and authorized by the department prior to the effective date of the act adding this section, including any privileges resulting from any renewal or transfer of the duplicate licenses for the branch locations, that it was authorized to exercise prior to that date.

Thus, there was no violation of the individuals' administrative due process rights by the absence of proceedings to invalidate their caterer's permit. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally
The validity of a caterer’s permit issued pursuant to B & P C § 23399 and Cal. Admin. Code [now Cal Code Reg], tit. 4, reg. 60.5, is dependent upon the existence of a valid, effective and unrevoked onsale alcoholic beverage license. Therefore, alcoholic beverage sales by individuals displaying a caterer’s permit after revocation of their onsale license were without authority and were in violation of B & P C § 23300, prohibiting individuals from operating as licensees without a license. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

§ 23399.1. When license or permit not required for serving and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages.
No license or permit shall be required for the serving and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages where all of the following conditions prevail:

1. That there is no sale of an alcoholic beverage.
2. That the premises are not open to the general public during the time alcoholic beverages are served, consumed or otherwise disposed of.
3. That the premises are not maintained for the purpose of keeping, serving, consuming or otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages.
Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any person to violate any provision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Due Process

1. Generally

The finding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that a bar owner purchased beer for resale from an unlicensed vendor (B & P C § 23402) was supported by the evidence, where it was shown that the bar owner-respondent purchased five cases of beer from his part-time bartender, who had no resale license, and the evidence included the written admission signed by the bar owner-respondent to the effect that he had purchased such beer for resale in his business.

2. Due Process

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner’s on-sale to sell alcoholic beverages, the introduction in evidence of the bar owner’s written admission that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale in his business did not deprive the bar owner of due process of law, such license to sell intoxicants is not a proprietary right within the meaning of due process. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction with Other Law

1. Construction with Other Law
The issuance of a duplicate liquor license pursuant to art. 4 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (B & P C § 23000 et seq.), to the holder of an on sale general license for each room within the premises in which there is a service bar (B & P C § 24042), is not one of the “rights or privileges” granted to such a licensee under art. 3 of the act (B & P C § 23355), since such “rights and privileges” are limited to only rights and privileges as specified in art. 3. Thus, even though the holder of a club liquor license may exercise “all the rights and privileges” permitted an on sale general licensee (B & P C § 23431), it is not entitled to have a duplicate club license issued as provided for in art. 4 of the act. Furthermore, B & P C § 23430, limits the issuance of club liquor licenses to one club license to a particular club. Thus, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board correctly determined that the holder of a club liquor license was not entitled to a duplicate license for a second club on the holder’s premises. Outdoor Resorts Etc. Owners’ Assn. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1990, Cal App 4th Dist) 224 Cal App 3d 696, 273 Cal Rptr 748, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 1102.

SEC. 232. (a) The addition of Section 23438 to the Business and Professions Code and Sections 17269 and 24343.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code by this act is not intended to affect the tax exempt status of any church or other organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) It is not intended that any inference be drawn as the result of the addition of Section 23438 to the Business and Professions Code and Sections 17269 and 24343.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code that the Legislature intended to preclude administrative regulations by the Franchise Tax Board which disallow business deductions on public policy grounds with respect to expenses incurred before the operative date of those sections. However, as of the operative date of those sections, any administrative regulations adopted by the Franchise Tax Board which are inconsistent with or contrary to those sections shall be of no further force or effect.

(c) The addition of the sections specified in subdivision (b) shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable or income years commencing on or after January 1, 1990.

States 1987 ch 1463 provides:
SEC. 4. This act is not intended to affect the tax exempt status of any church or other organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 5. It is not intended that any inference be drawn as the result of the enactment of this act that the Legislature intended to preclude administrative regulations by the Fran-chiese Tax Board which disallow business deductions on public policy grounds with respect to expenses incurred before the operative date of this act. However, as of the operative date of this act, any administrative regulations adopted by the Franchise Tax Board which are inconsistent with or contrary to this act shall be of no further force or effect.

Stats 2007 ch 568 provides:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Even prior to passage of the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California law afforded broad protection against arbitrary discrimination by business establishments. The Unruh Civil Rights Act was enacted to provide broader, more effective protection against arbitrary discrimination. California’s interest in preventing that discrimination is longstanding and compelling.

(b) In keeping with that history and the legislative history of the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California courts have interpreted the categories enumerated in the act to be illustrative rather than restrictive. It is the intent of the Legislature that these enumerated bases shall continue to be construed as illustrative rather than restrictive, and, consistent with the Unruh Civil Rights Act, that the civil rights provisions of this act that reference Section 51 of the Civil Code also be interpreted to be illustrative rather than restrictive.

SEC. 1.5. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Civil Rights Act of 2007.

Stats 2011 ch 261 provides:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Deciphering the sequence of the human genome and other advances in genetics open major new opportunities for medical progress. New knowledge about the genetic basis of illness will allow for earlier detection of illnesses, often long before symptoms have begun.

(b) Genetic testing can allow individuals to take steps to reduce the likelihood that they will contract a particular disorder. New knowledge about genetics may allow for the development of better therapies that are more effective against disease or have fewer side effects than current treatments. These rapid advances promise significant medical progress, but also give rise to the potential for misuse of genetic information to discriminate.

(c) The early science of genetics became the basis of state laws that provided for the sterilization of persons having presumed genetic "defects" such as mental retardation, mental disease, epilepsy, blindness, and hearing loss, among other conditions. The first sterilization law was enacted in the State of Indiana in 1907. California followed suit in 1909. Thirty states ultimately enacted such laws that resulted in 64,000 people, most of whom were poor, young women, being sterilized. Shamefully, nearly a third of these sterilizations took place in California.

(d) Most state laws have since been repealed, and many have been modified to include essential constitutional requirements of due process and equal protection. However, the current explosion in the science of genetics, and the history of sterilization laws by states based on early genetic science, compels legislative action in this area.

(e) Automation is exponentially increasing the speed and efficiency of a complete genomic DNA sequence. What took five years of international effort to produce in the mid-1980s can today be completed in two minutes. Genomic sequencing is quickly approaching the point where it will be widely affordable to the general public and, potentially, a covered insurance benefit.

(f) Although genes are facially neutral markers, many genetic conditions and disorders are associated with particular racial and ethnic groups and gender. Because some genetic traits are most prevalent in particular groups, members of a particular group may be stigmatized or discriminated against as a result of that genetic information.

(g) This form of discrimination was evident in the 1970s, which saw the advent of programs to screen and identify carriers of sickle cell anemia, a disease which afflicts African Americans. Once again, state legislatures began to enact discriminatory laws in the area, and in the early 1970s began mandating genetic screening of all African Americans for sickle cell anemia, leading to discrimination and unnecessary fear.

(h) Examples of genetic discrimination in the workplace include the use of preemployment genetic screening at Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory, which led to a court decision in favor of the employees in that case, Norman-Bloodsaw v. Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory (9th Cir. 1998) 135 F.3d 1260, 1269.

(i) The State of California has a compelling public interest in realizing the medical promise of genomics. It also has a compelling public interest in relieving the fear of discrimination and in prohibiting its actual practice.

Who may import; Application of chapter and section; Shipment by member of armed forces

Except as otherwise provided in this section, alcoholic beverages may be brought into this state from without this state for delivery or use within the state only by common carriers and only when the alcoholic beverages are consigned to a licensed importer, and only when consigned to the premises of the licensed importer or to a licensed importer or customs broker at the premises of a public warehouse licensed under this division.

The provisions of this chapter are not applicable in the case of alcoholic beverages which are sold and delivered by a licensee in this state to another licensee in this state, and which in the course of delivery are taken without this state through another state without any storage thereof in such other state.

The provisions of this section are not applicable in the case of a reasonable amount of alcoholic beverages brought into this state by an adult from without the United States for personal or household use; except that a California resident returning to the United States by a vehicle which is not a common carrier, or any adult entering the United States as a pedestrian, shall be restricted to the amount of alcoholic beverages which are exempt from the payment of duty in accordance with existing provisions of federal law. Such alcoholic beverages shall be exempt from state licensing restrictions.

The provisions of this section are not applicable in the case of alcoholic beverages shipped into this state from without the United States by an adult member of the armed forces of the United States, serving outside the confines of the United States, for his personal or household use within the state in such quantity of alcoholic beverages as is exempt from the payment of duty under existing provisions of the Federal Tariff Act or regulations. Such alcoholic beverages may be brought into this state only by common carrier and consigned to the premises of a licensed importer or customs broker, or to a licensed importer or customs broker at the premises of a public warehouse licensed under this division. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this division, the holder of an importer's license, a customs broker's license, or a public warehouse license, may make delivery of such alcoholic beverages as may be brought into this state under the provisions of this paragraph directly to the owner thereof upon satisfactory proof of identity. Such delivery shall not be deemed to constitute a sale in this state.

A manufacturer of distilled spirits may transport such distilled spirits into this state in motor vehicles owned by or leased to the manufacturer, and operated by employees of the manufacturer, if:

(a) Such distilled spirits are transported into this state from a place of manufacture within the United States; and
(b) The manufacturer holds a California distilled spirits manufacturer's license; and
(c) Delivery is made to the licensed premises of such distilled spirits manufacturer.

- 1973 Amendment: Added the fifth paragraph.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Construction with Other Law
4. Federal Law

1. Generally
There is no transportation into California for delivery or use therein where delivery and use is in a national park, under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. Collins v. Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1938) 304 US 518, 58 S Ct 1099, 82 L Ed 1502, 1938 US LEXIS 1030.

States are not authorized under the Twenty-first Amendment to require out-of-state liquor distillers and suppliers to collect and remit to the state a wholesale markup on liquor sold to officers' clubs and post exchanges located on military bases within the state over which the United States exercises either exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction. United States v. State Tax Com. (1973) 412 US 363, 37 L Ed 2d 1, 93 S Ct 2183, 1973 US LEXIS 126.

2. Constitutionality
A state alcoholic beverage control statute, which provides that a licensed importer must not purchase or accept delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent is not per se illegal under the Sherman Act (15 USCS §§ 1 et seq.) and, accordingly, on its face is not invalid pursuant to the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution (Art VI, cl 2), where the statute merely enforces a distiller's decision to restrain intrabrand competition and does not require the distiller to impose vertical restraints of any kind and does not limit the number of importers which may be designated by the distiller, any anticompetitive effect the statute might have when applied in concrete factual situations being insufficient to declare the statute itself void on its face. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

A state liquor control designation statute, which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, does not violate the equal protection clause as discriminating between designated and nondesignated wholesalers, the statute being rationally related to the statute's legitimate purposes of enabling the distiller to place authorized importers' products to the exclusion of the products of other distillers or wholesalers, but does not prohibit a distiller from requiring its wholesalers to purchase the distiller's products from the distiller itself rather than from a third party—where the state statute in no way requires exclusive retailer outlets or even exclusive wholesale arrangements; although one might be able to hypothesize an arrangement enforced by the designation statute that might be prohibited by § 5(a), this is insufficient to invalidate a state statute pursuant to the supremacy clause, of the Federal Constitution (Art VI, cl 2). Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

4. Federal Law
A state alcoholic control designation statute which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as a authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent is not preempted by § 5(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 USCS § 205(a))—which prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from establishing exclusive retailer outlets and prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from requiring a retailer to buy only the distiller's or wholesaler's products products to the exclusion of the products of other distillers or wholesalers, but does not prohibit a distiller from requiring its wholesalers to purchase the distiller's products from the distiller itself rather than from a third party—where the state statute in no way requires exclusive retailer outlets or even exclusive wholesale arrangements; although one might be able to hypothesize an arrangement enforced by the designation statute that might be prohibited by § 5(a), this is insufficient to invalidate a state statute pursuant to the supremacy clause, of the Federal Constitution (Art VI, cl 2). Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

§ 23661.2. Shipment of wine from another state Notwithstanding any other law, an individual or retail licensee in a state that affords California retail licensees or individuals an equal reciprocal shipping privilege, may ship, for personal use and not for resale, no more than two cases of wine (no... more than nine liters each case) per month to any adult resident in this state. Delivery of a shipment pursuant to this subdivision shall not be deemed to constitute a sale in this state.

The shipping container of any wine sent into or out of this state under this section shall be clearly labeled to indicate that the container cannot be delivered to a minor or an intoxicated person.

Added Stats 1963 ch 1635 § 1. Amended Stats 1986 ch 735 § 1; Stats 1994 ch 394 § 1 (AB 611); Stats 2005 ch 157 § 1 (SB 118), effective January 1, 2006.

Amendments:
1986 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); (2) amended the second sentence of subd (a) by substituting “(a) “The” for “Such” at the beginning; and (b) “adopted” for “promulgated”; and (3) added subd (b) and the last paragraph.

1994 Amendment: (1) Amended subd (a) by (a) substituting “resident of California” for “person”; (b) substituting “any” for “another” after “champagne, from”; and (c) adding “that allows adult residents of that state to receive by permit of nominal cost shipments of no less than nine liters of wine, including vermouth and champagne, per month from California” at the end of the first sentence; (d) adding “into this state” after “The shipment”; and (e) “nine liters” for “2.4 gallons” at the end of the second sentence; and (2) amended the first sentence of the first paragraph of subd (b) by substituting (a) “that” for “which” before “affords California”; and (b) “no” for “not” after “not for resale”.

2005 Amendment: (1) Deleted subd (a) which read: “(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any unlicensed adult resident of California may apply to the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and be issued a permit to receive a shipment of wine, including vermouth and champagne, from any state of the United States that allows adult residents of that state to receive by permit of nominal cost shipments of no less than nine liters of wine, including vermouth and champagne, per month from California. The shipment into this state shall be made in accordance with rules adopted by the department, but the total shipments permitted in any calendar month to a person shall not be in excess of nine liters. A common carrier to whom the permit is presented is authorized to make delivery of the shipment to the person named in the permit. Delivery of a shipment pursuant to the permit shall not be deemed to constitute a sale in this state.”; (2) deleted subdivision designation (b); (3) amended the first paragraph by (a) deleting “provision of” after “Notwithstanding any other”; and (b) adding “retail” both times it appears; and (4) amended the second paragraph by (a) substituting “container” for “package” after “indicate that the”; and (b) deleting “to” after “a minor or”.

Note—Stats 1994 ch 394 provides:
SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting Section 1 of this act to encourage the adoption of reciprocal wine shipping privileges legislation in other states for purposes of improving fairness and equity for the small, family vintners and winemakers of California. Currently, only 12 states have adopted reciprocal wine shipping privileges legislation.

The Legislature encourages the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to notify other states of California laws relating to reciprocal wine shipping privileges through established channels of communication.

§ 23661.3. Wine direct shipper permit; Requirements; Authorized activities; Renewal; Violation as misdemeanor

(a) Notwithstanding any law, rule, or regulation to the contrary, any person currently licensed in this state or any other state as a winegrower who obtains a wine direct shipper permit pursuant to this section may sell and ship wine directly to a resident of California, who is at least 21 years of age, for the resident’s personal use and not for resale.

Before sending any shipment to a resident of California, the wine direct shipper permitholder must:

1. Generally

1. File an application with the department.
2. Pay a ten-dollar ($10) annual registration fee if the winegrower is not currently licensed by the department.
3. Provide the department its California alcoholic beverage license number or a true copy of its current alcoholic beverage license issued by another state.
4. Obtain from the department a wine direct shipper permit.
5. Obtain a seller’s permit or register with the State Board of Equalization pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) A wine direct shipper permit authorizes the permitholder to do all of the following:
1. Sell and ship wine to any person 21 years of age or older for his or her personal use and not for resale.
2. Ship wine directly to a resident in this state only in containers that are conspicuously labeled with the words: “CONTAINS ALCOHOL; SIGNATURE OF PERSON AGE 21 YEARS OR OLDER REQUIRED FOR DELIVERY.”
3. Ship wine only if the permitholder requires the carrier to obtain the signature of any individual 21 years of age or older before delivering any wine shipped to an individual in this state.
4. If the permitholder is located outside of this state, report to the department no later than January 31 of each year, the total amount of wine sold and shipped to California.
shipped into the state during the preceding calendar year under the wine direct shipper permit.

(5) If the permitholder is located outside of this state, pay to the State Board of Equalization all sales and use taxes, and excise taxes on sales to residents of California under the wine direct shipper permit. For excise tax purposes, all wine sold pursuant to a direct shipper permit shall be deemed to be wine sold in this state.

(6) If located within this state, provide the department any necessary additional information not currently provided to ensure compliance with this section.

(7) Permit the department or the State Board of Equalization to perform an audit of the wine direct shipper permitholder's records upon request.

(8) Be deemed to have consented to the jurisdiction of the department or any other state agency and the California courts concerning enforcement of this section any related laws, rules, or regulations.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Constitutionality
2. Construction with Other Law
1. Constitutionality
A state alcoholic beverage control statute, which provides that a licensed importer must not purchase or accept delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent is not per se illegal under the Sherman Act (15 USCS §§ 1 et seq.) and, accordingly, on its face is not invalid pursuant to the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution (Art VI, cl 2), where the statute merely enforces a distiller's decision to restrain intrabrand competition and does not require the distiller to impose vertical restraints of any kind and does not limit the number of importers which may be designated by the distiller, any anticompetitive effect the statute might have when applied in concrete factual situations being insufficient to declare the statute itself void on its face. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

A state liquor control designation statute, which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, does not violate the equal protection clause as discriminating between designated and nondesignated wholesalers, the statute being rationally related to the statute's legitimate purposes of enabling the distiller to place restraints on intrabrand competition in order to foster interbrand competition. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

2. Construction with Other Law
A state alcoholic control designation statute which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as a authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, is not preempted by § 5(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 USCS § 205a)—which prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from establishing exclusive retailer outlets and prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from requiring a retailer to buy only the distiller's or wholesaler's products to the exclusion of the products of other distillers or wholesalers, but does not prohibit a distiller from requiring its wholesalers to purchase the distiller's products from the distiller itself rather than from a third party—where the state statute in no way requires exclusive retailer outlets or even exclusive wholesale arrangements; although one might be able to hypothesize an arrangement enforced by the designation statute that might be prohibited by § 5(a), this is insufficient to invalidate a state statute pursuant to the supremacy clause, of the Federal Constitution (Art VI, cl 2). Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

§ 23673. Distilled spirits; Price to wholesaler or rectifier
No brand owner of distilled spirits or his agent shall sell any brand of distilled spirits to a wholesaler or rectifier in this state at a price higher than the lowest price at which such brand of distilled spirits is sold by such brand owner or his agent to any wholesaler or rectifier during any calendar month anywhere in any other state or in the District of Columbia or to any state or state agency which owns or operates retail distilled spirits stores.

In determining the lowest price for which any brand of distilled spirits is sold in any other state or the District of Columbia or to any state or state agency which owns and operates retail distilled spirits stores, appropriate reduction shall be made to reflect all discounts, all rebates, allowances, and other inducements of any kind whatsoever offered or given to any such wholesaler or state, or state agency, as the case may be, purchasing such brand of distilled spirits in such other state or in the District of Columbia or to the state or state agency which owns or operates retail distilled spirits stores; provided that nothing in this section shall prevent differentials in price which make only due allowance for differences in state excise taxes and fees and the actual cost of delivery. As used in this section, the term “excise taxes and license fees” shall mean the excise taxes imposed or the fees required by any state or the District of Columbia.

A violation of this section shall be remediable only by a civil action for damages or an action to enjoin a brand owner or his agent from continued violation brought by any person suffering loss as a result of such violation. A judgment in any such action rendered against a licensee shall be deemed grounds for the suspension or revocation of the violator's license pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 24200) of this division.

For the purposes of this section, “distilled spirits” does not include brandy produced in California. No California brandy manufacturer or his agent shall be required to file an affidavit pursuant to this section for California brandy.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Legislative Intent
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Legislative Intent

Where licensed manufacturer of distilled spirits which also held distilled spirits wholesaler’s license under § 23774, exempting certain persons from provisions of this section and § 23772, was acquired by merger by another manufacturer of distilled spirits not otherwise able to possess wholesaler’s license, latter manufacturer was not, through such merger, entitled to possess wholesaler’s license; legislature intended to establish uniform system of regulation whereby through process of natural attrition those qualified for exemption would gradually diminish in number until no more existed; while licenses themselves may be transferable, it was never intended that right of dual licensing would be transferable. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964) 61 Cal 2d 305, 38 Cal Rptr 409, 392 P2d 1, 1964 Cal LEXIS 202.

2. Construction with Other Law

Grant of dual licenses to one falling within “grandfather” clause of § 23774, exempting certain persons from the provisions of this section and § 23772, was not predicated on desirability of such dual licensing, but rather despite lack of desirability thereof to prevent inequitable results; exception creates a current and undesirable nonuniformity in legislative scheme of regulation, and perpetuation thereof through transfers and business rearrangements would defeat ultimate legislative objective of keeping distinct and apart all persons engaged in handling of alcoholic beverages, whether manufacturing, wholesaling, importing or retailing. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964) 61 Cal 2d 305, 38 Cal Rptr 409, 392 P2d 1, 1964 Cal LEXIS 202.
The provisions of this section shall not apply to the financial or representative relationship between a manufacturer, wine grower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of such person, and a person holding only one of the following types of licenses:

(a) On-sale general license for a bona fide club.
(b) Club license (issued under Article 4 (commencing at Section 23425) of Chapter 3 of this division).
(c) Veterans' club license (issued under Article 5 (commencing at Section 23450) of Chapter 3 of this division).
(d) On-sale license for boats, trains, sleeping cars or airplanes where the alcoholic beverages produced or sold by such manufacturer, wine grower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, bottler, importer, or wholesaler or any officer, director, or agent of such person are not sold, furnished or given, directly or indirectly to the on-sale licensee.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. License Properly Denied

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience-type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals were supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an approximate attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where the applicant’s beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

§ 23779. Wholesale license

No wholesale license shall be issued to any person who does not in good faith actually carry on or intend to carry on a bona fide wholesale business by sale to retail licensees of the alcoholic beverage designated in the wholesale license, and the department may revoke any wholesale license when the licensee fails for a period of 45 days actively and in good faith to engage in the wholesale business and shall revoke any distilled spirits wholesaler’s license held by any person who fails to comply with applicable provisions of Sections 23738, 23739, 23776, 23777, and 23778. Sale by a wholesale licensee to himself as a retail licensee is not the transaction of a bona fide wholesale business.

1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board” in the first sentence.

Code Commissioner’s Notes:
(1) Provision is made applicable to “any person” rather than “any other person,” since analysis of subd (f) [§ 6, 1951: 1257-3113] indicates no apparent exception to application of this provision. (2) While the provision regarding revocation of a distilled spirits wholesaler’s license purports to require compliance with “all other provisions of this section [§ 6],” we believe that only compliance with the provisions of subd (f) of § 6, which deal with wholesalers, is intended and the section has been drafted accordingly.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Purpose
4. Revocation of License

1. Generally
Administrative rule (4 Cal Adm C § 65) did not justify Section concerns public interest in industry requiring close supervision, and it is important part of integrated and rather complex licensing and price regulating system. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

2. Construction

By use of word "shall," this section flatly prohibits issuance of beer or wine wholesale license to any person who does not in good faith intend to make sales to retail licensees other than himself; such provision, together with permissive power of revocation given by section to Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with respect to persons who already hold such licenses, establishes legislative policy against methods of operation such as those employed by retail grocery chain in purchasing beer and wine "at wholesale" from manufacturer, bringing beverage to warehouse which it maintained, and subsequently delivering beverages to retail stores owned by chain for sale to consumers, without selling or attempting to sell at wholesale to any retail licensees other than its stores. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Section contains no requirement that, before Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control can revoke license, there must be evidence showing that such method of operation is contrary to general welfare, and department may rely on this legislative declaration that prohibited conduct is contrary to public welfare. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963) Cal. App. 2d Dist) 215 Cal. App. 2d 503, 30 Cal. Rptr. 175, 1963 Cal. LEXIS 2526.

3. Purpose

Section is part of general system of liquor regulation, which includes establishment of orderly marketing conditions; this basic purpose of liquor law furnishes general standard for guiding Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in determining whether persons holding wholesale liquor licenses should be permitted to continue, for more than 45 days, making wholesale deliveries solely to their own retail outlets. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

4. Revocation of License

Section clearly gives Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to revoke wholesale license in its discretion whenever licensee fails for period of 45 days to make sales to retail licensees other than himself. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse discretion given it by this section, in revoking retail grocery chain's wholesale beer and wine license, in prior proceeding to revoke such license on ground that licensee had failed to engage in business of wholesaling beer and wine for 45-day period as required by this section, should not operate to preclude either successor Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or courts from reexamining statute and applying correct interpretation, whether or not different from that of board, to retail grocery chain. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse discretion given it by this section, in revoking retail grocery chain's wholesale beer and wine license for failure to make, for 45-day period, any sales of alcoholic beverages to retail licensees other than itself, where department found on sufficient evidence that any reliance by grocery chain on prior erroneous administrative ruling was insufficient to justify continuance of stores' method of operation when considered in light of adverse effect of this method on other retailers who could not purchase same beverages at lower price available to grocery chain. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal. 2d 749, 22 Cal. Rptr. 14, 371 P.2d 758, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Provision, which gives Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to revoke wholesale license whenever licensee for period of 45 days to make sales to retail licensees other than himself, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer's license of wholesaler corporation that sold only to incorporated retail licensee, of which it was wholly owned subsidiary, having to substantial extent the same officers and directors as such retail licensee. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Licensee/Manager Relationship

1. Generally
Each of words “manage, direct, or conduct,” as used in section, suggest control. Ciro’s of San Francisco v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 636, 299 P2d 703, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2028.

2. Licensee/Manager Relationship
Although a liquor licensee who permits his license to be used by another will not be held absolutely liable for debts to the user’s suppliers, the fact that the license is so used is one factor to be considered in determining whether there was an ostensible agency between the licensee and the user; the maxim “the law has been obeyed,” may be applied to protect third persons who deal with another person in reliance upon what appears to be a legal relationship between him and a second person, so that creditors of a concessionaire who operated a bar and restaurant under his own name, but used the liquor license of the partners from whom he leased the premises, were entitled to rely on the appearances created by the use of the license and assume that, rather than the illegal relationship established by the agreement, there was a relationship of licensee and manager. 1. Generally Department’s investigations in connection with applications for liquor licenses must be made with view to protection of public welfare and morals. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.
Any regulations of liquor traffic by way of exceptions in respect to churches and schools should be liberally construed in favor of such regulations and against applicants for license to sell liquor within prescribed areas. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.
Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to issue general off-sale liquor license to supermarket located in close proximity to high school, church, public swimming pool, proposed children’s playground and location on which YMCA building was to be erected, and that such action was not contrary to public welfare and morals, was supported by substantial evidence, despite conflicting testimony by witnesses for school, church and YMCA, since ultimate question was peculiarly question for departmental resolution and there was no abuse of discretion in its determination. Board of Trustees v. Munro (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 163 Cal App 2d 440, 329 P2d 765, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1518.

In determining whether issuance of liquor license would be inimical to general welfare or public morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is entitled to consider applicant’s integrity as shown by his previous business experience, kind of business to be conducted on licensed premises, probable manner in which it will be conducted, type of guests and probability that their consumption of alcoholic beverages will be moderate, nature of protest made to issuance of license, and any conflict that use of license might have with church in area and activities that it conducts. Kose v. Department of Alcoholic

2. Churches and Hospitals

There is no provision, or regulation by department, that department may refuse "off-sale" license in immediate vicinity of church, but nevertheless proximity of license premises to church may supply adequate basis for denial of such license as being inimical to public morals and welfare. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

Fact that when church was seeking zoning ordinance so that its edifice could be constructed, president of store signed petition to grant such zoning ordinance on unwritten promise of then pastor that church would not object to liquor license for store its president planned did not aid store in application for such license. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

Thought department was entitled to give consideration to unwritten agreement between pastor of church and store owner that church would not object to liquor license for store, it was not binding on department in arriving at its decision on application for license. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

Specific authorization in this section of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to refuse issuance of on-sale retail licenses for premises located within immediate vicinity of churches, cannot impair constitutional requirement of showing of "good cause" for refusal of license, and does not determine that proximity of premises to church is in and of itself "good cause" for refusal of license; in every such case, department is bound to exercise legal discretion in passing on application. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Location of church near premises for which liquor license is proposed does not require finding, as matter of law, that issuance of license therefor would be contrary to public welfare or morals. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

3. Schools and Playgrounds

A distance of 80 feet between school buildings and a proposed off-sale liquor distribution place constitutes sufficient proximity for the denial of a license. Weiss v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 256 P2d 1, 153 Cal LEXIS 236.

The denial of an application for an off-sale beer and wine license for a store across the street from a school is proper, and the fact that the neighborhood is composed mainly of persons of the Jewish faith who would purchase wine for sacramental purposes does not constitute altering circumstances. Weiss v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 256 P2d 1, 153 Cal LEXIS 236.

Findings by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that there is an amusement center within 400 feet of premises seeking a liquor license, that there is swimming pool between the center and proposed premises, that children frequent center and pool, that all related enterprises are privately owned, and that none of them is children's public playground within meaning of this section, refute any contention that location of premises in relation to enterprises was not considered by department in determining that granting of liquor license would not be contrary to public welfare and morals. Bailey v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 348, 20 Cal Rptr 264, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2599.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not act arbitrarily, nor abuse its discretion, in finding that the issuance of an off-sale license to sell beer and wine would be contrary to public welfare and morals based on evidence, as to which there could be a reasonable difference of opinion, that the applicant’s store, which was 200 feet from a school and which was patronized by approximately 20 children a day, proposed to change its operation to selling take-out food including beer and wine to customers, including children who were permitted to leave the school premises for lunch, during several hours a day that the school was open. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

Mere proximity of a liquor license applicant’s premises to a school or church is not, as a matter of law, “good cause” which will constitutionally sustain the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department’s denial of the license, and it was improper to deny a supermarket’s application for an off-sale beer and wine license, where, although the store was located in the immediate vicinity of an elementary school, the department’s finding on the essential, ultimate fact upon which the denial could properly be made, namely, that issuance of the license would contravene public welfare and morals, was unsupported by substantial evidence. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

As a ground for denying a liquor license, the existence of Ed C § 7852, requiring schools to instruct upon the nature of alcohol and its effects, was not in itself substantial evidence that the sale of beer and wine at a store in close proximity to an elementary school would contravene public welfare and morals. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

As a ground for denying a liquor license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department’s finding that “some of the school children pass by, as well as frequent,” the applicant’s supermarket was not in itself substantial evidence that the issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet across the street from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by “lawful pedestrian feet,” where an afternoon check showed that only 17 out of 135 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior advertisements on liquor, experienced no problem of thefts by children of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

There was no substantial evidence that the issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a supermarket should be denied, as being contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department found that an elementary school on the immediate vicinity of the supermarket (commercial district) had a present problem with persons consuming alcoholic beverages nearby and that the license would aggravate the problem, no eyewitness or expert testimony was adduced, where the testimony that the school grounds were sometimes littered with empty liquor bottles, beer cans and wine bottles failed to show how the litter was attributable to the store, not then licensed, or even to the two licensed stores within 900 feet of the school, and where testimony of the dangers to be expected from such undesirable conditions as drunks in cars was conjectural, at best. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience-type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals were supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an approximate attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where there were already 11 licensed outlets of the off-sale type within a mile of the school, and where the applicant’s beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children, which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

§ 23790. Issuance of retail license contrary to zoning ordinance

No retail license shall be issued for any premises which are located in any territory where the exercise of the rights and privileges conferred by the license is contrary to a valid zoning ordinance of any county or city. Premises which had been used in the exercise of those rights and privileges at a time prior to the effective date of the zoning ordinance may continue operation under the following conditions:

(a) The premises retain the same type of retail liquor license within a license classification.

(b) The licensed premises are operated continuously without substantial change in mode or character of operation.

For purposes of this subdivision, a break in continuous operation does not include:

(1) A closure for not more than 30 days for purposes of repair, if that repair does not change the nature of the licensed premises and does not increase the square footage of the business used for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

(2) The closure for restoration of premises rendered totally or partially inaccessible by an act of God or a toxic accident, if the restoration does not increase the square footage of the business used for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Amendments:

1982 Amendment: (1) Divided the former first sentence into the present first and second sentences by substituting “Premises which” for “unless the premises”; (2) added “may continue operation under the following conditions:”; and (3) added subds (a) and (b).

1989 Amendment: (1) Substituted “those” for “such” after “exercise of” in the introductory clause; and (2) added the second paragraph of subd (b).

1. Generally
Section confers upon counties and cities the right to control districts in which various types of liquor business could be carried on by enactment of valid zoning ordinances, and even though excluding of liquor business of any type in certain zones does have effect of denying in advance all applications for liquor licenses in that zone, such result is expressly authorized by section, which in turn is legislation authorized by Cal Const Art XX § 22. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1851.
Section only requires that there be a valid zoning ordinance and that exercise of rights and privileges of license sought to be issued would be contrary to its provisions; section does not require specific limitation against sale of alcoholic beverages in designated area. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1581.

In granting off-sale liquor license to super market located on tract subject to restrictive covenant against sale of intoxicating liquors, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly determined that existence of covenant did not justify board in holding that its violation would be matter affecting public welfare and morals and left parties to covenant to resort to courts if so advised, since only legislative enactment restricting licensing power of department for issuance of license to premises located in territory where exercise of rights thereunder would be contrary to valid zoning ordinance. Board of Trustees v. Munro (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 163 Cal App 2d 440, 329 P2d 765, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1518.

2. Legislative Intent
Legislature has expressly negated its intent to extend state control to zoning matters through exercise of its liquor license authority under this section and § 23791; local zoning ordinance may validly prohibit use of property for business of selling liquor. Jon-Mar Co. v. Anaheim (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 892, 20 Cal Rptr 350, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2664.

3. Construction
In an action against a city by the owners of two stores selling alcoholic beverages, challenging the validity of an ordinance requiring them to obtain conditional use permits in order to continue to sell alcoholic beverages, the trial court properly dismissed those of plaintiffs’ causes of action premised on the assertions that the conditions imposed on them were an impermissible attempt to regulate the sale of alcohol and that the ordinance duplicated or contradicted state law in that both it and state law addressed the abatement of nuisance activity at off-sale liquor businesses. However, the trial court erred in granting judgment on the pleadings for the city on plaintiffs’ cause of action based on B & P C § 23790, which exempts from zoning ordinances off-sale liquor stores that predate enactment of such ordinances under specified conditions. That statute preempts local zoning ordinances at least insofar as such ordinances purport to regulate previously existing businesses. Boccato v. City of Hermosa Beach (1984, Cal App 2d Dist) 29 Cal App 4th 1797, 35 Cal Rptr 2d 282, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 1148, superseded by statute as stated in Venegas v. County of Los Angeles (2004) 32 Cal 4th 820, 11 Cal Rptr 3d 692, 87 P3d 1, 2004 Cal LEXIS 2822, superseded by statute as stated in Hous. Rights Ctr., Inc. v. Moskowitz (2004, CD Cal) 2004 US Dist LEXIS 58865, superseded by statute as stated in Thompson v. County of Los Angeles (2006, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 4th 154, 47 Cal Rptr 3d 702, 2006 Cal App LEXIS 1278, overruled on other grounds as stated in Moreno v. Town of Los Gatos (2008, CA9 Cal) 267 Fed Appx 665, 2008 US App LEXIS 4676, overruled on other grounds as stated in Kincaid v. City of Fresno (2008, ED Cal) 2008 US Dist LEXIS 28532, superseded by statute as stated in Rojas v. Sonoma County (2011, ND Cal) 2011 US Dist LEXIS 122276.

4. Due Process
A city’s procedure in deeming the 60-day suspension of public alcoholic beverage control (ABC) license to terminate automatically her “grandfathered” existing legal nonconforming use of her property as a liquor store under B & P C § 23790 violated her due process right to notice and the opportunity to be heard. The Court of Appeal reversed with directions to the superior court to grant a writ mandating the city to hold a new administrative hearing including adjudication of the grandfathered right termination issue before applying its 1995 zoning ordinance to require plaintiff to obtain a conditional use permit to resume selling alcoholic beverages at her business. Bauer v. City of San Diego (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 75 Cal App 4th 1281, 89 Cal Rptr 2d 795, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 951.

5. Exemptions
Provision of section which exempts nonconforming use, such as on-sale liquor establishment, from zoning ordinance does not include use which had ceased for years before effective date of ordinance and eleven years before renewal application was made. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1581.

6. Zoning Ordinance Improper
Zoning ordinances cannot single out and prohibit sale of liquor as such; there must be reasonable classification of districts and in any zoning district in which other retail businesses are allowed to be conducted, it might and probably would be unreasonable and arbitrary to exclude sale of liquor. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1581.

7. Zoning Ordinance Valid
City zoning ordinance prohibiting establishment of cocktail bar or lounge within 200 feet of residential district without use permit did not invade field preempted by state under statutes dealing with licensing of sale of intoxicating liquors, since ordinance in question was valid exercise of city’s right to control districts in which various types of liquor business could be carried on. Floresca, Inc. v. City Council of San Leandro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 190 Cal App 2d 599, 12 Cal Rptr 182, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2345.

8. License Improper
Granting on-sale intoxicating liquor license to establishment operating with only beer and wine license under nonconforming use is unwarranted enlargement of use. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1581.

9. Nuisance Abatement Ordinance
The trial court erred in granting the petition of the licensed owners of a retail liquor store for a writ of mandate requiring a city to set aside its imposition of restrictions and conditions on the continued operation of the owners’ liquor store, and in ordering that the city refrain from applying its nuisance abatement ordinance so long as the nature and operation of the owners’ business remained unchanged. The city had imposed the restrictions and conditions on certain activities around the store after the store became a police problem during a civil disturbance. Contrary to the trial court’s ruling, B & P C § 23790 (issuance of retail license contrary to zoning ordinance), did not have a preemptive effect on the ordinance at issue in this case, since the purpose and effect of the ordinance was the abatement of specific nuisance activities at a particular offending location. The city ordinance was not limited to businesses selling alcoholic beverages, but applied to any business, as long as the business, as operated or maintained, constituted a nuisance. Further, the ordinance was not a forward-looking zoning ordinance; instead it looked to the past and operated only in response to a specific business with a documented history of nuisance problems. There is no legal impediment to retroactive application of a nuisance abatement ordinance based on the difference between the
§ 23790.5 \ BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE \ 182

B & P C § 23790 (issuance of retail license contrary to zoning ordinance), did not preempt a city’s imposition, pursuant to its nuisance abatement ordinance, of restrictions and conditions on the owners of a licensed liquor store in response to nuisance activity around the store. Although § 23790 protects licensed retail liquor store owners from later enacted ordinances, the plain language of the statute only exempts existing nonconforming uses from compliance with later enacted zoning ordinances, and then only when the business has continuously operated without substantial change in either mode or character of operation. Neither the purpose nor the effect of the city’s nuisance abatement ordinance was that of a zoning ordinance. Also, neither the language of § 23790 nor anything in the legislative history of amendments thereto indicates this statute was intended to operate to exempt a nonconforming licensee from compliance with nuisance abatement ordinances whenever enacted. In the absence of a clear legislative mandate to the contrary, there was no valid reason why business owners, such as the owners in the present case, should be exempted from the valid exercise of the city’s police power to eradicate an existing nuisance. Thus, § 23790 does not exempt a licensee who allows his or her business to be maintained as a nuisance from a city’s administrative procedures to abate what has been found, after proper notice and a hearing, to constitute a nuisance Suzuki v. City of Los Angeles (1996, Cal App 2d Dist) 44 Cal App 4th 263, 51 Cal Rptr 2d 880, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 306, review denied, (1996) 1996 Cal. LEXIS 3879.

B & P C § 23790, which permits alcoholic beverage licensees operating in an area before the enactment of restrictive zoning ordinances to remain in business, did not preempt or otherwise preclude enforcement of a city’s ordinance addressing nuisance problems associated with alcoholic beverage sale establishments. A city may properly enact a local ordinance to control and abate nuisance activities, despite the fact that the business that would be regulated by the ordinance possessed grandfather rights that might ordinarily render it immune from compliance with local ordinances. The ordinance did not create any new authority empowering the city to halt operation of an alcoholic beverage sales establishment. It merely created an administrative mechanism that might have resulted in a third party taking action against the alcoholic beverage seller—abatement by a court or license revocation by the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. The conduct that is regulated by the ordinance, the control and abatement of nuisances and criminal activities, did not fall within the ambit of § 23790. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

§ 23790.5 \ Sale of beer and wine in conjunction with sale of motor vehicle fuel

(a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to ensure that local government shall not be preempted in the valid exercise of its land use authority pursuant to Section 23790, including, but not limited to, enacting an ordinance requiring a conditional use permit. It is also the intent of the Legislature to prevent the legislated prohibition of the concurrent retailing of beer and wine for off–premises consumption and motor vehicle fuel where the retailing of each is otherwise allowable.

(b)(1) No city, county, or city and county shall, by ordinance or resolution adopted on or after January 1, 1988, legislatively prohibit the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel and beer and wine for off–sale consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows motor vehicle fuel and off–sale beer and wine to be retailed on separate sites.

(2) On and after January 1, 1989, no city, county, or city and county ordinance or resolution adopted prior to May 5, 1987, shall have legal effect if it legislatively prohibits the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off–sale consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows beer and wine and motor vehicle fuel to be retailed on separate sites.

(3) On and after July 1, 1988, no city, county, or city and county ordinance or resolution adopted on or after May 5, 1987, shall have legal effect if it legislatively prohibits the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off–sale consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows beer and wine and motor vehicle fuel to be retailed on separate sites.

(4) This section shall not apply to a prohibition by a city, county, or city and county of the sale of beer and wine in conjunction with the sale of motor vehicle fuel if that prohibition occurs as a result of the prohibition of the combining of the sale of motor vehicle fuel with a broader class of products or uses which includes alcoholic beverages or beer and wine as a named or unnamed part of that larger class, if that prohibition was enacted before August 1, 1985.

(c) Subject to the restrictions and limitations of subdivision (b), this section shall not prevent a city, county, or city and county from denying permission, or granting conditional permission, to an individual applicant to engage in the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off–premises consumption pursuant to a valid conditional use permit ordinance based on appropriate health, safety, or general welfare standards contained in the ordinance if that conditional use permit ordinance contains all of the following:

(1) A requirement for written findings.

(2) A provision for an administrative appeal if the governing body has delegated its power to issue or deny a conditional use permit.

(3) Procedures for notice of a hearing, conduct of a hearing, and an opportunity for all parties to present testimony.

(4) A requirement that the findings be based on substantial evidence in view of the whole record to justify the ultimate decision.
(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, establishments engaged in the concurrent sale of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption shall abide by the following conditions:

1. No beer or wine shall be displayed within five feet of the cash register or the front door unless it is in a permanently affixed cooler as of January 1, 1988.

2. No advertisement of alcoholic beverages shall be displayed at motor fuel islands.

3. No sale of alcoholic beverages shall be made from a drive-in window.

4. No display or sale of beer or wine shall be made from an ice tub.

5. No beer or wine advertising shall be located on motor fuel islands and no self-illuminated advertising for beer or wine shall be located on buildings or windows.

6. Employees on duty between the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m. who sell beer or wine shall be at least 21 years of age.

The standards contained in this subdivision are minimum state standards which do not limit local regulation otherwise permitted under this section.

(e) If there is a finding that a licensee or his or her employee has sold any alcoholic beverages to a minor at an establishment engaged in the concurrent sale of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption, the alcoholic beverage license at the establishment shall be suspended for a minimum period of 72 hours. For purposes of Section 23790, the effect of such a license suspension shall not constitute a break in the continuous operation of the establishment nor a substantial change in the mode or character of operation.

(f) The provisions of this section apply to charter cities.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Legislature has expressly negatived its intent to extend state control to zoning matters through exercise of its liquor license authority under § 23790 and this section; local zoning ordinance may validly prohibit use of property for business of selling liquor. Jon-Mar Co. v. Anaheim (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 832, 20 Cal Rptr 350, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2664.

§ 23792. Licenses for rural premises near construction work

No license, other than an on-sale beer license, shall be issued to any applicant for any premises situated more than one mile outside the limits of an incorporated city and within two miles of any camp or establishment of men, numbering 25 or more, engaged upon or in connection with the construction, repair, or operation of any work, improvement, or utility of a public or quasi-public character. This section does not apply to the renewal of any licenses for any premises which have been established and licensed under this division at least six months prior to the establishment of the camp or establishment of men, and such licenses, whether held by the original licensee to whom first issued or a subsequent holder thereof, shall be subject to transfer as to person and premises, or either, in the same manner as any other license of the same type and character issued by the department.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board” at the end of the section.

(b) Stats 1909 ch 413 § 1.

Code Commissioner's Notes:
As far as we know there are no incorporated towns in California even though the Constitution still authorizes their incorporation (Art XI § 6). There is no longer any statutory authority for their incorporation (see Stats 1949 ch 660 p 1162). Thus the reference to towns has been deleted.

§ 23793. Issuance or transfer of public premises licenses

No new original public premises licenses shall be issued except for beer, or beer and wine, and no public premises licenses shall be transferred from county to county, unless the applicant can show that substantial public demand cannot otherwise be satisfied.

1965 Amendment: Deleted the former first paragraph which read: “On and after the effective date of this section, no license shall be issued or transferred from premises to premises for premises to be operated under a retail license within 200 feet of existing premises operated under a license of the same type, except when the proposed premises are to be a bona fide public eating place, or a hotel or motel of 75 rooms or more where the sale of alcoholic beverages would be incidental to the main purpose of providing hotel or motel and restaurant facilities, or where the applicant can show that the licensing of his particular business would serve a public demand not otherwise satisfied by existing licensed premises.”
1967 Amendment: Added “except for beer”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Legislative Intent
2. Construction
3. Enforcement

1. Legislative Intent
It must be assumed that legislature, in enacting this section, was aware of broad application of word “premises” as applied to various circumstances and intended construction to allow Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to exercise wide discretion to formulate reasonable rules for enforcement of statute. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 24, 47 Cal Rptr 424, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1106.

2. Construction
In construing this section, order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control measuring distance between premises by number of feet from entrance of one licensed premises to entrance of other was not contrary to law. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 24, 47 Cal Rptr 424, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1106.

3. Enforcement
Duty to enforce and administer this section is vested in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with broad range of discretion, and unless its method of measuring to ascertain distance between premises was without jurisdiction or contrary to law, its decision must be sustained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 24, 47 Cal Rptr 424, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1106.

§ 23800. Placing conditions on retail licenses; Situation in which authorized

The department may place reasonable conditions upon retail licensees or upon any licensee in the exercise of retail privileges in the following situations:

(a) If grounds exist for the denial of an application for a license or where a protest against the issuance of a license is filed and if the department finds that those grounds may be removed by the imposition of those conditions.

(b) Where findings are made by the department which would justify a suspension or revocation of a license, and where the imposition of a condition is reasonably related to those findings. In the case of a suspension, the conditions may be in lieu of or in addition to the suspension.

(c) Where the department issues an order suspending or revoking only a portion of the privileges to be exercised under the license.
(d) Where findings are made by the department that the licensee has failed to correct objectionable conditions within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make corrections given pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 24200, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 24200.1.

(e)(1) At the time of transfer of a license pursuant to Section 24070, 24071.1, or 24071.2, and upon written notice to the licensee, the department may adopt conditions that the department determines are reasonable pursuant to its investigation or that are requested by the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in whose jurisdiction the license is located. The request for conditions shall be supported by substantial evidence that the problems either on the premises or in the immediate vicinity identified by the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency will be mitigated by the conditions. Upon receipt of the request for conditions, the department shall either adopt the conditions requested or notify the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in writing of its determination that there is not substantial evidence that the problem exists or that the conditions would not mitigate the problems identified. The department may adopt conditions only when the request is filed. Any request for conditions from the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency pursuant to this provision shall be filed with the department within the time authorized for a local law enforcement agency to file a protest or proposed conditions pursuant to Section 23987.

(2) If the license to be transferred subject to paragraph (1) is located in an area of undue concentration as defined in Section 23958.4, the period within which the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency may submit a written request for conditions shall be 40 days after the mailing of the notices required by Section 23987. For purposes of this provision only, undue concentration shall be established when the requirements of both paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and either paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 23958.4 exist. Pursuant to Section 23987, the department may extend the 40-day period for a period not to exceed an additional 20 days upon the written request of any local law enforcement agency or local government entity with jurisdiction. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to reduce the burden of the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency to support any request for conditions as required by paragraph (1). Notwithstanding Section 23987, the department may not transfer any license subject to this paragraph until after the time period permitted to request conditions as specified in this paragraph.

(f) At the time of a transfer of a license pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 24070) of Chapter 6.

§ 23801. Matters which conditions may cover

The conditions authorized by Section 23800 may cover any matter relating to the privileges to be exercised under the license, the personal qualifications of the licensee, the conduct of the business or the condition of the premises, which will protect the public welfare and morals, including, but not limited to, the following:

(g) In cases under subdivision (f) of Section 23800, restrictions on the presence of the license transferor on the licensed premises without lawful business if that license transferor has multiple violations of this division when in possession of the license. For purposes of this section, “lawful business” specifically excludes, without limitation, working or volunteering at the premises, consulting with the licensee regarding the operation of the premises, and loitering.

§ 23802. Endorsement of conditions on license

Such conditions shall be endorsed upon the license and any renewal thereof and shall be binding upon all persons to whom the license is transferred.

§ 23803. Removal or modification of conditions; Notice and hearing

The department, upon its own motion or upon the petition of a licensee or a transferee who has filed an application for the transfer of the license, if it is satisfied that the grounds which caused the imposition of the conditions no longer exist, shall order their removal or modification, provided written notice is given to the local governing body of the area in which the premises are located. The local governing body has 30 days to file written objections to the removal or modification of any condition. The department may not remove or modify any condition to which an objection has been filed without holding a hearing as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

§ 23805. Conduct of proceedings

The proceedings specified in Section 23800(a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) shall be conducted in the same manner as is required for other proceedings involving petitions, protests or accusations, and the right of a respondent in the proceedings to appeal shall include the right to appeal from an order imposing conditions upon the licenses involved in the proceedings. If the department gives notice of conditions pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 23800 or denies a petition filed under Section 23803, the licensee or transferee may, within 10 days after the mailing of the denial, make a written request for a hearing. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

Where addition of liquor license in particular location is factor related to public welfare and morals, decision as to point at which line between granting and denying should be drawn is peculiarly matter of discretion, and even one more license may be “too many.” Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

§ 23816. Onsale general licenses

The number of premises for which an onsale general license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,000, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county in which the premises are situated. No additional onsale general licenses, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any county where the number of all premises for which onsale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 2,000, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county. No onsale general license shall be issued in lieu of or upon the cancellation or surrender of an onsale beer and wine license.

Amendments:

1961 Amendment: (1) Substituted “2,000” for “1,000” before “or fraction” wherever it appears; (2) substituted “Section 23821,” for “Sections 23821 or 23822”; (3) added “general” before “licenses”; and (4) deleted “other than on-sale beer licenses” before “are issued”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Public Welfare

1. Generally
Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 7.1, B & P C § 24050 [repealed], providing for reinstatement of licenses to persons of Japanese ancestry, would not accomplish its purposes if limitations of § 38f, B & P C §§ 23815–23823 to apply to licenses formerly held by persons of Japanese ancestry, and restoration of such licenses should be effected automatically where neighborhood in question has remained substantially the same as when licenses were revoked. Taenaka v. State Board of Equalization (1954) 42 Cal 2d 657, 268 P2d 472, 1954 Cal LEXIS 194.

2. Construction with Other Law
Authority of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to deny granting of license on ground its issuance would be contrary to public welfare or morals is derived from self-executing provisions of Constitution, exists independently of any legislation and may not be restricted by statute. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

3. Public Welfare
Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying on-sale beer license directed toward limiting number of licenses to be issued in particular area having law enforcement problems was not contrary to law and thus unreasonable, on ground that Legislature excluded beer from laws respecting limitations on number of licensed premises, where denial was based on fact that granting license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

§ 23817. Offsale general license
Until July 1, 1963, the number of premises for which an offsale general license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,000, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county in which the premises are situated; and no additional offsale general license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any county where the number of premises for which all offsale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 2,000, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county.
On and after July 1, 1963, the number of premises for which an offsale general license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county in which the premises are situated; and no additional offsale general license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any county where the number of premises for which all offsale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county.

Amendments: 1961 Amendment: (1) Added “Until July 1, 1963,”; (2) substituted “2,000” for “1,000” after “for each” wherever it appears; (3) added “and” after “situated”; (4) substituted “Section 23821” for “Sections 23821 and 23822”; (5) added “general” after “offsale”; and (6) added the second paragraph.

Decisions Under Former Law

1. Construction

Former section was properly interpreted to include in computation of total number of off-sale general licenses, the number of existing off-sale beer and wine licenses, and where such total number exceeded statutory maximum, State Board of Equalization had no jurisdiction to issue new off-sale general licenses, and holding was not required, since board could not be compelled to do something law prohibited. Lukin v. State Board of Equalization (1953, Cal App) 120 Cal App 2d 261, 260 P2d 1046, 1953 Cal App LEXIS 1925.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 7.1, B & P C § 24050 [repealed], providing for reinstatement of licenses to persons of Japanese ancestry, would not accomplish its purpose if limitations of § 38f, B & P C §§ 23815–23823, were to apply to licenses formerly held by persons of Japanese ancestry, and restoration of such licenses should be affected automatically where neighborhood in question has remained substantially the same as when licenses were revoked. § 23817.5. Limit on off-sale beer and wine licenses in proportion to number of residents; Retail off-sale beer and wine replacement licenses

(a)(1) The number of premises for which an off-sale beer and wine license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city or county in which the premises are situated. No additional off-sale beer and wine license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any city or county where the number of premises for which all off-sale beer and wine licenses are issued is more than one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city or county.

(2) The number of premises for which an off-sale beer and wine license is issued in a city and county, in combination with the number of premises for which an off-sale general license is issued in a city and county, shall be limited to one for each 1,250, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city and county in which the premises are situated. No additional off-sale beer and wine license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any city and county where the number of premises for which all off-sale beer and wine licenses in combination with off-sale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 1,250, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city and county.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a retail off-sale beer and wine replacement license may be issued at a premises that was operated under an existing off-sale beer and wine license no less than 90 days prior to the date of application for the replacement license, provided that the existing licensee is subject to a bankruptcy proceeding and the existing licensee has no right to operate at the premises, or has abandoned the premises of that license.

(2) A replacement license shall not be issued if the existing license has been, or is in the process of being, transferred, or if the existing license has been canceled by the licensee or surrendered by the licensee pursuant to department rule.

(3) An application for a replacement license shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and all conditions imposed upon the existing off-sale beer and wine license at the premises shall be imposed upon the replacement license.

(4) Upon issuance of the replacement license, the off-sale beer and wine license existing at the premises shall be canceled by operation of law. A replacement license shall not be transferred to another premises.

In determining suitability and fitness of premises where proposed on-sale license is to be granted, State Board of Equalization was not confined to consideration of structural features of building, such as whether it was constructed of wood, brick, concrete, was weatherproof, properly heated, inviting or uninviting, but it could consider location of structure or building, irrespective of materials of which it was composed, as affecting questions of peace, safety and good order of whatever surrounded place in question. Parente v. State Board of Equalization (1934, Cal App) 1 Cal App 2d 238, 36 P2d 437, 1934 Cal App LEXIS 1257.

Discretion vested in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Constitution (Cal Const Art XX § 22) is not absolute, but must be exercised in accordance with law. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

1994 Amendment: (1) Substituted “do” for “does” after “in this division,” in the second paragraph of subd (a); and (2) substituted subd (b) for former subd (b) which read: “(b) The department shall determine the average price paid in each county during every fiscal year for on-sale general licenses and off-sale general licenses. The fee for an original on-sale general license or an original off-sale general license shall be 90 percent of the average price paid for the same type license in that county during the previous fiscal year but in no event shall it be less than twelve thousand dollars ($12,000). The fee for an original on-sale general license for seasonal business shall be 60 percent of the average price paid for an on-sale general license in that county during the previous fiscal year, but in no event shall it be less than nine thousand dollars ($9,000).”

§ 23958. Investigation of application; Grounds for denial

Upon receipt of an application for a license or for a transfer of a license and the applicable fee, the department shall make a thorough investigation to determine whether the applicant and the premises for which a license is applied qualify for a license and whether the provisions of this division have been complied with, and shall investigate all matters connected therewith which may affect the public welfare and morals. The department shall deny an application for a license or for a transfer of a license if either the applicant or the premises for which a license is applied do not qualify for a license under this division.

The department further shall deny an application for a license if issuance of that license would tend to create a law enforcement problem, or if issuance would result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses, except as provided in Section 23958.4.

1. Generally

A partnership application should be denied if one of the partners is unable to qualify. Coletti v. State Bd.of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

All alcoholic beverage licenses are issued only to specific individuals for use at specific locations (B & P C § 24040), and all transfers are subject to official investigation and approval in the same manner as the initial issuance of the license. (B & P C §§ 24070, 23958, 23987, 23988.) Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

2. Construction

B & P C § 23958, appears to authorize issuance of a liquor license on some requisite showing of public convenience or necessity even though it is determined that issuance would otherwise “result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses.” Principles of deference to the legislative branch and established rules of statutory construction require courts to construe apparently contradictory provisions in such a way as to achieve harmony rather than find there is an irreconcilable inconsistency. Accordingly, the assumption must be that the Legislature intended by the phrase “public convenience or necessity” to invoke criteria different from those utilized in determining “undue concentration,” and intended to permit the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on the basis of such criteria to grant an application for issuance or transfer of such a license even where undue concentration is found to exist. Sepatis v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1980) 22 Cal App 2d 12, 72 Cal App 2d 824, 1980 Cal LEXIS 2229.

3. “Good Cause”

Whether “good cause” for denial of license existed was matter for determination by State Board of Equalization, not by courts. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

On administrative review of a denial by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of an application by a “disco” music establishment for a beer and wine license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly concluded the department’s determination that issuance of a license would create a law enforcement problem and would be contrary to the public welfare and morals was not supported by the department’s findings that “disturbances would sometimes occur when several hundred young persons were gathered together in the described surroundings,” despite the establishment’s employment of a security force. Whatever the precise parameters of the law enforcement problems contemplated by the statute permitting the denial of a license that would tend to create a law enforcement problem, the department’s reliance on a finding that “disturbances” of undetermined severity would “sometimes” in the indefinite future occur reflected too sweeping a view of what constitutes “good cause” within the meaning of Cal Const Art XX § 22, requiring “good cause” for the denial of a license. Also, the department’s finding that police officers could not respond quickly to the establishment due to its remote location and the limited number of officers was not supported by the evidence. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 3d Dist) 122 Cal App 3d 549, 175 Cal Rptr 342, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 2048.

4. Discretion

Exercise of discretion of State Board of Equalization in denying a liquor license was not abused, where the applicant proposed to sell liquor in community the deeds in which contained restrictive covenants against selling liquor, and where city was purely residential center in which people made their homes because of unusual recreational development and its general moral tone. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

The mere fact that churches are in the immediate vicinity of premises did not establish an abuse of discretion by the board in granting an on-sale general liquor license for such premises. Altadena Community Church v. State Board of Equalization (1952, Cal App) 109 Cal App 2d 99, 240 P2d 322, 1952 Cal App LEXIS 1803.

Whether the Board of Equalization abused its discretion in exercising the power to regulate enjoyment of the rights to manufacture, sell, purchase or consume alcoholic beverages could be determined only by examining all the facts and circumstances. Altadena Community Church v. State Board of Equalization (1952, Cal App) 109 Cal App 2d 99, 240 P2d 322, 1952 Cal App LEXIS 1803.

5. Application Approved

In a hearing on an application for transfer of an on-sale retail liquor license for operation of a bar, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s finding that the proposed premises would appeal to all segments of the community including many residents and business people in the area who were presently reluctant to enter other bars in the vicinity was supported by substantial evidence, and it could not be said on judicial review that the department abused its constitutional or statutory discretion in considering that fact as an aspect of public convenience (B & P C § 23958), or in concluding that, on balance, the sale of alcoholic beverages at the proposed premises would not be contrary to public welfare or public morals as that term is used in the agency’s constitutional mandate. Sepats v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1980, Cal App 1st Dist) 110 Cal App 3d 93, 167 Cal Rptr 729, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 2229.

6. Application Properly Denied

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly denied an application for an off-sale beer and wine license where substantial evidence supported its conclusion that issuance of an off-sale license would be contrary to public welfare and morals in that it would add to an undue concentration of licenses (B & P C § 23958; Cal. Admin. Code [now Cal Code Reg], tit. 4, § 61.3). The applicant-premises were located in a high crime district, and the population of the applicable census tract permitted only four off-sale retail licenses whereas ten such licenses had already been granted. The department further determined it was not established that public convenience and necessity required the issuance of a license to the applicant-premises, a Cuban grocery store, in that its customers could easily avail themselves of alcoholic beverages from licensees in close proximity to the applicant premises. These conclusions, which were supported by the department’s findings and by substantial evidence in the record, constituted good cause for its determination. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 133 Cal App 3d 814, 184 Cal Rptr 367, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1759.

7. Application Improperly Denied

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control abused its discretion in denying an application for an off-premises liquor license where the application was denied because the report-in instances in which the applicant’s premises were located had 20 percent more crimes than the average in the city as a whole and the ratio of liquor licenses to population was greater than in the county as a whole, but where there was no evidence of a police problem or undue concentration within the immediate vicinity of the applicant’s premises. The department may deny a license under B & P C § 23958, if its issuance “would result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses,” and Cal. Admin. Code [now Cal Code Reg], tit. 4, § 61.3, states an “undue concentration” exists when the reported crimes and the ratio of licenses to population exceed the city averages. Although, in most instances, the mere existence of facts which are deemed to constitute undue concentration under § 61.3 is sufficient for denial of a license without any showing the particular license would adversely affect the particular neighborhood, in those rare instances where, because of the size of a reporting or census tract or the vagaries of geographical topography, the applicant’s location, albeit located in a reporting area subject to § 61.3, is itself free of the adversities directing a denial under § 61.3, then it is necessary to present evidence to establish or rebut the effect of the particular license. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Bd. (1982, Cal App 4th Dist) 136 Cal App 3d 315, 186 Cal Rptr 189, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 2016.

§ 23958.4. "Undue concentration"; Requirements for issuance of license; Number of licenses issued

(a) For purposes of Section 23958, "undue concentration" means the case in which the applicant premises for an original or premises-to-premises transfer of any retail license are located in an area where any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The applicant premises are located in a crime reporting district that has a 20 percent greater number of reported crimes, as defined in subdivision (c), than the average number of reported crimes as determined from all crime reporting districts within the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement agency.

(2) As to on-sale retail license applications, the ratio of on-sale retail licenses to population in the census tract or census division in which the applicant premises are located exceeds the ratio of on-sale retail licenses to population in the county in which the applicant premises are located.

(3) As to off-sale retail license applications, the ratio of off-sale retail licenses to population in the census tract or census division in which the applicant premises are located exceeds the ratio of off-sale retail licenses to population in the county in which the applicant premises are located.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 23958, the department may issue a license as follows:

(1) With respect to a nonretail license, a retail on-sale bona fide eating place license, a retail license issued for a hotel, motel, or other lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a retail license issued in conjunction with a beer manufacturer's license, or a winegrower's license, if the applicant shows that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance.

(2) With respect to any other license, if the local governing body of the area in which the applicant premises are located, or its designated subordinate officer or body, determines within 90 days of notification of a completed application that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance. The 90-day period shall commence upon receipt by the local governing body of (A) notification by the department of an application for licensure, or (B) a completed application according to local requirements, if any, whichever is later.

If the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or body, does not make a determination within the 90-day period, then the department may issue a license if the applicant shows the department that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance. In making its determination, the department shall not attribute any weight to the failure of the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or body, to make a determination regarding public convenience or necessity within the 90-day period.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Reporting districts" means geographical areas within the boundaries of a single governmental entity (city or the unincorporated area of a county) that are identified by the local law enforcement agency in the compilation and maintenance of statistical information on reported crimes and arrests.

(2) "Reported crimes" means the most recent yearly compilation by the local law enforcement agency of reported offenses of criminal homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, theft, and motor vehicle theft, combined with all arrests for other crimes, both felonies and misdemeanors, except traffic citations.

(3) "Population within the census tract or census division" means the population as determined by the most recent United States decennial or special census. The population determination shall not operate to prevent an applicant from establishing that an increase of resident population has occurred within the census tract or census division.

(4) "Population in the county" shall be determined by the annual population estimate for California counties published by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance.

(5) "Retail licenses" shall include the following:
(A) Off-sale retail licenses: Type 20 (off-sale beer and wine) and Type 21 (off-sale general).

(B) On-sale retail licenses: All retail on-sale licenses, except Type 43 (on-sale beer and wine for train), Type 44 (on-sale beer and wine for fishing party boat), Type 45 (on-sale beer and wine for boat), Type 46 (on-sale beer and wine for airplane), Type 53 (on-sale general for train and sleeping car), Type 54 (on-sale general for boat), Type 55 (on-sale general for airplane), Type 56 (on-sale general for vessels of more than 1,000 tons burden), and Type 62 (on-sale general bona fide public eating place intermittent dockside license for vessels of more than 15,000 tons displacement).

(6) A “premises-to-premises transfer” refers to each license being separate and distinct, and transferable upon approval of the department.

(d) For purposes of this section, the number of retail licenses in the county shall be established by the department on an annual basis.

(e) The enactment of this section shall not affect any existing rights of any holder of a retail license issued before April 29, 1992, whose premises were destroyed or rendered unusable as a result of the civil disturbances occurring in Los Angeles from April 29 to May 2, 1992, to reopen and operate those licensed premises.

(f) This section shall not apply if the premises have been licensed and operated with the same type license within 90 days of the application.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: Routine code maintenance.

1956 Amendment: (1) Amended subd (b)(2) by (a) substituting “, or its designated subordinate officer or body, determines within 90 days of notification of a completed application” for “determines” in the first sentence; and (b) adding the second sentence; and (2) added the last paragraph of subd (b). (As amended Stats 1996 ch 869, compared to the section as it read prior to 1996. This section was also amended by an earlier chapter, ch 811. See Gov C § 9605.)

1996 Amendment: Substituted “established by the department on an annual basis” for “determined by the most recent yearly retail license count published by the department in its Procedure Manual” in subd (d).

2013 Amendment: (1) Added the comma after “burglary, larceny” in subd (c)(2); (2) substituted “premises-to-premises transfer” for “premises to premises transfer” in subd (c)(6); and (3) substituted “before” for “prior to” in subd (e).

No more than one such drawing shall be made in any county in any one year, and no person will be entitled to more than one opportunity to participate in such a drawing in any county with respect to an application for issuance or transfer of any one type of license. 4. Procedure

1. Judicial Review
Judicial review of denial of license by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, instituted by petition for writ of mandate attacking sufficiency of evidence and alleging abuse of discretion, is limited in scope, it does not authorize trial de novo or reweighing of evidence, but empowers court to determine only whether or not there is substantial evidence in record of proceedings before department in support of its decision, and whether or not its action was arbitrary. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

In determining whether decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying license was arbitrary, its action is measured by the standard set by reason and reasonable people, bearing in mind that such standard may permit difference of opinion on same subject, and reviewing court may not substitute decision contrary to that made by department, although such decision is equally or more reasonable, if department’s determination is one that could have been made by reasonable people. NOTES OF DECISIONS

5. Revocation of License

Revocation of off-sale general liquor license for nonuse within 30 days of issuance, as required by this section, was justified where owners of license had, before issuance of license, removed virtually all liquor inventory from their store, none of various licenses and permits necessary to lawful operation of liquor retail department had been obtained, owners, though experienced licensees, made virtually no attempt to supervise store subsequent to issuance of license and made no request of store manager to sell liquor on their behalf, but requested only that he retain license on premises, apply for manager's license, and keep minimal amount of liquor in stock, and no liquor was sold subsequent to issuance of license for period of three months. Separate licenses shall be issued for each of the premises of any business establishment having more than one location, except as provided for in Sections 23355.1, 23388, 23389, and 23390, except that any manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler may receive, store, and deliver wine as specified in its license, at and from a public warehouse licensed by the department, without holding an additional license at the warehouse. A license at a public warehouse shall be required by an out-of-state business whose alcoholic beverages come to rest, are stored, and shipped from a public warehouse in California.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board”.

2002 Amendment: (1) Substituted the first sentence for the former first sentence which read: “Separate licenses shall be issued for each of the premises of any business establishment having more than one location, except as provided for in Sections 23388, 23389, and 23390, except that the holder of a public warehouse license maintaining or operating more than one public warehouse in this State shall be required to obtain but one license for all of his public warehouse establishments.”; (2) added the second and third sentences; (3) amended the fourth sentence by (a) substituting “State” for “state” after “warehouse in this”; and (b) adding “or her” after “in each of his”.

2013 Amendment: Deleted the former third through last sentences which read: “The holder of a public warehouse license maintaining or operating more than one public warehouse in this State shall be required to obtain but one license for all of his or public warehouse establishments. A copy of the original public warehouse license issued to a public warehousman maintaining or operating more than one public warehouse in this State shall be posted in each of his or her public warehouse establishments. A charge of one dollar ($1) shall be made by the department for each copy of a public warehouse license issued to a public warehousman.”

§ 24044.5. Interim Operating Permit

(a) The department, in its discretion, may issue an interim operating permit to an applicant for any license to operate the premises during the period an application for a license at the premises is pending and when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The application has been protested pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 24011).

(2) The department has made a determination based upon its investigation that the license should be issued.

(3) The applicant for the interim operating permit has filed with the department an applica-
(4) The application for the interim operating permit is accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An interim operating permit issued by the department pursuant to this section shall be for a period not to exceed 120 days. An interim operating permit may be extended at the discretion of the department for additional 120-day periods as necessary upon payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and upon compliance with all conditions required by this section. Any interim operating permit issued by the department shall be automatically canceled when a final determination made by the department regarding the protests becomes effective or when the application for the license is withdrawn, whichever occurs first. An interim operating permit is a conditional permit and authorizes the holder to whom issued to exercise the rights and privileges of the license for which the application has been filed with the department. Any conditions for which the applicant has petitioned pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Chapter 5 shall apply to any interim operating permit issued by the department.

(c) Purchase of beer and wine by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by check. Purchase of distilled spirits by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by certified check. However, the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license, who also holds one or more retail licenses and is operating under the retail license or licenses in addition to the interim operating permit, and who is not delinquent under the provisions of Section 25509 as to any retail license under which he or she operates, may purchase alcoholic beverages on credit under the interim operating permit.

(d) All checks received by a seller for beer or wine purchased by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be deposited not later than the second business day following the date the beer or wine is delivered.

A check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment. The receipt by the seller or his or her agent in good faith from a holder of an interim operating permit of a check dishonored on presentation shall not be cause for disciplinary action against the seller.

(e) Issuance of the license for which the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license has filed an application shall not be approved by the department until the holder of the interim operating permit has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all current obligations have been discharged, and that all outstanding checks issued by him or her in payment for alcoholic beverages will be honored on presentation.

(f) It shall not be a violation of this section or grounds for disciplinary action for any licensee to extend credit to the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license or to receive payment from the holder of an interim operating permit in a manner other than authorized herein unless the seller has knowledge of the fact that the purchaser was operating under an interim operating permit. Knowledge of the fact may be established by evidence, including, but not limited to, evidence that, at the time of receipt of payment or the extension of credit, the premises operated under an interim operating permit were posted with the notice required by Section 23985, or the holder of the interim operating permit has recorded notice as required by Section 24073, or the holder of the interim operating permit has published notice as required by Section 23986, or the holder of the interim operating permit has recorded and published notice pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6101) of the Commercial Code.

(g) Refusal by the department to issue or extend an interim operating permit shall not entitle the applicant to petition for the permit pursuant to Section 24011, or to a hearing pursuant to Section 24012. Articles 2 (commencing with Section 23985) and 3 (commencing with Section 24011) shall not apply to interim operating permits.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may, in its discretion, cancel or suspend summarily at any time an interim operating permit if the department determines that good cause for the cancellation or suspension exists. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24300) shall not apply to interim operating permits.

(i) Application for an interim operating permit shall be on any form the department shall prescribe. If an application for an interim operating permit is withdrawn before issuance or is refused by the department, the fee that accompanied the application shall be refunded in full, and Section 23959 shall not apply. Fees received by the department for issuance of interim operating permits shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

Chapter 838 of the Statutes of 1992 inadvertently mandated the payment of duplicate annual renewal fees by licensees whose businesses are ongoing, but who are required to transfer their licenses as a result of changes in ownership occasioned by the death of a spouse, removal of a partner, reorganization or incorporation of a business, or similar circumstances. § 24045.5. Temporary permit to transferee of license

The department in its discretion may issue a temporary permit to the transferee of any license to continue the operation of the premises during the period a transfer application for the license from person to person at the same premises is pending and when all the following conditions exist:

(a) The premises shall have been operated under a license within 30 days of the date of filing the application for a temporary permit.

(b) The license for the premises shall have been surrendered pursuant to rules of the department.

(c) The applicant for the temporary permit shall have filed with the department an application for transfer of the license at the premises to himself or herself.

(d) The application for the temporary permit shall be accompanied by a temporary permit fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

A temporary permit issued by the department pursuant to this section shall be for a period not to exceed four calendar months. A temporary permit may be extended at the discretion of the department for an additional four calendar months upon payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and upon compliance with all conditions required herein. A temporary permit is a conditional permit and authorizes the holder thereof to sell the alcoholic beverages as would be permitted to be sold under the privileges of the license for which the transfer application has been filed with the department.

Purchase of beer, wine, and distilled spirits by the holder of a temporary permit shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by check. However, the holder of a temporary retail permit who also holds one or more retail licenses and is operating under the retail license or licenses in addition to the temporary permit, and who is not delinquent under the provisions of Section 25509 as to any retail license under which he or she operates, may purchase alcoholic beverages on credit under the temporary permit.

All checks received by a seller for alcoholic beverages purchased by the holder of a temporary retail permit shall be deposited not later than the second business day following the date the alcoholic beverages are delivered.

A check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment. The receipt by the seller or his or her agent in good faith from a holder of a temporary permit of a check dishonored on presentation shall not be cause for disciplinary action against the seller.

Transfer of the license for which the holder of a temporary permit has filed an application shall not be approved by the department until the holder of the temporary permit has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all current obligations have been discharged, and that all outstanding checks issued by him or her in payment for alcoholic beverages will be honored on presentation.

It shall not be a violation of this section or otherwise grounds for disciplinary action for any licensee to extend credit to the holder of a temporary permit or to receive payment from the permittee in a manner other than authorized herein unless the seller had knowledge of the fact that the purchaser was operating under a temporary permit. Knowledge of the fact may be established by evidence, including, but not limited to, evidence that, at the time of receipt of payment or the extension of credit, the premises operated under a temporary permit were posted with the notice required by Section 23985, or the holder of the temporary permit had recorded notice as required by Section 24073, or the holder of the temporary permit had published notice as required by Section 23986, or the holder of the temporary permit had published notice pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6101) of the Commercial Code.

Refusal by the department to issue or extend a temporary permit shall not entitle the applicant to petition for the permit pursuant to Section 24011, or to a hearing pursuant to Section 24012. Articles 2 (commencing with Section 23985) and 3 (commencing with Section 24011) shall not apply to temporary permits.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a temporary permit may be canceled or suspended summarily at anytime if the department deteramines that good cause for the cancellation or suspension exists. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24300) shall not apply to temporary permits.

Application for a temporary permit shall be on any form the department shall prescribe. If an application for a temporary permit is withdrawn before issuance or is refused by the department, the fee which accompanied the application shall be refunded in full, and Section 23959 shall not apply. Fees received by the department for issuance of temporary permits shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

In order for a seizure and sale of a license to be accomplished under this section, the licensee shall have either surrendered the license to the department or failed to pay the annual renewal fee to the department. 3. Legislative Intent
B & P C §§ 24070–24082, provide a comprehensive program to regulate liquor license transfers, giving unmistakable indication of the Legislature’s determination to exercise its power to control every phase of such transfers; in the field of liquor license transfers the Legislature has established a mandatory and exclusive system of priorities intended to replace other procedures such as ordinary levy and execution, in order to protect all parties to the transaction, and at the same time, to prevent use of a liquor license or its transfer directly or surreptitiously as a security device. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Black (1948) 84 Cal App 2d 260, 190 P2d 634, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1187.

§ 24070. Transferability of licenses
Each license is separate and distinct and is transferable upon approval by the department from the licensee to another person and from one premises to another premises.

(a) All off–sale general licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, subject to the following provisions:
(1) The number of off–sale general licenses in existence in any county on June 1 of any year shall not be increased by more than 25 new original off–sale general licenses during the following 12–month period, provided further that the number of new original off–sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12–month period shall not increase by more than 10 percent the number of off–sale general licenses in existence in that county on the June 1 with which that 12–month period began.

(2) After the department computes the number of new original off–sale licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12–month period as provided by the foregoing paragraph, if the department determines that the ratio established by Section 23817 will permit, during that 12–month period, additional off–sale general licenses in any county, off–sale general licenses may be transferred into that county in a number not to exceed by more than 10 percent the number of off–sale general licenses in existence in that county on June 1, with which that 12–month period began, but in no event to exceed 25 such transfers during that 12–month period.

(3) Under no circumstances shall the combined total number of new original off–sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12–month period and the number of off–sale general licenses that may be transferred into such county during that 12–month period, exceed the limitation set forth in Section 23817.

(b) All on–sale general licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, subject to the following provisions:

(1) The number of on–sale general licenses in existence in any county on June 1 of any year shall not be increased by more than 10 percent by the issuance of new original on–sale general licenses, but in no event to exceed 25 such licenses, during any 12–month period. The number of on–sale general licenses shall be limited by the provisions of Section 23816.

(2) After the department computes the number of new original on–sale licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12–month period as provided by the foregoing paragraph, if the department determines that the ratio established by Section 23816 will permit, during that 12–month period, additional on–sale general licenses in any county, on–sale general licenses may be transferred into that county in a number not to exceed by more than 10 percent the number of on–sale general licenses in existence in that county on June 1, with which that 12–month period began, but in no event to exceed 25 such transfers during that 12–month period.

(3) Under no circumstances shall the combined total number of new original on–sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12–month period and the number of on–sale general licenses that may be transferred into that county during that 12–month period, exceed the limitation set forth in Section 23816.

(4) The transfer fee for transfer of an on–sale general license from one county to another county shall be the same as the fee prescribed in subdivision (d) of Section 24072 for transfer of an off–sale general license from one county to another county.

(c) No retail license subject to the provisions of Section 23816 or 23817 issued as a new original license on or after June 1, 1961, and no off–sale general license or on–sale general license transferred from one county to another county on or after August 17, 1967, shall be transferable from the licensee to another person, or if the licensee is a corporation a controlling interest in the stock ownership of the licensee shall not be, directly or indirectly, sold, transferred, or hypothecated unless the licensee be a corporation the stock of which is listed on a stock exchange in this state or in the City of New York, State of New York, or which is required by law to file periodic reports with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, for a period of two years from date of issuance of the license, except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship.

(d) An on–sale general license or off–sale general license that has been transferred from one county to another county shall not be transferred for a purchase price or consideration in excess of the original fee paid for that license pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 23954.5 for a period of five years following the previous transfer of that license.

(2) An on–sale general license or off–sale general license that has been transferred from one county to another county may be transferred with no restrictions as to the purchase price or consideration to the transferee after a period of five years from the date of the previous intercounty transfer of that license.

Amended Stats 1967 ch 1222 § 2, effective August 17, 1967; Stats 1968 ch 1273 § 1, ch 1381 § 1; Stats 1971 ch 1072 § 1; Stats 2013 ch 337 § 4 (SB 818), effective January 1, 2014.

Former Sections:

Former § 24070, similar to the present section, was added Stats 1953 ch 152 § 1, amended Stats 1955 ch 447 § 84, Stats 1957 ch 1821 § 1, and repealed Stats 1961 ch 783 § 8, effective June 10, 1961.

1967 Amendment: Prior to 1967 the section read: “Each license is separate and distinct and is transferable upon approval by the department from the licensee to another person and from one premises to another premises. All retail licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, except that the number of onsale general licenses and offsale general licenses in existence in any county on June 1st of any year shall not be increased by more than 5 percent by such transfers or by more than 10 percent by any combination of transfers and issuance of original licenses during the following 12–month period but in no event to exceed 25 licenses during said 12–month period; provided, however, that in any county where original offsale general licenses are issued during any 12–month period following the effective date of this section, no offsale general licenses shall be transferred into that county from another county during said 12–month period. No transfer of a retail license may be made from one county to another county on and after June 1, 1963.

The number of licenses transferred from one county to another county shall not be limited by the provisions of Section 23816 or 23817, but such licenses shall be included in the number of premises used in determining application of such limitations in Sections 23816 and 23817. Before any applications for transfer of licenses are accepted, the department shall publish pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in the county to which such licenses may be transferred notice of the department’s intention to receive applications for the transfer of such licenses setting forth the date, time, manner and place of acceptance of such applications within the county. “No retail license subject to the provisions of Section 23816 or 23817, issued on or after the effective date of this section as an original license shall be transferable from the licensee to another person, or if the licensee is a corporation a controlling interest in the stock ownership of the licensee shall not be, directly or indirectly, sold, transferred, or hypothecated unless the licensee be a corporation the stock of which is listed on a stock exchange in this State or in the City of New York, State of New York, or which is required by law to file periodic reports with the Security Exchange Commission, for a period of two years from date of issuance of the license, except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship.”

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Generally
A receiver may be appointed to take possession of liquor license belonging to judgment debtor and sell it to satisfy a judgment which has become final, where debtor has no property or interest of value other than such license. Mollis v. Jiffy-Stitcher Co. (1954, Cal App) 125 Cal App 2d 236, 270 P2d 26, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1870.

2. Construction with Other Law
Transfer of a corporation's priority liquor licenses to a corporation owning all of the licensee's stock and into which it had been merged, was not precluded by the provision of B & P C § 24070, generally prohibiting the transfer of such licenses within two years after issuance, "except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship." Under a provision of § 24071, "a license may be transferred from a corporation to a person who owns, or whose spouse owns, the entire stock of the corporation," and, under B & P C §§ 23002, 23008, the word “person” includes a corporation unless the context otherwise requires. The Legislature’s use of the adjective “natural” to modify “person” in another clause of § 24071, also relating to transfers to or by corporations, indicates that the unmodified noun “person” in the clause in question is not necessarily confined to natural persons. Foodmaker, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1974) 10 Cal 3d 605, 111 Cal Rptr 553, 517 P2d 817, 1974 Cal LEXIS 347.
stock of the corporation or who own as limited partners 50 percent or more of the capital or profits of the limited partnership, as the case may be, shall have all the qualifications required of a person holding the same type of license.

(b) No retail license shall be transferred by a corporation or a limited partnership under this section unless, before the filing of the transfer application with the department, the corporation or limited partnership initiating the transfer records in the office of the county recorder of the county or counties in which the premises to which the license has been issued are situated a notice of the intended transfer, stating all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the corporation or limited partnership.

(2) The name and address of the person or persons acquiring ownership of 50 percent or more of the stock of the corporation or capital or profits of the limited partnership.

Attorney General’s Opinions:

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction
2. Liability

1. Construction
This section neither declares transfers of licenses to be against public policy nor expressly voids contracts specifying payments of consideration before application for license is made; injunction “No. . . license. . . shall be transferred” is not directed at buyer and seller; Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, not parties, transfers licenses; parties, denominated “licensee” and “intended transferee” merely apply to department for transfer. Harriman v. Tetik (1961) 56 Cal 2d 805, 17 Cal Rptr 134, 366 P2d 486, 1961 Cal LEXIS 340.
This section and § 24074, protect interests of creditors of seller of liquor business by allowing them to satisfy their claim out of purchase price, and protect buyer from loss of his consideration if Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control does not transfer license to him; statutory purpose to protect creditors was accomplished by provision in sale agreement that they could be paid from funds in escrow; its purpose to protect buyer would be defeated if, on failure of department to transfer license to him and seller’s subsequent sale of license to his attorney, buyer could not recover seller's unjust enrichment resulting from payments received. Harriman v. Tetik (1961) 56 Cal 2d 805, 17 Cal Rptr 134, 366 P2d 486, 1961 Cal LEXIS 340.

2. Liability
The fact that partners operating a public golf course illegally permitted their liquor license to be used by an independent concessionaire in the operation of a bar and restaurant connected with the golf course, did not create an agency relationship between the partners and the concessionaire by operation of law so as to make the partners liable to creditors who supplied alcoholic beverages and foodstuffs to the restaurant and bar. Furthermore, since the creditors who supplied liquor were charged with the duty of selling only to licensees, public policy should not permit them to blindly sell to any person operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensee. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

§ 24074. Establishment of escrow

Before the filing of such a transfer application with the department, if the intended transfer of the business or license involves a purchase price or consideration, the licensee and the intended transferee shall establish an escrow with some person, corporation, or association not a party to the transfer acting as escrow holder, and the intended transferee shall deposit with the escrow holder the full amount of the purchase price or consideration. The transfer application shall be accompanied by a description of the entire consideration. The description shall include a designation of cash, checks, promissory notes, and tangible and intangible property, and the amount of each thereof. The licensee and intended transferee shall also enter into an agreement, which agreement shall be deposited with the escrow holder, directing the escrow holder, after the requirements for transfer as provided in Section 24049 are satisfied, to pay out of the purchase price or consideration, whether the consideration takes the form of cash, checks, promissory notes, or tangible or intangible property, the claims of the bona fide creditors of the licensee who file their claims with the escrow holder before the escrow holder is notified by the department of its approval of the transfer of the license or if the purchase price or consideration is not sufficient to pay the claims in full, to distribute the consideration as follows:

First, to the United States for claims based on income or withholding taxes; and thereafter for claims based on any tax other than specified in Section 24049.

Second, to the payment of claims for wages, salaries, or fringe benefits of employees of the seller or transferor earned or accruing prior to the sale, transfer, or opening of an escrow for the sale thereof.

Third, to the payment of claims of secured creditors to the extent of the proceeds which arise from the sale of the security.

Fourth, to the payment of claims on mechanics’ liens.

Fifth, to the payment of escrow fees and the payment of claims for prevailing brokerage fees for services rendered and claims for reasonable attorney’s fees for services rendered.

Sixth, to the payment of claims for goods sold and delivered to the transferor for resale at his licensed premises and the payment of claims for services rendered, performed, or supplied in connection with the operation of the licensed business, and to the payment of claims of a landlord, to the extent of proceeds on past due rent.

Seventh, to the payment of other claims which have been reduced to court-ordered judgments, including claims for court-ordered support of a minor child.

Eighth, to the payment of all other claims. The payment of these claims if sufficient assets are not available for the payment of the claim in full shall be paid pro rata.

If the transferor licensee disputes any claim, the escrow holder shall notify the claimant, and the amount or pro rata amount thereof shall be retained by the escrow holder for a period of 25 days, and if not attached shall be paid to the transferor licensee. The agreement shall also provide that the escrow holder shall make the payment or distribution within a reasonable time after the completion of the transfer of the license.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: Prior to 1955 the section read: “Before the filing of such a transfer application with the board, the licensee and the intended transferee shall establish an escrow with some person, corporation, or association not a party to the transfer acting as escrow holder, and the intended transferee shall deposit with the escrow holder the full amount of the purchase price or consideration, if any there be, to be paid in connection with the transfer. The licensee and intended transferee shall also enter into an agreement, which agreement shall be deposited with the escrow holder, directing the escrow holder, out of the purchase price or consideration, to pay the claims of the bona fide creditors of the licensee who file their claims with the escrow holder on or before the date when the purchase price or consideration is to be paid for the transfer of the license as fixed in the recorded notice of intended transfer, or if the purchase price or consideration is not sufficient to pay the claims in full, to distribute the consideration pro rata to the creditors of the licensee. The agreement shall also provide that the escrow holder shall make the payment or distribution within a reasonable time after the completion of the transfer of the license.

1967 Amendment: (1) Amended the second sentence by (a) substituting “after the requirements for transfer as provided in Section 24049 are satisfied, to pay out of the purchase price or consideration,” for “out of the purchase price or consideration,” to pay; and (b) substituting “as follows:” for “pro rata to the creditors of the licensee.”; (2) added the second through seventh paragraphs, which read: “First, To the payment of claims of secured creditors to the extent of the proceeds which arise from the sale of the security; “Second, To the United States for claims based on income or withholding taxes; “Third, To the payment of claims for wages and salaries earned not more than 90 days prior to the transfer of the license and to the payment of claims on mechanic liens; “Fourth, To the payment of escrow fees and the payment of claims for prevailing brokerage fees for services rendered and claims for reasonable attorney’s fees for services rendered; “Fifth, To the payment of claims for goods sold and delivered to the transferor for resale at his license premises; “Sixth, To the payment of all other claims. The last category of creditors for whom there are not sufficient assets available for the payment of the claim in full, shall be paid pro rata.” and (3) added “If the transferor licensee disputes any claim, the amount or pro rata amount thereof shall be retained by the escrow holder for a period of 25 days, and if not attached shall be paid to the transferor licensee.” before the last sentence, to form the last paragraph.

1968 Amendment: (1) Added “and thereafter for claims based on any tax other than taxes specified in Section 24049;” in the third paragraph; and (2) substituted “mechanics” for “mechanic” in the fourth paragraph.

1969 Amendment: Amended the section to read as at present, except for the following amendments.

1970 Amendment: (1) Added “and the payment of claims for services rendered, performed, or supplied in connection with the operation of the licensed business” in the seventh paragraph, and (2) substituted “payment of these claims if sufficient assets are not” for “last category of creditors for whom there are not sufficient assets” in the eighth paragraph.

1972 Amendment: Deleted “within ninety (90) days” after “or accruing” in the second paragraph.

1977 Amendment: (1) Added “whether such consideration takes the form of cash, checks, promissory notes, or tangible or intangible property,” before “the claims of” in the fourth sentence of the first paragraph; (2) added the First subd; (3) redesignated the former First and Second subds to be the Second and Third subds; (4) added “and to the payment of claims of a landlord, to the extent of proceeds on past due rent,” in the Third subd; and (5) deleted the former Third subd which read: “Third, to the United States for claims based on income or withholding taxes, and thereafter for claims based on any tax other than taxes specified in Section 24049.”

1. Generally

Fact that escrow holder of consideration for sale of liquor license impeded all creditors of transferor in interpleader action to determine rights to escrow fund did not remove case from this section, particularly where agreement between transferor and transferee specifically authorized interpleader action. Pacific Firestone Escrow Co. v. Food Giant Markets, Inc. (1962, Cal App 2d Dist) 202 Cal App 2d 155, 20 Cal Rptr 570, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2457.

The mandatory and exclusive provisions of B & P C § 24074, governing transfers in escrow of liquor licenses and establishing rights of the transferor’s creditors in escrow proceeds must be read into every liquor license transfer, and the parties cannot defeat the section simply by failure or delay, deliberate or inadvertent, in issuing the required instructions to the escrow holder. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Gole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

An escrow holder named in an escrow opened pursuant to B & P C § 24074, in connection with the sale and purchase of a cocktail lounge business could not be compelled to give testimony pursuant to OCP § 545 [repealed], relating to examination of garnishees, where there was no showing that the escrow holder was in possession of any personal property of the debtor-transferror not connected with the transfer and sale of the cocktail lounge and alcoholic beverage license and was not an escrow holder nor an actual transferror as defined in B & P C § 24074.1 provides the exclusive discovery procedure available to a creditor of a liquor license transferror. Gramercy Escrow Co. v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 426, 92 Cal Rptr 397, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1005.

While the term “business” has no definite or legal meaning and is not defined in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, that term as used in B & P C § 24074 requiring the opening of an escrow in connection with “the intended transfer of the business or license” must be construed to include the trade name, good will, furniture, fixtures, equipment and any other personal property or building improvements customarily used in connection with the sale of alcoholic beverages. Gramercy Escrow Co. v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 426, 92 Cal Rptr 397, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1005.

As contemplated by B & P C § 24074, the event which is necessary to transfer title to the escrow fund from buyer to seller and seller’s creditors is transfer of the liquor license and not, as with the ordinary escrow, the fulfillment of all escrow conditions. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

The ownership change envisioned by B & P C §§ 24074, 24074.1 occurs regardless of whether or not the buyer and seller have previously complied with instructions concerning, inter alia, consideration and executed bills of sale. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

The requirement for opening an escrow referred to in B & P C § 24074 applies broadly to the intended transfer of a business utilizing a liquor license. As so used, “business” includes the trade name, goodwill, furniture, fixtures, equipment and other personal property or building improvements customarily used in connection with the sale of alcoholic beverages. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

There was nothing in California law which suggested that the priority provisions of B & P C § 24074 subsumed any significant right or concern of the State of California or the public, beyond the protection of suppliers or service creditors of licensee. Gough v. Finale (1974, Cal App 1st Dist) 39 Cal App 3d 777, 114 Cal Rptr 562, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1010.

The fact that partners operating a public golf course illegally permitted their liquor license to be used by an independent concessionaire in the operation of a bar and restaurant connected with the golf course, did not create an agency relationship between the partners and the concessionaire by operation of law so as to make the partners liable to creditors who supplied alcoholic beverages and foodstuffs to the restaurant and bar. Furthermore, since the creditors who supplied liquor had charge of the duty of seeing that the liquor license and public policy should not permit them to blindly sell to anyone operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensee. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

Regardless of whether a judgment, or an order for summary judgment, or an order for summary judgment in a creditor’s action under a complaint alleging a conspiracy to convert and negligence on their part as agents or for an escrow opened pursuant to B & P C § 24074, for transfer of a liquor license, in paying a purportedly inflated claim of the seller, plaintiff could not successfully attack the judgment under his theory that triable issues of fact existed as to whether the agents fulfilled their fiduciary duties, whether they complied with that statute, and whether they violated CC § 1057.5, restricting payments from an escrow fund, where such purported issues of fact constituted no more than plaintiff’s legal conclusions on appeal, rather than triable issues of fact. Cullincini v. Deming (1975, Cal App 3d Dist) 53 Cal App 3d 908, 126 Cal Rptr 427, 1975 Cal App LEXIS 1622.

The escrow holder in a transaction for the sale of a liquor license breached its statutory duty under B & P C § 24074, creating an escrow fund-creditor protection plan, to protect the interests of the bona fide creditors of the seller of the liquor license to the escrow fund, where it distributed the buyer’s promissory note to the seller only 4 days after giving notice to the creditors that it intended to do so on or before 14 days hence. The time for the creditors to protest distribution of the promissory note or to take legal action was so minimal that it bordered on the impossible. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

In an interpleader action brought by an escrow holder to determine conflicting claims as to the proceeds from the sale of a liquor license as between a federal tax lien and wage claims, the trial court properly entered judgment for the wage claimant and determined that at the time of the federal tax assessment and later filing of notice of tax lien, there was no property or rights to property belonging to the seller taxpayer, then being held by the escrow holder to which the federal tax lien could attach, where the escrow had been opened, notice to creditors had been recorded and published, all claims had been received, requisite state taxes had been paid, transfer of the license had occurred, and notice to claimant creditors of the amount proposed to be paid to each had been sent all before the federal tax assessment had occurred and the federal lien had been perfected. Whatever “property” or “rights to property” the seller may have had in the proceeds because of his power to dispute claims of creditors filed prior to transfer, were extinguished when he did not dispute any claim so filed, and the assets remaining in escrow at the time of transfer were insufficient to pay the claims in full. Business Title Corp. v. United States (1975) 21 Cal 3d 710, 147 Cal Rptr 622, 581 P2d 627, 1978 Cal LEXIS 256.

Where a federal tax lien had not come into existence at the time of the transfer of a liquor license, from that moment forward the seller had no property or rights to property in the license to which a federal lien could attach. Business Title Corp. v. United States (1978) 21 Cal 3d 710, 147 Cal Rptr 622, 581 P2d 627, 1978 Cal LEXIS 256.

Whether or not a taxpayer has property or rights to property in a liquor license or the proceeds of the sale thereof to which a federal tax lien may attach, is to be decided according to state, not federal law. Business Title Corp. v. United States (1978) 21 Cal 3d 710, 147 Cal Rptr 622, 581 P2d 627, 1978 Cal LEXIS 256.

2. Construction

This section and § 24073 protect interests of creditors of sellers of liquor business by allowing them to satisfy their claim out of purchase price, and buyer from loss of his consideration if Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control does not transfer license to him; statutory purpose to protect creditors was accomplished by provision in sale agreement that they could be paid from funds in escrow; its purpose to protect buyer and public policy should not permit them to blindly sell to anyone operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensee. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

licenses and establishing rights of the transferor’s creditors in escrow proceeds, represents a mandatory and exclusive scheme for payment of creditors of liquor license transferees, which creditors who comply with that section priority over those who employ any form of levy on the proceeds. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Gole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

B & P C § 24074, governing transfers in escrow of liquor licenses and establishing rights of the transferor’s creditors in escrow proceeds, was intended to protect not only buyers and sellers of liquor licenses, but also the creditors of sellers, providing for the payment of claims of bona fide creditors of a liquor license involves a purchase price or consideration, expressing a payment plan dependent upon submission of claims, and not upon the usual commercial self-help procedures of attachment and execution. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Gole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

The procedures and priorities of B & P C § 24074, relating to the use of escrows in the transfer of liquor licenses, are mandatory and exclusive, and are designed to protect, not only buyers and sellers of such licenses, but also the seller’s creditors. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

The escrow fund-creditor protection plan set forth in B & P C § 24074, is intended to prevent use of a liquor license or its transfer, directly or surreptitiously, as a security device and, also, to eliminate races to the court house by those creditors, who are first privy to the knowledge of an intended transfer of a liquor license. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

B & P C § 24074, creating an escrow fund-creditor protection plan, was designed to protect not only the buyer and seller of liquor license, but creditors of the seller, and the provisions of § 24074 are mandatory and are to be read into all escrow instructions relative to a liquor license. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

B & P C § 24074, creating an escrow fund-creditor protection plan, replaces all other procedures that a creditor would normally use against a seller of a liquor license to collect sums due him when the seller’s liquor license is being sold. When one of the main purposes of an agreement is to benefit third persons, they are entitled to recover as third-party beneficiaries in the event of a breach of that agreement, and it follows that bona fide creditors of the licensed seller are in this category and failure to protect their interests to the escrow fund assets will subject the escrow holder to liability to the creditors for a loss occasioned by its breach of duty. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

B & P C § 24074 (requiring an escrow when any transfer of a liquor license involves a purchase price or consideration, providing for the payment of claims of bona fide creditors of the licensee who file claims in the escrow, and setting up the priority in which such claims are to be paid) was designed to protect not only the buyer and seller of the license but also creditors of the seller; the requirements are mandatory and must be considered a part of all escrow agreements involving the sale of a liquor license. Webster v. Southern Cal. First Nat. Bank (1977, Cal App 4th Dist) 68 Cal App 3d 407, 137 Cal Rptr 293, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1331.

3. Filing of Claims

Section does not deprive any creditor of his claim against transferor, but merely requires that to establish right to escrow fund, creditor must act within time specified in statute.

4. Priorities

An attempted garnishment by a liquor license transferor’s creditor of the escrow proceeds of a transfer in escrow of a liquor license created no priority over other bona fide creditors who filed timely claims with the escrow holder in accordance with the mandate of B & P C § 24074, governing transfer in escrow of liquor licenses and establishing rights of the transferor’s creditors in escrow proceeds. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Gole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

The priorities for payment of creditors set forth in B & P C § 24074, relating to escrows in the transfer of liquor licenses, are not conditions to the approval of the transfer and do not confer on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the power to refuse the transfer unless the priorities are complied with, but instead sets forth the priorities for disbursement of the funds belonging to the seller after the transfer has been approved by the department in accordance with the prescribed escrow. Accordingly, in an interpleader action concerning priorities between a federal tax lien and wage claims with respect to funds in an escrow account set up pursuant to B & P C § 24074, for the transfer of a liquor license, the trial court properly determined that once the transfer had been approved prior to the close of escrow, title to the proceeds passed to the seller subject to applicable lien priorities, the seller held property in the escrow to which a federal tax lien could attach, and that, pursuant to federal law, the tax lien constituted a priority lien claim for unpaid taxes that was entitled to be paid from the fund before the claims of other defendants for unpaid wages. Business Title Corp. v. Division of Labor Law Enforcement (1976) 17 Cal 3d 878, 132 Cal Rptr 454, 553 P2d 614, 1976 Cal LEXIS 329.

5. Payment Plan

Under B & P C § 24074, providing that when a transfer of a liquor license involves a purchase price or consideration, the full amount must be deposited in an escrow account with a description of the entire consideration, including cash and promissory notes and tangible and intangible property, all of the deposited assets, not just cash, are to be distributed in a manner that will benefit creditors covered by the statute. The law, by interpleader and declaratory relief actions, provides practical methods to resolve distribution problems of promissory notes, tangible and intangible property, if the parties have not provided for a plan or method in the escrow instructions that would protect the bona fide creditors. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

6. Defense

In an action by the holder of a promissory note given by a corporate restaurant and bar and payable on demand, against several parties including the corporation and a bank holding the escrow for the bulk transfer sale of the premises and its liquor license to another party, the bank, which in violation of B & P C § 24074, and the provisions thereof incorporated in the escrow instructions had disbursed the escrow funds without paying the notes, despite a timely claim thereof, was not entitled to use the defense of impossibility of performance through operation of law, where, though such nonpayment resulted from disbursement of the funds specifically in accordance with a court order, that order had been made in a totally unrelated suit against the bank and others by private litigants, namely, by shareholders of the corporation. The defense of impossibility was precluded, moreover, by the fact every order in the unrelated suit had been participated in and stipulated to by the bank itself, which, therefore, was in no position to argue it was compelled by legal authority to act contrary to its previously undertaken escrow duties. Webster v. Southern Cal. First Nat. Bank (1977, Cal App 4th Dist) 68 Cal App 3d 407, 137 Cal Rptr 293, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1331.

§ 24074.1. Duties of escrow holder
Any person desiring to act as an escrow holder under Section 24074 shall:
1. Comply with all the applicable provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 6 of the Financial Code.
2. Not more than 10 days after receiving a claim from a creditor, said escrow holder shall acknowledge receipt of each claim; and
3. Not more than 10 days after the license has been transferred and prior to the distribution of the assets held by said escrow holder he shall advise each creditor who filed a claim against the escrow whether or not there are sufficient assets in the escrow to pay all creditors in full. If the assets in the escrow are sufficient to pay all creditors in full, said escrow holder shall also advise each creditor of the date on or before which payment will be made. If there are not sufficient assets to pay all creditors in full, he shall then advise each creditor who filed a claim of the following: (a) the total assets placed in escrow with him and the nature of each asset; (b) the name of each creditor who filed a claim against the escrow and the amount of said claim; (c) the amount he proposes to pay each creditor; and (d) the date on or before which said amount will be paid to the creditors.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Notice

1. Generally
The ownership change envisioned by B & P C §§ 24074, 24074.1, occurs regardless of whether or not the buyer and seller have previously complied with instructions concerning, inter alia, consideration and executed bills of sale. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

2. Construction with Other Law
An escrow holder named in an escrow opened pursuant to B & P C § 24074, in connection with the sale and purchase of a cocktail lounge business could not be compelled to give testimony pursuant to CCP § 545 (repealed), relating to examination of garnishees, where there was no showing that the escrow holder was in possession of any personal property of the debtor-transferror not connected with the transfer and sale of the cocktail lounge and alcoholic beverage license; B & P C § 24074.1 provides the exclusive discovery procedure available to a creditor of a liquor license transferror; it makes it mandatory for an escrow holder to give the creditor of such a transferror the same type of information as is available to a creditor under CCP § 545 concerning, personal property not connected with the transfer of an alcoholic beverage license; and to require such an escrow holder to testify under oath concerning information already divulged would not only be a cumulative redundancy but also a burdensome and fruitless exercise since such property is not subject to ordinary levy or execution. Gramercy Escrow Co. v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 426, 92 Cal Rptr 397, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1005.

3. Notice
The notice required to be given by the escrow holder to all creditors of a seller of a liquor license under B & P C § 24074.1, providing that if there are not sufficient assets to pay all creditors in full the escrow holder shall advise each creditor of the total assets and the nature of each asset, the name of each creditor and the amount of his claim, the amount he proposes to pay each creditor, and the date on or before which said amount will be paid to the creditors, only requires the escrow holder to notify the creditors of the amount it intends to pay them and approximately when. It does not authorize distribution of an asset other than cash to the seller when the bona fide creditors are still not fully paid, and before the creditors can reasonably protect themselves. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

§ 24074.2. Release of escrow funds
Any person desiring to act as an escrow holder under Section 24074 shall not release any funds in the escrow in exchange for a promissory note or in exchange for any other consideration of less value to the creditors than the funds exchanged.

§ 24074.3. Statement by transferee
(a) Within 30 days after the filing of an application for transfer of a license referred to in Section 24073, the intended transferee shall file with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that the purchase price or consideration as set forth in the escrow agreement required by Section 24074 has been deposited with the escrowholder. At the time such statement is filed with the department copies thereof shall be submitted by the intended transferee to the transferee and the escrowholder concerned. The 30–day period specified by this section may be extended by the department for good cause; however, the license shall not be transferred until the statement required by this section is received by the department.

(b) This section shall not apply in the case of transfers for which a guaranty of payment has been filed pursuant to Section 24074.4.

§ 24074.4. When escrow not required
(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24074, no escrow shall be required to be established in connection with the transfer of a business or license if a corporate person files with the department a guaranty of full, prompt, and faithful payment of all claims of bona fide creditors of the licensee, and such guaranty is acceptable to the creditors. The department shall not transfer the license until the guarantor has paid all the creditors’ claims in full and the guarantor has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all conditions of the transfer have been satisfied. Payment of such claims by the guarantor shall be made in United States currency or by certified check in a manner acceptable to the creditors.

(b) This section shall apply only in the case of a transfer involving an off-sale beer and wine license, and in which the guarantor corporation has a net worth on a consolidated basis, according to its most recent audited financial statement, of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000).

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board” after “filed with the” in the second sentence.
1963 Amendment: Substituted the section for the former section which read: “No licensee shall enter into any agreement wherein he pledges the transfer of his license as security for a loan or as security for the fulfillment of any agreement. Each application for the transfer of a license shall be accompanied by or contain a statement verified by both the transferee specifically stating that the transfer application or proposed transfer is not made to satisfy the payment of a loan or to fulfill an agreement entered into more than ninety (90) days preceding the day on which the transfer application is filed with the department or to gain or establish a preference to or for any creditor of the transferor to defraud or injure any creditor of the transferor. This statement shall become part of the transfer application, and any misrepresentation contained in the statement shall be considered the misrepresentation of a material fact.”

1. Generally
A transferor's failure to inform the State Board of Equalization of the existence of an agreement entered into prior to the enactment of this statute did not amount to a fraud on the officers of the board and the public in the absence of any showing that the withheld information was requested by the board. Etchart v. Pyles (1951, Cal App) 106 Cal App 2d 549, 235 P2d 427, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

If, in view of prohibition against pledging transfer of liquor license as security for loan or as security for fulfillment of any agreement there was any error in order imposing lien on ward's liquor license, principal asset of her estate, to secure payment of fees and expenses, or in subsequent order charging guardian with liquor license because of his transfer of it in violation of previous order, such error was in exercise of court's jurisdiction and could have been corrected on appeal, and there could be no collateral attack on such orders, since court was acting within scope of its jurisdiction in making them. Hartford Acci. & Indem. Co. v. Crawford (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 557, 22 Cal Rptr 424, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2277.

The fact that partners operating a public golf course illegally permitted their liquor license to be used by an independent concessionaire in the operation of a bar and restaurant connected with the golf course, did not create an agency relationship between the partners and the concessionaire by operation of law so as to make the partners liable to creditors who supplied alcoholic beverages and foodstuffs to the restaurant and bar. Furthermore, since the creditors who supplied liquor were charged with the duty of selling only to licensees, public policy should not permit them to blindly sell to any person operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensee. Associated Creditors' Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

2. Construction
This section is not directed against making of agreement by licensee only; in view of fact that it requires both transferee and transferor to verify statement excluding violation of such section, its purpose and policy is to prohibit all use of liquor license as security, and any such use is unlawful and void. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

B & P C § 24076, undertakes to qualify the otherwise unlimited contractual freedom to transfer alcoholic beverage licenses by prohibiting contracts for a transfer that affords "security" to one of the parties. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

3. Retroactivity

This section is not retroactive as to rights that accrued before its effective date, even though not adjudicated until after its effective date. Tognoli v. Taroli (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 426, 273 P2d 914, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1357.

Where hotel, restaurant and bar were leased for term commencing before effective date of this section, the lease providing that on-sale general liquor license be transferred to lessee, who agreed to retransfer it on termination of lease, lessor's rights to reassignment of license at future time were fixed as of date of lease, and lessor was entitled to damages for breach when lessee, after effective date of this section, sold license to third party. Tognoli v. Taroli (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 426, 273 P2d 914, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1357.

Application of this section is not retroactive in case of an unsecured creditor who, prior to enactment of this section, was without any right contractual or otherwise to demand security; there could only be retroactive application where, prior to enactment, transfer of liquor license had been pledged or some right to its transfer had been obtained. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

This section is not only not retroactive as to rights that have accrued and have been adjudicated before effective date of section, but it is also not retroactive as to rights that have accrued but have not yet been adjudicated. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

Agreement by assignee of lease to retransfer license to original owners thereof was not deemed to have been made prior to effective date of this statute, and, therefore, outside its operation, where effect of new agreement, after this statute's effective date, was creation of new lease and new tenancy. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 P2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

Where, by contract to transfer liquor license, rights have accrued as between parties prior to effective date of this section, they enjoy constitutional immunity from legislative impairment and are not subject to deprivation by retroactive operation of statute; same rights as between parties, if accruing after such date, are unenforceable if violative of statute. Belle'Isle v. Hempy (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 206 Cal App 2d 14, 23 Cal Rptr 599, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 1990.

4. Words and Phrases
All of language of statute must be given effect and purpose if that is possible, and word “pledge” must be interpreted in light of this principle. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 F2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

The sole distinguishing characteristic of a pledge is the present physical transfer of the property pledged (CC §§ 2986–2988), and a literal rendition of the word “pledge” produces an internal inconsistency in B & P C § 24076, providing in part that no alcoholic beverage licensee shall enter into an agreement wherein he pledges the transfer of his license as security. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

To give effect to the portion of B & P C § 24076, prohibiting an alcoholic beverage licensee from entering into an agreement in which he pledges the transfer of his license as security, the reference to “pledge” must be read as embracing all promises or undertakings. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

5. Particular Agreements and Transactions Violating Section

An agreement between creditor and liquor licensee and her husband whereby pre-existing debt for which action had been brought against such spouses was acknowledged, creditor agreed to lend them an additional sum and to dismiss action with prejudice, and spouses agreed to give promissory note and to secure such note by a chattel mortgage, a power of attorney authorizing transfer of liquor license in event of default and power of attorney to transfer lease of their business premises, and separate powers of attorney to creditor which were signed by spouses on same date and which referred to above agreement and expressly declared such powers irrevocable, were in substance an agreement in which wife pledged transfer of her license as security for loan as prohibited by this section. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

Agreement whereby assignee of lease and liquor license were to retransfer license to former owners after lease ended was invalid. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 F2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

In transaction involving lease of real property and sale of liquor license, where lease gave lessee option to repurchase liquor license at expiration of lease, repurchase agreement was unenforceable because retransfer pursuant to this agreement would be “to fulfill an agreement entered into more than 90 days preceding the day on which the transfer application is filed. . .” and would be in violation of this section. Hammond v. Pasquini (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 211 Cal App 2d 540, 27 Cal Rptr 208, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2942.

6. Particular Agreements and Transactions Not Violating Section

In action for declaratory relief to decide which of parties were entitled to certain liquor licenses where plaintiff sold defendants furnishings and liquor inventory of bar, transferred to them liquor licenses for use at bar, and leased premises to them for five years, including in lease clause that on 90 days’ notice of sooner termination, of lease lessee would retransfer licenses to lessors or their successors or representatives, and where parties at end of term of first lease signed another two-year lease with option to extend term for three more years, such new lease was extension of first lease and not renewal, and, where first lease was entered into prior to enactment of this section, retransfer of licenses was not illegal and void as contrary to public policy, and plaintiffs were entitled to their return. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 396, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

Though the owners of a hotel might have sold it without assurance that they could repurchase the alcoholic beverage licenses if compelled to repossess the hotel and, to this extent, an option to repurchase the licenses in event of default of purchase of the hotel tended to “secure” or preserve the value of the sellers’ interest in the hotel, the option did not function as a “security” device within the meaning of B & P C § 24076, prohibiting contracts for transfers of alcoholic beverage licenses affording “security” to one of the parties. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

B & P C § 24076, restricting contracts for the transfer of alcoholic beverage licenses, did not invalidate a contract giving the seller of a hotel an option to repurchase the alcoholic beverage licenses used at the hotel at the same price the purchaser paid for them ($5,000 could not be deemed nominal) in the event of default in the purchase of the hotel. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

The provision in B & P C § 24076, proscribing transfer of an alcoholic beverage license to fulfill an agreement entered into more than 90 days preceding the filing of the transfer application, did not render illegal the option by the seller of a hotel to repurchase alcoholic beverage licenses from the purchaser at the same price in the event of default in purchase of the hotel and afforded no defense to an action for damages, though the provision precluded specific performance of the option agreement. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

2. Agreement

In a criminal conspiracy, the question is not whether the defendant committed the underlying crime, but whether there was an agreement between two or more persons with the specific intent to agree to commit a public offense followed by overt acts committed in the state by one or more of the parties for the purpose of accomplishing the object of the agreement. People v. Anderson (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 1 Cal App 4th 1084, 3 Cal Rptr 2d 247, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1460.

(C) Making good faith efforts to remove items that facilitate loitering, such as furniture, except those structures approved or permitted by the local jurisdiction. The licensee shall not be liable for the removal of those items that facilitate loitering.

4. When determining what constitutes “reasonable steps,” the department shall consider site configuration constraints related to the unique circumstances of the nature of the business.

A. GENERALLY

1. Generally

Revocation or suspension of a license is not penal in nature but is a mechanism by which licensees who have demonstrated their ignorance, incompetency, or lack of honesty and integrity may be removed from the licensed business. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, allegedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that purported sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USCS § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1973 US App LEXIS 8706, cert. denied, (1974) 94 S Ct 1413, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

2. Constitutionality
[Former] sub e of this section is unconstitutional; to hold that by such language Legislature intended that grounds for revocation existed only where objectionable conduct took place on premises would constitute judicial legislation under guise of interpretation, which Supreme Court is not permitted to do because it would amount to invasion of field committed in its entirety to legislative branch of government. Vallerga v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 53 C2d 313, 1 Cal Rptr 494, 347 P2d 909, 1959 Cal LEXIS 349, disapproving holding in Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957) 155 CA2d 544, 318 P2d 494, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1321, and Nickola v. Munro (1956) 162 CA2d 449, 328 P2d 271, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1845.

Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege, nor such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates US Const 14th Amend. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act authorizes public enforcement in the form of administrative sanctions (B & P C § 24200) and criminal penalties (B & P C § 25617) does not furnish a basis for finding an unlawful delegation of legislative power. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

B & P C § 24200, subd. (b), which authorizes suspension of an alcoholic beverage license upon “the violation or the causing or the permitting of a violation by a licensee” of various rules or statutes regulating the sale, use, or possession of alcoholic beverages, is not vague and uncertain with respect to what a licensee must do to avoid a finding that he has caused or permitted underage drinking. The word “permit,” defined by case law as “abstaining from preventative action,” means abstaining from the action that in fact prevents, not abstaining from any action to try to prevent. A licensee with knowledge of underage drinking violates § 24200, subd. (b), if he does not in fact prevent underage drinking (subject to the defense that the licensee may rely on an apparently valid identification). The word “permit,” as interpreted by case law, has a clear meaning. Reilly v. Stroh (1984, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 3d 47, 207 Cal Rptr 250, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 2637.

B. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF LICENSEE

3. Generally
Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see that license is not used in violation of law. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1949.

It is not necessary for accused to have knowledge of violation or that he was negligent in not discovering violation. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

If there is evidence that violation of subd (b) of this section occurred on licensed premises, licensee is responsible for it. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Licensee, in making sales of intoxicating liquors, is not required to act as a his peril, but he must exercise caution which would be shown by reasonable and prudent man in same circumstances. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

There is an affirmative duty on the licensee under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to maintain and operate his premises in accordance with law, and failure to discharge the duty may amount to permitting any prohibited conduct to occur. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 361 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

4. Liability for Acts of Employees
Licensee operating business through employees is subject to disciplinary action for violations of Alcoholic Beverage Control

Whatever is suffered or permitted by agent and employees of liquor licensee is attributed to licensee. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1849.

Liquor licensee is responsible for acts of his bartender in knowingly permitting illegal sales of narcotics on licensed premises, under principle that licensed employer may be disciplined to extent of revocation of his license for acts of his employees. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Suspension of liquor license was warranted where repeated acts of licensee's bartender over month in taking bets on horse races established that licensee permitted use of premises for violation of penal statute, though there was no evidence that bets were placed when he was in bar. Quilici v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 549, 3 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2627.

To revoke licensee's liquor license because of conduct and knowledge of his employees does not deprive him of due process of law, since licensee, if he elects to operate his business through employees, must be responsible to licensing authority for their conduct in exercise of his license. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

5. Absence of Knowledge; Imputation of Knowledge
Licensee of on-sale liquor establishment is chargeable with knowledge of his bartender that girl is loitering in place for purpose of soliciting drinks from customers. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Liquor licensee may be disciplined by licensing authority for unlawful acts of employees while engaged in conduct and operation of the business, though employer did not authorize them and did not have actual knowledge of the activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573; Quilici v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 549, 3 Cal Rptr 49, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2627.

Revocation and suspension of liquor license were supported by evidence that licensees' bartender was engaged in taking bets on horse races and that he was paying off in cash on winning combinations on mechanical gambling devices, since bartender's knowledge of such illegal gambling activities on licensed premises was imputed to licensees and they were responsible for his acts, it being immaterial that licensees may have had no actual knowledge of such illegal gambling activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of the law, and, as matter of general law, knowledge and acts of employee or agent are imputable to licensee. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 181 Cal App 2d 162, 5 Cal Rptr 527, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1975; Morel v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license for solicitation of drinks on licensed premises by two women, knowledge of such activity was imputed to licensee by reason of fact that women were employed by him and sometimes worked as bartenders in licensed premises. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 58, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

Liquor license held in name of corporation may be revoked for illegal conduct of sole stockholders, though their acts were committed off licensed premises, where they were real parties involved and were alter ego of corporation, and their acts were also acts of corporation. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

6. Corporate Licensees
When liquor license is issued to corporation, corporation retains and is responsible for license until suspended or revoked. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1949.

7. Generally
Licenses issued under Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and the privileges thereunder are at all times subject to revocation for good cause under act and Const Art XX § 22. Taketa v. State Board of Equalization (1951, Cal App) 104 Cal App 2d 455, 231 P2d 873, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1639.

It is not past conduct, immoral character or bad reputation of patron that subjects on-sale licensee to discipline, but patron's present act and condition that offends both law and public decency, mere presence in public tavern of intoxicated person is illegal act. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Liquor license is permit to do what otherwise would be unlawful, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control need not define by rule or law all of things that will put that license in jeopardy. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051.

Giving proper scope to discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Const Act XX, § 22, it cannot be said as a matter of law that finding of person being unfit to hold liquor license because of his arrest and conviction record does not support decision to suspend and revoke license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, in its desire to reduce intemperance, cannot resort to the expedient of revoking licenses without good cause. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Though the mere employment of "topless" waitresses by a liquor licensee is not ground for revocation of a license, licensees are not generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly undressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplinary action if they do; where such purveying of liquor is attended by deleterious consequences, the department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the department can adopt regulations covering the situation. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 85, 84 Cal. Rptr. 113, 465 P.2d 1, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 258.

8. Continuance of License as Contrary to Public Welfare or Morals

Department has power in its discretion to revoke any liquor license if it determines for good cause that continuance of such license will be contrary to public welfare or morals. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal. 2d 141, 346 P.2d 737, 1959 Cal. LEXIS 329.

Evidence similar to that which supports decision and order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking license on ground that licensee knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of begging or soliciting customer for purchase for her alcoholic beverage (§ 25657) will support charge that continuance of license by that licensee would be contrary to public welfare and morals in that he caused or permitted designated females to solicit drinks on licensed premises on certain dates. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 189 Cal. App. 2d 787, 11 Cal. Rptr. 669, 1961 Cal. App. LEXIS 2250.

Premises licensed for sale of alcoholic beverages are operated so as to make them law enforcement problem for police, public welfare and morals are directly involved and affected; where law enforcement problem emerges from repeated instances of intoxicated patrons found on premises in violation of local ordinance, it cannot be maintained that these conditions of doing business do not offend public welfare or morals until or unless intoxicated patron has aggravated them by performing additional improper, illegal or immoral acts on premises. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 212 Cal. App. 2d 106, 28 Cal. Rptr. 74, 1963 Cal. App. LEXIS 2821.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license for nonuse within 30 days of issuance, as required by § 24040, was not too severe, despite subsequent amendment of that section to eliminate requirement of automatic revocation for nonuse, where evidence of licensees’ nonuse of license was not closely balanced, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control also found that continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals and therefore based its revocation on Const Art XX § 22, and subd. (a) of this section, as well as § 24040. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 229 Cal. App. 2d 821, 40 Cal. Rptr. 666, 1964 Cal. App. LEXIS 1051.

In a disciplinary action against a liquor licensee under B & P C § 24200, subd. (a) (suspension or revocation of license when continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals), the licensee’s knowledge of illegal or improper activity on his or her premises may be either actual knowledge or constructive knowledge imputed to the licensee from the knowledge of his or her employees. Laube v. Stroh (1992, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 2 Cal. App. 4th 764, 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 32, reh’g denied, (1992) 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 133, 92 Cal. Daily Op. Service 1072, 92 D.A.R. 1722.

The word “permit” implies no affirmative act and involves no intent. It is mere passivity, abstaining from preventive action. However, the concept that one may permit something of which he or she is unaware does not withstand analysis. Thus, in disciplinary actions against two liquor licensees for alleged permitting drug sales in their establishments, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board erred by holding licensees strictly liable solely because a drug transaction occurred, where neither licensee had knowledge of the drug activity. A licensee must have either constructive or actual knowledge before he or she can be found to have permitted unacceptable conduct. The imposition of strict liability is impermissible, since under B & P C § 24200, subd. (a) (grounds for suspension or revocation), and Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 (alcoholic beverage control), a license may only be suspended for good cause. Laube v. Stroh (1992, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 2 Cal. App. 4th 364, 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 32, reh’g denied, (1992) 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 133, 92 Cal. Daily Op. Service 1072, 92 D.A.R. 1722.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly revoked the on-sale beer and wine licenses of two markets for keeping a disorderly house (B & P C § 25601) and causing a law enforcement problem and a condition contrary to public welfare and morals (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; B & P C § 24200, subd. (a)), because of frequently occurring illegal drug transactions on the premises, without requiring proof that the licensees knowingly permitted the drug transactions or that the sale of alcohol caused or contributed to the illegal conduct. There was ample evidence that the premises had become law enforcement problems, that the owners were actually or constructively aware of the problems, and that they were not effective in controlling the rampant drug trade on the licensed premises. That the markets were located in a high-crime area was irrelevant. There was a sufficient showing that the premises constituted a nuisance within the meaning of the statutes and the constitutional provision. Yu v. Alcoholic Beverage Control, Pet. etc., Appeals Bd. (1992, Cal. App. 6th Dist) 3 Cal. App. 4th 286, 4 Cal. Rptr. 2d 280, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 123, review denied, Jey Lyang Yu v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1992) 1992 Cal. LEXIS 2293.

9. “Public Welfare or Morals” Defined

Public welfare is not a single, platonic archetypal idea, but a construct of political philosophy embracing a wide range of goals, including the enhancement of majority interests in safety, health, education, the economy, and the political process; to intelligently conclude that a course of conduct is contrary to the public welfare, its effects must be canvassed, considered and evaluated as being harmful or undesirable. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 85, 84 Cal. Rptr. 113, 465 P.2d 1, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 258.

The term “public morals” means the moral practices or modes of conduct pertaining to a whole community. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 85, 84 Cal. Rptr. 113, 465 P.2d 1, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 258.

The Constitution formulates the standard for departmental action in revoking a liquor license in terms of public morals. This does not imply that the subjective moral notions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control necessarily reflect or express actual public morality; rather, the modifying adjective “public” necessarily indicates the obligation to apply an objective standard. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 85, 84 Cal. Rptr. 113, 465 P.2d 1, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 258.

10. Lewdness; Nudity; Sexual Activities

State Board of Equalization had power to determine that liquor licensee’s conduct with reference to lewd performances on premises other than licensed premises was of such nature as to make his holding of license contrary to public welfare or

The law demands that on-sale licensee so conduct his business that it meets minimum requirements of decency and morality, where overwhelming evidence shows that licensed premises are in fact “disorderly house”, conclusion follows that licensee has permitted or suffered such condition to exist. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Though it is not entirely implausible that “topless” waitresses present the same danger of exploitation of customers that “B-Girls” did, it is insufficient as a ground for revocation of a license where there is no evidence that the waitresses solicited customers to purchase drinks for them or accepted drinks from the patrons. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Though, in some cases conduct may be so extreme that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could conclude it to be per se contrary to public morals in that it is so vile and its impact on society so corruptive as to be almost immediately repudiated as being contrary to the standards of morality generally accepted by the community after a balance is struck between personal freedom and social restraint, the employment of “topless” waitresses in the context of a licensed bar and/or restaurant is not such a case. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

11. Gambling

Department was not under misapprehension as to facts or law in finding that licensee was convicted of taking bets on licensed premises, and it did not appear that any such misapprehension entered into determination that continued holding of license by licensee would be contrary to public welfare or morals or contributed to decision that license should be revoked rather than suspended. Macfarlane v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 84, 330 P2d 769, 1958 Cal LEXIS 210.

Department did not abuse its discretion in revoking general on-sale liquor license of licensee where conduct for which license was revoked, namely, taking of unlawful bets on horse races at licensed premises, constituted crime under state laws and was thus at least technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

Though bookmaking and gambling are not specifically set out either in Const Art XX § 22, or in this section, as grounds for suspension or revocation of liquor license, finding that single act of bookmaking by bartender had taken place on licensed premises is sufficient to support revocation, since bookmaking and other forms of gambling on licensed premises constitute conditions that are contrary to public welfare and morals and are thus grounds for discipline under Const Art XX § 22. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

The suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was proper (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, & P C § 24200, subd. a) where a evidence that the act was anything but an isolated transaction which occurred at a time when the general manager of the licensed premises, who was in charge of the cocktail lounge, was not on the premises, and neither the general manager nor any other responsible officer of the licensee had actual knowledge of the bartender's bookmaking offense, knowledge of the offense being imputed to the licensee, and evidence that the bartender committed the act of bookmaking being "substantial evidence" that the licensee "permitted and suffered" its employee to commit that act. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 641, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1530.

12. Necessity of Rational Relationship With Operation of Premises

Although the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has discretion under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, to determine whether continuance of a liquor license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, the constitutional demand for “good cause” necessarily implies that its decision must be based upon sufficient evidence and that it avoid arbitrariness; properly construed, the public welfare and morals clause permits license termination for law violation not involving moral turpitude but having a relational relationship with the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

In a proceeding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a corporate liquor license, good cause for the revocation of the license was not shown, where, though it appeared that the licensee’s president and sole shareholder had an arrest record involving the intemperate use of alcoholic beverages, there was no evidence that his offenses had an actual effect on the conduct of the licensed business, nor was there any rational relationship between the offenses and the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals, and where there was no substantial evidence that continuation of the license would be contrary to the public welfare or morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

The action of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in revoking the on-sale, general bona fide eating place license on the basis that it was protecting the working girl from the possibility of violence and the humiliation and degradation attending exposure of her breasts in public for financial reward was not warranted, where there was no evidence that the evils sought to be avoided were related to the use of “topless” waitresses or occurred on the licensee’s premises. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

The rule that disciplinary action by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board is permitted only for offenses having a rational relation with the operation of the licensed premises in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals is oversimplified by construing it to deny disciplinary authority unless the act occurs on or in direct connection with the operation of the licensed premises. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. App. Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 7 Cal App 3d 126, 86 Cal Rptr 433, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2140, superseded by statute as stated in People v. Tibbury (1991) 54 Cal 3d 56, 284 Cal Rptr 288, 813 P2d 1225 1991 Cal LEXIS 3480.

A finding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, that a licensee assaulted department representatives acting in the scope of their employment and so recognized by the licensee, on licensed premises under the department’s jurisdiction, though not on the premises of the disciplined licensee, necessarily implied the required rational relation with the

13. Violation of Rules or Statutes Regulating the Sale, Use, or Possession of Alcoholic Beverages

A rule of the State Board of Equalization making a violation of the Federal laws or regulations relating to ceiling prices for alcoholic beverages a ground for revocation of a liquor license, did not set up an original standard which bound the board in its determination of the license issue, and O.P.A. might turn out touching liquor prices. Moore v. State Board of Equalization (1946, Cal App) 76 Cal App 2d 758, 174 P2d 323, 1946 Cal App LEXIS 780.

A violation of law in the sale of intoxicating liquor is a cause for revocation of a license, and it is nonetheless a cause if committed away from the licensed premises. Coletti v. State Bd. of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

Subd (b) of this section authorizes suspension or revocation of license when licensee permits violation of any penal provision of law prohibiting use or possession of alcoholic beverages or intoxicating liquors. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

In the exercise of its discretion department can properly consider violations of statutory provisions concerning alcoholic beverages or of rules of department as good cause for suspension of license. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

To constitute violation of subd (b) and of Rule 17(c) in effect before rules revision October 15, 1961, of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control there need be no evidence that delivery of liquor by licensee without accompanying delivery order be willfully or intentionally done. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In its reversal of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the suspension of a liquor store's license on the ground of illegal delivery evidence to support a determination of the department that a clerk of the store had violated the statute making it a misdemeanor to sell any alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated person (B & P C § 25602, subd. (a)), the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board erred in construing B & P C § 25602, subd. (a), so as not to apply to the sale of an alcoholic beverage to an intoxicated person whose intoxication was due to marijuana and a small amount of alcohol, rather than solely to the consumption of alcohol. The purpose of B & P C § 25602, is to protect the public from the use of alcohol by a person who is already obviously intoxicated. This protection is intended whether the existing intoxication was caused by alcohol alone or by other drugs or a combination of substances. Thus, B & P C § 25602, subd. (a), forbids the sale of alcoholic beverages to any obviously intoxicated person regardless of the substance or combination of substances that brought on that condition. Rice v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 2d Dist) 118 Cal App 3d 30, 173 Cal Rptr 232, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 1620.

It is not necessary for an alcoholic beverage licensee to knowingly allow its premises to be used in a prohibited manner in order to be found to have "permitted" its use for the prohibited act. However, if a licensee does not reasonably know of drug transactions taking place on the premises, and something more had to be shown than the procurement of transactions, the licensee does not "permit" the transactions for purposes of suspending its license under B & P C § 24200. McCadden San Diego 1130, Inc. v. Stroh (1989, Cal App 4th Dist) 208 Cal App 3d 1384, 257 Cal Rptr 8, 1989 Cal App LEXIS 247, review denied, (1989) 199 Cal. LEXIS 3687.

14. Keeping Disorderly House; Sexual Perversion; Nudity

Under § 25601, making it misdemeanor for liquor licensee to keep, permit to be used, or suffer to be used, in connection with licensed premises, any disorderly house, no proof of knowledge by licensee or his agent of proscribed act is necessary, it being sufficient that evidence show that such acts took place in licensed premises, and where there is evidence to show that patron participates in sexual perversion, and homosexuals engage in homosexual activity, licensees' license is properly revoked under subd (b), through which § 25601 operates to establish grounds for revocation. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

It is clear that revocation of on-sale liquor license did not depend solely on violation of unconstitutional subd (e) concerning use of licensed premises as resort for sexual perverts, where order or revocation adopted hearing officer's decision stating that additional grounds for suspension or revocation of license existed under subd (b), concerning violation by licensee of rules of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and for violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 208 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

The employment of "topless" waitresses and the distribution of their photographs to a liquor licensee's patrons was not illegal or in violation of any duly issued rule or regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and to establish good cause for the revocation of the licensee's license, something more had to be shown than the employment of "topless" waitresses. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that injured public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.
15. Sales to Minors
Licentiate conducting sale of beverages under on-sale license is charged with active duty to prevent minors from consuming intoxicating liquor on licensed premises, and if licentiate through employee, has knowledge that such consumption is taking place there arises immediately active duty to prevent its continuance, and failure to prevent it is permitting such unlawful consumption, justifying suspension of license. Marcucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 605, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2407.

Where girls under age of twenty-one testified that they consumed beer on premises, fact that their act was involuntary does not aid licensee. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

A licensee conducting sale of alcoholic beverages under an on-sale license is charged with an active duty to prevent minors from consuming intoxicating liquor on licensed premises, and if the licensee, through an employee, has knowledge that such consumption is taking place there arises immediately an active duty to prevent its continuance. A failure to prevent it is a "permitting" of that unlawful consumption within the meaning of B & P C § 24200, subd. (b), which authorizes suspension of an alcoholic beverage license upon "the violation or the causing or the permitting of a violation by a licensee" of various rules or statutes regulating the sale, use, or possession of alcoholic beverages. Reilly v. Stroh (1984, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 3d 47, 207 Cal Rptr 250, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 2637.

16. Solicitation of Drinks
It is not prerequisite to holding liquor licensees responsible under this section, § 25657 and Pen C § 303 that they personally hired "B" girls or permitted solicitation of drinks in their tavern. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, all that was required to support charge of employing or knowingly permitting woman to loiter around licensed premises for purpose of begging or soliciting patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages for her was knowledge of bartender imputed to licensee and evidence that woman solicited drinks from three persons in premises, one of whom was alcoholic beverage control agent. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

17. Restrictions on Issuance and Ownership of Licenses
Section 23779, which gives Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to revoke wholesale license whenever licensee fails for period of 45 days to make sales to retail licensees other than himself, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer's license of wholesaler corporation that sold only to incorporated retail licensees, of which it was wholly owned subsidiary, having to substantial extent same officers and directors as such retail licensees. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

Section 25502, prohibiting wholesaler or any of its officers, directors, or agents from directly or indirectly holding ownership of any off-sale general license for any premises or from owning or controlling any interest in such premises, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer's license of wholesaler, where wholesaler's officers owned such substantial amounts of stock in such licensees that they might be deemed to have ownership interest in licensee, and where also wholesaler, by reason of such stock ownership and by reason of interlocking directorship involving wholesaler and licensee, owned interest in premises covered by license. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

18. Misrepresentations by Applicant for License
Revocation of corporation's liquor license is not abuse of discretion under evidence that corporation was managed by two individuals having a history of narcotics violation convictions, extending approximately over 12 years in case of one, and approximately 19 years in case of the other. Ciro's of San Francisco v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 636, 299 P2d 703, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2028.

Revocation of corporation's liquor license on ground that corporation was managed by two persons who, because of police records, could not themselves qualify as licensees is sustained by evidence that both persons were authorized to sign checks and contracts for corporation, that one owned one-third of corporation stock and that the other's son, the vice president of corporation, had given father a power of attorney to act in relation to ownership of corporation. Ciro's of San Francisco v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 636, 299 P2d 703, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2028.

Department did not abuse its discretion in revoking general on-sale liquor license of licensee where he repeatedly failed on each of several applications for renewal of license to disclose that business was in fact operated by partnership. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal LEXIS 203.

Under provision of section making misrepresentation of material fact by liquor license applicant ground for suspension or revocation of license granted to him, word "misrepresentation" is implicit with dishonest state of mind or intention to mislead and deceive. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

19. Conviction of Crime Involving Moral Turpitude
Though Pen C § 1203.4, concerning release of probationer who fulfills probation conditions from disabilities of his conviction, is not expressly made inapplicable to proceedings under subd (d), to revoke liquor license of one convicted of crime involving moral turpitude, as is case with other statutes supra, and various licensees to disciplinary action for conviction of designated offenses, such statutes are merely codification of effect of Pen C § 1203.4, and liquor licensee convicted of crime is not aided by lack of statute making § 1203.4 inapplicable in his case. Copeland v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 2d Dist) 241 Cal App 2d 186, 50 Cal Rptr 452, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1232.

An attack under Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, relating to correction or reduction of sentence, goes only to the sentence not to the fact of conviction, and such an attack was irrelevant in determining the finality of an alcoholic beverage licensee's conviction in Federal District Court of defrauding the government through the filing of knowingly false income tax returns for two years, where the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals' affirmation of the district court's action had long since become final and petition for writ of certiorari had been denied by the United States Supreme Court, and particularly where the circuit court later refused to interfere with the penalty pronounced by the district court. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

A liquor licensee's entry of a plea of nolo contendere in a prosecution for receiving stolen property did not constitute a plea, verdict, or judgment of guilty to a public offense involving moral turpitude within the meaning of B & P C § 24200, subd. (d), providing for suspension or revocation of licenses in such cases, where the imposition of sentence was suspended by the court and the licensee was placed on probation for three years, and where the offense was thereafter adjudicated a misdemeanor by the court pursuant to the provisions of Pen C § 17. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

Constitutions of the crimes of possessing cocaine or marijuana for purposes of sale, crimes whose elements include a specific intent to sell the proscribed substances, constitute moral turpitude as a matter of law within the meaning of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the power to deny, suspend or revoke an alcoholic beverage license if a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude, and within the meaning of B & P C § 24200, which authorizes the department to suspend or revoke a license on the basis of a judgment of guilty to any public offense involving moral turpitude. Conviction of such an offense justifies the imposition of administrative sanctions without a further showing of unfitness or unsuitability or its effect upon the conduct of the licensed businesses. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 285, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1356.

20. Fraud

Intent to defraud is essential element of issuing check without sufficient funds in violation of Pen C § 476a, and crime defined under such section is public offense involving moral turpitude for purpose of revoking liquor license. Copeland v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 2d Dist) 241 Cal App 2d 186, 50 Cal Rptr 452, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1232.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control correctly decided that a licensee's license to conduct a bar should be suspended for the period of one year pursuant to B & P C § 24200, subd. (d), providing for suspension of license upon conviction of a public offense involving moral turpitude, where the department properly found, after a formal hearing, that the licensee's conviction in the United States District Court of defrauding the government through the filing of knowingly false income tax returns involved moral turpitude, and that the judgment of conviction had become final after appeal in the federal courts. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

An alcoholic beverage bar licensee was convicted in Federal District Court of income tax evasion in circumstances involving moral turpitude justifying the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's suspension of her license to conduct a bar, where there was a federal conviction and a federal finding of fraud, irrespective of what the state court's rule might be in order to convict of a crime involving moral turpitude. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

In respect to suspension of liquor licenses, where a criminal conviction involves fraud, the conviction necessarily also involves moral turpitude. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

D. PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

21. Generally

Object of license revocation proceeding is protection of public, rather than punishment of licensor, and proceedings are not criminal in nature, nor governed by law applicable to criminal cases. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Proceeding before administrative agency to determine whether license should be revoked is not criminal or quasi-criminal prosecution. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

22. Complaint

Where accusation charged acts declared unlawful by Pen C § 303, although without mentioning that section, license could be revoked, whether evidence showed violation of that section or not, if evidence showed situation contrary to public welfare or morals. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

There is no variance between accusation charging liquor licensees with violation of this section, § 25657 and Pen C § 303, and proof of violation by licensees' employees. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

In proceeding for suspension or revocation of license for violation of subd (b) of this section, it is not necessary to allege violation of § 25658 subd (b) relating to purchase of alcoholic beverages by minors. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Though accusations before department do not have to be as precise as those in criminal proceeding, they must disclose to licensor particular offense of which he is charge, at least to extent of stating essential elements of that offense. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license, principal objective of Gov C § 11503, specifying form of accusation in administrative proceedings, is to safeguard licensee against accusation that does not sufficiently enable him to prepare his defense; adherence to technical rules of pleading is not required.

23. Sufficiency of Allegations

Charge that on-sale liquor licensee violated § 25657, subd. (b) by employing or permitting designated person to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting purchase of alcoholic beverage for solicitor, is sufficient to enable licensee to prepare defense, since in administrative proceedings the courts are more concerned with fair notice to accused than with technical rules of pleading, Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Accusation that "the portions of the premises of the liquor licensees, where the activities permitted by the license are conducted, have been and still are a resort for sexual perverts, to wit: Homosexuals," is insufficient to charge licensees with conduct subjecting their license to revocation other than pursuant to (former) subd (e); to sustain revocation of license under Const Art XX § 22, on the ground that its continuance would be contrary to public welfare and morals, would violate due process of law in view of the limited charge contained in the accusation and the findings made thereon; nor could revocation be affirmed under section which purports to authorize revocation on mere proof of resorting to or patronage of licensed premises without proof of illegal, immoral or indecent acts on such premises. Vallerga v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 313, 1 Cal Rptr 494, 347 P2d 909, 1959 Cal LEXIS 349.

In proceeding to suspend license of off-sale liquor licensee accused of permitting sale of liquor in county other than one in which licensed premises were located, fact that accusation did not specify that licensee was not authorized to make sale by valid license did not render it insufficient to state cause of action where it specified that accused had license for specified premises in certain county, but no license for any place in county in which sale took place. Dami v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 144, 1 Cal Rptr 213, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1458.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, charging complaint that "On or about [a certain date the licensee], at his above-mentioned licensed premises, did employ or permit woman known only as Brownie, to solicit or encourage other persons to buy her alcoholic beverages, to wit: beer, on above-mentioned premises" was sufficient to state offense, since it gave licensee fair notice of acts or omissions with which he was charged so that he could prepare his defense, licensee indicating no lack of preparation of his case before hearing officer and no surprise appearing in transcript as to charge or evidence produced against him. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

On-sale liquor licensees were fairly apprised of charge of violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house, with sufficient certainty to prepare his defense, where it was charged that between certain dates, on licensed premises, licensee permitted or suffered males to kiss, caress, and engage in lewd and indecent acts and conversations with other males, and that police officer and two agents were invited by patrons to engage in lewd acts. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the accusation, in addition to alleging a criminal conviction, sufficiently alleged a separate cause for discipline on the ground that continuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals (Bus & P C § 24200, subd. (a), Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), where the allegation, based on the involvement of the licensee in illegal activity, preceded the allegation dealing with the criminal court proceedings relating to the same activity, where the substantive content of the paragraph, the punctuation, and the use of the conjunctive "and" to precede the allegation detailing the criminal court proceedings were all indicative of the several nature of the allegations, and where the licensee indicated no lack of preparation of his case before the hearing officer and the record showed no surprise on his part as to the charges or evidence produced against him. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 93 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

24. Notice and Hearing

The Legislature did not intend to recognize in this statute the right of the board to revoke a license summarily and without notice or hearing when acting on its own motion. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1940, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 280, 104 P2d 547, 1940 Cal LEXIS 1053.

In proceeding before administrative agency to determine whether license should be revoked, litigant may appear solely by his counsel to defend charges against him, and, having done so, his fortunes are linked with ensuing judgment. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

A liquor licensee accused of suffering his premises to be used as disorderly house was not denied right to counsel of his choice where notice of hearing, served on him pursuant to Gov C § 11509, stated that "you may be present at hearing, may be but need not be represented by counsel." Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

The license officer, the hearing officer, did not abuse his discretion in refusing to grant a continuance for the licensee to obtain copies of press releases issued by the department director in connection with disciplinary action taken against various licensees where the motion for continuance was made one year after the date accusations were filed and six months after commencement of the hearings and where there was no indication that the press releases would have disclosed evidence not already obtained by subpoena. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

In a proceeding to revoke liquor licenses, the hearing officer's ruling, granting a motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum to compel the production of records of departmental investigations that had not resulted in any official action did not effect such prejudice as to require reversal where the matters in question were relevant, at best, to the possibility that persons other than the licensee may have engaged in unfair trade practices and where, even had the licensee shown that others were guilty of such illegal conduct, the record still amply supported the conclusion that there are on the market commodities produced by others that are so similar in character they provide competition unhampered by unlawful trade restraints. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

25. Inferences; Presumptions; Burden of Proof

Burden of proof in license revocation proceeding is on party asserting affirmative; guilt must be established to reasonable certainty, and cannot be based on suspicion or conjecture, suspicion or theoretical conclusions, or uncorroborated hearsay. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

In liquor case, presumption that liquor is served when requested is not overcome by presumption of innocence. Mercuro v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Determination that premises licensed for sale of liquor constituted resort for sexual perverts, in violation of (former) subd e, is sustained by evidence warranting inferences that place was customarily and regularly used by persons who were prone to and did engage in aberrant sexual conduct, to extent of qualifying as sexual perverts under statute, and used place as haunt for mutual stimulation of their sexually aberrant urges and place of assignation for renewal of old and making of new associations looking toward consummation of those urges. Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1251.

Where presence of intoxicated patrons on premises licensed to sell alcoholic beverages and their removal and arrest by public authority occur with alarming regularity, it will be presumed that conditions of premises prevailed with permission and consent of licensee. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 301 P2d 474, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

In proceeding to revoke on-sale beer and wine license, evidence that intoxicated persons were arrested repeatedly on licensed premises and that police standards governing such arrests indicated that such persons were arrested only when they had reached advanced and obvious stages of intoxication supports inference that these occurrences, which were not isolated, infrequent or unusual, were open and in full view and thus easily detectable by bartender of licensed premises. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

26. Evidence: Admissibility

In hearing, before Board of Equalization, of accusation that liquor licensee permitted waitresses to accept alcoholic beverages purchased on premises, sufficient foundation for introduction of bottles containing drinks served to waitresses was laid by officer's testimony that he seized drinks, poured them into bottles, sealed bottles, pasted identifying slips thereon, put bottles in storage and later delivered them to Department of Public Health for analysis. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license on ground that licenses permitted licensed premises to be used as disorderly house or place to which people resorted for purposes contrary to public welfare and morals by allowing homosexual activity on premises, it was not error to exclude testimony of psychologist as to whether or not she considered homosexuality perversion, where conduct and activity shown by evidence to have occurred at licensed premises were well within meaning of term "sexual perversion" as that term is known to average person, and testimony of psychologist in contradiction of clear, certain and commonly accepted understanding of behavior in question was immaterial. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Offer of evidence to hearing officer of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to show that premises of licensee, whose liquor license is sought to be revoked constituted "police problem" is not evidence. Mundell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 2d Dist) 211 Cal App 2d 231, 27 Cal Rptr 62, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 1500.

That intoxicated persons were arrested on licensed premises on police "roundups" was evidence of violations of law though police were not summoned by licensee or for any disturbance by such intoxicated persons. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

In administrative matters, consideration of prior disciplinary proceedings is entirely proper, and in proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales under fair trade prices, licensee's prior record is relevant and material evidence of his knowledge of and compliance with laws involved. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

In proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales under fair trade prices, it was not sufficient for licensee to make vague offer to prove that off-brands of distilled beverages were not in fair and open competition with other advertised brands allegedly sold by him below fair trade prices; offer of proof must be distinctly directed to some material fact, and where it is vague or fails to reveal what facts it is proposed to bring out, it is not error to reject it. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

Bulletin from Director of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to area administrators, containing schedule of penalties for misuse of liquor license, absent mitigating or aggravating circumstances, merely constitutes evidence of department's policy regarding penalties and thus of manner in which department's discretion was probably exercised in other cases, which is appropriate matter for court to consider in determining whether department acted within limits of its discretion in revoking license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

27. Evidence: Hearsay

In proceeding before Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke liquor license on ground that known prostitution was permitted to enter and remain on premises and solicitation of prostitution thereon, conversations between agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and licensee's bartender and between agents and prostitutes were not inadmissible as hearsay, since fact in controversy was whether solicitation of prostitution took place on premises and words of bartender and prostitutes were admissible as original evidence. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 39 Cal Rptr 623, 400 P2d 745, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

In proceeding to revoke on-sale beer and wine license, official records of police department, so identified by officer who produced them at hearing and described manner in which they were prepared and maintained, were prima facie evidence that 101 arrests of intoxicated persons were made at address of licensed premises as stated in records; although a compilation made by police officer of disposition of cases of 76 of arrested persons was not official record and was hearsay since officer had no personal knowledge as to conviction and sentencing of persons arrested, such hearsay was admissible to supplement and explain direct evidence of arrests. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.
In proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, where the licensee sought to examine a witness as to his knowledge of secret rebates allegedly encouraging unfair competition by retailers and where, to the extent that such testimony would not have been hearsay or cumulative of other evidence, it would, at best, have yielded evidence that the licensee had unsuccessfully sought by a subpoena that was properly quashed, the hearing officer acted within his discretion in preventing the effort to circumvent the prior ruling. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal. 2d 349, 55 Cal. Rptr. 735, 1966 Cal. LEXIS 208.

Though relevant hearsay evidence that is the kind of statement on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs (Gov. C § 11513, subd. (c)) may be admitted at an administrative hearing, in proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, excerpts from a speech in a trade journal article allegedly referring to unfair practices in the sale of unspecified brands of alcoholic beverages attained neither the relevance nor the character required by the rule; and where such evidence could have furnished no more than slight corroboration for documentary evidence already obtained by subpoena, the hearing officer did not abuse his discretion by excluding the article. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal. 2d 349, 55 Cal. Rptr. 735, 1966 Cal. LEXIS 208.

Statements by a witness to agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, when they gave her free liquor on licensed premises, indicating that she had done this sort of thing before and knew that it was illegal, would have been inadmissible as evidence of the truth of the statements and on the issue of entrapment, had this been raised, but were admissible as evidence of her disposition and readiness to violate the regulations at the time she made them. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal. App. 4th Dist.) 245 Cal. App. 2d 919, 54 Cal. Rptr. 346, 1966 Cal. LEXIS 155. Where the fact in issue was solicitation for prostitution and the truth of the girls' statements was not important, testimony by agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control regarding conversations with two girls was not inadmissible as "administrative" hearsay, though admitted in an administrative hearing; and the testimony was equally admissible under common-law rules. Since the declarations were "operative facts" they were also admissible as original evidence. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal. App. 3d Dist.) 246 Cal. App. 2d 198, 54 Cal. Rptr. 547, 1966 Cal. LEXIS 1019.

On review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the licensee could not properly raise a hearsay objection to testimony received by the department, where no hearsay objection was interposed at the hearing on which the department's decision rested, and where an appropriate objection, if sustained, would have enabled the department to elaborate on the issue involved; in such a proceeding, hearsay admitted without objection has probative value unless there is some evidence, admissible in administrative proceedings, to the contrary, that is, unless objected to, such evidence will serve to shift the burden of producing evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the fact disclosed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal. App. 1st Dist.) 8 Cal. App. 3d 1009, 87 Cal. Rptr. 908, 1970 Cal. LEXIS 2117.

28. Evidence: Admissions

The constitutional provisions guaranteeing a person the right to remain silent and to counsel (U.S. Const., 5th, 6th and 14th Amends.; Cal. Const., art. I, § 13) apply only to criminal prosecutions; and in a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner's on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the written admission of the bar owner that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale his business was not inadmissible merely because it did not appear that the bar owner had been warned of his rights to silence and to counsel. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal. App. 4th Dist.) 258 Cal. App. 2d 49, 65 Cal. Rptr. 495, 1968 Cal. LEXIS 2386.

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner's on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the introduction in evidence of the bar owner's written admission that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale in his business did not deprive the bar owner of due process of a law, such license to sell intoxicants is not a propriety right within the meaning of due process. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal. App. 4th Dist) 258 Cal. App. 2d 49, 65 Cal. Rptr. 495, 1968 Cal. LEXIS 2386.

29. Evidence: Sufficiency

Evidence of liquor law violation should be clear and convincing in order to justify imposition of penalty of revocation of liquor license. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 144 Cal. App. 2d 843, 301 P2d 987, 1956 Cal. LEXIS 1801.

Licensee can be held to have permitted violation by showing that acts themselves took place. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal. App. 3d Dist) 154 Cal. App. 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal. LEXIS 1629.

Department's determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee's husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife's name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife's property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal. App. 2d Dist) 161 Cal. App. 2d 340, 326 P2d 555, 1958 Cal. LEXIS 1739.

Findings of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license were sustained by substantial evidence where department's hearing officer could reasonably infer from evidence that licensee's bartender allowed two designated persons to continue to drink and agitate and challenge patrons in premises over period of two or three hours without taking any effective action by summoning police, and where resulting fight and injury to certain patron were logical consequence to their behavior and should have been apparent to bartender; such passive conduct on part of bartender amounted to “permitting” conduct to occur. Mundell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal. App. 2nd Dist) 211 Cal. App. 2d 231, 27 Cal. Rptr. 62, 1962 Cal. LEXIS 1500.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, neither the trier of fact nor the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board was required to weigh the evidence in accordance with the provisions of Evid. C §§ 412, 413; under Gov. C § 11513, technical

30. Solicitation of Drinks

Evidence that girls employed by restaurant bar as entertainers asked customers to buy them drinks, and that bartender kept record of all drinks consumed by entertainers, even though paid for by patrons, was sufficient to support finding that girls were employed for purpose of procuring or encouraging liquor sales in violation of Pen C § 303. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Rejection of liquor license on ground that continuation thereof would be contrary to public welfare and morals and that licensees permitted "B" girls to solicit drinks is proper under evidence that, in licensees' presence in their tavern, girls received tally markers for each drink purchased for them by customers and were paid by bartender for each marker. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Sufficient showing that drinks accepted by waitresses on liquor licensee's premises allegedly in violation of this section and Rule 143 of Board of Equalization were alcoholic was made by testimony before board, considered in connection with presumption that drinks served were what were ordered, that alcoholic drinks were ordered for waitresses and were poured from bottles bearing alcoholic drink labels. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Finding that petitioner employed and permitted female entertainer to solicit and encourage patrons to buy her drinks under scheme or conspiracy by which she was to receive commission was supported by proof, in mandamus proceeding to compel department to vacate its order revoking petitioner's liquor license. Oxnard v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of alcoholic beverages by licensee's female employee for her consumption was supported by testimony that entertainer and cigarette girl, both employees of licensee, asked witnesses to buy them drinks, as against claim that such testimony was hearsay and inadmissible. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages by female employee of licensee for her consumption was sustained by testimony that entertainer employed by licensee asked agent of department to buy her champagne, though agent refused to do so. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Proof was sufficient to show that female employee was served alcoholic drink where bartender indicated that he was serving her "screwdriver," testified that "screwdriver" as served in his place contained orange juice and vodka and there was no evidence that alcoholic drink was not served to female employee, in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for employing female employee to solicit alcoholic beverage from customer. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Board that licensee, through his bartender, knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of soliciting customer to purchase alcoholic beverage for her, in violation of § 25657 subd (b), and order revoking license, were supported by substantial evidence where agent testified that two female persons were sitting at bar when he entered premises, that one approached him, said she was waitress and asked him to buy her drink, that this conversation took place in immediate presence of bartender, who fixed drink as soon as girl specified what she wanted and without waiting for order, that girl stated that drink contained vodka, and bartender, after he had furnished "double" of same drink, assented to agent's statement that drink contained vodka, and that agent paid for both drinks. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 139 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

Revocation of liquor license was supported by evidence that on specified dates, two women each asked customer to buy her beer, which he did, and that both women were on salary paid by licensee. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

31. Sales to Minors and Intoxicated Persons

In proceeding to set aside order of Board of Equalization suspending liquor license on ground that licensee sold whiskey to minor, finding that board's decision was not supported by substantial evidence will not be disturbed on appeal where it appears that clerk in charge of cafe asked minor to show his identification that minor exhibited an identification card issued in name of another person, that minor signed piece of paper copying name of other person, and that clerk compared signatures, and made sale, there being fair resemblance between the two signatures. Young v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 90 Cal App 2d 256, 202 P2d 587, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 896.

In mandamus proceeding to review order of board suspending liquor license, board's decision that licensee through his employee, the bartender, permitted minor to consume liquor on licensed premises in violation of subd (b) was sustained by evidence that officers observed minor sitting at bar, watched him consume bottle of beer which bartender served to adult who brought him here, and when next bottle was placed before him he poured part of contents into his own glass, it being reasonable inference that what officers saw was also observed by bartender. Marcucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 605, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2407.

Department's findings that licensees sold intoxicating liquor to minor were sustained by minor's testimony that he purchased liquor in store operated by licensees, and by evidence that first four of seven numbers of federal stamp on bottle of liquor so purchased coincided with first four numbers on bottles of brand of liquor on shelves in store day after purchase. Price v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 907, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

Evidence is sufficient to sustain ruling, suspending license, under § 25658, where it shows that minor was too young in appearance to be twenty-one years of age, that she weighed nineteen pounds more than person described in identification which she presented, and that she was three and one-half years younger than such person and had blue eyes instead of hazel. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Administration (1949, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 787, 318 P2d 218, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Suspension of liquor license for selling or furnishing alcoholic beverage to minor was sustained by evidence that waitress placed alcoholic drink on table and it was handed to minor, and it was no defense that minor ordered nonalcoholic drink and got alcoholic one through misunderstanding. Nickola v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 162 Cal App 2d 449, 328 P2d 271, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1895.

32. Keeping Disorderly House; Sexual Perversion; Nudity

The mere fact that homosexuals patronized a restaurant and bar for the purpose of illegal or immoral acts, and used it as a meeting place or hangout, without proof of the illegal or immoral acts committed on the premises or resort thereto for such purposes was insufficient to show a violation of former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 58 (now § 25601), warranting the suspension of the on-sale liquor license of the proprietor or employees. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 90.

Finding that licensee participated in procuring, counseling and assisting lewd shows at premises owned and controlled by him and admitted knowledge that lewd performances had been given there on several past occasions, from his former association with man who rented place from him, from his failure at any time to do anything to stop lewd performances, and from fact that because of rental terms he was to some extent partner in enterprise. Jacques, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 149.

Liquor license revocation for violation of § 25601, prescribing use of licensed premises for purposes injurious to public morals, under evidence that numerous homosexual acts were committed on premises, liquor was sold to obviously intoxicated persons, and beer was sold to minors. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 149.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license for violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house, was supported by substantial evidence, where there was testimony that male patrons, in bartender's presence, caressed one another, that male patrons invited each other and agents to participate in lewd acts, that bartender greeted male patrons with lewd language and pantedomned unnatural sex practice, that when licensee was behind bar an employee invited officer to engage in lewd acts, and that patron invited agent to commit perversion denounced by Pen C § 228a. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

33. Violation of Department Rules, Fair Trade Laws, and Other Statutes

Finding that licensee sold and delivered alcoholic beverages to named vendee pursuant to order and failed to accompany said order with delivery orders in violation of Rule 17(e) of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in effect before rules revision October 15, 1961, and thus in violation of subd (b), was supported by substantial evidence where agent of department testified that licensee admitted to him that delivery in question had not been accompanied with delivery orders or invoices. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 78, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend off-sale liquor license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade price, certified copies of fair trade contracts and fair trade contract price schedules that had been duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and that covered brands in question were in themselves sufficient evidence to support finding that beverages were in fair and open competition. United Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control
In proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, evidence must not only be substantial, but competent and material; guilt must be established to reasonable certainty and cannot be based on surmise or conjecture, suspicion or theoretical conclusion or on uncorroborated hearsay. Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

To warrant revocation of off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, evidence must not only be substantial, but competent and material; guilt must be established to reasonable certainty and cannot be based on surmise or conjecture, suspicion or theoretical conclusion or on uncorroborated hearsay. Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

The finding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that a bar owner purchased beer for resale from an unlicensed vendor (B & P C § 23402) was supported by the evidence, where it was shown that the bar owner-respondent purchased five cases of beer from his part-time bartender, who had no resale license, and the evidence included the written admission signed by the bar owner-respondent to the effect that he had purchased such beer for resale in his business. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2575.

In proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the record showed substantial evidence to support a finding of a violation of Pen C § 496, subd. (1) (receiving stolen property), where a quantity of merchandise belonging to a department store was found in the possession of the licensee at the time of his arrest, where he admitted receiving the property during a period of about four months, where the merchandise was received from a man never positively identified, who never produced an invoice for the goods, who never voluntarily offered a receipt of any sort for the cash payments made, and who never signed his name to a receipt prepared by the licensee, where, despite the fact that he admitted getting suspicious as early as the third sale, the licensee later purchased additional merchandise from the man, and where the licensee had acquaintances take the merchandise over the Mexican border in small lots rather than as a bulk shipment. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

34. Defenses; Estoppel Against Department

In proceeding revocation proceeding charging acts prohibited by Pen C § 303, it was no defense that owner licensee was not shown to have specific intent assertedly required by that section, in absence of evidence that he knew of or directed acts of his manager and agent, since owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of law. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Department was not estopped to revoke wholesaler’s license, issued in violation of §§ 23779, 23781, notwithstanding the addition to paying license fee, paid by transferor, and that Board of Equalization retained physical possession of license but counted it in county quota, pursuant to allegedly established interpretation of administrative rule, where there was no evidence that licensee paid his transferor in reliance on anything said or done by board, and no evidence as to any representation, practice, custom or interpretation guaranteeing anyone fixed status as licensee. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Fact that when hearing officer recommended suspension of liquor license he was employee of state board of equalization did not deprive department of power to adopt its findings and to order suspension of license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

Assuming that defense of entrapment is available in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for violation of § 25601, such defense was not established where record was without conflict that agents were solicited by patrons and employee of licensee to engage in sexual perversion, that intent to commit such acts originated in minds of those who made proposals, and that agents did no more than to afford licensees opportunity for solicitation. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Where liquor licensee knew that any agreement for reducing penalty of revoking his license to suspension, in return for his acting as informer, would have to be approved by director of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for agreement to be binding on department, and where it was clear that licensee did not rely on any statement of director, but relied on alleged opinion of attorney for department that director would act in accordance with attorney’s recommendation, such reliance, even if true, would not warrant application of doctrine of estoppel against department to deny agreement. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

There was no entrapment in the legal sense where the only possible claim of entrapment by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control agents rested upon the fact that they were males sitting at a bar, feignedly willing to be customers of soliciting prostitutes, and the originating intent was in the prostitutes with agile assists by bartenders. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

35. Findings

Finding indicating that licensees were in effect promoting and conducting professional gambling operations, supported board’s conclusion that licensees’ participation in gambling offenses and their convictions of Pen C § 330 were contrary to public welfare and morals and constitute grounds for revocation of licenses. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at prices less than fair trade price, assuming arguendo necessity of finding that alcoholic beverages covered by fair trade contract and involved in the sales were in open and fair competition, licensees could not complain of failure to make such finding where only evidence on question was that such distilled spirits were in fair and open competition, licensees introduced no contrary evidence, and finding stated that sales were made at prices less than minimum sale price provided for in fair trade contracts duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 686, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. 37. As Sufficient

Notwithstanding that accusation, charging liquor licensee with violation of this section and Rule 143 of Board of Equalization, declared that he “knowingly” permitted female employees to accept alcoholic beverages purchased on premises, board’s finding omitting term “knowingly” and stating merely that he permitted violations was sufficient, since neither this section nor rule requires that permitting be knowingly done. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

By finding that liquor licensee violated Rule 143 of Board of Equalization in permitting waitresses to accept alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade prices, findings were sufficient, did not impede judicial review, and did not fail to apprise licensees of reason for action taken against them where, in language of pleadings, it was stated that licensees made sales at less than stipulated resale price and that price was set forth in fair trade contract duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; no express finding was required that products covered by fair trade contracts were in fair and open competition. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

36. By Implication

Fair trade contracts for sale of alcoholic beverages cannot conform to requirements of § 24750, authorizing fair trade contracts fixing resale price of alcoholic beverages bearing trademark or name of producer or owner and in fair and open competition with others of same class, and cannot be filed as required by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control rule 99(b) in effect before rules revision October 15, 1961, unless alcoholic beverages covered by such contracts are in fair and open competition; therefore, finding that alcoholic beverages were in fair and open competition can be reasonably implied from finding that fair trade contracts were duly filed with department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade prices, findings were sufficient, did not impede judicial review, and did not fail to apprise licensees of reason for action taken against them where, in language of pleadings, it was stated that licensees made sales at less than stipulated resale price and that price was set forth in fair trade contract duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; no express finding was required that products covered by fair trade contracts were in fair and open competition. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade price, express finding by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, in language of accusation, that licensee sold beverages “at a price less than the stipulated minimum resale price provided for in Fair Trade Contracts duly filed with the Department. . .” was in no way deficient, and department was not required to make express finding that beverages were in fair and open competition; department was entitled to state its findings in language of pleadings, which made no reference to fair and open competition, and, furthermore, finding that beverages were in fair and open competition could reasonably be inferred from language in department’s finding that fair trade contracts had been duly filed with department. United Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 450, 32 Cal Rptr 603, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

In proceeding to suspend corporation’s liquor license, findings that one man was sole stockholder and president of corporate licensee after approximate date were adequate findings as to his status and duration of his relation to licensee. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

In proceeding to suspend corporation’s liquor license, finding that licensee’s sole stockholder and president “is” unfit and improper person to hold alcoholic beverage license by reason of his record of arrests and convictions sufficiently established, for review purposes, that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not believe that he was rehabilitated or fit, at time of decision, to hold license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic

E. RELIEF AND REVIEW

38. Generally
On appeal from revocation of liquor license for causing and permitting unlicensed female to dispense wine from behind permanently affixed fixture used for preparation of alcoholic beverages, there was no merit to claim that fixture was not used for "preparation" of alcoholic beverages because no drinks were mixed in premises, since preparation is broader than mixing and includes, for example, opening of container, and since such issue was raised for first time on appeal. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

Where liquor licensee admitted charge in each of counts against him in proceeding to suspend his license and did not raise any question regarding sufficiency of allegations of counts or included offense of double jeopardy, it was improper for Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to consider licensee's contention relative to included offenses which was raised for first time on appeal from decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending his license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961, Cal App 2d Dist) 197 Cal App 2d 182, 17 Cal Rptr 167, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1328.

On appeal from judgment denying peremptory writ of mandate in proceedings for judicial review of decision to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, where record revealed that each time hearing officer's attention was directed to prior pending proceedings against licensee, officer stated he would not consider these prior matters unless they became final before he reached his decision, it must be presumed that hearing officer did as he said he would do. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

In proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, the validity of the hearing officer's ruling quashing a subpoena duces tecum by which the licensee sought to compel the production of certain documents possessed by the department was rendered moot where record revealed that each time hearing officer's attention was directed to prior pending proceedings against licensee, officer stated he would not consider these prior matters unless they became final before he reached his decision, it must be presumed that hearing officer did as he said he would do. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

In proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, the validity of the hearing officer's ruling quashing a subpoena duces tecum by which the licensee sought to compel the production of certain documents possessed by the department was rendered moot. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 780, 74 Cal Rptr 345, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

Since the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board exercised a strictly limited power of review over the exclusive power of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to issue, deny, suspend, or revoke licenses, the decisions of the department should not be defeated by reason of any error as to any matter of procedure, unless, after an examination of the entire cause, including the evidence, the appeals board shall be of the opinion that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 13). Reimel v. House (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 780, 74 Cal Rptr 345, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1739, superseded by statute as stated in Chavez v. Zapata Ocean Resources, Inc. (1984, 4th Dist) 155 Cal App 3d 115, 201 Cal Rptr 887, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 1967.

In examining the power invested by Const. art. XX, § 22, in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a specific alcoholic beverage license when it determines for good cause that the continuance of such license would be contrary to public morals, the Supreme Court is required to observe the distinction between private morality and public morality; therefore, the public morals, not the private morals of the officials or employees of the department must be the criteria.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board abused its discretion in affirming a suspension of a market's liquor license based on a single illegal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol by an on-duty employee of the market without the market's knowledge. The single criminal act of food stamp sales was insufficient to justify the suspension based on the employee's knowledge of her own criminal act, which was imputed to the market. To be reasoned and not arbitrary, license suspensions must further the goal of the constitutional and statutory provisions. That goal in general is to protect public welfare and morals, but it must be viewed in the context in which it arose, i.e., the sale of alcoholic beverages. Where a licensee's employee commits a single criminal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol, the licensee has taken strong steps to prevent and deter such crime and is unaware of it before the fact, suspension of the license simply has no rational effect on public welfare or public morals. Santa Ana Food Market, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 76 Cal App 4th 570, 90 Cal Rptr 2d 523, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

39. Mandamus
Department's determination as to whether license should be revoked or suspended cannot be controlled by mandamus. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

In mandamus proceeding to review order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending nonsale license for selling beer to minor, lower court erred in setting aside suspension despite the fact that five witnesses testified licensee did not make sale charged, whereas only one, the minor, testified that he did, the department having chosen to believe the minor. Marini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 785, 2 Cal Rptr 714, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

On petition for writ of mandate to compel Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to vacate and set aside its suspension of liquor license, superior court should review evidence and findings in same fashion that appellate court reviews trial court's findings. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Peremptory writ of mandate compelling Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to vacate its decision to suspend corporation's liquor license was improperly issued where uncontradicted evidence of arrests and convictions of licensee's sole stockholder and president supported findings of his unfitness to hold alcoholic beverage license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

On appeal by licensees from the judgment in a mandamus proceeding to review a determination by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a license, the department cannot challenge the validity of a decision finding that the licensee had established an affirmative defense to charges of permitting the entry of a minor on licensed premises where no appeal was taken from such decision. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal LEXIS 1730.

In the determination of the propriety of granting a writ of mandate to compel the the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to grant an extension of time for the cancellation of a liquor license under Adm. Code, tit. 4, Rule 65(d), the writ must be denied, where no clear abuse of discretion on the part of the department was shown by petitioner, though the license would expire under the rule before three disciplinary actions respecting the license could be heard. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal LEXIS 1779, dismissed, (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 578, dismissed, National Motor Freight Traffic Assn. v. United States (1968) 393 U.S. 18, 89 S. Ct. 49, 21 L. Ed. 2d 19, 1968 U.S. LEXIS 590.

40. Finality of Department’s Decision

That trial court or appellate court considers contrary finding as reasonable as or more reasonable than finding made by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is not reason for either court to disregard or overturn finding made by department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is constitutional agency which exercises limited judicial functions; its decision suspending liquor license must be sustained if it has committed no error of law and if there is substantial evidence to support its findings of fact. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal LEXIS 1054.

Principles governing review of evidence before the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control differ from judicial review of administrative action to the extent that administrative action consists of declarations or applications of legal rules or is the statement of the conclusions of law drawn from facts found in an adjudicatory proceeding. The decisions of the board are final, subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion, and insufficiency of the evidence. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

41. Questions of Law
On appeal from suspension of liquor license, applicability of certain statutes to given situation presented on stipulated or uncontradicted facts is question of law, determination of which devolves on appellate court in accordance with applicable principles of law. Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal LEXIS 1783.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, interpretation placed on written instrument by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where intrinsic evidence has not been resorted to, though not binding on appeal, will be accepted by appellate court where such interpretation is reasonable, or where such interpretation is one of two or more reasonable constructions of instrument. Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal LEXIS 1783.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, where no extrinsic evidence was considered by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in aid of its interpretation of written instrument, construction is one of law, and appellate court is not bound by department’s interpretation of instrument. Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal LEXIS 1783.

On appeal from suspension of liquor license, where there is no factual issue of substantial conflict in evidence, question presented is one of law and conclusions of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are not necessarily binding on appellate court whose duty it is to make final determination in accordance with applicable principles of law. Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal LEXIS 1783.

42. Questions of Fact
Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with reference to charges of misconduct brought against licensee must be sustained, provided department committed no error of law, if evidence is sufficient to support its findings of fact, and courts may resolve in favor of such findings. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1382.

Trial court is not permitted to exercise independent judgment on facts, but must give department’s factual determinations same deference that appellate court must give to trial court’s findings, in mandamus proceedings to review department’s suspension of liquor license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1494.

Neither Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor courts may disregard or overturn finding of fact of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for reason that it is considered that contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal LEXIS 1051.

In a proceeding for suspension of license, neither the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor the courts may disregard or overturn a finding of fact of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the reason that it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal LEXIS 1730.

43. Review of Evidence

In reviewing action of department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in suspending liquor license, courts are bound by substantial evidence rule and may not reweigh the evidence, pass on credibility of witnesses, or resolve conflicting testimony contrary to department’s findings. Samaras v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 842, 4 Cal Rptr 857, 1960 Cal LEXIS 2407; Mundell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 2d Dist) 211 Cal App 2d 231, 27 Cal Rptr 62, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 1500; Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.
A licensee’s claim, that evidence at administrative proceedings for the suspension of its liquor licenses failed to show that beverages involved in the accusations against it were in fair and open competition, could not be upheld where it appeared that the department had submitted evidence that all brands involved were in fair and open competition with alcoholic beverages of the same general class produced by others and that the licensee, though clearly entitled to do so, failed to offer evidence in rebuttal. Wilke & Holzheimer, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

44. Record on Appeal; Notice

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for making retail sales at less than fair trade prices, evidence that alcoholic beverages covered in fair trade agreement filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are in fair and open competition can be supplied by department’s taking official notice of fact that there are countless brands of distilled spirits sold in this state that vie with each other for public favor through various outlets. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 21 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Claim of liquor licensees that revocation of their license was arbitrary because “legions” of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where proceedings against other licensees are not part of record before appellate court and there was thus nothing to show what charges were made against other licensees. Evidence produced in other cases; in any event, there is no requirement that charges similar in nature must result in identical penalties. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

Failure to make part of administrative record bulletin of Director of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to area administrators containing schedule of penalties for misuse of beer and wine license does not preclude Supreme Court from taking judicial notice of it. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

45. Weight of Evidence

Trial court simply called on to determine whether findings are supported by substantial evidence, in mandamus proceeding to review department’s suspension of liquor license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1494.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is agency on which Constitution has conferred limited judicial powers, and its administrative determination respecting revocation of liquor license must be affirmed if there is substantial evidence to support it. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control being agency on which Constitution has conferred limited judicial powers, appellate court, in reviewing suspension of liquor license, is called on, where there are conflicts in evidence, conflicting interpretations thereof and conflicting inferences that may be drawn therefrom, to determine whether department’s findings are supported by substantial evidence; in this respect, appellate court’s function is same as that of court below. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 601, 304 P2d 138, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278; Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783; Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic

The decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in a disciplinary proceeding against a liquor licensee must be affirmed by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals board as well as by the courts where there is substantial evidence to support it. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 641, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1530.

In a proceeding for suspension of license, the findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control must be sustained if they are supported by substantial evidence, and the superior court is without authority to exercise its independent judgment as to the effect and weight of that evidence. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

The scope of review of evidence considered in revoking a liquor license, at each of the three levels of review, is the same and consists in the application of the substantial evidence rule to the original record of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

47. Resolving Conflicts; Presumptions and Inferences

Function of both superior court and appellate court on review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license is merely to determine whether department’s findings are supported by substantial evidence, and in making this determination, conflicts in evidence must be resolved in favor of administrative decision and all legitimate and reasonable inferences must be indulged in to support it. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270; Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051; Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is agency on which Constitution has conferred limited judicial powers (Const art XX, § 22) and its decisions are examined by courts only to see if department’s findings are supported by substantial evidence in light of whole record; in making this determination, courts resolve all conflicts in evidence in favor of department’s decision and indulge in all legitimate and reasonable inferences to support it. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

Where, in suspending liquor license, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control found that applicant for license misstated material fact under oath by omitting disclosure of his criminal record, it could be presumed on review that misstatement found was intended to be synonymous with dishonest misrepresentation required by this section as ground for license suspension, and thus presumed that applicant’s omission was purposeful, not inadvertent. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

48. Penalty Imposed by Department

Under Const Art XX § 22, Board of Equalization has power to suspend as well as revoke a license. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

Revocation of liquor license could not be successfully assailed as deprivation of property without due process where State Board of Equalization acted within its jurisdiction, its proceedings complied with Administrative Procedure Act, there was no abuse of discretion, and its findings were supported by substantial evidence. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

When penalty of revocation of license is imposed on each of several counts of an accusation against liquor licensee, court need only find that one of several counts is sufficient. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

Where evidence amply supports order revoking liquor license, it is against public policy to reduce penalty to suspension of license on basis that licensee informed agent of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control who was taking bribes and assisted in securing agent’s conviction. Stoumen v. Morell (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Since there is a public policy in favor of negotiations for compromise even in cases strictly criminal, a fortiori an alleged offer by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to a licensee of a settlement more favorable than discipline that was ultimately imposed was not, in and of itself, a ground for the setting aside by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of the penalty ultimately adopted by the department. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 17 Cal App 3d 255, 94 Cal Rptr 514, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1478.

49. Discretion

State Board of Equalization had broad discretion to determine what constituted good cause for suspension or revocation of liquor license, that is, power to determine when continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

The fact that reasonable minds might differ as to propriety of punishment to be imposed for liquor law violation by licensee merely serves to fortify conclusion that department acted within broad area of discretion conferred on it in revoking license on charge that licensed premises were used as disorderly house. Adler v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 174 Cal App 2d 256, 344 P2d 336, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1693; Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Propriety of revocation of liquor license by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is matter vested in discretion of that agency and its decision thereon will not be disturbed unless there has been clear abuse of such discretion; reviewing court is not free to substitute its own discretion in matter. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal...

That liquor licensees were first offenders who were guilty, at most, of passive tolerance of wrongful acts charged against them did not make order revoking their license for maintaining disorderly house in violation of § 25601 a harsh and discriminatory penalty which ought not to have been imposed against them, where there concededly was substantial evidence to sustain violation charged; fixing of penalty was vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and its determination will be disturbed only if there is clear abuse of discretion. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

Revolocation of off-sale retail liquor license for sales below retail prices is vested in Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, and its decision will not be disturbed unless there is clear abuse of discretion; where record on appeal showed repeated course of conduct in violation of law, it could not be held that revocation of license was arbitrary or that it constituted abuse of discretion. Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 211 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

Though discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control as to penalty for misuse of liquor license is broad, department does not have absolute and unlimited power, but is bound to exercise legal discretion, which is judicial discretion. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Revocation of on-sale beer and wine license constituted abuse of discretion where it appeared that licensee operated for almost five years without record of disciplinary action, and that improper acts, which occurred within eight-day period, included volunteer services of licensee’s minor son not regularly employed as bartender, son’s service of beer to minors, service of beer by waitress to intoxicated person, presence at bar of liquor for licensee’s personal use only, and service of wine from behind bar by unlicensed waitress who was not licensee’s wife. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

The action of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in revoking on-sale, general beer and wine eating place license could not be approved on the basis that “topless” waitresses are per se contrary to public welfare or morals, and the trial court properly determined that the department’s decision was necessarily arbitrary and an abuse of discretion within CCP § 1094.5, subd (b). Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 and B & P C § 24200, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is expressly empowered to either suspend or revoke an issued license. The propriety of the penalty to be imposed rests solely within the discretion of the department whose determination may not be disturbed in the absence of a showing of palpable abuse. The fact that unconditional revocation may appear too harsh a penalty does not entitle a reviewing agency or court to substitute its own judgment therein; nor does the circumstance of forfeiture of the interest of an otherwise innocent licensee warrant a more lenient sentence of less and less drastic penalty. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 285, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1356.

50. Remand; New Trial

Where there is error in decision of department revoking liquor license, matter ordinarily should be remanded to department for further proceedings. Macfarlane v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 84, 330 P2d 769, 1958 Cal LEXIS 210.

Where licensee was charged by department in two counts in almost identical language with permitting female employee to solicit purchase of alcoholic beverage, penalty imposed under first count being sixty-day suspension of license, penalty under second being revocation of license, because department considered, erroneously, that acts under second count were also violation of Pen C § 303a, appellate court could, in interests of justice, consider violation of Penal Code section, notwithstanding that licensee did not exhaust his administrative remedies in either department or alcoholic beverage control board of appeal and did not raise question in trial court, and could remand case to permit department to reassess penalty imposed under second count. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Denial of motion for new trial was well within trial court’s discretionary power, where moving party, whose liquor license had been revoked, based his motion on newly discovered evidence that, after submission of case for decision by superior court, licensee allegedly agreed to assist Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in trapping and convicting an agent of department who was taking bribes in return for reduction of licensee’s penalty to suspension of his license and that attorney for department repudiated settlement arrangements while trial was still pending, and where licensee waited until findings and judgment had been signed and until he made motion for new trial to disclose alleged agreement to court. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding to review a decision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a bar liquor license for one year on two counts of alleged crime conviction involving moral turpitude, the second of which was abandoned by the department as not warranting a license suspension, the abandonment of the second count did not entitle petitioner to have the cause remanded, where the suspensions as to each of the two convictions were separately imposed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

§ 24200.1 Additional basis for suspension or revocation of license

The following are additional bases upon which the department may suspend or revoke a license:

(a) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions on the licensed premises, including the immediately adjacent area that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, that constitute a nuisance within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make those corrections from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel, under Section 373a of the Penal Code. For the purpose of this subdivision only, “property or premises” as used in Section 373a of the Penal Code includes the area immediately adjacent to the licensed premises that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee.
(b) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions that occur during business hours on any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises and constitute a nuisance within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to correct those conditions from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel. This subdivision shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel.

(c) Notwithstanding that the licensee corrects the objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance, the licensee has a continuing obligation to meet the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b), and failure to do so shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to this section.

(d) For purposes of this section:
(1) “Any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises” means the publicly owned, pedestrian-traveled way, not more than 20 feet from the premises, that is located between a licensed premises, including any immediately adjacent area that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, and a public street.

(2) “Objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance” means disturbance of the peace, public drunkenness, drinking in public, harassment of passersby, gambling, prostitution, loitering, public urination, lewd conduct, drug trafficking, excessive loud noise, or failure to comply with the minimum operating standards required by Section 25612.5.

(3) “Reasonable steps” means all of the following:
(A) Calling the local law enforcement agency. Timely calls to the local law enforcement agency that are placed by the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, shall not be construed by the department as evidence of objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance.

(B) Requesting those persons engaging in activities causing objectionable conditions to cease those activities, unless the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, feel that their personal safety would be threatened in making that request.

(C) Making good faith efforts to remove items that facilitate loitering, such as furniture, except those structures approved or permitted by the local jurisdiction. The licensee shall not be liable for the removal of those items that facilitate loitering.

(4) When determining what constitutes “reasonable steps,” the department shall consider site configuration constraints related to the unique circumstances of the nature of the business.

(5) “Reasonable time” shall mean 30 days following service of notice pursuant to either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) upon a licensee that objectionable conditions exist.

(e) Subdivision (b) does not apply to a bona fide public eating place, as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, that is so operated by a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee; a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16; a winegrowers license; a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357; those same or contiguous premises for which a retail licensee concurrently holds an off-sale retail beer and wine license and a beer manufacturer’s license; or those same or contiguous premises at which a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee who is licensed as a bona fide public eating place as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357, or a winegrowers license, sells off-sale beer and wine under the licensee’s on-sale license.

(f) A hearing for a violation of this section shall be held within 60 days of an accusation being filed.

§ 24200.5. Additional grounds
Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24200, the department shall revoke a license upon any of the following grounds:
(a) If a retail licensee has knowingly permitted the illegal sale, or negotiations for the sales, of controlled substances or dangerous drugs upon his or her licensed premises. Successive sales, or negotiations for sales, over any continuous period of time shall be deemed evidence of permission. As used in this section, “controlled substances” shall have the same meaning as is given that term in Article 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Chapter 1 of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, and “dangerous drugs” shall have the same meaning as is given that term in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4015) of Chapter 9 of Division 2 of this code.

(b) If the licensee has employed or permitted any persons to solicit or encourage others, directly or indirectly, to buy them drinks in the licensed premises under any commission, percentage, salary, or other profit-sharing plan, scheme, or conspiracy.

1. Generally

Section is not unconstitutional as applied to liquor licensees in whose premises numerous narcotics sales took place, but as to which sales they denied personal knowledge. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

2. Sale of Narcotics

Liquor licensee is responsible for acts of his bartender in knowingly permitting illegal sales of narcotics on licensed premises, under principle that licensed employer may be disciplined to extent of revocation of his license of acts of his employees. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Subd (a) of this section is not unconstitutional as being vague and uncertain. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Liquor licensee must effectively police his premises against successive sales of narcotics thereon by his employees or his patrons. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

A search of a bar, made because of an anonymous tip indicating that narcotics sales were occurring there, which search was conducted without a warrant and pursuant to provisions of the Business and Professions Code was constitutionally reasonable. It advanced a substantial government interest in that B & P C § 24200.5, subd. (a) (revocation of liquor license for permitting illegal sales of drugs or narcotics), reflects a legislative judgment that the use of licensed premises for the purpose of drug sales poses a unique threat to the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the state that must be dealt with more vigorously than other illegal acts taking place on licensed premises. Further, the prerequisite of a warrant in such instances could easily frustrate inspection, and the statutes under which the search was authorized collectively provide a constitutionally adequate substitute for a warrant: B & P C §§ 25753, 25755, advise the licensee that inspections may take place during business hours and adequately limit the discretion of the inspectors as to time, place, and scope. People v. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1480, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

Although the use of the word “permitted” in B & P C § 24200.5 (revocation of liquor license) indicates that the statute may have been primarily directed to the situation in which a licensee allows others to sell controlled substances or dangerous drugs on its premises, it would be anomalous not to construe it to include also the situation in which the licensee himself carries out the proscribed illegal sales. People v. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1480, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

3. Sale of Narcotics: Presumption of Knowing Permission

Petitioner whose liquor license was revoked cannot attack subd (a) of this section on ground that there was no rational relation between illegal sales of narcotics on premises by his bartender and the knowing permission presumed therefrom under that part of section declaring that successive sales of over continuous period of time shall be deemed evidence of permission. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Presumption raised by provision that successive sales of narcotics on licensee’s premises shall be deemed evidence of his permission is based on natural and rational evidentiary relationship between facts proved and those presumed. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

Liquor licensees’ employment, on week ends, of off-duty policeman to check identification cards and maintain order did not make inapplicable as to them presumption that successive sales of narcotics on premises were with licensees’ permission. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

4. Sale of Narcotics: Evidence: Sufficiency

In proceeding to review decision of Board of Equalization revoking on-sale liquor license for violation of subd (a) of this section and § 24200 subd (2), Board’s finding that licensee did “knowingly permit” such sale was sustained by testimony that his bartender who managed premises made several sales of marijuana on premises within 96 hours. Endo v. State Board

Findings of successive sales of narcotics over continuous period occurred at premises licensed to sell intoxicating liquors that and that lacked were, under this section, presumed to know of sales were sustained by evidence of numerous sales of narcotics over two-week period and that considerable portion of patrons were marijuana users. Kirchhube v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license was proper under evidence that licensee, who also operated liquor store at another location, did not personally operate licensed premises, but visited them about two a week during afternoon when they were closed, that he hired bartender to operate business, that on numerous occasions sales of narcotics were made on premises by bartender, his wife, the cook and various patrons, and that premises had reputation as being hangout for addicts

5. Solicitation of Drinks
Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises is reasonable and does not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule has reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, is in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and is valid and constitutional as against charge that it is too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting

To order a drink and take money from another's wallet to pay for it is act of solicitation or encouragement within Omission, in subd (b), of word "knowingly" which appears in preceding subdivision, indicates legislature did not intend to require actual knowledge by licensee in order to revoke liquor license for permitting solicitation or encouragement of others to buy drinks under any sort of profit-sharing agreement.

Karides v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Under subd (b), liquor license may be revoked although drink solicited is orange juice, since statute refers to "drinks" and makes no requirement that they be "alcoholic." Greenblatt

v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal
Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

Evil that subd (b) is designed to meet is use of bar for purposeful and commercial exploitation of customer, and it is immaterial that drink purchased for employee is nonalcoholic, particularly when price charged is exorbitant for such drinks.
Harriss v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964,

Licensee who pays salary to female employee he permits to solicit purchase of drinks for herself has committed offense described in subd (b); moreover, statutory prohibition is not limited to solicitation of purchase of drinks for employees, but extends to solicit or encourage of narcotics. Harriss v.
Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st

A finding that petitioner employed and permitted female entertainer to solicit and encourage patrons to buy her drinks under scheme or conspiracy by which she was to receive commission was supported as against objection that there was insufficient proof that champagne cocktails purchased by entertainer and consumed by her were alcoholic beverages, where she testified that she ordered champagne cocktails and was served what purported to be such, that she had champagne in her home and knew how it tasted, and that drinks served her in licensed premises were either champagne or cheap wine. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d
484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Violation of subd (b), by licensee was established by proof of conspiracy or profit-sharing plan or scheme between licensee's bartender and girl whereby girl would solicit or encourage purchase of drinks by others, despite fact that bartender was acting outside scope of licensee's orders to be very polite to customers and not to permit anyone to solicit drinks. Harris
v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 164 Cal App 2d 549, 331 P2d 145, 1958 Cal App

Revocation of liquor license under subd (b) was supported by evidence that bar girl asked agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to buy her drinks, which they consented to do, that she expressed satisfaction at finding a "sucker," that drinks at exorbitant prices were served to her, each containing a straw and a toothpick, and that she removed the toothpick from each drink and kept it. Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal
App LEXIS 2540.

Suspension of liquor license for violation of subd (b) was supported by evidence that it was practice of salaried female entertainers, during off-engagement hours, to mingle with customers at bar in licensed premises and accept drinks from them, that entertainers, even if invited for first drink, requested customers to purchase refills or themselves ordered refills for customner's account, and that each expensive nonalcoholic drink served to entertainer contained pick which entertainer retained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 224 Cal App 2d 468, 36 Cal Rptr 697,

7. Notice and Hearing
In hearing on accusations charging violations of Cal Admin Code tit 4 § 143 [Cal Code Reg], prohibiting on-sale retail licensee from permitting female employee to solicit or accept, on licensed premises, alcoholic beverages purchased or established there, and subd (b) of this section, hearing officer properly sustained objection to questions asked of state narcotics agent called by licensee, since issue was not whether licensee's bars constituted police problem and his reputation with law enforcement agencies was of doubtful relevancy; in any event, both issues were fully covered, favorably to licensee, by other law enforcement officers more directly concerned with problem than narcotics bureau. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 224 Cal App 2d 468, 36 Cal Rptr 697, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1489, 99 ALR2d
1211.

8. Review
On appeal from judgment suspending liquor license for violations of subd (b), appellate court need not determine whether defense or entrapment as to one count is available where evidence does not disclose that agent solicited solicitation, or that trapping employee was herself trapped and where, moreover, issue was not determined by Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, against whose decision judgment runs. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals § 24200.6. Revocation or suspension of license

The department may revoke or suspend any license if the licensee or the agent or employee of the licensee violates any provision of Section 11364.7 of the Health and Safety Code. For purposes of this provision, a licensee, or the agent or employee of the licensee, is deemed to have knowledge that the item or items delivered, furnished, transferred, or possessed will be used to plant, propagate, cultivate, grow, harvest, compound, convert, produce, process, prepare, test, analyze, pack, repack, store, contain, conceal, inject, ingest, inhale, or otherwise introduce into the human body a controlled substance, if the department or any other state or local law enforcement agency notifies the licensee in writing that the items, individually or in combination, are commonly sold or marketed for that purpose.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Pleadings

1. Generally

Person whose complaint against on-sale liquor licensee had been rejected by State Board of Equalization had a sufficient interest to institute proceedings for writ of mandate to compel board to revoke license. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 125, 173 P2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 283.

In administrative proceedings for revocation of liquor licenses, the test of the adequacy of the pleadings is simply whether the licensee is given fair notice of the acts or omissions with which he is charged so that he may prepare his defense. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

2. Construction with Other Law

The Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Act of 1915 was neither expressly nor impliedly repealed, either by Const Art XX § 22 or by this act. Hammond v. McDonald (1939, Cal App) 32 Cal App 2d 187, 89 P2d 407, 1939 Cal App LEXIS 334.

3. Pleadings

Accusation properly stated charge against liquor licensee where it stated clearly and concisely that he permitted two named minors to consume beer on his premises, to which was then issued on-sale beer license. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the accusation, in addition to alleging a criminal conviction, sufficiently alleged a separate cause for discipline on the ground that continuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals (B & P C § 24200, subd. (a), Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), where the allegation, based on the involvement of the licensee in illegal activity, preceded the allegation dealing with the criminal court proceedings relating to the same activity, where the substantive content of the paragraph, the punctuation, and the use of the conjunctive “and” to precede the allegation detailing the criminal court proceedings were all indicative of the several nature of the allegations, and where the licensee indicated no lack of preparation of his case before the hearing officer and the record showed no surprise on his part as to the charges or evidence produced against him. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

§ 24203. Accusation by public officials

Accusations against any on-sale or off-sale licensee may be filed with the department by the legislative body, or chief of police, of any city in which the premises in question are located, or if the premises are in unincorporated territory, then by the board of supervisors, or the sheriff, of the county, requesting the suspension or revocation of any retail license. Upon the filing of the accusation, the department shall provide for a public hearing thereon within the county in which the premises are located and determine whether or not the license should be revoked or suspended. Whenever the local legislative body, the chief of police, or the sheriff, certifies that the public safety, health, or welfare requires an immediate hearing of the accusation, the public hearing shall be held within 60 days after the filing of the accusation with the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Disciplinary action against a liquor licensee, on the ground that he permitted prostitutes to solicit in his bar (B & P C § 25601) was not precluded by unreasonable delay, where the violations charged took place within the three-year statute of limitations (B & P C § 24207), and where the delay was not shown to have been deliberate or prejudicial, but, on the other hand, could have been to the licensee’s benefit had he heeded the police warnings during that period. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

When charges are filed within the statutory period, any delay is without legal significance. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

§ 24208. Limitation period; Commencement

The periods of one year and three years referred to in Sections 24206 and 24207 shall commence to run as follows:

(a) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license constituted a single transaction, then from the date of the transaction.

(b) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license is of a continuing nature, relating to a condition, or if the occurrence of several acts or omissions is necessary for the institution of disciplinary proceedings, then from the date of the last act or omission.

(c) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license involved fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment, then from the date of the discovery thereof.

(d) If the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license is a criminal conviction, then from the date such criminal conviction becomes final.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

A booking search of a juvenile defendant legally arrested under B & P C § 25662, for possession of alcoholic beverages in a public place was proper, and marijuana found on his person was therefore admissible in evidence against him. While B & P C § 24209, provides that a person arrested for such an offense may be released without being taken before a magistrate on his signing an agreement to appear in court, there is no requirement that such a person must be released without bail or without booking; it is a matter within the discretion of the arresting officer or the booking officer. § 24300. Place for hearings; Delegation of power to hear and decide

(a) Any hearings held on a protest, accusation, or petition for a license shall be held in the county in which the premises or licensee is located; provided, that hearings before the department itself on reconsideration or under subdivision (c) of Section 11517 of the Government Code may be held at any place in the state where the department is meeting. Except as provided in Section 24203 and in this section, the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and in all cases the department shall have all the powers granted therein. The department, in its exclusive discretion, shall consider scheduling the hearing at a time, including evening hours, and at a place convenient to all parties to a proceeding, including those witnesses required to be present, and the public affected.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), if a protest is filed against an application for a license and the proposed premises are located within a city, the department may, in its discretion, hold the hearing within that city, unless the protest is filed by the governing body of the city, in which case the department shall hold the hearing within that city.

(c) For any hearing held pursuant to this division, the department may delegate the power to hear and decide to an administrative law judge appointed by the director. Any hearing before an administrative law judge shall be pursuant to the procedures, rules, and limitations prescribed in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Annotations:
Right to hearing before revocation or suspension of liquor license. 35 ALR2d 1067.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Abuse of Discretion
4. Evidence: Sufficient

1. Generally
In determining whether issuance of liquor license would be inimical to general welfare or public morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is entitled to consider applicant’s integrity as shown by his previous business experience, kind of business to be conducted on licensed premises, probable manner in which it will be conducted, type of guests and probability that their consumption of alcoholic beverages will be moderate, nature of protest made to issuance of license, and any conflict that use of license might have with church or public morals, as to whether issuance of liquor license would be contrary to public welfare or morals.

2. Applicability
In determining whether facts established by substantial evidence constitute good cause for concluding that issuance of liquor license will not be contrary to public welfare or morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control exercises discretion adherent to standard set by reason and reasonable people, bearing in mind that such standard may permit difference of opinion on same subject. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

3. Abuse of Discretion
Where decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control as to whether issuance of liquor license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is reached without reason under evidence, action of department is arbitrary, constitutes abuse of discretion, and may be set aside. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

4. Evidence: Sufficient
There was substantial evidence to establish that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was entitled to conclude that issuance of liquor license would not be contrary to public welfare or morals where applicant had been in food and beverage business for number of years and owned four establishments licensed to sell alcoholic beverages, where he proposed to operate premises for which license was sought as family-type resort, where he intended that alcoholic beverages would be primarily served in dining room and did not intend to use bar located on premises, where he intended that alcoholic beverages would be served in event of need.

Any actual cost in excess thereof shall be paid by the Appeals Board from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund.
(b) A party in a case on appeal to the Appeals Board who, in 1983 or 1984, has paid that portion of the transcript fee in excess of the fee specified in Section 69950 of the Government Code shall be refunded that excess by payment from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund, providing the Appeals Board has not issued a dismissal or other final decision in the case on appeal.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. In General
2. Purpose
3. Constitutionality
4. Sufficiency of Agreement
5. Fair and Open Competition
6. Filing With Department

1. In General

If there was irreconcilable conflict between Cartwright Anti-trust Law and provisions of the former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act legalizing fair trade contracts in liquor industry, latter legislation was to control. Nelson v. Reilly (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 303, 198 P2d 694, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

A manufacturer of liquor did not violate either Federal or State Fair Trade Act by its contracts with plaintiff distributor specifying that retail prices to be charged by plaintiff to retailers should be in accordance with Fair Trade Act of California, since such control by manufacturer over resale prices was in accordance with this section which prevails in event it conflicts with any other statute. A. B. C. Distributing Co. v. Distillers Distributing Corp. (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 175, 316 P2d 71, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1607.

Under this section and under rule 99 subs (a), (b), (f) of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in effect before rule’s revision October 15, 1961, liquor licensees are prohibited from selling distilled spirits at retail except at prices fixed in fair trade contracts. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Though mandatory fair trading means that retailers of alcoholic beverages cannot obtain merchandise free from price restrictions, this is due to the determination of the Legislature under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, not the action of the producers and wholesalers. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

2. Purpose

It was not purpose of fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to reduce intemperance by establishing fair prices generally but only by preventing increase of consumption of alcoholic beverages resulting from retail price cutting and bargain sales, and Legislature may take reasonable measures to eliminate some of the causes of evil without attacking all of them. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Legislative purpose of preventing price cutting and price wars among retailers is effectively attained under fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act by having each producer or wholesaler establish retail price of his own brand, and Legislature may reasonably proceed on theory that public will be adequately protected against excessive prices by ordinary play of competition between manufacturers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Purpose of fair trade agreements under Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is to establish fair trade prices; considered as such, and not as agreements of sale, they are supported by valid and sufficient consideration; mutual benefits are derived therefrom by contracting parties in that manufacturer or producer obtains protection for his trademarks and brands, whereas retailer is made secure from unfair competition and, more importantly, retailer is benefited by entering into agreement, since without fair trade agreement, sicken without fair trade agreement, distilled spirits could not be sold at retail. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

3. Constitutionality

The fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act do not unlawfully delegate legislative power insofar as they provide that each producer and wholesaler must set the price at which retailers must sell his products, since determination to be made by producers and wholesalers are not legislative in character but merely facts in contemplation of which legislature acted and on existence of which provisions of enactment were to be applicable. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Act requires, rather than permits, producers and wholesalers to set retail prices does not render the function of a producer or wholesaler legislative in character but, to the contrary, decreases his discretion since he is not free to determine whether fair trade should occur. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Fact that fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act provide for administrative and criminal sanctions does not involve any delegation of power, sanctions being prescribed by Legislature, not by producers or wholesalers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Classification made by Legislature in regulating retail prices in fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act without regulating wholesale prices is reasonable since Legislature could probably conclude that competition among the relatively few producers and wholesalers would not result in disorderly marketing conditions but that price stabilization with respect to far larger number of retailers, who sell directly to consumers, was necessary to prevent selling practices tending to increase sales and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Summary judgment in favor of corporate defendant in action seeking to have fair trade provision of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (§§ 24750–24757 [repealed]) declared unconstitutional was properly entered where there were pending before Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control administrative actions involving constitutionality of such statutes in which each of plaintiffs was engaged, despite fact that no administrative proceedings were pending against corporate defendants, so that plaintiffs had not exhausted their administrative remedies before bringing suit. Walker v. Munro (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 67, 2 Cal Rptr 737, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2561.

The lifting under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of the private act of specifying a resale price beyond the contracting producer and retailer to a publicly enforced observance by all retailers within the state does not convert the act into a “price-fixing” statute, since the law still empowers no one to regulate the retail price of any commodity. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

4. Sufficiency of Agreement

In suspension proceeding against off-sale licensee for making retail sales at less than fair trade price, agreements offered in evidence satisfied the requirements of agreements executed pursuant to the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act where agreements were entitled fair and open competition in market; and under CCP § 1963 subd 33, it is presumed that official duty has been regularly performed, and therefore, it could be presumed that department had satisfied itself that contracts were in fact entered into pursuant to this section and that products to which they related were in fact in fair and open competition; therefore, finding that alcoholic beverages subject to fair trade price agreements filed with department be in fair and open competition relates only to manner of competing, not to results. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend on-sale licensee’s license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade price, evidence that alcoholic beverages covered by fair trade contracts were in fair and open competition with those of same general class produced by others were substantial where it was shown that contracts were filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; under CCP § 1963 subd 15, it is presumed that official duty has been regularly performed, and therefore, it could be presumed that department had satisfied itself that contracts were in fact entered into pursuant to this section and that products to which they related were in fact in fair and open competition; under CCP § 1963 subd 19, it is presumed that private transactions have been fair and regular, and, therefore, it could be presumed that agreements were not designed to impose unlawful restraints on open competition in market; and under CCP § 1963 subd 33, it is presumed that law has been obeyed, and therefore, it could be presumed that agreements were in fair and open competition, otherwise they would have offended Cartwright Anti-Trust Law. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled on other grounds, Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

6. Filing With Department

Though fact that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or its predecessor agency has been consistent for over 11 years in accepting for filing fair trade agreements between producers and retailers, even though such parties were not and under applicable regulations could not be in lawful seller-buyer relationship, is not necessarily controlling, this fact is entitled to great weight and courts generally will not depart

§ 25000. Beer price schedules; Filing
(a) Each manufacturer, importer, and wholesaler of beer shall file and thereafter maintain on file with the department, in such form as the department may provide, a written schedule of selling prices charged by the licensee for beer sold and distributed by the licensee to customers in California, except that the transfer, including the sale, of beer between wholesalers who sell the same brand in package is permitted without filing the schedule of selling prices, and the transfer, including the sale, of beer made under contract from a contract beer manufacturer making the beer to a beer manufacturer receiving the beer is permitted without filing the schedule of selling prices. All prices filed shall be for immediate delivery. Each manufacturer, importer, and wholesaler of beer shall file a price schedule for each county in which his or her customers have their premises, whether the price that is posted is f.o.b. or delivered, or both. Different prices for different trading areas within a county shall be based upon natural geographical differences justifying the different prices, and shall not be established for special customers. This section shall not affect or alter any provisions of law concerning quantity discounts on beer.

(b) For purposes of this section, a “contract beer manufacturer” is a beer manufacturer that does all of the following:

1. Makes beer pursuant to a written contract with another beer manufacturer, and neither entity has a controlling interest in the other entity.
2. Makes beer in accordance with a recipe that is a trade secret of the beer manufacturer having its beer made under contract.
3. Has no right to sell the beer to any other beer manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler other than the beer manufacturer who contracted for the beer.
(c) For purposes of this section, “beer manufacturer” includes any holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, any holder of an out–of–state beer manufacturer’s certificate, or any holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license.

1. Generally
Statute cannot be claimed as source of authority for rule requiring certificates of compliance to be obtained by out–of–state beer manufacturers. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1945, Cal App) 69 Cal App 2d 639, 160 P2d 37, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 705.

§ 25000.2. Definitions; Compliance by successor beer manufacturer who cancels existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute product; Arbitration
(a) For purposes of this section:
(1) “Acquire” means to purchase, receive, assume, obtain, or otherwise come into possession or control of.
(2) “Affected distribution rights” means the distribution rights to the product held by the existing beer wholesaler prior to the acquisition of the right to manufacture, import, or distribute the product by the successor beer manufacturer.
(3) “Beer manufacturer” includes any holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, any holder of an out–of–state beer manufacturer’s certificate, or any holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license.
(4) “Cancel” means to terminate, reduce, not renew, not appoint or reappoint, or cause any of the same.
(5) “Existing beer wholesaler” means a beer wholesaler that distributes a product at the time a successor beer manufacturer acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute that product.
(6) “Fair market value” includes all elements of value, including, but not limited to, goodwill.
(7) “Product” means a brand or brands of beer, as defined by Section 23006.
(8) “Successor beer manufacturer” means a beer manufacturer that acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute a product.
(9) “Successor beer manufacturer’s designee” means one or more distributors designated by the successor beer manufacturer to replace the existing beer wholesaler, for all or part of the existing beer wholesaler’s territory, in the distribution of the product.
(b)(1) Any successor beer manufacturer that acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute a product, and who cancels any of the existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute the product, shall comply with this section.

(2) A successor beer manufacturer’s designee shall comply with this section.

(c)(1) The successor beer manufacturer shall notify the existing beer wholesaler of the successor beer manufacturer’s intent to cancel any of the existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute the product.

(2) The successor beer manufacturer shall mail the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the existing beer wholesaler. The successor beer manufacturer shall include in the notice the name, address, and telephone number of the successor beer manufacturer’s designee or designees.

(d) The successor beer manufacturer’s designee shall negotiate with the existing beer wholesaler to determine the fair market value of the affected distribution rights and, if the existing beer wholesaler and the successor beer manufacturer’s designee agree to the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, shall compensate the existing beer wholesaler in the agreed amount. The successor beer manufacturer’s designee and the existing beer wholesaler shall negotiate in good faith.

(e) The existing beer wholesaler shall continue to distribute the product to at least the same extent that it distributed the product immediately before the successor beer manufacturer acquired rights to the product. The payment of the compensation agreed to under subdivision (d) is made or is awarded under subdivision (f). The successor beer manufacturer and the existing beer wholesaler shall act in good faith regarding the ongoing supply and distribution of the product.

(f) If the successor beer manufacturer’s designee and the existing beer wholesaler are unable to mutually agree on the fair market value of the affected distribution rights within 30 days of the existing beer wholesaler’s receipt of the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c), the successor beer manufacturer’s designee or the existing beer wholesaler shall initiate arbitration against each other to determine the issue of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights no later than 40 days after the existing beer wholesaler’s receipt of the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c). Upon submission to arbitration, the arbitration shall be the means of determining compensation to the existing beer wholesaler for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, and the fair market value of the affected distribution rights shall be the purpose of the arbitration unless the parties agree otherwise.

(1) An arbitration held under this subdivision shall be held in California through a private arbitration services provider with at least three offices in California and a statewide roster of at least 70 neutral arbitrators, of which at least 30 have prior experience as a sole arbitrator in franchise, distribution, or related business litigation.

(2) The direct costs of the arbitration, including any fees charged by the arbitrator, shall be borne equally by the parties engaged in the arbitration. All other costs shall be paid by the party incurring them.

(3) The parties shall mutually agree on an arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on the arbitrator, the arbitration provider shall select an impartial arbitrator.

(4)(A) No later than 20 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate, the parties shall complete an initial exchange of all nonprivileged documents and other information relevant to the fair market value of the affected distribution rights in their possession and control, including, without limitation, copies of all documents and the names of individuals who may be called to testify at the arbitration hearing. No later than 45 days after receipt of notification to arbitrate, the parties shall complete an exchange of the names of any experts who may be called to testify at the arbitration hearing, together with each expert’s report that may be introduced at the arbitration hearing.

(B) The arbitrator may modify the requirements of subparagraph (A) on a showing of good cause. The arbitrator shall permit third-party discovery and additional discovery between beer wholesalers, including depositions, which the arbitrator finds appropriate for a period of time not to exceed 90 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate. No discovery shall be permitted against a beer manufacturer.

(5) The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties unless notice of appeal is filed, within 10 business days after service of the arbitration award, with the superior court of the county in which the hearing was held. Upon filing of the appeal, the court shall review the arbitration award for errors of fact or law by determining whether the award is supported by the sufficiency of the evidence presented at the arbitration. This subdivision shall further permit any other appeal or review that is authorized by the California Arbitration Act (Title 9 (commencing with Section 1280) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure).
(6) The arbitrator’s award shall be monetary only and shall not enjoin or compel conduct.

(7) The arbitration hearing shall conclude not more than 180 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate, unless the time period is extended by mutual agreement of the parties or by the arbitrator.

(8) The arbitrator shall render a decision not later than 15 days after the conclusion of the arbitration unless this time period is extended by mutual agreement of the parties or by the arbitrator.

(9) A party who fails to participate in the arbitration hearings waives all rights the party would have had in the arbitration and is considered to have consented to the determination of the arbitrator.

(10) The Legislature finds and declares that several unique factors in combination warrant the Legislature authorizing limited mandatory arbitration between an existing beer wholesaler and a successor beer manufacturer’s designee solely to determine the issue of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights:

(A) On the issue of the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, the parties are sophisticated and in an equal position in their knowledge of this legal issue and understand the law and their legal rights, including their jury trial rights.

(B) The parties desire a mandatory arbitration provision to resolve the question of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights if the parties are not able to reach a mutual settlement so that product distribution can be continued in an orderly manner and the determination of compensation can be made in a timely manner.

(C) The state’s regulatory interest in maintaining orderly markets for the safe and efficient transportation, distribution, and sale of beer within the state warrants the statutory authorization for mandatory arbitration as provided in this section.

(g) If the existing beer wholesaler does not receive payment of the compensation under subdivision (d) or (f) not later than 10 business days after the date of the settlement or service of the arbitration award, and if there is no appeal or review filed under paragraph (5) of subdivision (f), the existing beer wholesaler shall remain the distributor of the product in the existing beer wholesaler’s territory to at least the same extent that the existing beer wholesaler distributed the product immediately before the successor beer manufacturer acquired rights to the product, and the existing beer wholesaler is not entitled to the settlement or arbitration award.

(10) The Legislature finds and declares that several unique factors in combination warrant the Legislature authorizing limited mandatory arbitration between an existing beer wholesaler and a successor beer manufacturer’s designee solely to determine the issue of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights:

(A) On the issue of the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, the parties are sophisticated and in an equal position in their knowledge of this legal issue and understand the law and their legal rights, including their jury trial rights.

(B) The parties desire a mandatory arbitration provision to resolve the question of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights if the parties are not able to reach a mutual settlement so that product distribution can be continued in an orderly manner and the determination of compensation can be made in a timely manner.

(C) The state’s regulatory interest in maintaining orderly markets for the safe and efficient transportation, distribution, and sale of beer within the state warrants the statutory authorization for mandatory arbitration as provided in this section.

(g) If the existing beer wholesaler does not receive payment of the compensation under subdivision (d) or (f) not later than 10 business days after the date of the settlement or service of the arbitration award, and if there is no appeal or review filed under paragraph (5) of subdivision (f), the existing beer wholesaler shall remain the distributor of the product in the existing beer wholesaler’s territory to at least the same extent that the existing beer wholesaler distributed the product immediately before the successor beer manufacturer acquired rights to the product, and the existing beer wholesaler is not entitled to the settlement or arbitration award.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or prohibit good faith settlements voluntarily entered into by the parties subsequent to the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c).

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Importer’s denial of approval for a beer distributorship sale, even if unreasonable, provided no basis for the buyer to assert claims for intentional and negligent interference with prospective economic advantage because the importer had a statutory right to unreasonably deny approval if it compensated the seller for any resulting loss; moreover, the importer did not wrongfully exercise the rights of a distributor in doing so. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Legislative Intent

1. Generally

2. Applicability
A prohibition of quantity discounts of beer, effectively required by Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, constitutes, not “price-fixing” requiring explicit legislative authorization, but merely a prohibition against price discrimination, for which no explicit legislative authorization is required (disapproving, to the extent inconsistent herewith, the rationale in Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, overruled on other grounds, Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, effectively prohibiting manufacturers, importers and wholesalers from granting discounts for quantity purchases of beer, lies within the authority delegated to the department by B & P C § 25006, to promulgate rules that “foster and encourage the orderly wholesale marketing and wholesale distribution of beer,” and reasonably effectuates the purpose of the statute. Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

3. Legislative Intent
What constitutes promotion of “orderly wholesale marketing and distribution” of beer, required by B & P C § 25006, was clearly intended by the Legislature, by its failure to include express provisions thereon, to be committed to the expertise of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

If in the action the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant thereto, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continuance or further violation thereof. It shall not be necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved in the action, and proof of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant thereto shall be presumptive evidence of an intention to continue to violate this chapter or any such rule.

(b) Any trade association having as members licensed beer manufacturers or licensed beer wholesalers representing more than half of the volume of beer sold in California for three months prior to the date of a filing of a petition to intervene shall, upon the filing of the petition, be permitted to intervene as a party in any proceeding, whether before the department, any other administrative agency, or any court, which involves, in whole or part, the validity of any portion of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act or of any rule adopted pursuant thereto. Intervention shall be permitted, upon petition, at any time before a final determination or adjudication has been rendered in the proceeding. In the case of an adjudicatory proceeding, an intervening trade association shall have the same right to participate in discovery and trial as any other party.

§ 25240. “Napa Valley” wine label; Designation
(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, other than the viticultural area “Napa Valley,” and which is located entirely within a county of the 29th class, shall bear the designation “Napa Valley” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than 1mm less than that of the viticultural area designation provided neither designation is smaller than 2mm on containers of more than 187ml or smaller than 1mm on containers of 187ml or less. This requirement shall apply to all wines bottled on or after January 1, 1990.
§ 25241. “Napa” label on wine

(a)(1) The Legislature finds and declares that for more than a century, Napa Valley and Napa County have been widely recognized for producing grapes and wine of the highest quality. Both consumers and the wine industry understand the name Napa County and the viticultural area appellations of origin contained within Napa County (collectively “Napa appellations”) as denoting that the wine was created with the distinctive grapes grown in Napa County.

(2) The Legislature finds, however, that certain producers are using Napa appellations on labels, on packaging materials, and in advertising for wines that are not made from grapes grown in Napa County, and that consumers are confused and deceived by these practices.

(3) The Legislature further finds that legislation is necessary to eliminate these misleading practices. It is the intent of the Legislature to assure consumers that the wines produced or sold in the state with brand names, packaging materials, or advertising referring to Napa appellations in fact qualify for the Napa County appellation of origin.

(b) No wine produced, bottled, labeled, offered for sale or sold in California shall use, in a brand name or otherwise, on any label, packaging material, or advertising, any of the names of viticultural significance listed in subdivision (c), unless that wine qualifies under Section 4.25a of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations for the appellation of origin Napa County and includes on the label, packaging material, and advertising that appellation or a viticultural area appellation of origin.

origin that is located entirely within Napa County, subject to compliance with Section 25240. Notwithstanding the above, this subdivision shall not grant any labeling, packaging, or advertising rights that are prohibited under federal law or regulations.

c) The following are names of viticultural significance for purposes of this section:

1. Napa.
2. Any viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within Napa County.
3. Any similar name to those in paragraph (1) or (2) that is likely to cause confusion as to the origin of the wine.

d) The appellation of origin required by this section shall meet the legibility and size–of–type requirements set forth in either Section 4.38 or Section 4.63 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, whichever is applicable.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any name of viticultural significance may appear either as part of the address required by Sections 4.35 and 4.62 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if it is also the post office address of the bottling or producing winery or of the permittee responsible for the advertising, or as part of any factual, nonmisleading statement as to the history or location of the winery.

(f) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who produces or bottles wine who violates this section. Following notice of violation to the person in possession of the wine and a hearing to be held within 15 days thereafter, if requested by any interested party within five days following the notice, the department may seize wine labeled or packaged in violation of this section regardless of where found, and may dispose of the wine upon order of the department. § 25242. Restrictions on sale of wine using name of Sonoma in labeling, packaging, or advertising

(a)(1) The Legislature finds and declares that for more than a century, certain California counties have been widely recognized for producing grapes and wine of the highest quality. Both consumers and the wine industry associate the names of those counties with the distinctive wine produced from grapes grown within those counties. If producers were to use the names of these counties on labels, for packaging materials, and in advertising for wines that are not made from grapes grown in the designated counties, consumers may be confused or deceived by these practices.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature to assure consumers that the wines produced or sold in the state with brand names, packaging materials, or advertising that mention or refer to these California counties, in fact accurately reflect the origin of the grapes used to make the referenced wine.

(b)(1) No wine produced, bottled, labeled, offered for sale or sold in California shall use, in a brand name or otherwise, on any label, packaging material, or advertising, the name of viticultural significance listed in subdivision (c), unless that wine qualifies under Section 4.25 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations for an appellation of origin that is either Sonoma County or a viticultural area lying entirely within Sonoma County and includes that appellation of origin on the label, packaging material, and advertising for the wine.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this subdivision shall not grant any labeling, packaging, or advertising rights that are prohibited under federal law or regulations.

(c) The following name is of viticultural significance for purposes of this section:

(1) Sonoma.

(2) Any similar name to that in paragraph (1) that is likely to cause confusion as to the origin of the wine.

(d) The appellation of origin required by this section shall meet the legibility and size-of-type requirements set forth in either Section 4.38 or Section 4.63 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, whichever is applicable.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any name of viticultural significance may appear either as part of the address required by Sections 4.35 and 4.62 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if it is also the post office address of the bottling or producing winery or of the permittee responsible for the advertising, or as part of any factual, nonmisleading statement as to the history or location of the winery.

(f) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who produces or bottles wine who violates this section. Following notice of violation to the person in possession of the wine and a hearing to be held within 15 days thereafter, if requested by any interested party within five days following the notice, the department may seize wine labeled or packaged in violation of this section regardless of where found, and may dispose of the wine upon order of the department. From the time of notice until the departmental determination, the wine shall not be sold or transferred.

(g) This section applies only to wine which is produced, bottled, or labeled after December 31, 2008.

(h) This section does not pertain to the use of a brand name, or otherwise, which was the name of the winery owner as established prior to 1950.

§ 25244. “Paso Robles” wine label; Designation; Exception

(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within the “Paso Robles” viticultural area shall bear the designation “Paso Robles” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than 1mm less than that of said viticultural area designation, provided neither designation is smaller than 2mm on containers of more than 187ml or smaller than 1mm on containers of 187ml or less.

(b) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations when the name of the appellation includes the term “Paso Robles.”

(d) This section applies only to wine that is bottled on or after January 1, 2008.

§ 25243. Application of restrictions on use of a name of viticultural significance to multicounty appellation

No provision of this article shall preclude a wine from using, on any label, packaging material, or advertising, either (a) a truthful, nonmisleading appellation of origin that complies with Section 4.25(c) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations governing multicounty appellations, or (b) a truthful, nonmisleading statement as to the geographic location of the wine’s stated appellation or appellations of origin which is located in not more than two counties, for which the wine qualifies under applicable federal law, or both the appellation of origin and the statement of geographic location; provided that the label, packaging material, or advertising contains no other use of a name of viticultural significance, in a brand name or otherwise, that is prohibited by Section 25241 or 25242.

Note—Stats 2007 ch 674 provides:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) That wine produced in Paso Robles from grapes grown in the Paso Robles region has national and international recognition.

(b) That Paso Robles was designated a viticultural area in 1983 by the federal government, and that designation authorizes growers and vintners, whose wine is derived from at least 85 percent of grapes grown in the Paso Robles region, to label their wines as Paso Robles wines.
(c) California’s Central Coast is geologically different from other California winegrowing regions. The proximity of the Pacific Ocean, orientation of numerous canyons and valleys, and varying elevations produce many different distinct microclimates, including the largest variation between high daytime and low nighttime temperatures of any region in California because of the cool marine air that flows east through the Templeton Gap and south along the Salinas River Valley from the Monterey Bay.

(d) Since the early 1990s, Paso Robles wines have proven consistent gold medal winners and have been featured regularly in the top rankings of national and international wine reviews. A milestone in the worldwide recognition of Paso Robles as a premier wine region came in 1997 when a local product was named one of the top 10 wines in the world by the Wine Spectator.

(e) In the last eight years, the number of wineries in the Paso Robles wine country has tripled from 50 to 170, mostly due to an increase of boutique and small family owned vineyards and wineries. The appellation’s burgeoning reputation has also lured a number of winemakers from France, Australia, South Africa, and Switzerland who are eager to find new applications for their winemaking skills.

(f) The likely proliferation of smaller, separate viticultural area designations, while highly desirable within the developing Paso Robles region, has the potential of diminishing the historical, agricultural, and economic importance of the Paso Robles winegrowing area and confusing consumers.

(g) Thus, it is necessary to require wines produced within the boundaries of the existing Paso Robles appellation to be labeled as being derived from that region, if the wine label indicates that they are produced within a separate viticultural area within Paso Robles wine country, to preserve consumer identification and understanding of the name “Paso Robles” and to protect this important state agricultural resource and wine products derived from that area.

§ 25245. “Lodi” wine label; Violation; Exception

(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within the “Lodi” viticultural area shall bear the designation “Lodi” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than one millimeter on containers of 187 milliliters or smaller than 2 millimeters on containers of more than 187 milliliters or smaller than one millimeter on containers of 187 milliliters or less.

(b) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations when the name of the appellation includes the term “Sonoma County.”

(d) This section shall apply to wines bottled on or after January 1, 2014.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Applicability

1. Generally
Where the owner expressly prohibits the use of his taxicabs for transporting liquor, a procedure to forfeit one of the cabs for illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor by an employee, would be abhorrent to law. People v. One 1941 Buick 8, (1944, Cal App) 63 Cal App 2d 661, 147 P2d 401, 1944 Cal App LEXIS 988.
An automobile which is used in the business of a common carrier at the time it is also used to transport intoxicating liquor unlawfully, is wrongfully forfeited. People v. One 1941 Buick 8, (1944, Cal App) 63 Cal App 2d 661, 147 P2d 401, 1944 Cal App LEXIS 988.

2. Constitutionality
The Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, independent of its common carrier exclusion clause, does not contemplate that owners of automobiles which are illegally used without their knowledge or consent shall become liable to forfeitures under all circumstances. People v. One 1941 Buick 8, (1944, Cal App) 63 Cal App 2d 661, 147 P2d 401, 1944 Cal App LEXIS 988.

3. Applicability
An owner of a taxicab company is exempted from forfeiture of a taxicab which he did not know was being illegally used by the driver to transport or sell liquor while operating the taxicab for the company. People v. One 1937 Lincoln Zephyr Sedan (1945) 26 Cal 2d 736, 160 P2d 769, 1945 Cal LEXIS 188.

§ 25362. Forfeiture proceedings; Answer
Within 20 days after service of the notice of seizure and intended forfeiture proceedings, or within 20 days after the date of publication, the owner or owners of the alcoholic beverages or other property seized may file a verified answer to the fact of the alleged unlawful use of the alcoholic beverages or other property. The claimant of any right, title, or interest in the alcoholic beverages or other property seized may make a verified answer to establish his claim as provided in Section 25367. § 25369. Forfeiture proceedings; Purchase of property by State
In any case the Department of Finance may, within 30 days after judgment, pay the balance due to the bona fide or innocent purchaser, lienholder, mortgagee, or vendor and purchase the alcoholic beverages or other property for the State.

Code Commissioner's Notes:
This subdivision (h) [of § 52, 1941:1209:2998], along with the rest of § 52, appears to be patterned upon H & S C §§ 11610–11629, incl., re forfeiture of vehicles in which narcotics are unlawfully transported or kept. In those sections of the Health and Safety Code there appears to be some inconsistency in that §§ 11619–11622, incl., speak of proof of certain facts by bona fide or innocent owners, lienholders, mortgagees, or vendors, and release of vehicles to such persons, while §§ 11625 and 11626 speak of payments to bona fide or innocent purchasers, lienholders, mortgagees, or vendors. Similarly in subdivision (h) above “purchaser” is used. It would appear that “owners” is probably more correct, but we have left the word unchanged.

§ 25375. Order for seizure of license to seek forfeiture

(a) Upon 10 days notice to a person who holds a license described in this division, the Attorney General or a district attorney shall seek an order from the superior court for the seizure of a license described in this division for purposes of seeking forfeiture of the license pursuant to Sections 11470 to 11492, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. From the time of notice until the hearing to establish probable cause, as provided by this section, the license may not be sold or transferred. The showing of probable cause may be established by deposition, affidavit, declaration, prior judicial testimony, or other evidence. The licensee may produce evidence to refute the showing of probable cause.

(d) If the court determines there is probable cause that the license is subject to forfeiture, it shall issue an order for its seizure by any peace officer within its jurisdiction.

(f) Immediately upon seizure of the license, the peace officer shall surrender the license to the department by certified mail, along with written notice to the department of the seizure and intention to seek the initiation of forfeiture proceedings. No license, rights, or privileges of a license may be exercised by a receiver until that person has been found qualified to hold a license in his or her own right by the department pursuant to this division and the license has been issued to the custody of the receiver. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 23950) of this division does not apply to a receiver appointed pursuant to this paragraph. Any receiver appointed pursuant to Section 11492 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code who exercises privileges of a license issued to his or her custody shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings and may have the license suspended or revoked in the same manner as if he or she were licensed directly pursuant to this division.

(i) Upon the entry of a judgment of forfeiture pursuant to Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code, or a declaration of forfeiture pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code, the proceeds of that sale and transfer shall be allocated as specified in Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.8 of the Penal Code, as appropriate.

Attorney General's Opinions:

Annotations:
Statutes designed to prevent control of retail dealers by manufacturers, wholesalers, or importers. 136 ALR 1238.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Applicability

1. Generally
B & P C § 25500(a)(2) prohibits entities that supply alcoholic beverages from furnishing, giving, or lending any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any on-sale licensee; a supplier indirectly furnishes a licensee with a thing of value by providing a marketing-cost subsidy. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 682.

2. Construction
California has a comprehensive statutory scheme restricting “tied-house” arrangements in the distribution of alcoholic beverages (B & P C §§ 25500–25512). The laws seek to avoid the evils and excesses of disorderly marketing conditions that plagued the alcoholic beverage industry prior to prohibition. The “tied-house” prohibitions target two particular dangers: the ability of large firms to dominate local markets through vertical and horizontal integration, and the excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by the overly aggressive marketing techniques of larger alcoholic beverage concerns. The Legislature recognized that small retailers were unable to cope with the pressures exerted by larger manufacturing interests. Thus, the statutes sought to remove the manufacturer's influence over the retailer, which could result in preference for the manufacturer's product. Under the statutory scheme, all levels of the alcoholic beverage industry must remain separate; producers are not to be involved with, or exercise influence over, retailers. Kendall-Jackson Winery, Ltd. v. Superior Court (1999, Cal App 5th Dist) 76 Cal App 4th 970, 90 Cal Rptr 2d 743, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 1066, rel/hg denied, (2000) 77 Cal. App. 4th 870a, 2000 Cal. App. LEXIS 2, review denied, Kendall–Jackson Winery v. Stanislaus County Superior Court (2000) 2000 Cal. LEXIS 1539.

3. Applicability
Alcoholic beverage wholesaler's sponsorship of athletic events conducted by a promotional company on behalf of a licensee violated B & P C §§ 25500(a)(2), and 25503(h) because the wholesaler indirectly furnished a thing of value by providing a marketing subsidy to the licensee and promotional materials were placed in retail locations; such conduct was incompatible with the goals of California's Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, as set forth in B & P C § 23001. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal LEXIS 682.

§ 25500.1. Listing of on-sale retailers as not thing of value or prohibited inducement
(a) The listing of the names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, or Internet Web site addresses, or other electronic media, of two or more unaffiliated on-sale retailers selling beer, wine, or distilled spirits, produced, distributed, or imported by a nonretail industry member in response to a direct inquiry from a consumer received by telephone, by mail, by electronic inquiry, or in person does not constitute a thing of value or prohibited inducement to the listed on-sale retailer, provided all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The listing does not also contain the retail price of the product.

(2) The listing is the only reference to the on-sale retailers in the direct communication.

(3) The listing does not refer only to one on-sale retailer or only to on-sale retail establishments controlled directly or indirectly by the same on-sale retailer.

(4) The listing is made by, or produced by, or paid for, exclusively by the nonretail industry member making the response.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “nonretail industry member” is defined as a manufacturer, including, but not limited to, a beer manufacturer, winemaker, or distiller of alcoholic beverages or an agent of that entity, or a wholesaler, regardless of any other licenses held directly or indirectly by that person.

Former Sections:
Former B & P C § 25500.1, relating to the listing of on-sale retailers as not a thing of value or a prohibited inducement, was added Stats 2000 ch 205 § 1 (SB 1423), amended Stats 2010 ch 285 § 1 (SB 1096), effective January 1, 2011, and repealed Stats 2012 ch 374 § 1 (AB 2349), effective January 1, 2013.

Amendments:
2001 Amendment: (1) Substituted “E-mail addresses, or website” for “e-mail addresses, or Web Site” in the introductory clause of subd (a); and (2) amended subd (b) by deleting (a) “of distilled spirits or wine” after “or a wholesaler” and (b) the former second sentence which read: “Except as specifically provided above, any payment for, making or production, either directly or indirectly, listing the names, addresses, telephone numbers, E-mail addresses, or website addresses, of on-sale retailers selling beer otherwise authorized by this section by a wholesaler of beer or by a wholesaler of beer that also holds an importer's license shall constitute the furnishing of a thing of value or inducement to the listed on-sale retailers in violation of this division.”

2010 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designations (a) and (b); (2) substituted “e-mail addresses, or Internet Web site” for “and/or e-mail addresses, or web site” in the introductory clause of subd (a) and in the second sentence of subd (b); (3) amended the introductory clause of subd (a) by (a) substituting “wine, brandy, or both wine and” for “wine and/or” both times it appears; (b) substituting “distributed, imported, or both distributed and” for “distributed and/or”; and (c) deleting “Internet” after “by electronic”; (4) redesignated former subds (a)–(d) to be subds (a)(1)–(a)(4); (5) substituted “produced by, or paid for, or any combination thereof” for “and/or produced by, and/or paid for” in subd (a)(4); and (6) substituted “wine, brandy, or both” for “wine and/or brandy” in the first sentence of subd (b).

2012 Amendment: Amended the introductory clause of subd (a) by (1) deleting “Notwithstanding Section 25500,” at the beginning; (2) substituting “email addresses” for “e-mail addresses”; (3) adding “or other electronic media,”; (4) deleting “and operating and licensed as bona fide public eating places pursuant to Section 23038 selling the beer, wine, or distilled spirits” after “or distilled spirits,”; and (5) adding “all of the following conditions are met”.

(a) A person employed or engaged by an authorized licensee may appear at a promotional event at the premises of an off-sale retail licensee for the purposes of providing autographs to consumers at the promotional event only under the following conditions:

(1) A purchase from the off-sale retail licensee is not required.

(2) A fee is not charged to attend the promotional event.
§ 25501  BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

(3) Autographing may only be provided on consumer advertising specialties given by the authorized licensee to a consumer or on any item provided by the consumer.

(5) There are no more than two promotional events per calendar year involving the same authorized licensee at a single premises of an off-sale retail licensee.

(6) The off-sale retail licensee may advertise the promotional event to be held at its licensed premises.

(7) An authorized licensee may advertise in advance of the promotional event only in publications of the authorized licensee, subject to the following conditions:

(A) The advertising only lists the name and address of the off-sale retail licensee, the name of the alcoholic beverage product being featured at the promotional event, and the time, date, and location of the off-sale retail licensee location where the promotional event is being held.

(B) The listing of the off-sale retail licensee’s name and address is the only reference to the off-sale retail licensee in the advertisement and is relatively inconspicuous in relation to the advertisement as a whole, and the advertisement does not contain any pictures or illustrations of the off-sale retail licensee’s premises or laudatory references to the off-sale retail licensee.

(8) A wholesaler does not directly or indirectly underwrite, share in, or contribute to any costs related to the promotional event, except that a beer and wine wholesaler that holds at least six distilled spirits wholesaler licenses may directly or indirectly underwrite, share in, or contribute to any costs related to a promotional event for which the wholesaler employs or engages the person providing autographs to consumers at the promotional event.

(9) The authorized licensee notifies the department in writing of the promotional event at least 30 days in advance of the promotional event.

(10) The authorized licensee maintains records necessary to establish its compliance with this section.

(b) For purposes of this section, “authorized licensee” means a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer’s agent, California winegrower’s agent, rectifier, importer, brandy manufacturer, brandy importer, or wholesaler.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2016.

Added 2012 ch 480 § 1 (AB 2184), effective January 1, 2013.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

5. Authority of Department

1. Generally
Section constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer’s license of wholesaler, where wholesaler’s officers owned such substantial amounts of stock in such licensee that they might be deemed to have ownership interest in licensee, and where also wholesaler, by reason of such stock ownership and by reason of interlocking directorship involving wholesaler and licensee, owned interest in premises covered by license. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

2. Construction
While a winegrower may hold an off-sale general license, and nothing in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act specifically prohibits a winegrower from obtaining a beer and wine importer’s license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly construed B & P C § 25502, providing that no importer shall have any interest in an off-sale general license, as prohibiting issuance of a beer and wine importer’s license to a winegrower who already held an off-sale general license. Pronto Market No. 1, Inc. v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 2d Dist) 61 Cal App 3d 545, 132 Cal Rptr 236, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 1833.

3. Applicability

Winegrower, a licensed supplier, violated B & P C § 25502(a)(2) when it furnished money to a publisher to pay a portion of a licensed off-sale retailer’s obligation to the publisher to produce the off-sale retailer’s exclusive sales catalog. To limit the reach of the statute’s use of “furnish” to unilateral contracts would have invited suppliers to engage in subterfuges regarding fair value exchanges as a non-proscribed activity between suppliers and retailers and would have defeated legislative intent to limit vertical and horizontal integration of the alcoholic beverage industry. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

Suppliers are not allowed to advertise in the catalog of a single retailer under B & P C § 25502. There is no exception in the statute to allow suppliers to advertise in a generic trade association publication even if the publication does not benefit an individual retailer. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

5. Authority of Department
It is well within the authority conferred on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const Art XX § 22, par. 9, B & P C §§ 23001, 23049 for the Department to determine that the “tied-house” law, B & P C § 25502, applies to certain transactions but not to others. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

§ 25502.1. Listing of retailers as thing of value or prohibited inducement
(a) Notwithstanding Section 25502, the listing of the names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, or Internet Web site addresses, of two or more unaffiliated off-sale retailers selling the products produced, distributed or imported by a nonretail industry member in response to a direct inquiry from a consumer received by telephone, by mail, by electronic inquiry or in person does not constitute a thing of value or prohibited inducement to the listed off-sale retailer, provided all of the following conditions are met:
(1) The listing does not also contain the retail price of the product.
(2) The listing is the only reference to the off-sale retailers in the direct communication.
(3) The listing does not refer only to one off-sale retailer or only to off-sale retail establishments controlled directly or indirectly by the same off-sale retailer.
(4) The listing is made by, or produced by, or paid for, exclusively by the nonretail industry member making the response.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “nonretail industry member” is defined as a manufacturer, including, but not limited to, a beer manufacturer, winemaker, wine grower, or distiller of alcoholic beverages, or an agent of those entities, or a wholesaler, regardless of any other licenses held directly or indirectly by that person.

Amendments:
2000 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designation (a); (2) substituted “, E-mail addresses, or website” for “and/or e-mail addresses, or web site” in the introductory clause of subd (a) and in subd (b); (3) amended the introductory clause of subd (a) by (a) substituting “or” for “and/or” after “produced, distributed”; and (b) adding “all of the following conditions are met”; (4) redesignated former subds (c)-(f) to be subds (a)(1)–(a)(4); (5) substituted “product” for “produce, and” at the end of subd (a)(1); (6) substituted the periods for “,” and” at the end of subds (a)(2) and (a)(3); (7) substituted “or produced by, or” for “and/or produced by, and/or” in subd (a)(4); (8) added subdivision designation (b); (9) added “including, but not limited to, a beer manufacturer, winemaker, wine grower, or distiller of alcoholic beverages or an agent of that entity, or a wholesaler of distilled spirits or wine” for “wine grower, distiller of alcoholic beverages in the first sentence of subd (b); and (10) amended the second sentence of subd (b) by adding (a) “selling beer” after “off-sale retailers”; and (b) “of beer” after “a wholesaler” both times it appears. (As amended Stats 2000 ch 980, compared to the section as it read prior to 2000. This section was also amended by two earlier chapters, chs 162 and 979. See Gov C § 9605.)

2001 Amendment: (1) Substituted “e-mail addresses, or Web site” for “E-mail addresses, or website” in the introductory clause; and (2) amended subd (b) by (a) substituting “, or an agent of those entities, or a wholesaler” for “or an agent of that entity, or a wholesaler of distilled spirits or wine”; and (b) deleting the former second which read: “Except as specifically provided above, any payment for, making or production, either directly or indirectly, listing the names, addresses, telephone numbers, E-mail addresses, or website addresses, of off-sale retailers selling beer otherwise authorized by this section by a wholesaler of beer or by a wholesaler of beer that also holds an importer’s license shall constitute the furnishing of a thing of value or inducement to the listed off-sale retailers in violation of this division.”

2010 Amendment: Amended the introductory clause of subd (a) by (1) adding “Internet” before “Web site”; and (2) deleting “Internet” after “by electronic”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Construction
4. Applicability

1. Generally

In light of B & P C § 25503, subd. (c), prohibiting distillers and wholesalers from indirect or direct price discrimination among retailers, and in light of the presumption of validity generally attaching to an administrative regulation, a regulation promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (Cal. Admin. Code, tit. 4, § 100(4b)), prohibiting price discounts conditioned upon “the purchase of any specific item or items of distilled spirits in any quantity,” was valid as a proper implementation of the Department’s statutory authority. Schenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

2. Constitutionality

The state Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s interpretation of B & P C § 25503(h), forbidding manufacturers and distributors of alcoholic beverages from paying retail establishments to advertise their products, as prohibiting these groups from using the advertising displays of a corporation whose business consisted of leasing advertising space on supermarket carts, did not violate the corporation’s right to engage in commercial speech as guaranteed by the United States Constitution’s First Amendment. Section 25503(h) further the state’s purposes both of limiting the ability of large alcoholic-beverage manufacturers and wholesalers to achieve vertical and horizontal integration by acquiring influences over the state’s retail outlets and of promoting temperance among the state’s residents. Further, the provision is not broader than necessary to achieve these purposes. Actmedia, Inc. v. Stroh (1986, 9th Cir Cal) 830 F2d 957, 1986 US App LEXIS 25087.

3. Construction

Narrow prohibition contained in B & P C § 25503(h), which specifically prohibits only on-premises advertising, cannot be used to nullify the general prohibitions under B & P C § 25502 and the basic objective of the tied-house statutes to erect and maintain a triple-tiered system of distribution and licensing of alcoholic beverages. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

4. Applicability

Wholesale liquor dealers giving cash refunds from five to ten percent of invoice price, based on the amount of the sale, to all customers alike, and in accordance with a general practice of the trade known to the Board of Equalization, were not guilty of giving secret rebates or making secret concessions. Polley v. Westover (1948, SD Cal) 77 F Supp 973, 1948 US Dist LEXIS 2782.

The payment of a dividend to the stockholder members of a co-operative corporation holding an off-sale beer and wine wholesaler’s license is not a violation of this statute. Certified Grocers of California, Ltd. v. State Board of Equalization (1950, Cal App) 100 Cal App 2d 289, 223 P2d 291, 1950 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

Alcoholic beverage wholesaler’s sponsorship of athletic events conducted by a promotional company on behalf of a licensee violated B & P C § 25500(a)(2), 25503(h) because the wholesaler indirectly furnished a thing of value by providing a marketing subsidy to the licensee and promotional materials were placed in retail locations; such conduct was incompatible with the goals of California’s Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, as set forth in B & P C § 23001. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 682.

B & P C § 25503(h) does not prohibit payments only to a retailer; the statute has been described as a blanket prohibition of paid advertising in retail establishments, and the proscription of paid advertising does not necessarily link the payment to the retailer. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 682.

§ 25503.1. Authorized sales, advertising, and promotional activities

(a) Anything in this division to the contrary notwithstanding, any manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer’s agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of any such person is authorized:

(1) Only in connection with alcoholic beverages manufactured, produced or sold by such licensee, to install, service and set up window displays, promotional materials, and temporary floor displays holding merchandise in the premises of an off–sale retail licensee.

(2) Only in connection with alcoholic beverages manufactured, produced or sold by such licensee, to furnish, give, lend, rent or sell decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures, to an off–sale retail licensee for use in the windows and elsewhere in the interior of the retail premises in connection with advertising and promotional material or displays in the premises of such retailer; provided, that the advertising and promotional material shall have no intrinsic value other than as advertising and that the total original cost of all such decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures furnished by any licensee and in use at any one time in any one off–sale retail premise shall not exceed the amount established by rules of the department; and provided, that the licensee or any officer, director or agent of such licensee shall not directly or indirectly pay or credit the retailer for the display of such decorations or decorative materials or for any expense incidental to their operation.

(3) To furnish, give, lend, rent or sell to an off–sale retailer who sells the alcoholic beverages of such licensee, newspaper cuts, mats, or engraved blocks for use in the retailer's advertisements relating to such alcoholic beverages.

(b) Anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, any holder of a wholesaler's license may manufacture, and distribute, sell, or rent any lawful product to any person engaged in operating, owning, or maintaining any retail premises where alcoholic beverages are sold; provided, however, that such products are sold or rented by the holder of the wholesaler's license to the licensee at a price not less than the current market price for such product; and provided, further, that the manufacturer and importer of alcoholic beverages shall be controlled by the other applicable provisions of this division.

Added Stats 1957 ch 1768 § 2. Amended Stats 1976 ch 41 § 1; other applicable provisions of this division.

ACTIONS PERMITTED

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision in this division, any winemaker, wine blender, beer manufacturer, brandy manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer's agent, rectifier, distilled spirits wholesaler, and beer and wine wholesaler, or the authorized agent or agents or representative or representatives of that licensee, may perform any of the following services for off–sale retail licensees at or on the premises of the off–sale retail licensee with the retail licensee's permission:

(1) Stack or arrange cases of the brand or brands of alcoholic beverages owned or sold by the licensee performing the service in the storeroom or warehouse where the off–sale retail licensee stores the brand or brands.

(2) Rotate the brand or brands owned or sold by the licensee performing the service on shelves and in refrigerated boxes, and rearrange bottles or packages of the brand or brands by moving the bottles or packages horizontally or vertically from shelf to shelf in the space and shelves allocated to the brand or brands. This paragraph does not permit the removal of any brand or brands of alcoholic beverages, except beer, which are owned or sold by the licensee performing the service, from the storeroom or other place belonging to an off–sale retailer for the purpose of replacing alcoholic beverages on or restocking shelves or refrigerated boxes.

This paragraph does not apply to a bona fide bed and breakfast inn.

The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

§ 25503.30. Winegrower’s interest in on-sale license

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a winegrower or one or more of its direct or indirect subsidiaries of which the winegrower owns not less than a 51–percent interest, who manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine and distilled spirits made from grape wine or other grape products only, under a winegrower’s license or any other license issued pursuant to this division, or any officer or director of, or any person holding any interest in, those persons may serve as an officer or director of, and may hold the ownership of any interest or any financial or representative relationship in, any on-sale license, or the business conducted under that license, provided that, except in the case of a holder of on-sale general licenses for airplanes and duplicate on-sale general licenses for air common carriers, all of the following conditions are met:

1. The on-sale licensee purchases all alcoholic beverages sold and served only from California wholesale licensees.

2. The number of wine items by brand offered for sale by the on-sale licensee that are produced, bottled, processed, imported, or sold by the licensed winegrower or by the subsidiary of which the winegrower owns not less than 51 percent, by any officer or director of, or by any person holding any interest in, those persons does not exceed 15 percent of the total wine items by brand listed and offered for sale by the on-sale licensee and serving that wine. involves more than two on-sale licenses in which the winegrower or any person holding an interest in the winegrower holds any interest, directly or indirectly, either individually or in combination or together with each other in the aggregate.

(3) None of the persons specified in this section may have any of the interests specified in this section in more than two on-sale licenses.

(b) The Legislature finds that, while this section provides a limited exception for licensed winegrowers, that limited exception is granted for specific purposes, and that it is also necessary and proper that licensed winegrowers maintain the authority granted under this division to sell wine and brandy to any individual consumer or any person holding a license authorizing the sale of wine or brandy.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exceptions established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to their express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and the Legislature intends that this section be construed accordingly.

Amendments:

1997 Amendment: (1) Deleted subdivision designation (a) at the beginning; (2) substituted “, except in the case of a holder of on-sale general licenses for airplanes and duplicate on-sale general licenses for air common carriers, all of the following conditions are met” for “the following conditions apply” at the end of the introductory clause; (3) deleted former subds (a)(1) and (a)(2) which read: “(1) The winegrower’s principal place of business is located in Napa County, the winegrower has been in continuous operation, although not necessarily under the same ownership, for more than 25 years, and the winegrower, directly or through its subsidiaries, produces more than 5,000,000 gallons of wine annually in this state.” “(2) Except in the case of a holder of on-sale general licenses for airplanes and duplicate on-sale general licenses for air common carriers, all of the following conditions are met:”; (4) redesignated former subds (a)(2)(A)–(a)(2)(C) to be subds (a)–(c) and subd (b) to be subd (e); (5) substituted “this section” for “subdivision (a)” after “persons specified in” and for “that subdivision” after “interests specified in” in subd (c); and (6) added subd (d).

1998 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designation (a); (2) redesignated former subds (a)(c) to be subds (a)(1)–(a)(3) and subds (d) and (e) to be subds (b) and (c); and (3) added the comma after “finds” near the beginning of subd (b).

2000 Amendment: Added the second sentence of subd (a)(2).

Note—Stats 1996 ch 900 provides:
SEC. 7. With respect to Section 4 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution in order to allow a winegrower whose principal place of business is located in Napa County and who meets certain other requirements to hold an interest in an on-sale license.

The Legislature further finds that the exceptions established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to their express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

§ 25503.37 Exemption from restrictions for interactive entertainment facility owned or operated by licensee

(a) Nothing in this division shall prohibit the issuance, transfer, or renewal of any retail on-sale license to any person with respect to premises that are an integral part of an interactive entertainment facility and are owned directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by, or operated by or on behalf of, the licensee, notwithstanding that a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer’s agent, California winegrower’s agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail license, or in the retail licensee, if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The principal business conducted within the facility is providing interactive entertainment, not the sale of alcoholic beverages.

2. Other than as permitted in Sections 23358 and 23360 with respect to wine and brandy, the retail licensee shall purchase no beer, wine, or distilled spirits for sale in this state other than from a wholesale licensee, and the retail licensee shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state from any wholesale licensee that has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail licensee, or in the retail license.

(b) For purposes of this section, “interactive entertainment facility” means premises which feature interactive computer and video entertainment attractions, themed merchandise, and food and beverages.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. Notwithstanding the foregoing, having considered the public welfare, the economic impact on the state, and the entirety of the circumstances involved, the Legislature further finds that the purpose and intent of the general prohibition against tied interests is not violated by granting the exception established by this section.

   2. Construction

1. Generally

The mere fact that B & P C § 25506, does not specifically prohibit a retailer from possessing an interest in a beer and wine wholesale license does not create an inference that the statute permits a retailer to possess an interest in such a license. California Beer Wholesalers Assn. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1971) 5 Cal 3d 402, 96 Cal Rptr 297, 487 P2d 745, 1971 Cal LEXIS 262.

§ 25508. Interest or membership in cooperative wholesale grocery company holding distilled spirits wholesaler's license

Any person who held an interest in, or was a member of, a cooperative wholesale grocery company on May 1, 1947, which cooperative holds a distilled spirits wholesaler’s license, may hold and renew his off–sale general license and may acquire an off–sale general license or licenses for bona fide retail grocery store or stores. Any person who is admitted to membership, or acquires an interest, in such a cooperative after May 1, 1947, may hold or acquire off–sale general licenses and shall operate a bona fide retail grocery store at each location at which he holds or acquires an off–sale general license. Any cooperative wholesale grocery company which held a distilled spirits wholesale license on May 1, 1937, may hold and renew the license, notwithstanding its members or some of them hold off–sale general licenses pursuant to this section.

§ 25509. Additional charge against retailer not making payment

(a) A distilled spirits manufacturer, a brandy manufacturer, a beer manufacturer, a winegrower, a wine blender, a distilled spirits rectifier, a wine rectifier, a distilled spirits wholesaler or a beer and wine wholesaler who sold and delivered beer, wine, or distilled spirits to a retailer and who did not receive payment for such beer, wine, or distilled spirits by the expiration of the 42nd day from date of delivery shall charge the retailer 1 percent of the unpaid balance for such beer, wine, and distilled spirits on the 43rd day from date of delivery and an additional 1 percent for each 30 days thereafter.

(b) A distilled spirits manufacturer, a brandy manufacturer, a beer manufacturer, a winegrower, a wine blender, distilled spirits rectifier, a wine rectifier, distilled spirits wholesaler or beer and wine wholesaler who sold and delivered beer, wine, or distilled spirits to a retailer and who did not receive payment in full by the expiration of the 30th day from date of delivery or who has not received payment of the 1 percent charge at the expiration of the 30th day from the day the charge became due shall thereafter sell beer, wine, or distilled spirits to said retailer either for cash or by receiving payment in advance of delivery until such time as all payments are received for the beer, wine, or distilled spirits sold and delivered to the said retailer more than 30 days previously.

(c) The 42-day period and the 30-day period provided for in this section shall commence with the day immediately following the date of invoice and shall include all successive days including Sundays and holidays to and including the 42nd or 30th day as the case may be. When the 42nd day from date of invoice or the expiration of each additional 30-day period falls on Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the next business day shall be deemed to be the expiration day.

(d) All moneys received from a retailer in payment for any beer, wine, or distilled spirits sold and delivered to him or her shall be first applied to the payment of the oldest balance on beer, wine, or distilled spirits. All checks received for such payments shall be deposited for collection not later than the second business day following receipt of said check. A promissory note, postdated check or check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment.

(e) In enacting the act that amends this section by adding this subdivision, the Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to remove the retailer from financial or business obligations to suppliers or wholesalers by the extension of credit beyond the terms contained in this section. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests shall be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section shall be construed accordingly.

Amendments:

1967 Amendment: (1) Amended the first and second paragraphs by adding (a) “a brandy manufacturer,”; (b) “a winegrower, a wine blender,”; and (c) “a wine rectifier,”; and (2) added “wine,” after “beer,” wherever it appears.

1969 Amendment: Added “a beer manufacturer,” in the first and second paragraphs.

2006 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designations (a)–(d); (2) added the comma after “Sunday,” in the second sentence of subd (c); (3) added “or her” in the first sentence of subd (d); and (4) added subd (e).

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any licensee or officer, director, employee, or agent of a licensee that holds no more than eight on-sale licenses may also hold not more than 16.67 percent of the stock of a corporation that holds beer manufacturer licenses issued pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23320 that are located in Sacramento, Placer, Contra Costa, San Joaquin, or Napa County, and may serve on the board of directors and as an officer or employee of that corporate licensed beer manufacturer.

(b) An on-sale licensee specified in subdivision (a) shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state other than from a licensed wholesaler or winegrower.

(c) In enacting this section, the Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to consider the separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied-house interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

Section 25600. Premiums, gifts, or free goods; Refunds or exchanges for dissatisfied customers; Advertising specialties

(a)(1) No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, give any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage, except as provided by rules that shall be adopted by the department to implement this section or as authorized by this division.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), for purposes of this section, a refund to, or exchange of funds or exchanges for dissatisfied customers shall not be deemed a premium, gift, or free goods given in connection with the sale or distribution of an alcoholic beverage.

(B) A winegrower may advertise or otherwise offer consumers a guarantee of product satisfaction only in newsletters or other publications of the winegrower or at the winegrower's premises. A winegrower may refund to a dissatisfied consumer the entire purchase price of wine produced by that winegrower and sold to that consumer, regardless of where the wine was purchased.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), no rule of the department may permit a licensee to give any premium, gift, or free goods of greater than inconsequential value in connection with the sale or distribution of beer. With respect to beer, premiums, gifts, or free goods, including advertising specialties that have no significant utilitarian value other than advertising, shall be deemed to have greater than inconsequential value if they cost more than twenty-five cents ($0.25) per unit, or cost more than fifteen dollars ($15) in the aggregate for all those items given by a single supplier to a single retail premises per calendar year.

(2)(A) No rule of the department may impose a dollar limit for consumer advertising specialties furnished by a beer manufacturer to the general public other than three dollars ($3) per unit original cost to the beer manufacturer who purchased it.

(B) With respect to beer, a beer manufacturer may give consumer advertising specialties to the general public that do not exceed three dollars ($3) per unit original cost to the beer manufacturer who purchased it. For purposes of this paragraph, “beer manufacturer” includes a holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, a holder of an out-of-state beer manufacturer’s certificate, an out-of-state vendor that holds a certificate of compliance, or a holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license. A licensee authorized to give consumer advertising specialties pursuant to this paragraph shall not be precluded from doing so on the basis of holding any other type of alcoholic beverage license.

(C) A beer manufacturer, as defined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall not require a beer wholesaler to fund the purchase of consumer advertising specialties that beer manufacturers are permitted to give under paragraph (2).

(D) Consumer advertising specialties furnished by a beer manufacturer are intended only for adults of legal drinking age. Coin banks, toys, balloons, magic tricks, miniature bottles or cans, confections, dolls, or other items that appeal to minors or underage drinkers may not be used in connection with the merchandising of beer.

(c) With respect to distilled spirits and wines, a licensee may furnish, give, rent, loan, or sell advertising specialties to a retailer, provided those items bear conspicuous advertising required of a sign and the total value of all retailer advertising specialties furnished by a supplier, directly or indirectly, to a retailer do not exceed fifty dollars ($50) per brand in any one calendar year per retail premises. The value of a retailer advertising specialty is the actual cost of that item to the supplier who initially purchased it, excluding transportation and installation costs. The furnishing or giving of any retailer advertising specialty shall not be conditioned upon the purchase of the supplier’s product. Retail advertising specialties given or furnished free of charge may not be sold by the retail licensee. No rule of the department may impose a dollar limit for consumer advertising specialties furnished by a distilled spirits supplier to a retailer or to the general public of less than five dollars ($5) per unit original cost to the supplier who purchased it.

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Applicability
4. Construction with Other Laws
5. Authority of Department

1. Generally
Co-operative corporation holding off-sale beer and wine wholesaler’s license does not violate Alcoholic Beverage Control Act so as to warrant suspension of its license, by paying patronage dividends to its stockholder members. Certified Grocers of California, Ltd. v. State Board of Equalization
(1950, Cal App) 100 Cal App 2d 289, 223 P2d 291, 1950 Cal
App LEXIS 1208.

A liquor wholesaler’s offer of a $1 rebate to purchasers of certain types of wines did not constitute “free goods” under B & P C § 25600, prohibiting a licensee from giving “free goods” in connection with the sale of alcoholic beverages. The word “goods” is commonly defined as tangible movable personal property having intrinsic value, and does not ordinarily mean money. Gonzales & Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control (1984, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 3d 172, 198 Cal Rptr 479, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 1538.

2. Construction
“Distribution,” as used in B & P C § 25600 (gifts or premiums in connection with sale or distribution), means the process by which commodities get to final consumers, including storing, selling, shipping and advertising, or the market-ning or merchandising of commodities, with “merchandising” defined as sales promotion as a comprehensive function including market research, development of new products, coordination of manufacturing and marketing, and effective advertising and selling. Miller Brewing Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal

As used in B & P C § 25600 and Cal. Code Regs. tit, 4, § 106, the term “premium” does not include cash rebates.

Brewing Co. (2002, Cal App 3d Dist) 104 Cal App 4th 1189, 128
Cal Rptr 2d 861, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 5241.

3. Applicability
A liquor wholesaler’s offer of a $1 rebate to purchasers of certain types of wine did not constitute a “gift” under B & P C § 25600, prohibiting a licensee from giving any gift in connection with the sale of any alcoholic beverages. The rebate was inextricably bound up with a bargained exchange of reciprocal consideration, while a gift is commonly defined as something that is voluntarily transferred by one person to another without compensation. Gonzales & Co. v. Department of 172, 198 Cal Rptr 479, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 1538.

Where a wine manufacturer offered retail consumers a rebate of money, in the form of a refund of a portion of the retail price paid for the wine, the rebate did not constitute a “premium, gift, or free goods” within the meaning of B & P C § 25600, prohibiting any liquor licensee from giving a premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale of alcoholic beverages. Accordingly, the rebate was not made unlawful by the statute. Gonzales & Co. v. Department of 172, 198 Cal Rptr 479, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 1538.

B & P C § 25600(a) prohibits any licensee from giving any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage except as provided by rules, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s Rule 52(b) prohibits gifts of alcoholic beverages in connection with the sale of any alcoholic beverage. B & P C § 23396 authorizes wholesalers to give away samples in accordance with rules as prescribed by the Department, and one such rule (Rule 52(a)), allows free samples only to other licensees, and not to consumers. Accordingly, the practice by which a beer brewer purchased its own products in bars or other drinking establishments, and offered customers the opportunity to exchange its product for whatever brand they were currently drinking (a practice commonly known as “trade spending” or “trade sampling”), was unlawful. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd.
(1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 71 Cal App 4th 1518, 84 Cal Rptr 2d 621, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 466, review denied, Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control Bd. v. Alcoholic Bev. Control Appeals

A regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that prohibited a beer company’s use of sweepstakes to promote its product was valid, since a cash prize was a “premium” in the meaning of B & P C § 25600, which prohibited licensees from giving any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of an alcoholic beverage, except those of inconsequential value. Accordingly, the regulation did not operate more broadly than § 25600. Coors 768, 103 Cal Rptr 2d 570, 2001 Cal App LEXIS 54, review

4. Construction with Other Laws
California State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control cannot construe Cal. Code Regs. tit, 4, § 106 in contravention of B & P C § 25600. People ex rel. Dept. of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Miller Brewing Co. (2002, Cal App 3d Dist) 104 Cal

5. Authority of Department
The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not act beyond the scope of its authority in enforcing one of its rules so as to prohibit a beer manufacturer from giving things of value to members of the public in circumstances unrelated to a sale of alcoholic beverages. Such action exceeded the scope of Section 25600.

However, in amending § 25600 to prohibit donations made in connection with a “distribution” as well as a “sale,” the Legislature intended to authorize the department to enforce its rule, which then defined “sale” as the total business of merchandising. Miller Brewing Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 3d
§ 25600.1. Consumer contests

(4) Except for providing a means of entry, a contest authorized by this section shall not be conducted at the premises of a retail licensee or the premises of a winegrower or beer manufacturer operating under a duplicate license for a branch office.

For purposes of this subparagraph, “unaffiliated retail licensees” shall not include any retail licensee owned or controlled in whole or in part by an authorized licensee or any officer, director, or agent of that licensee.

(E) Placement of signs or other advertising of a contest in a licensed retail premises shall not be conditioned upon the following:

(i) The placement of any product within the licensed premises or the restriction, in any way, of the purchase of a product by a licensee, the removal of a product from the sales area of a licensed premises, or the resetting or repositioning of a product within the licensed premises.

(ii) The purchase or sale of any product produced, imported, distributed, represented, or promoted by an authorized licensee or its agent.

(F) An agreement, whether written or oral, entered into, by, and between a retail licensee and an authorized licensee or its agent that precludes the advertisement or promotion of a contest on the premises of the retail licensee by another authorized licensee is prohibited.

(9) Contest prizes shall not be awarded to an authorized licensee, retail licensee, or wholesale licensee or agent, officer, employee, or family member of an authorized licensee, retail licensee, or wholesale licensee. For the purposes of this paragraph, “family member” means a spouse, parent, sibling, child, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, and lineal descendants, including those by adoption. An authorized licensee shall maintain all records pertaining to a contest for three years following the completion of a contest. This section shall not apply to contests conducted by an authorized licensee as part of a sales incentive program for wholesale licensees or their employees or an authorized licensee’s employees.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude licensees from sponsoring contests as permitted by regulations of the department.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(A) “Authorized licensee” means a winemaker, beer and wine importer general, beer manufacturer, out-of-state beer manufacturer certificate holder, distilled spirits manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer’s agent, distilled spirits importer general, distilled spirits general rectifier, rectifier, out-of-state distilled spirits shipper’s certificate holder, brandy manufacturer, and brandy importer. An authorized licensee may conduct a consumer contest pursuant to this section regardless of whether the licensee holds any additional license not included in this paragraph.

(B) An “authorized licensee” shall not include a beer and wine wholesaler, a beer and wine importer general, or distilled spirits importer general that only holds a wholesaler’s or retailer’s license as an additional license.

(2) “Contest” means a game, contest, puzzle, or similar activity that holds out or offers to participants the opportunity to receive or compete for gifts, prizes, gratuities, or other things of value as determined by skill, knowledge, or ability rather than upon random selection. Skill, knowledge, or ability does not include the consumption or use of alcoholic beverages.

Added Stats 2012 ch 489 § 1 (SB 778), effective January 1, 2013.

§ 25600.2. Consumer sweepstakes

(a) An authorized licensee may conduct or sponsor consumer sweepstakes, subject to the following conditions:

No licensee, other than those specified in this section, may conduct or participate in any portion of an event authorized by this section. A licensee authorized to conduct an event pursuant to this section shall not be precluded from doing so on the basis of holding any other type of alcoholic beverage license.

(b) An event authorized by this section shall be conducted on either the:

(1) Premises for which a caterer’s authorization has been issued, except that any event held on the premises of a licensed winegrower shall not be authorized to provide any distilled spirits other than brandy.

(2) Premises of a hotel holding an on-sale beer and wine or on-sale general license, except an event shall not be conducted in the lobby area of a hotel or in any portion of a hotel that is identified, promoted, or otherwise designated by the hotel as a club, nightclub, or other similar entertainment venue. For purposes of this paragraph, “hotel” means any hotel, motel, resort, bed and breakfast inn, or other similar transient lodging establishment, but it does not include any residential hotel as defined in Section 50519 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) Except for fair market value payments authorized pursuant to this section, a retail licensee, including the licensed caterer or the licensed hotel, shall not receive, nor shall the licensee conducting the event give, any other item of value or benefit in connection with events authorized by this section.

(g) The person authorized by this section to provide, free of charge, entertainment, food, and beverages shall have sole responsibility for providing payment for the entertainment, food, beverages, and rental fees at the event. Payments for entertainment, food, beverages, and rental fees shall not exceed fair market value. No other licensed person shall be authorized, under this section, to provide any portion of these payments.

(h) Requests for attendance at the event shall be by invitation sent to consumers over 21 years of age at a specific address via mail or email, by telephone, or presented in person. Invitations or other advertisements of the event shall not be disseminated by any other means. Invitations shall not be sent by the authorized person or their authorized unlicensed agent inviting all of the employees of a retail licensee or a chain of retail licensees under common ownership to an authorized event.

(i) Attendance at the event shall be limited to consumers who receive and accept an invitation to the event. Invited consumers may each invite one guest. All attendees shall be over 21 years of age. The total number of consumers and their guests allowed at any event authorized by this section shall not exceed 600 people. (3) A licensee authorized to conduct events pursuant to this section shall not conduct more than two events in a calendar year on the premises of any single licensed hotel or other licensed hotel under the same or common ownership.

(4) The licensee conducting the event shall not advertise any retail licensee. If the event is held on the premises of a retail licensee as permitted by this section, the licensee conducting the event may list the retailer’s name and address in the invitation and any related advertising for the sole purpose of identifying the location of the event. The listing of the retailer’s name and address shall be the only reference to the retail licensee and shall be relatively inconspicuous in relation to the invitation or advertisement as a whole. Pictures or illustrations of the retailer’s premises, or laudatory references to the retailer, shall not be permitted.

(5)(A) Other than as specifically authorized by this section, alcoholic beverage promotions of any sort shall not be conducted by any licensee in conjunction with an event held on the premises of a retail licensee pursuant to this section. This restriction includes any discounted drink specials offered by the retail licensee to consumers.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, “in conjunction with” means during an event and any period within 24 hours before and 24 hours following an event.

(6) A retail licensee shall conspicuously offer for sale alcoholic beverages other than the products produced, distributed, bottled, or otherwise offered for sale by the licensee conducting the event.

(m) At least 30 days prior to an event, the licensee, or its authorized unlicensed agent, authorized to conduct the event shall apply to the department for a permit authorizing the event. (p) No person authorized to conduct an event pursuant to this section shall hold such an event at the same location more than eight times in a calendar year.

(q) The person authorized to conduct an event under this section may provide attendees at the event with a free ride home. The free rides shall only constitute free ground transportation to attendees’ homes or to hotels or motels where attendees are staying.

(r) In addition to the prescribed fee imposed upon a licensed caterer to conduct an event authorized by this section, a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be collected by the department from the licensee, or its authorized unlicensed agent, authorized by this section to provide, free of charge, entertainment, and beverages at an authorized event.

(s) All licensees involved in events held pursuant to this section shall be responsible for compliance with this section, and with all other provisions of this division in connection with these events, and each may be subject to discipline for violation of this division.

(t) The Legislature finds and declares both of the following:

(1) That it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques.

(2) Any exception established by the Legislature to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to the express terms of the exception so as to not undermine the general prohibitions.

(u) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2018, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2018, deletes or extends that date.

A. GENERALLY
1. Generally
This statute refers to conduct on the premises or resort thereto for improper purposes, and cannot be construed as an attempt to regulate mere patronage by any particular class of persons without regard to their conduct on the premises. Stoumen v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal 2d 713, 234 P2d 969, 1951 Cal LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal 3d 1142, 275 Cal Rptr 614, 805 P2d 873, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Fact that violation of section constitutes misdemeanor does not limit power of department to proceed where the facts are such as to bring it within provisions of section. Nelson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 3d Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 783, 333 P2d 771, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

Revolving liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, allegedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that, purported sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USCS § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1973 US App LEXIS 8706, cert. denied, (1974) 94 S Ct 1413, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

2. Construction
Word “suffers” means to permit, allow or not to forbid activities which constitute premises a "disorderly house." Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

Word "permit" does not imply affirmative act; “permit” involves no intent; it is merely passivity, abstaining from preventative action. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

A statute such as B & P C § 25601, which imposes penal sanctions for maintenance of a disorderly house, may not be uncertain or vague and must fairly apprise the public of the conduct prohibited. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

The meaning of “disorderly house” as used in B & P C § 25601 is specific both in common parlance and in common law, and a house is disorderly if kept as a place where acts prohibited by statute are habitually indulged in or permitted, or where acts are performed which tend to corrupt morals of the community or promote breaches of the peace. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

There is no uncertainty in a statute which provides that “every licensee, or agent or employee of a licensee, who keeps, permits to be used, or suffers to be used, in conjunction with a licensed premises, any disorderly house or place in which people abide or to which people resort, . . . for purposes which are injurious to the public morals, health, convenience, or safety, is guilty of a misdemeanor,” and since the statute is clear there can be no doubt of its constitutionality as a valid exercise of the state’s police power. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal

B. PROCEEDINGS

5. Generally

On-sale liquor licensee was fully and fairly apprised of charge of violating this section with sufficient certainty to prepare his defense, where it was charged that between certain dates, on licensed premises, licensee permitted or suffered males to kiss, caress, and engage in lewd and indecent acts and conversations with other males, and that police officer and two agents were invited by patrons to engage in lewd acts. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license, findings that there had been misconduct on licensed premises in violation of this section need not specify that misconduct occurred within conscious presence of licensee or his employees. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 3d Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Assuming that defense of entrapment is available in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for violation of this section, such defense was not established where record was without conflict that agents were solicited by patrons and employee of licensee to engage in sexual perversion, that licensee intended to commit such acts originated in minds of those who made proposals, and that agents did no more than to afford those on premises opportunity for solicitation. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding before the Alcoholic Beverage Appeals Board an accusation was sufficient and it gave defendant notice sufficient to satisfy due process where it charged that defendant permitted a motel to be used as a disorderly house, set forth the date, place, name of a female solicitor, name of the solicitee, the fact of solicitation for an act of prostitution on seven separate occurrences, and in a second count, relating to the keeping of unbroken bottles, gave the date, number of unbroken bottles, size, brand and type of liquor, of each of seventeen bottles involved. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

Disciplinary action against a liquor licensee, on the ground that he permitted prostitutes to solicit in his bar (B & P C § 25601) was not precluded by reasonable delay, where the violations charged took place within the three-year statute of limitations (B & P C § 24207), and where the delay was not shown to have been deliberate or prejudicial, but, on the other hand, could have been to the licensee's benefit had he heeded the police warnings during that period. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

In revoking a liquor license for the licensee's conduct contrary to public welfare and morals under Cal Const art. XX, Munso v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not err in failing to make an express determination as to a violation of those sections, where identical considerations were involved in the department's determination that illegal and immoral acts on the premises constituted the conduct of a disorderly house on the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601. Kirby v.

6. Admissibility of Evidence

In proceeding to revoke liquor license on ground that licensees permitted licensed premises to be used as disorderly house or place to which people resorted for purposes contrary to public welfare and morals by allowing homosexual activity on premises, it was not error to exclude testimony of psychologist as to whether or not she considered homosexuality perverted, where conduct and activity shown by evidence to have occurred on licensed premises were well within meaning of term “sexual perversion” as that term is known to average person, and testimony of psychologist in contradiction of clear, certain and commonly accepted understanding of behavior in question was immaterial. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Where the fact in issue was solicitation for prostitution and the truth of the girls’ statements was not important, testimony by agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control regarding conversations with two girls was not inadmissible as “administrative hearsay,” though admitted in an administrative hearing; the testimony was equally admissible under commonlaw rules. Since the declarations were “operative facts” they were also admissible as original evidence. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

7. Sufficiency of Evidence

Mere proof that homosexuals patronize a restaurant and bar, for the purpose of illegal or immoral acts, and use it as a meeting place or hangout, without proof of illegal or immoral acts committed on the premises or resort thereto for such purposes, is insufficient to show a violation of this statute. Stoumen v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal 2d 713, 234 P2d 969, 1951 Cal LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal 3d 1142, 278 Cal Rptr 614, 805 P2d 873, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Corporation’s liquor license is properly revoked for violation of section, under evidence that numerous homosexual acts were committed on premises, liquor was sold to obviously intoxicated persons, and beer was sold to minors. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1949.

Liquor license revocation for violation of this section is sustained by evidence that, to licensee’s knowledge, sexual perverts met at premises and there engaged in sexual perversion without opposition from her and in more than isolated instances. Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 544, 318 P2d 494, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1321.

Where objectionable behavior, such as homosexual activity, in licensed establishment is of continuing nature and not merely isolated or accidental instance, it is inescapable conclusion that licensee has permitted and suffered resultant condition which offends public welfare and morals and violates statutory prohibition against keeping disorderly house. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

That premises licensed to sell alcoholic beverages were permitted to be kept and used as disorderly house in violation of this section is supported by evidence that police surveillance was constant necessity, arrests for intoxication were frequent and regular, and minimum of 58 intoxicated persons frequented establishment in six months’ period. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2221.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license for violation of this section was supported by substantial evidence, where there was testimony that male patrons, in bartender’s presence, caressed one another, that male patrons invited each other and agents to participate in lewd acts, that bartender greeted male patrons with lewd language and pantomimed unnatural sex practice, that when licensee was behind bar employee invited officer to engage in lewd acts, and that patron invited agent to commit perversion denounced by Pen C § 288a. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that injured public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

8. Prostitution

Finding of department in revoking liquor license that licensees permitted their premises to be used as disorderly house to which people resorted for purposes injurious to the public morals and health was sustained by evidence that prostitutes solicited acts of prostitution on the premises under circumstances clearly supporting inference that they were knowingly permitted to do so by licensees or their employees, that drinks were served to obviously intoxicated persons, and that lewd and lascivious acts were performed there with knowledge and co-operation of employees. Rosales v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 171 Cal App 2d 624, 341 P2d 366, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1875.

Findings of department in revoking liquor license of dance establishment that premises were permitted to be used for purposes injurious to public morals were sustained by evidence that one taxi dancer rubbed her hands against the leg of a witness and then “touching him in a pubic area” asked him to go home with her, that another girl demonstrated her “peek-a-boo” dress by exposing her breasts to a customer, and that sexually suggestive dancing occurred. Adler v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 174 Cal App 2d 256, 344 P2d 336, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1693.

Revocation of licensee’s liquor license for allowing known prostitutes to enter and remain in licensed premises and there solicit acts of prostitution was supported by testimony of two agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that while in licensee’s bar they were each asked by female patrons to engage in acts of prostitution, that bartender not only permitted acts and conduct alleged but also aided and abetted them, that he told agents most of female patrons of bar were prostitutes, and that bartender used vulgar and obscene language which was audible to other patrons of bar. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2229.

Decision by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board was supported by substantial evidence as generally applied in judicial proceedings and such evidence supported the decision of the board, where two investigators of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control testified that they were solicited for acts of prostitution on seven separate occasions, on one occasion the solicitation was accompanied by physical acts of sexual enticement, all solicitations were accompanied by a discussion of the proposed monetary consideration, most of the solicitations were within sight and earshot of one of the two, or both, bartenders of the establishment, and in conversations between one of the agents and a bartender an awareness of the girls' activities was clearly manifested. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

384

An administrative finding that for three years the licensee of a bar and his employees "permitted" the premises to be used in conjunction with a disorderly house, within the meaning of B & P C § 25601, proscribing such conduct as a misdemeanor, was amply supported by evidence, inter alia, that police officers' conversations with prostitutes were conducted so as to be overheard by others at the bar, including the bartenders, that a bartender was given a list of known prostitutes by the police, that another was warned about solicitations, and that another actually warned prostitutes when police officers were present. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

The record in a proceeding to revoke a liquor license supported the conclusion of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that the licensee conducted a disorderly house in conjunction with the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601, where there was substantial evidence of the commission by employees of the licensee on the premises of the illegal acts of pandering, attempted pandering, and conspiring to operate a house of prostitution, as well as substantial evidence of the commission of immoral acts on the premises. The licensee had the responsibility to see that its employees committed no illegal or immoral acts on the premises. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

9. Relief and Review

Department did not abuse its discretion in revoking general on-sale liquor license of licensee where conduct for which license was revoked, namely, taking of unlawful bets on horse races at licensed premises, constituted crime under state laws and was thus at least technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

Fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board sustained decision by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license on ground of violation of this section, did not limit reviewing court to consideration of that ground only where original decision was also based on determination that continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals within meaning of Const Art XX § 22, and accusation put licensee on notice that his license might be revoked under constitutional provision and there was finding to that effect. Benedetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 187 Cal App 2d 213, 9 Cal Rptr 525, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1374, overruled on other grounds, Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 8 Cal App 3d 1009, 87 Cal Rptr 908, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2117.

That liquor licensees were first offenders who were guilty, at most, of passive tolerance of wrongful acts charged against them did not make order revoking their license for maintaining disorderly house in violation of this section a harsh and discriminatory penalty which ought not to have been imposed against them where concededly was substantial evidence to sustain violation charged; fixing of penalty was vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and its determination will be disturbed only if there is clear abuse of discretion. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

§ 25602. Sales to habitual drunkards; Civil liability; Consumption of alcoholic beverages as proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by intoxicated person

(a) Every person who sells, furnish, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage to any habitual or common drunkard or to any obviously intoxicated person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) No person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall be civilly liable to any injured person or the estate of such person for injuries inflicted on that person as a result of intoxication by the consumer of such alcoholic beverage.

(c) The Legislature hereby declares that this section shall be interpreted so that the holdings in cases such as Vesely v. Sager (5 Cal. 3d 153), Bernhard v. Harrah's Club (16 Cal. 3d 313) and Coulter v. Superior Court (___ Cal. 3d ___) be abrogated in favor of prior judicial interpretation finding the consumption of alcoholic beverages rather than the serving of alcoholic beverages as the proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person.

1978 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); and (2) added subds (b) and (c).

In a wrongful death action brought against bar owners by the family of a man who, plaintiffs alleged, though known by defendants to be an alcoholic, had been served liquor by them in violation of B & P C § 25602, until, and after, he became intoxicated, with the result that he became ill in the bar and was strangled by his own vomit, the court properly sustained defendants demurrer to plaintiffs’ count based on defendants’ negligence in serving him the liquor. His own concurrent negligence in drinking it, being a proximate contributing cause of his death, constituted a valid defense to such cause of action, regardless of any lack of volition on his part predicated upon alcoholism. alleging that plaintiff's decedent purchased as alcoholic beverage from defendant while in a state approaching intoxication immediately prior to receiving injuries allegedly causing his death. The rule that a seller of alcoholic beverages who makes a sale to an obviously intoxicated person in violation of B & P C § 25602, may be liable to members of the general public suffering personal injuries or property damage as a proximate cause of the sale does not extend protection to the person to whom the liquor was sold. Moreover, the complaint failed to allege facts from which a violation of the statute could be inferred or from which it could be inferred that a violation, if such existed, proximately caused the death, and, in any event, the contributory negligence of the deceased barred recovery by his heirs. Sargent v. Goldberg (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 940, 102 Cal Rptr 300, 1972 Cal App
LEXIS 1088.

A presumption of negligence will arise against a noncom-cercial, as well as a commercial, furnisher of alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated person in violation of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, B & P C § 25602. Ordinarily, a social host who makes available intoxicating liquors to an adult guest is not liable for injuries to third persons resulting from the guest's intoxication. However, the host has a duty to deny his guest further access to alcohol when he has reason to know that he is dealing with persons whose characteristics make it especially likely that they will do unreasonable things, such as those already severely intoxicated or those whose behavior the hosts knows to be unusually affected by alcohol, including minors. Coffman v. Kennedy (1977, Cal App 1st Dist) 74 Cal App 3d 28, 141 Cal Rptr 267, 1977 Cal App
LEXIS 1891.

A commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages may be held liable for injuries to a patron or third parties proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer in violation of B & P C § 25602. However, damages may not be recovered from the vendor where the patron is guilty of willful misconduct. Thus, in an action by the survivors of a person who died in an automobile accident against the proprietor of a bar who allegedly served the decedent drinks, while he was obviously intoxicated, just before the accident, the trial court properly sustained of a general demurrer to the complaint. Though the complaint alleged that defendants knew the decedent would, upon leaving the pre-misses, drive an automobile on a public highway; it also alleged that the decedent intentionally drove an automobile while intoxicated in violation of Veh C § 23102, subd. (a) [renum-bered], and that he drove in an opposite lane of traffic in violation of Veh C § 21650. Sissele v. Stefenoni (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 88 Cal App 3d 633, 152 Cal Rptr 56, 1979 Cal App

The 1978 amendment to B & P C § 25602, abrogating the judicial rule that a commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages will be held liable for injuries proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer, operates pros-tpectively from its effective date of January 1, 1979. Sissele v.
Stefenoni (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 88 Cal App 3d 633, 152 Cal
Rptr 56, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1319.

In order for there to be a violation of B & P C § 25602 so that civil negligence liability may result, service of alcoholic

In an action against the estate of a deceased tavern operator for damages allegedly resulting from the tavern having served liquor to an intoxicated person, limited to available insurance coverage pursuant to Prob C § 721, enforcement of a liquor liability exclusion in the decedent's insurance policy was not violative of the public policy of the state of recognizing a cause of action against a vendor of alcoholic beverages. That public policy does not mandate that insurers must provide coverage for such vendors in every insurance policy. Stewart v. Estate of Burkette (1980, Cal App 5th Dist) 101 Cal App 3d 978, 102 Cal
Rptr 126, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 1455.

The 1978 amendments to B & P C § 25602 and CC § 1714, which abrogated the judicial rule that a commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages is liable for injuries proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer, did not divest an intoxicated plaintiff of her then pending 1974 cause of action against a cocktail lounge, even though the repeal of a statutory remedy without a savings clause terminates all pending actions based on the statute, since plaintiff's cause of action for negligent service of alcohol was grounded in the common law and was not solely a statutory remedy. The abolition of civil causes of action by the 1978 amendments did not bar pending actions, but only those causes of action that had not yet accrued. Pogate v. Gonzalez (1980, Cal App 1st Dist) 107 Cal App 3d 951, 166 Cal Rptr 233, 1980 Cal App
LEXIS 2017.

In an action by a minor who was allegedly injured after he became intoxicated at a party and lost control of his vehicle while attempting to drive home, against the minor who hosted and supervised the party, for negligent management of the premises, the serving of alcohol without a license, the furnishing of alcohol to an intoxicated minor, and for nuisance, the trial court properly sustained defendant's general demurrer to the complaint without leave to amend, where the essence of the charging allegations of each cause of action asserted was that defendant unlawfully caused plaintiff's intoxication or permitted such intoxication to occur, and that plaintiff was injured as a result thereof. However, as to B & P C § 25602, subd. (b), providing that no person who sells or furnishes any alcoholic beverage shall be civilly liable to any injured person for injuries inflicted on that person as a result of intoxication by the consumer, immunized defendant from liability to plaintiff for injuries allegedly resulting from his own intoxication following his consumption of alcoholic bevergages. The statute, reasonably construed, bars a suit by the consumer for such vendors in every insurance policy. Stewart v.
Estate of Burkette (1980, Cal App 5th Dist) 101 Cal App 3d 978, 102 Cal Rptr 126, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 1455.

In an action against a bar owner by a customer allegedly injured as a result of a fight in the bar between two other persons, the trial court properly granted defendant's motion for summary judgment, where defendant produced evidence in support of his motion showing that plaintiff was not entitled to recover either on the theory (available at the time) that defendant furnished alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated persons in violation of former B & P C § 25602, or on the theory that defendant failed to exercise reasonable care to protect plaintiff from injury at the hands of the combatants, and where nothing in plaintiff's opposing declarations converted defendant's evidence that the bartender and another employee got to the scene of the fight as fast as they could and broke up the fight. A statement in plaintiff's opposing declarations that defendant did not ascertain the names of the men

In an action against the estate of a deceased tavern operator
for damages allegedly resulting from the tavern having served liquor to an intoxicated person, limited to available insurance coverage pursuant to Prob C § 721, enforcement of a liquor liability exclusion in the decedent's insurance policy was not violative of the public policy of the state of recognizing a cause

Liquor licensees who sold alcoholic beverages to a minor in violation of B & P C § 25658, were not liable to a girl who sustained injuries while a passenger in an automobile driven by an underaged person to whom the minor had furnished the alcoholic beverages, even though the licensees knew or should have known that the minor would distribute the beverages to other minors, and that such minors would become intoxicated and drive. The licensees were immune from liability under the 1978 amendments to CC § 1714 and B & P C § 25602, providing that the furnishing of alcoholic beverages is not the proximate cause of injuries resulting from intoxication. The sweeping immunity was intended to encompass the situation of a sale by a licensee to a minor except when the sale was to an obviously intoxicated minor within the meaning of B & P C § 25602.1. Since that was the only exception, the maxim expressio unius est exclusio alterius (an express exclusion from the operation of a statute indicates no implied exceptions) applied. (Disapproving Burke v. Superior Court (1982) 129 Cal App 3d 570, 181 Cal Rptr 149, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1352, to the extent it is inconsistent with the court’s opinion.) Strang v. Cabrol (1984) 37 Cal 3d 720, 209 Cal Rptr 347, 691 P2d 1013, 1984 Cal LEXIS 142.

In a personal injury action by the driver of a car against the owner, arising from an accident which occurred after the owner provided liquor and the car to the driver, the trial court erred in granting the owner summary judgment. The immunity afforded to suppliers of alcoholic beverages by CC § 1714, and B & P C § 25602, protects only against the risks directly flowing from the supply of the liquor. This immunity did not apply to the owner’s alleged negligent care, treatment, or service of the employee to the driver. Therefore, although the driver might be unable to excuse his voluntary intoxication, issues of fact were present, requiring a comparative fault trial on the merits. Blake v. Moore (1984, Cal App 5th Dist) 162 Cal App 3d 700, 208 Cal Rptr 703, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 2819.

In order to establish the liability of a convenience store franchisor for the sale of beer to an intoxicated minor by the franchisee, the trial court did not err in refusing to instruct that the franchisor owed a nondelegable statutory duty of care with respect to the sale of alcoholic beverages. Although B & P C §§ 25602 and 25658, prohibit the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to minors and intoxicated persons, they provide no specific safeguards or precautions to be exercised by the licensee in that regard. Moreover, the case was tried on the theory that the franchisee was the agent of the franchisor, and to have permitted plaintiffs to drastically change their theory of trial after all the evidence was in would have been unfair to the franchisor. Wickham v. Southland Corp. (1985, Cal App 4th Dist) 168 Cal App 3d 49, 213 Cal Rptr 825, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2070.

In a personal injury action against an employer on the theory of respondeat superior, by an employee who was injured when a coemployee drove a truck in which the employee was a passenger off the road, the coemployee’s consumption of alcohol was within the scope of her employment and thus the employer was not immunized from liability by CC § 1714, or B & P C § 25602 (immunities from liability for those who furnish alcohol to others). Since the employer is liable for the risk of an employee’s consumption of alcohol within the employee’s scope of employment, and regardless of the employer’s furnishing of alcohol, the immunity of the statute was inapplicable. Childers v. Shasta Livestock Auction Yard, Inc. (1987, Cal App 3d Dist) 190 Cal App 3d 792, 235 Cal Rptr 641, 1987 Cal LEXIS 1542.

The 1978 amendments to CC § 1714, and B & P C § 25602, created broad immunity against liability occasioned by the furnishing of alcoholic beverages, and thus the employer was not immunized from liability by the franchisor. Thus, the trial court properly sustained the licensee’s demurrer without leave to amend on the ground that the action was barred by B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person). There is no statutory exception to the immunity provided by B & P C § 25602, except for obviously intoxicated minors (B & P C § 25602.1). Because the mentally infirm, incompetent, or retarded range from those whose disability is not immediately evident to those requiring constant care, it must be left to the Legislature to determine whether this large and diversified group is to be treated similarly to minors. Cardinal v. Santee Pita, Inc. (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 234 Cal App 3d 1676, 286 Cal Rptr 275, 1991 Cal LEXIS 1176.

In an action against a bar alleging that it and its employees knew or should have known of plaintiff’s mental disability and that he was unable to control his consumption of alcohol, and that the bar continued to serve him drinks resulting in his being injured as he crossed a street, the trial court did not err in sustaining defendant’s demurrer without leave to amend on the ground that the action was barred by B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person). There is no statutory exception to the immunity provided by B & P C § 25602, except for obviously intoxicated minors (B & P C § 25602.1). Because the mentally infirm, incompetent, or retarded range from those whose disability is not immediately evident to those requiring constant care, it must be left to the Legislature to determine whether this large and diversified group is to be treated similarly to minors.
intended no other exceptions to be implied), the Legislature, in amending CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person), and B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and enacting B & P C § 25602.1 (furnishing alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated minor), must be deemed to have abolished tort liability against the furnisher of alcoholic beverages except in only one situation, namely, providing alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. No other exceptions to this immunity exist. By declaring the consumption of alcohol, and not the sale or furnishing of such, to be the proximate cause of injury inflicted by intoxicated persons, subject to only one exception, the Legislature stated loudly and clearly that it rejected the concept of preserving even limited liability for those selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to anyone other than obviously intoxicated minors. Such a legislative declaration is within its domain. Cardinal v. Santee Pita, Inc. (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 234 Cal App 3d 1676, 286 Cal Rptr 275, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1176.

In an action against a baseball team, a parking company, and the city that owned the stadium, for the wrongful death of plaintiff's son, who was killed while riding his bicycle, by a driver leaving a baseball game at which he had consumed alcoholic beverages both in the stadium and the parking lot, the trial court properly sustained defendants' demurrer without leave to amend. In view of B & P C § 25602, under which the consumption of alcoholic beverages rather than the serving of alcoholic beverages is the proximate cause of injuries inflicted by an intoxicated person, neither the parking company nor the baseball team could be found civilly liable. Neither could the liability of any defendant be based on their supplying the driver to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises. Moreover, the claim that defendants failed to prevent or to prohibit patrons from drinking and actually encouraged the use of the parking lot premises for drinking failed as a matter of law to state a cause of action. B & P C § 25602, bars suit against those who simply permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages on their premises as well as against those who supply alcohol. Leong v. San Francisco Parking, Inc. (1991, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 3d 827, 1 Cal Rptr 2d 41, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1252.

B & P C § 25602, providing a person who furnishes alcoholic beverage to any obviously intoxicated person shall not be civilly liable to any injured person for injuries inflicted as a result of intoxication, is not limited only to those who provide alcohol to obviously intoxicated persons, despite the statute's reference thereto, and to cases involving the provision of alcohol to such persons. Were the reference interpreted as limiting, then the statute would bar suits only against a person supplying alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated consumer, yet permit tort recovery against one who supplies to a sober individual who later becomes intoxicated. Obviously, the supplier in the former situation is better able to foresee the risk of harm to others and thus engages in the more culpable conduct. It cannot be believed the Legislature intended such a whimsical anomaly. Leong v. San Francisco Parking, Inc. (1991, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 3d 827, 1 Cal Rptr 2d 41, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1252.

In an action against the operator of a bar and restaurant for injuries suffered when plaintiff was assaulted and stabbed by another patron, the trial court erred in sustaining defendant's demurrer to plaintiff's first amended complaint, which was founded on premises liability and alleged defendant's failure to protect its patrons against such assaults. Although the initial complaint was subject to demurrer because it alleged the assailant was intoxicated and it sought to impose liability precluded by B & P C § 25602, subd. (b), for defendant's negligence in furnishing the alcohol to the assailant, plaintiff deleted that allegation in the amended complaint. The amended complaint alleged a viable cause of action, separate and distinct from any asserted dram shop liability and, under the facts alleged, defendant's liability existed regardless of the fact that it sold alcohol to the assailant. A license to sell alcoholic beverages does not confer a grant of immunity to the innkeeper who permits the premises to be used as an arena for aggressive tortfeasors. B & P C § 25602, does not affect an innkeeper's duty of care to take reasonable steps to protect his or her guests from the aggressive conduct of other persons on the premises. Cantwell v. Peppermill, Inc. (1994, Cal App 1st Dist) 25 Cal App 4th 1797, 31 Cal Rptr 2d 246, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 637, review denied, (1994) 1994 Cal. LEXIS 4969.

B & P C § 25602, generally immunizes an establishment from liability for injuries to third parties resulting from the furnishing of alcohol to its patrons, permitting its patrons to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises, or for failing to prevent or prohibit its patrons from drinking alcoholic beverages and encouraging the use of its premises for drinking. However, the statute does not preclude all actions against innkeepers merely because they furnish alcohol. The proprietor of a place where intoxicating liquors are dispensed owes a duty of exercising reasonable care to protect his or her patrons from injury at the hands of fellow guests. Although the proprietor is not an insurer of the patrons' safety, he or she has a duty of care to protect patrons from the reasonably foreseeable criminal or tortious conduct of third persons, and is thus liable for receiving or harboring guests of known violent or vicious propensities. Cantwell v. Peppermill, Inc. (1994, Cal App 1st Dist) 25 Cal App 4th 1797, 31 Cal Rptr 2d 246, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 637, review denied, (1994) 1994 Cal. LEXIS 4969.

In an action arising out of an automobile accident caused by an intoxicated minor, against the owner of the building rented by the sponsor of a dance at which alcohol was served to the minor on the evening of the accident, the trial court properly entered summary judgment for defendant. Under B & P C § 25602.1, imposing liability on any person who "causes to be sold" any alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated minor, the phrase "causes to be sold" requires an affirmative act directly related to the sale of alcohol, which necessarily brings about the resultant action to which the statute is directed, i.e., the furnishing of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. The statute requires malfeasance, not acquiescence; mere inaction is not sufficient. Accordingly, when a person's only act relating to the sale of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor are (1) being the landlord of the premises on which the renter sold alcohol to the minor, and (2) having acquiesced in the liquor license application of the organization which rented the premises, the person cannot be said to have "cause[d] [alcohol] to be sold" to the minor within the meaning of B & P C § 25602.1. Therefore, defendant was immune from liability for injuries inflicted as a result of the minor's intoxication under the sweeping civil immunity of B & P C § 25602, subd. (b). Hernandez v. Modesto Portuguese Pentecost Asn. (1995, Cal App 3d Dist) 40 Cal App 4th 1274, 48 Cal Rptr 2d 229, 1995 Cal App LEXIS 1191.

Security company hired by a restaurant that served alcoholic beverages did not owe a duty to prevent minors from consuming alcoholic beverages. The court dismissed an action against the security company brought by the parents of intoxicated minors who suffered a fatal accident after leaving the restaurant; B & P C § 25602 provided the security company with immunity against suit. Elizarraras v. L.A. Private Security Services, Inc. (2003, Cal App 2d Dist) 108 Cal App 4th 237, 133 Cal Rptr 2d 302, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 627.

Court granted defendants' motion to strike parents' claim for improper service of alcohol in a wrongful death and survival action because California's anti-dram shop provision, B & P C § 25602(b), precluded the parents' dram shop claim.
§ 25602.1. Supplying of alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor; Cause of action

Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 25602, a cause of action may be brought by or on behalf of any person who has suffered injury or death against any person licensed, or required to be licensed, pursuant to Section 23300, or any person authorized by the federal government to sell alcoholic beverages on a military base or other federal enclave, who sells, furnishes, gives or causes to be sold, furnished or given away any alcoholic beverage, and any other person who sells, or causes to be sold, any alcoholic beverage, to any obviously intoxicated minor where the furnishing, sale or giving of that beverage to the minor is the proximate cause of the personal injury or death sustained by that person.

Dramshop liability—Injured minor may sue bar that served him drinks resulting in his being injured as he crossed a street, the trial court did not err in sustaining defendant’s demurrer without leave to amend on the ground that the action was barred by B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person). The statute requires malfeasance, not acquiescence; mere inaction is not sufficient. Accordingly, when a person's only acts relating to the sale of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor are (1) being the landlord of the premises on which the minor consumed alcohol before driving the car in which plaintiff was riding in an automobile driven by an intoxicated minor, under the sweeping civil immunity of B & P C § 25602, subd. 3. Applicability

Although, under B & P C § 25602.1, a licensee may be held liable for furnishing alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated minor, this statutory section is the sole explicit exception to social host immunity; although not set forth specifically, a party cannot be held civilly liable for violating the statute's misdemeanor provision of serving alcohol to minors (B & P C § 25658). DeBolt v. Kragen Auto Supply, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 182 Cal App 3d 269, 227 Cal Rptr 275, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1703.

B & P C § 25602.1 (action against licensed person for providing alcohol to obviously intoxicated minor causing injury), may be invoked only when the provider of alcohol is licensed. Thus, in an action by a passenger injured while riding in an automobile driven by an intoxicated minor, against two persons who had sold alcohol to the minor before the accident, the trial court properly sustained without leave to amend defendants' demurrer to the passenger's complaint, and dismissed the causes of action against them. Defendants had sold the alcohol at a social gathering at their home, and rendered alcohol to the minor, and (2) having acquiesced in the liquor license application of the organization which rented the premises, the premises, the minor cannot be said to have "cause[d] [alcohol] to be sold" to the minor within the meaning of B & P C § 25602.1. Therefore, defendant was immune from liability for injuries inflicted as a result of the minor's intoxication under the sweeping civil immunity of B & P C § 25602, subd. (b).

In an action by an injured motor vehicle passenger against the residents and owners of the home in which a guest consumed alcohol before driving the car in which plaintiff was riding, the trial court properly sustained without leave to amend defendants' demurrer to the passenger's complaint, and dismissed the causes of action against them. Baker v. Sudo (1987, Cal App 4th Dist) 194 Cal App 3d 956, 240 Cal Rptr 38, 1987 Cal App LEXIS 2109. In accordance with the maxim (an express exclusion from the operation of a statute indicates that the Legislature intended no other exceptions to be implied), the Legislature, in amending CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from another's tort), to the sale or furnishing of alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated person, and enacting B & P C § 25602.1 (furnishing alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated minor), must be deemed to have abolished tort liability against the furnisher of alcoholic beverages except in only one situation, namely, providing alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. No other manifestations of liquor intoxication, whether by failing to observe what was plain and easily seen or discovered or, having observed, by ignoring what was apparent. To establish liability, it must be proved not only that the patron was intoxicated but that this was obvious. The standard for determining obvious intoxication is measured by that of a reasonable person having normal powers of observation. Schaffield v. Abboud (1993, Cal App 4th Dist) 15 Cal App 4th 1133, 19 Cal Rptr 2d 205, 1993 Cal App LEXIS 526, review denied, (1993) 1993 Cal. LEXIS 3569.

2. Construction

In B & P C § 25602.1, which provides immunity to licensed alcoholic beverage dealers who provide alcoholic beverages to sober minors from liability to third parties injured as a result of the intoxication of those minors, the term "minor" refers to persons under the age of 21. Rogers v. Alvaro (1984, Cal App 1st Dist) 160 Cal App 3d 997, 207 Cal Rptr 60, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 2607.

An 18-year-old woman who was injured when, upon leaving a restaurant and bar in which she had become intoxicated, she ran across the street against the traffic signal and into the path of a car stated a cause of action against the restaurant and its agents, based on their negligence in serving her alcoholic beverages, under B & P C § 25602.1, which provides that, notwithstanding B & P C § 25602, subd. (b) (barring actions against purveyors of alcoholic beverages by persons injured by intoxicated persons), “any person” may bring an action against licensees who furnish alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated minors where the furnishing is the proximate cause of the injury or death. The usual meaning of the phrase “any person” include injured intoxicated minors in the absence of a statement excluding them, and the Legislature made no such exclusion, in contrast to the language of other statutes dealing with minors. Additionally, both the legislative history of the statute and its subsequent interpretation by the Supreme Court supported the conclusion that minors themselves were intended to be included in the class of persons who could bring actions against licensees. Chalup v. Aspen Mine Co. (1985, Cal App 4th Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 973, 221 Cal Rptr 97, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2892.

In an action by the family of the victim of an automobile accident against the corporate owner of a convenience store, the convenience store franchisees, and a store employee, the trial court erred in denying summary judgment for defendants, who asserted that B & P C § 25602.1 (supplying alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor), provided no basis for imposing liability on them. A minor who had been drinking heavily with a companion bought beer in the convenience store, and then rejoined his companion in the companion's automobile, which was subsequently involved in the accident in which the victim died. The companion was driving at the time of the accident. Section 25602.1 should be construed strictly so as to require that the negligence resulting in liability of the alcohol purveyor be that of the very person who purchased the beverage. Salem v. Superior Court (1989, Cal App 4th Dist) 211 Cal App 3d 595, 259 Cal Rptr 447, 1989 Cal App LEXIS 611, review denied, (1989) 1989 Cal. LEXIS 2752.

As the sole exception to statutory immunity from liability for injuries to third persons resulting from the furnishing of alcohol to another, B & P C § 25602.1 (imposing liability on any person who "causes to be sold" any alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated minor), must be strictly construed to effect the Legislature's intent. In their ordinary sense, the words "causes to be sold" imply some type of affirmative act on the part of the person causing alcohol to be sold, which is directly related to the act of selling alcohol. Thus, a trier of fact may not find liability unless it determines that the minor exhibited one or more signs of intoxication which were sufficient to cause a reasonable person to believe the minor was intoxicated. Hernandez v. Modesto Portuguese Pentecost Asn. (1995, Cal App 3d Dist) 40 Cal App 4th 1274, 48 Cal Rptr 2d 229, 1995 Cal App LEXIS 1191.

Security company hired by a restaurant that served alcoholic beverages did not owe a duty to prevent minors from consuming alcoholic beverages. The court dismissed an action against the security company brought by the parents of intoxicated minors who suffered a fatal accident after leaving the restaurant; B & P C § 25602 provided the security company with immunity from suit. Elizarraras v. L.A. Private Security Services, Inc. (2003, Cal App 2d Dist) 105 Cal App 4th 237, 133 Cal Rptr 2d 302, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 627.

Placement of this section in the Business and Professions Code does not limit the scope of that provision to commercial enterprises. Ennabe v. Manosa (2014, Cal) 2014 Cal LEXIS 1426.

Final category of persons addressed by this section includes private persons and ostensible social hosts who, for whatever reason, charge money for alcoholic drinks. The plain meaning of the word "person" as used in this section's final category can include a private person who was not engaged in a commercial enterprise. Ennabe v. Manosa (2014, Cal) 2014 Cal LEXIS 1426.

Where the facts, read in a light most favorable to plaintiffs supported the conclusion that a social host was a person who sold alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated minor, and the minor's intoxication was the proximate cause of a decedent's death, the social host was potentially liable under this section, and the trial court erred in granting summary judgment in the social host's favor. Ennabe v. Manosa (2014, Cal) 2014 Cal LEXIS 1426.

In a wrongful death action, a social host's act of charging guests a fee in exchange for entrance to her party and access to the alcoholic beverages she provided constituted a sale under B & P C §§ 23025 & 25602.1, because the beverages were purveyed for consideration and therefore not free. Ennabe v. Manosa (2014, Cal) 2014 Cal LEXIS 1426.

4. Construction with Other Laws
California courts do not hold liable, under B & P C § 25602.1 (sale of alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor; creation of cause of action against licensee), a private person who, although he or she served liquor to an obviously intoxicated minor, was not licensed under California law to serve liquor. Thus, an Enlisted Club Marine Barracks which sold alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor was immune from tort liability under the Federal Tort Claims Act, with regard to the minor's motorcycle accident which killed his passenger, since the club was exempt from California liquor licensing requirements. Federal Tort Claims Act liability was predicated on state law, and a private person in a situation similar to the United States would be immune from civil liability. Gallea v. United States (1986, 9th Cir Cal) 779 F2d 1403, 1986 US App LEXIS 21635, superseded by statute as stated in Ennabe v. Manosa (2014, Cal) 2014 Cal LEXIS 1426.

5. Purpose
Although Veh C § 23155 [repealed] (driving while under the influence), and B & P C § 25602.1 (civil liability of licensees for injury caused by serving alcohol to obviously intoxicated minor), deal with related problems, the purposes behind the statutes are different. To impose liability under § 25602.1, the injury need not be caused by the minor's driving; instead, visible signs of a minor's obvious intoxication must be established. Being under the influence of alcohol is not comparable; blood alcohol level may be circumstantial evidence of a minor's outward appearance, but it is not dispositive. Reaction to alcohol and tolerance of it differ among persons, and even within a person, depending on physical condition and other factors. Jones v. Toyota Motor Co. (1988, Cal App 1st Dist) 198 Cal App 3d 364, 243 Cal Rptr 611, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 61.

6. Evidence: Generally
In determining whether one has sold liquor to an intoxicated person, a jury may consider evidence of blood-alcohol level, but such evidence is marginally relevant where there is no direct evidence of the patron's behavior at the time of the sale. Thus, in an accident victim's suit alleging negligently selling an alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated minor, sufficient evidence supported the jury's conclusion that the minor was not obviously intoxicated at the time of the sale, where the jury could reasonably have found his .10 percent blood-alcohol content about two hours after the accident was due to alcohol consumed after rather than before the sale. There was conflicting testimony as to the amount of liquor consumed by the minor, and two experts testified that the amount the minor admitted drinking prior to the sale would have been insufficient to raise his blood alcohol content to the high time of the test. Red eyes and alcoholic breath alone do not compel a conclusion that a person is obviously intoxicated. Schaffield v. Abboud (1993, Cal App 4th Dist) 15 Cal App 4th 1133, 19 Cal Rptr 2d 205, 1993 Cal App LEXIS 526, review denied, (1993) 1993 Cal. LEXIS 3569.

2. Defendant [tavern proprietor] is the [sole] owner and proprietor of a tavern located at [address], in the City of [ ], County of [ ], State of California, and is engaged in the business of selling alcoholic beverages to the general public.
3. Defendant [assailant] resides at [address], in the City of [ ], County of [ ], State of California.
4. [If applicable, allege: Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES [1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of the First Cause of Action of this complaint with the full force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

6. On [date], commencing at approximately [time] o’clock in the morning hours of the [date], defendant [tavern proprietor] [served or permitted to be served] to defendant [assailant], a minor, at [tavern], substantial quantities of alcoholic beverages.
7. Defendant [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V] knew at the time of serving such alcoholic beverages to defendant [assailant] that he was becoming intoxicated. Defendant [tavern proprietor] further knew that defendant [assailant] had a propensity for becoming aggressive when intoxicated. In spite of such knowledge, defendant [tavern proprietor] negligently continued to sell and serve alcoholic beverages to defendant [assailant].
8. As a proximate result of such negligence, defendant [assailant] became intoxicated and aggressive with the intent of assault, for example: and stabbed plaintiff with a knife immediately outside the [tavern], causing the hereinafter described injuries.
9. As prescribed by Section 25602.1 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California, defendant(s) [DOES I through V inclusive] owed plaintiff a statutory duty of care. By continuing to serve intoxicating beverages to defendant [assailant], defendant(s) breached this statutory duty of due care. Such breach directly caused the injuries hereinafter described.

12. Plaintiff was employed as a [specify] by [employer] at the time of the assault and battery. As a further proximate result of the injuries sustained, plaintiff was prevented from engaging in his employment and thereby lost earnings. The precise amount of such earnings is not presently ascertained; plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to provide such information when his wage loss has been computed.
13. [If applicable, set forth facts supporting further damages sustained by plaintiff].

Second Cause of Action

1. Plaintiff re-alleges Paragraphs [1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of the First Cause of Action of this complaint.
2. Defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, inclusive] knew, or in the exercise of ordinary care, should have known that defendant [assailant] was a minor, and consequently should not have been sold and served alcoholic beverages in [tavern] or been permitted to remain in [tavern].
3. Despite such knowledge, on the [evening or as the case may be of [date], and continuing on into the [ ] early morning hours or as the case may be of [date], defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, inclusive] [served or permitted to be served] to defendant [assailant], a minor, large quantities of alcoholic beverages without requiring proof of age from defendant [assailant].
4. As a proximate result of defendant(s)’ negligence, defendant [assailant] became intoxicated and assaulted plaintiff as previously alleged.
5. Defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, each of them] owed plaintiff a statutory duty of care as prescribed by Sections 25602.1 and 25658 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California. By providing alcoholic beverages to such minor, defendant(s) breached that duty of care, and the negligence proximately caused plaintiff to suffer the injuries previously described in this complaint.

§ 25602.2. Action by director for injunctive relief
The director may bring an action to enjoin a violation or the threatened violation of subdivision (a) of Section 25602. Such action may be brought in the county in which the violation occurred or is threatened to occur. Any proceeding brought hereunder shall conform to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that it shall be presumed that there is no adequate remedy at law, and that irreparable damage will occur if the continued or threatened violation is not restrained or enjoined.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Jurisdiction

1. Generally
Although B & P C § 25602.2 provides one remedy for violations of B & P C § 25602, it is not the exclusive one. People v. Schlimbach (2011, 2d Dist) 193 Cal App 4th 1132, 122 Cal Rptr 3d 804, 2011 Cal App LEXIS 353.

2. Jurisdiction
Finding that a business was a nuisance under the Unlawful Liquor Sale Abatement Law, Pen C §§ 11200-11207, based on sales of alcohol to obviously intoxicated persons did not impede the jurisdiction of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Cal Const Art XX § 22(d), B & P C § 25602.2. An injunction was also not an improper interference because the restrictions were designed to prevent future sales to obviously intoxicated persons and abate the nuisance, not to restrict the right to sell alcohol to willing purchasers. People v. Schlimbach (2011, 2d Dist) 193 Cal App 4th 1132, 122 Cal Rptr 3d 804, 2011 Cal App LEXIS 353.

§ 25602.3. Petitions for offer in compromise for second or subsequent violation prohibited
Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, no licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise pursuant to Section 23095 for a second or any subsequent violation of subdivision (a) of Section 25602 which occurs within 36 months of the initial violation.

age is received or kept, or to which any alcoholic beverage is brought, for consumption on the premises by members of the public or of any club, corporation, or association, unless the person and premises are licensed under this division. It is a public nuisance for any person to keep, maintain, operate or lease any premises for the purpose of providing therein for a consideration a place for the drinking of alcoholic beverages by members of the public or other persons, unless the person and premises are licensed under this division. As used herein “consideration” includes cover charge, the sale of food, ice, mixers or other liquids used with alcoholic beverages, or the furnishing of glassware or other containers for use in the consumption of alcoholic beverage drinks.

The Attorney General or any district attorney may bring an action in the name of the people to abate the nuisance, and the Attorney General shall, upon request of the department, bring the action.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Applicability
4. Construction with Other Laws

1. Generally
Provision respecting public nuisance under this section is not ambiguous or unintelligible. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

2. Constitutionality
This section does not conflict with federal or state constitutional provisions relating to deprivation of individual liberty and private property without due process of law, but is valid exercise of police power. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

3. Applicability
In action to abate as public nuisance restaurant engaged in serving intoxicating liquor without license, it was not error to permit agents of department of alcoholic beverage control to relate conversations between them and doorman and waitresses, where ostensible employment was established as to both doorman and waitresses and defendant was in area at time. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.
Decree ordering that defendants, “their heirs and assigns,” be enjoined and restrained from using or permitting the use of the premises was modified by striking quoted words since action was in personam, not in rem, and heirs and assigns were not parties; and decree was also required to be modified by adding words “in violation of Section 25604 of the Business and Professions Code,” since it was unlawful to use premises for serving alcoholic beverages or mixes for consideration only without license. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

In an action under B & P C § 25604 and Pen C § 11200, to abate the public nuisance created by persons unlawfully selling and serving alcoholic beverages on their premises, failure of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to give defendants two weeks written notice of the existence of a nuisance prior to seeking an injunction did not prejudice defendants. Such notice is required only by the Penal Code and defendants had actual notice through the existence of years of litigation on the matter. In a suit in federal court they had admitted facts constituting the nuisance and they failed to request that the injunction be dissolved on the ground of lack of notice. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

2. Construction with Other Laws
B & P C § 23090.5, providing that no court except the Supreme Court or Courts of Appeal shall have jurisdiction to review, affirm, or reverse any order, rule, or decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is completely inapplicable to proceedings to abate a nuisance brought pursuant to B & P C § 25604 and Pen C § 11200. Therefore, in an action brought under the nuisance statutes, the superior court had jurisdiction to issue a permanent injunction against the illegal sale and serving of alcoholic beverages as a public nuisance.

§ 25605. Delivery of beverage pursuant to telephone order or other electronic means
No off-sale licensee shall deliver any alcoholic beverages pursuant to orders received for alcoholic beverages by telephone or other electronic means unless upon delivery the recipient shall be able to furnish proof of age and identity to indicate that he or she is 21 years of age or over.

Former Sections:
Former § 25605, relating to sales of beverages other than beer over a bar, was added Stats 1955 ch 152 § 1 and repealed Stats 1955 ch 1779 § 11, operative January 1, 1957. Historical derivation: Stats 1935 ch 330 § 53, as amended Stats 1937 ch 758 § 85.

and (2) "alcoholic beverages by telephone or other electronic means" for "such alcoholic beverage by telephone".

§ 25606. Use of vehicle to transport beverages or property subject to seizure

It is unlawful for any person to use any automobile or other vehicle to conceal, convey, carry, or transport any alcoholic beverages which are subject to seizure under this division, or any stills or parts thereof subject to seizure under this division, or any materials or supplies capable of and intended for use in the manufacture or production of alcoholic beverages with the design to evade the excise taxes or license fees imposed by this division. This section does not apply to any person who uses an automobile or other vehicle to transport distilled spirits for lawful use in the trades, professions, or industries. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The department may seize any automobile or other vehicle used contrary to the provisions of this section.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted "department" for "board" in the last paragraph.
1983 Amendment: Substituted "one thousand dollars ($1,000)" for "five hundred dollars ($500)" in the third sentence of the first paragraph.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality
2. Applicability
3. Costs

1. Constitutionality
Former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, construed as exempting innocent common carriers from forfeiture of vehicles wrongfully used by their employees in violation of statute, did not contravene Const Art I § 11, providing that all laws shall have a uniform operation, since character, duties, and responsibilities of common carriers furnish ample justification for placing them in separate classification. People v. One 1937 Lincoln Zephyr Sedan (1945) 26 Cal 2d 736, 160 P2d 769, 1945 Cal LEXIS 188.

2. Applicability
Where owner expressly prohibits use of her taxicabs for transporting liquor, procedure to forfeit one of cabs for illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor by employee would be abhorrent to law. People v. One 1941 Buick 8, (1944, Cal App) 63 Cal App 2d 661, 147 P2d 401, 1944 Cal App LEXIS 988.

Former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (Stats 1935 p 1123, as amended), exempting common carriers from forfeiture provisions of the statute, exempted owner of taxicab company from forfeiture of taxicab which he did not know was being illegally used by driver to transport or sell liquor while operating taxicab for company. § 25607. Possession on premises of goods not covered by license

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), it is unlawful for any person or licensee to have upon any premises for which a license has been issued any alcoholic beverages other than the alcoholic beverage which the licensee is authorized to sell at the premises under his or her license. It shall be presumed that all alcoholic beverages found or located upon premises for which licenses have been issued belong to the person or persons to whom the licenses were issued. Every person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. The department may seize any alcoholic beverages found in violation of this section.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to adopt operating standards as set forth in this section for specified retail premises licensed by the department. The standards set forth in this section are state standards that do not preclude the adoption and implementation of more stringent local regulations that are otherwise authorized by law.

(c) Other than as provided in subdivision (a), each retail licensee shall comply with all of the following:

(1) A prominent, permanent sign or signs stating “NO LOITERING IS ALLOWED ON OR IN FRONT OF THESE PREMISES” shall be posted in a place that is clearly visible to patrons of the licensee. The size, format, form, placement, and languages of the sign or signs shall be determined by the department. This paragraph shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from the department. The department shall issue this written notice only upon a request, from the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the premises are located, that is supported by substantial evidence that there is loitering adjacent to the premises.

(2) A prominent, permanent sign or signs stating “NO OPEN ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTAINERS ARE ALLOWED ON THESE PREMISES” shall be posted in a place that is clearly visible to patrons of the licensee. The size, format, form, placement, and languages of the sign or signs shall be determined by the department. This paragraph shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from the department. The department shall issue this written notice only upon a request, from the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the premises are located, that is supported by substantial evidence that there is drinking in public adjacent to the premises.

(3) No alcoholic beverages shall be consumed on the premises of an off-sale retail establishment, and no alcoholic beverages shall be consumed outside the edifice of an on-sale retail establishment.

(4) The exterior of the premises, including adjacent public sidewalks and all parking lots under the control of the licensee, shall be illuminated during all hours of darkness during which the premises are open for business in a manner so that persons standing in those areas at night are identifiable by law enforcement personnel. However, the required illumination shall be placed so as to minimize interference with the quiet enjoyment of nearby residents of their property.

(5) Litter shall be removed daily from the premises, including adjacent public sidewalks and all parking lots under the control of the licensee. These areas shall be swept or cleaned, either mechanically or manually, on a weekly basis to control debris.

(6) Graffiti shall be removed from the premises and all parking lots under the control of the licensee within 72 hours of application. If the graffiti occurs on a Friday or weekend day, or on a holiday, the licensee shall remove the graffiti 72 hours following the beginning of the next weekday.

(7) No more than 33 percent of the square footage of the windows and clear doors of an off-sale premises shall bear advertising or signs of any sort, and all advertising and signage shall be placed and maintained in a manner that ensures that law enforcement personnel have a clear and unobstructed view of the interior of the premises, including the area in which the cash registers are maintained, from the exterior public sidewalk or entrance to the premises. However, this latter requirement shall not apply to premises where there are no windows, or where existing windows are located at a height that precludes a view of the interior of the premises to a person standing outside the premises.
§ 25615. Violation of provisions; Substitution of different brand

Any person who violates any of the provisions of Sections 25611 to 25613, inclusive, or substitutes another or different brand of draught beer from that indicated by any of the required notices, placards, or markers, or substitutes one brand of beer for another, or misrepresents the brand or kind of beer served to a consumer is guilty of a misdemeanor.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Applicability

1. Generally

Since Alcoholic Beverage Control Act was enacted to protect safety, welfare, health, peace and morals of people, violation of any of regulatory provisions relating to prohibited sales constitutes misdemeanor within meaning of this section. Peck’s Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

2. Construction

Section means that violation of any of prohibited acts contained in div 9 of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is misdemeanor, and unless another penalty is specifically provided, violator may be punished in accordance with this section. Peck’s Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act authorizes public enforcement in the form of administrative sanctions (B & P C § 24200) and criminal penalties (B & P C § 25617) does not furnish a basis for finding an unlawful delegation of legislative power. Wilke & Holzeiger, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

3. Applicability

Assuming mere failure by administrative agency to use one form of enforcing statute rather than another constitutes agency’s interpretation that form not used is not available, interpretation by Alcoholic Beverage Control Board of §§ 24749-24751 [repealed], prohibiting sales of intoxicating liquors at less than fair trade price, by limiting itself to

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which adds Section 25622 to the Business and Professions Code, imposes a limitation on the public’s rights of access to the writings of public officials and agencies within the meaning of Section 3 of Article I of the California Constitution. Pursuant to that constitutional provision, the Legislature makes the following findings to demonstrate the interest protected by this limitation and the need for protecting that interest:
In order to facilitate licensee participation in this prohibition, it is necessary to protect the confidentiality of trade secrets.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Validity
3. Construction and Application
4. Persons Subject to Action
5. Accusation
6. Evidence: Generally
7. Evidence: Sufficiency

1. Generally
If contract between liquor licensee and entertainment agency under which entertainers are employed by licensee created independent contractor relationship and not that of employer and employee, it applied only to performances of entertainers as dancers; it did not extend to acts of entertainers in seeking patrons to purchase drinks for them or to any other contractual deals or transactions with licensee, and as to these relationship of employer and employee existed. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

In prosecution for conspiracy to violate section, it was not error to neglect to instruct jury as to meaning of words “hostess” and “B girls,” as used in information, where defendant did not request such instruction, “hostess” is one of common understanding, and court, in instructing with reference to finding as to alleged overt acts, sufficiently directed their attention to meaning of expression “B girls.” People v.

2. Validity
Section is not void for want of certainty on ground that language is so broad as to apply to legitimate entertainers. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises was reasonable and did not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule had reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, was in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and was valid and constitutional as against charge that it was too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting this section and § 24200.5 subd. (b). Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Provision prohibiting licensee from permitting anyone to “loiter” on licensed premises to “solicit” drinks is not too broad, vague, or indefinite for enforcement, since meaning of “loiter” and “solicit” is clear and certain. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Section is not unconstitutional on ground that it is vague and uncertain for failing to define word “hostess” used therein, since it is apparent that it was legislative intent to prohibit direct procuring or encouraging of purchase of alcoholic beverages by female attendant employed at on-sale premises if her duties as such attendant include dispensing hospitality by such means as receiving, entertaining or drinking with male customers. People v. Holstun (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 479, 334 P2d 645, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2359.

3. Construction and Application
Section prohibits only direct solicitation of drinks and not purchase of drinks by patrons of their own initiative and violation while watching entertainment and when asked by waitress if they desire service. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

“Loiter,” as used in section, has meaning of “to linger idly by the way, to idle,” “to loaf,” or “to idle.” Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

“Loiter,” as used in section, has sinister or wrongful as well as reasonable definite implication; it connotes lingering in designated places for purpose of committing crime as opportunity may be discovered; loitering as forbidden includes waiting, but mere waiting for any lawful purpose does not constitute loitering. In re Cregler (1961) 56 Cal 2d 308, 14 Cal Rptr 289, 363 P2d 305, 1961 Cal LEXIS 297.

4. Persons Subject to Action
Contention that this section does not expressly provide for vicarious liability of principal for acts of his agent, whereas § 25601 expressly provides that “Every licensee, agent or employee of licensee,. . .” is unsound since quoted language is not used to impose vicarious liability upon employer for acts of his employee, but is inserted to add personal liability of employee to that of employer, and no such language is necessary in this section. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

It is not prerequisite to holding liquor licensees responsible under this section, § 24200 and Pen C § 303 that they personally hired “B” girls or permitted solicitation of drinks in their tavern. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Licensee of on-sale liquor establishment is chargeable with knowledge of his bartender that girl is loitering in place for purpose of soliciting drinks from customers. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Club’s practice of hiring women to solicit the club’s male patrons to buy drinks for them at an elevated price and paying the women commission for the sales was improper. Lopez v. Baca (2002, Cal App 2d Dist) 98 Cal App 4th 1008, 120 Cal Rptr 2d 281, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4172.

5. Accusation
There is no variance between accusation charging liquor licensees with violation of this section, § 24200 and Pen C § 303, and proof of violation by licensees’ employees. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Charge that on-sale liquor licensee violated subd. (b) by employing or permitting designated person to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting purchase of alcoholic beverage for solicitor is sufficient to enable licensee to prepare his defense, since an administrative proceeding against licensee the courts are more concerned with fair notice to accused than technical rules of pleading. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

6. Evidence: Generally

Trial court properly determined in mandamus proceeding that no relevant evidence was excluded at hearing to revoke liquor license where affidavit of witness licensee wished to present stated that affiant was employed by licensee and had been instructed by him not to accept or ask for any alcoholic beverages and not to drink alcoholic beverages while on duty, but also stated that affiant had been employed by licensee many months after proceedings to revoke license were begun. Skipitar v. Munro (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 175 Cal App 2d 1, 345 P2d 508, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1288.

Evidence similar to that which supports decision and order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking license on ground that licensee knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of begging or soliciting customer to purchase for her alcoholic beverage will support charge that continuance of license by that licensee would be contrary to public welfare and morals (§ 24200 subd. (a)) in that he caused or permitted designated females to solicit drinks on licensed premises on certain dates. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

7. Evidence: Sufficiency
Evidence though weak, is legally sufficient to show violation of subd. (b) where it shows that girl approached patron and asked, “Do you want a drinking companion?” and, on being asked to sit down, girl motioned bartender for drink without specifying what she wanted, whereupon bartender poured drink from Vermouth bottle into old-fashioned glass which girl drank and for which patron paid, and bartender then asked customer if he wanted to buy the lady another drink and on receiving affirmative reply, poured similar drink for girl at patron’s expense, and procedure was repeated several times.
after patron left place for few minutes and then returned. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

It is a reasonable inference that liquid poured from bottle labeled “Vermouth” is in effect Vermouth, an alcoholic beverage within purview of concluding portion of subd (b), where it is poured by bartender in on-sale liquor establishment in response to request for “a drink,” and there is no evidence to show that it was in fact not alcoholic. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Finding that licensee employed and permitted female entertainer to solicit and encourage patrons to buy her drinks under scheme by which she was to receive commission was supported, as against objection that there was insufficient proof that champagne cocktails purchased for entertainer and consumed by her were alcoholic beverages, where she testified that she ordered champagne cocktails and was served what purported to be such, that she had champagne in her home and knew how it tasted, and that drinks served her in licensed premises were either champagne or cheap wine. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Evidence was insufficient to support revocation of license on ground that licensees employed waitress to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting patrons to buy drinks, where it appeared, among other things, that waitress was not standing idly by, loafing or walking around aimlessly without purpose, but was engaged in her duties as witness or bartender, and where evidence that licensees knew she solicited drinks was unsupported. Garcia v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1753.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages by female employee of licensee for her consumption was sustained by testimony that entertainer employed by licensee asked agent of department to buy her champagne, though agent refused to do so. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250. In liquor license revocation proceeding, all that was required to support charge of employing or knowingly permitting woman to loiter around licensed premises for purpose of begging or soliciting patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages for her was knowledge of bartender imputed to licensee and evidence that woman solicited drinks from three persons in premises, one of whom was alcoholic beverage control agent. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

§ 25658. Sale to and consumption by person under 21 years of age; Use by peace officers to apprehend sellers of alcoholic beverages to minors

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), every person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away any alcoholic beverage to any person under 21 years of age is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Except as provided in Section 25667 or 25668, any person under 21 years of age who purchases any alcoholic beverage, or any person under 21 years of age who consumes any alcoholic beverage in any on-sale premises, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who violates subdivision (a) by purchasing any alcoholic beverage for, or furnishing, giving, or giving away any alcoholic beverage to, a person under 21 years of age, and the person under 21 years of age thereafter consumes the alcohol and thereby proximately causes great bodily injury or death to himself, herself, or any other person, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) Any on-sale licensee who knowingly permits a person under 21 years of age to consume any alcoholic beverage in the on-sale premises, whether or not the licensee has knowledge that the person is under 21 years of age, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(e)(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) or (3), or Section 25667 or 25668, any person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250), no part of which shall be suspended, or the person shall be required to perform not less than 24 hours or more than 32 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school, or a combination of a fine and community service as determined by the court. A second or subsequent violation of subdivision (b), where prosecution of the previous violation was not barred pursuant to Section 25667 or 25668, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or the person stated that drink contained vodka, and bartender, after he had furnished “double” of same drink, assented to agent’s statement that drink contained vodka, and that agent paid for both drinks. Greenblatt v. Munro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.
shall be required to perform not less than 36 hours or more than 48 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school, or a combination of a fine and community service as determined by the court. It is the intent of the Legislature that the community service requirements prescribed in this section require service at an alcohol or drug treatment program or facility or at a county coroner's office, if available, in the area where the violation occurred or where the person resides.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), any person who violates subdivision (a) by furnishing an alcoholic beverage, or causing an alcoholic beverage to be furnished, to a minor shall be punished by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), no part of which shall be suspended, and the person shall be required to perform not less than 24 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school.

(3) Any person who violates subdivision (c) shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for a minimum term of six months not to exceed one year, by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both imprisonment and fine.

(f) Persons under 21 years of age may be used by peace officers in the enforcement of this section to apprehend licensees, or employees or agents of licensees, or other persons who sell or furnish alcoholic beverages to minors. Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any person under 21 years of age who purchases or attempts to purchase any alcoholic beverage while under the direction of a peace officer is immune from prosecution for that purchase or attempt to purchase an alcoholic beverage. Guidelines with respect to the use of persons under 21 years of age as decoys shall be adopted and published by the department in accordance with the rulemaking portion of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Law enforcement-initiated minor decoy programs in operation prior to the effective date of regulatory guidelines adopted by the department shall be authorized as long as the minor decoy displays to the seller of alcoholic beverages the appearance of a person under 21 years of age. This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the department from taking disciplinary action against a licensee who sells alcoholic beverages to a minor decoy prior to the department's final adoption of regulatory guidelines. After the completion of every minor decoy program performed under this subdivision, the law enforcement agency using the decoy shall notify licensees within 72 hours of the results of the program. When the use of a minor decoy results in the issuance of a citation, the notification required shall be given to licensees and the department within 72 hours of the issuance of the citation. A law enforcement agency may comply with this requirement by leaving a written notice at the licensed premises addressed to the licensee, or by mailing a notice addressed to the licensee.

(g) The penalties imposed by this section do not preclude prosecution or the imposition of penalties under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 272 of the Penal Code and Section 13202.5 of the Vehicle Code.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

In action against tavern owner for injuries resulting from collision with automobile driven by minor who had been sold intoxicating liquor by the defendant, demurrer is properly sustained, as sale was too remote to be considered as proximate cause of injuries. Fleckner v. Dionne (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 246, 210 P2d 530, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1518.

Offense of giving alcoholic beverage to person under age of 21 years does not in every case evidence bad moral character, and therefore moral turpitude is not inherent in crime itself. Lorenz v. Board of Medical Examiners (1956) 46 Cal 2d 684, 296 P2d 537, 1956 Cal LEXIS 222.

Licentiate conducting sale of beverages under on-sale license is charged with active duty to prevent minors from consuming intoxicating liquor on licensed premises, and if licentiate through employee, has knowledge that such consumption is taking place there arises immediately active duty to prevent its continuance, and failure to prevent it is permitting such unlawful consumption, justifying suspension of license. Marucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 605, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2407; 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Violation of subd (b) need not be alleged, in proceeding under § 24200(b), authorizing suspension or revocation of liquor license when licensee permits violation of any penal provisions of law prohibiting use or possession of alcoholic beverages. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Licensee, in making sales of intoxicating liquors, is not required to act at his peril, but he must exercise caution which would be shown by reasonable and prudent man in same circumstances. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Licensee has no inherent right to sell liquor, and his engaging in that business may legitimately be subject to rigid conditions that will limit possibility of sales to children under twenty-one. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

A licensee does not act at his peril in selling liquor and if he uses due care and acts in good faith his license is not to be jeopardized because some minor representing himself as an adult succeeds in purchasing liquor. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

A complaint in a personal injury action against the employer of an allegedly intoxicated minor whose automobile collided with an automobile in which plaintiffs were riding stated a cause of action, where it was alleged that the minor’s intoxication was induced by his employer as the result of a Christmas party where the employer knowingly made available to the minor copious amounts of intoxicating beverage with knowledge that he was going to drive an automobile upon the public highways. B & P C § 25658, providing that every person who sells, furnishes or gives any alcoholic beverage to a minor is guilty of a misdemeanor was adopted for the purpose of protecting members of the general public from injuries resulting from the excessive use of intoxicating liquor. Presumably the legislature believed that most minors are neither physically nor mentally equipped to handle the consumption of intoxicating liquor. Brockett v. Kitchen Boyd Motor Co. (1972, Cal App 5th Dist) 24 Cal App 3d 87, 100 Cal Rptr 752, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1120, superseded by statute as stated in DeBolt v. Kragen Auto Supply, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 182 Cal App 3d 269, 227 Cal Rptr 258, 1986 Cal LEXIS 1703.

In an action to establish the liability of a convenience store franchisor for the sale of beer to an intoxicated minor by the franchisee, the trial court did not err in refusing to instruct the jury that the franchisor owed a nondelegable statutory duty of care with respect to the sale of alcoholic beverages. Although B & P C §§ 25602 and 25658, prohibit the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to minors and intoxicated persons, they provide no specific safeguards or precautions to be exercised by the licensee in that regard. Moreover, the case was tried on the theory that the franchisee was the agent of the franchisor, and to have permitted plaintiffs to drastically change their theory of trial after all the evidence was in would have been unfair to the franchisor. Wickham v. Southland Corp. (1985, Cal App 4th Dist) 168 Cal App 3d 49, 213 Cal Rptr 825, 1985 Cal LEXIS 2070.

Legislation enacted in 1978 (B & P C § 25658, subd. (a); CC § 1714), which eliminated social host liability for injuries resulting from the intoxication of a guest is not retroactive, and does not immunize social hosts from being civilly liable for injuries resulting from an accident occurring before the January 1, 1979, effective date of the legislation. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2810.

In a personal injury action against the hosts of a party who provided beer to an already intoxicated minor for injuries plaintiffs received shortly thereafter when the minor collided with another car while going at a high rate of speed, in a residential district, at a time he was legally intoxicated, the trial court properly granted the hosts’ summary judgment motion, since the hosts were immune from liability under CC § 1714, and B & P C § 25658, unless they knowingly provided alcoholic beverages to one who was unable to voluntarily resist their consumption because of some exceptional physical or mental condition, and youth, by itself, was not such a condition. Kloss v. Pratt (1986, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 3d 129, 222 Cal Rptr 723, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 2533.

B & P C § 25658(c) applies to any situation in which an individual purchases alcoholic beverages for an underage person; this includes, but is not limited to, the buyer-by-proxy and shoulder tap scenarios. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P3d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.
2. Construction

Cal Code Reg. tit. 4, § 141(b)(5) does not require the identification take place inside the premises where the sale was made. Department of Alcohol Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1687, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 339, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 972.

Whenever term “beer” is used without words of qualification, it signifies malt liquor and an intoxicating beverage. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

When person is accused under section of having sold “beer” to minor, court takes judicial notice that it means an intoxicant. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

The firemen’s rule, providing that negligence in causing a fire furnishes no basis for liability to a professional fireman injured fighting the fire, is applicable to policemen, and precluded recovery by a policeman for personal injuries sustained while attempting to arrest a minor for being drunk in public as the result of defendants’ minor daughter’s unlawful serving of alcoholic beverages at defendants’ residence. Since the policeman was not one of the class of persons for whose protection B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), prohibiting the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to persons under the age of 21, was adopted, the doctrine that violation of a statute gives rise to a presumption of negligence was not applicable and did not preclude the application of the firemen’s rule. Walters v. Sloan (1977) 20 Cal 3d 199, 142 Cal Rptr 152, 571 P2d 609, 1977 Cal LEXIS 188.

Defendant minor’s contribution of money toward the purchase of alcoholic beverages, which were subsequently consumed by a minor companion, was not sufficient to establish, under Pen C § 31, a joint enterprise or conspiracy among the minors to violate B & P C § 25658, subd. (a) (furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor). Defendant did not himself purchase the liquor and there was no evidence to indicate that he had exercised any control over it. Bennett v. Letterly (1977, Cal App 4th Dist) 74 Cal App 3d 901, 141 Cal Rptr 682, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1974.

A complaint against a minor in a personal injury action based on the minor’s violation of B & P C § 25658, in furnishing alcoholic beverages to another minor who, while under the influence of alcohol, negligently operated his car so as to collide with plaintiff’s vehicle, and which alleged that defendant’s conduct was the proximate cause of plaintiff’s injuries, stated a cause of action sufficient to withstand a demurrer. The statute imposed a duty on defendant even though he was a minor, and plaintiff was within the class of persons for whose protection the statute was enacted. A presumption of negligence arises from the violation of a statute which was enacted to protect a class of persons of which the plaintiff is a member against the type of harm which the plaintiff suffered as a result of the violation of the statute. King v. Ladyman (1978, Cal App 3d Dist) 81 Cal App 3d 837, 146 Cal Rptr 782, 1978 Cal App LEXIS 1628.

In order to violate B & P C § 25658, subd. (a) (making it a misdemeanor to furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age), there must be some affirmative act of furnishing alcohol. Mere nonfeasance does not violate the statute, and allegations which do not allege that a defendant actually furnished alcohol fail to state a cause of action for negligence under the statute. Sarafin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

Under B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), making it a misdemeanor to furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age, a party giver furnished beer within the meaning of the statute where he not only contributed to the common fund for the purchase of the beer, but directed two guests to pick up the beer, and where he also attached the keg, facilitating access to the beer. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

To obtain a conviction under B & P C § 25658(a), the People need not prove the offender knew the person to whom he or she furnished, sold or gave away alcoholic beverage was in fact not yet 21 years old. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P3d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

Legislative history indicates the legislature intended that a conviction of violating B & P C § 25658(c) does not require a showing the offender had knowledge of the imbibers’ age or other criminal intent; accordingly, although the People must prove an accused “purchased” an alcoholic beverage “for” an underage person, the People need not also prove the accused knew that person was under 21 years of age. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal. 4th 254, 17 Cal. Rptr. 3d 645, 95 P.3d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

3. Defenses

In a mandamus proceeding to compel the State Board of Equalization to set aside an order suspending liquor licenses of cafe owners following a decision of the board that they sold whiskey to a minor in violation of this statute, a finding that the board’s decision was not supported by substantial evidence would not be disturbed on appeal, where it appeared that the clerk in charge of the cafe asked the minor to show his identification as to his age, that the minor exhibited a registration card issued in the name of another person; that the minor signed a piece of paper copying the name of the other person, and that the clerk compared the signatures, thought there was a fair resemblance, and made the sale. Young v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal. App.) 90 Cal. App. 2d 256, 202 P.2d 587, 1949 Cal. App. LEXIS 969.

Ruling that § 25660 is not available as defense in prosecution under this section, though erroneous, does not affect any substantial right of defendant where it is conceded that defendant did not comply with § 25660 on occasion of sale on which prosecution is based. People v. Garrigan (1955, Cal. App. Dep't Super Ct) 137 Cal. App. 2d Supp. 854, 289 P.2d 892, 1955 Cal. App. LEXIS 1273.

Although a violation of B & P C § 25658 (prohibition against sale of alcoholic beverages to minors), can occur despite the seller’s lack of knowledge that the purchaser is under the age of 21, the seller’s liability is not absolute, since B & P C § 25660, allows the seller to rely on bona fide evidence of majority and identity. Provigo Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal. 4th 561, 28 Cal. Rptr. 2d 638, 869 P.2d 1163, 1994 Cal. LEXIS 1391.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board did not abuse its discretion in upholding the suspensions of the liquor licenses of two grocery stores for selling alcohol to minors in violation of B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), where the stores had sold alcoholic beverages to minors acting as police decoys. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, prohibits the sale to, or purchase by, minors of alcoholic beverages, the Constitution does not preclude the use of minors as decoys. An interpretation allowing the use of decoys promotes the intent of the constitutional provision to protect minors from harm associated with the consumption of alcohol. To provide licensees a defense based on the use of underage decoys would produce an absurd result. Also, although the Legislature rejected a proposal that would have granted immunity for underage persons who buy alcohol at the direction of peace officers, unpassed bills have little value as evidence of legislative intent. Further, even if the stores were not knowingly engaged in illicit activity, the mature-looking underage decoys did nothing to induce them to violate the law, and routinely checking identification of all purchasers would not have been unduly burden-some. Provigo Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal. 4th 561, 28 Cal. Rptr. 2d 638, 869 P.2d 1163, 1994 Cal. LEXIS 1391.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control improperly suspended a restaurant’s liquor license for selling an alcoholic beverage to a 19-year-old decoy (B & P C § 25658(a)). Although a police officer was seated at a nearby table and observed the transaction, the officer failed to enter the licensed premises and have the minor decoy who purchased the alcoholic beverage make a face to face identification of the alleged seller as required by Cal. C Regs., tit 4, § 141(b)(5), which is a defense to any action brought pursuant to § 25658. Acapulco Restaurants, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1998, Cal. App. 2d Dist) 67 Cal. App. 4th 575, 79 Cal. Rptr. 2d 126, 1998 Cal. App. LEXIS 896.

In a prosecution for sale of an alcoholic beverage to a minor (B & P C § 25658), the trial court properly refused to instruct the jury to find defendant not guilty if the jurors found police had not complied with specific guidelines established by regulation requiring a decoy to answer truthfully when asked any questions about his or her age. Although the Legislature directed the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to adopt and publish guidelines for the use of underage decoys, there was no statutory directive for the Department to determine what action or inaction would create a defense to conduct made criminal when the Legislature enacted § 25658. Absent an indication the Legislature delegated such power to the Department, this would constitute an improper usurpation of the Legislature’s function to define what is criminal conduct. People v. Figueroa (1999, Cal. App. 4th Dist) 68 Cal. App. 4th 1409, 81 Cal. Rptr. 2d 216, 1999 Cal. LEXIS 5.

Recognizing that the prosecution need not prove offender’s knowledge of age in order to establish a violation of B & P C § 25658(c), a defendant is entitled to raise an affirmative defense, for which he bears the burden of proof, that he honestly and reasonably believed the person for whom he or she purchased alcohol was at least 21 years old. Recognizing the viability of a mistake of fact defense is consistent with the modern trend away from strict liability for criminal offenses as well as with Pen C § 20 and the statutory scheme of which B & P C § 25658(c) is but a part. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal. 4th 254, 17 Cal. Rptr. 3d 645, 95 P.3d 906, 2004 Cal. LEXIS 7669.

4. Hearing

Where licensee accused of having sold beer to minor was represented at administrative hearing of department by member of bar who actively participated in proceedings, cross-examined witnesses, introduced evidence and made use of all available facts or authorities to effectuate licensee’s exoneration, and where attorney made no motion for continuance to enable licensee to be present in person, but offered in evidence transcript of proceedings of licensee’s trial in municipal court for purpose of proving his innocence, he is in no position, in subsequent mandamus proceeding to compel department to set aside order revoking license, to complain of his failure before department or to claim that he was denied due process. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal. App. 2d Dist) 145 Cal. App. 2d 601, 302 P.2d 818, 1956 Cal. LEXIS 1382.

5. Evidence: Generally

Although evidence of identification of bartender as having illegally sold alcoholic liquor to minors may have been hearsay, such evidence is admissible to supplement direct evidence of identity. Moyer v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal. App. 1st Dist) 140 Cal. App. 2d 651, 295 P.2d 583, 1956 Cal. LEXIS 2296.

Police officer testifying in liquor license case is, as expert in field, competent to give his opinion that a drink served a minor

Presumption in liquor licensing cases that liquor is served when requested is not overcome by presumption of innocence; it may support a finding, and it prevails until controverted. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1920.

ABC was permitted to suspend a store’s liquor license after a clerk sold an alcoholic beverage to a minor acting as a police decoy. Cal. Code Regs. tit. 4, § 141(b)(5) permitted the police to conduct a face-to-face identification of the clerk outside rather than inside the store. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1687, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 339, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 972.

6. Evidence: Sufficiency

Finding that liquor licensee sold whiskey to minor is supported by evidence that minor ordered “bourbon on rocks” and it was served to him, where licensee did not see fit to attack such prima facie case, but simply offered evidence to excuse violation, claiming inadvertence. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1920.

Finding of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that liquor licensee sold beer to minor in violation of law is sustained by evidence that two officers saw minor, a 15-year-old boy, make the purchase, by boy’s testimony that he purchased beer from licensee, and by licensee’s admissions of his sale of beverage. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license because of sale to minor and for permitting minor to consume liquor on licensed premises, fair inference arises that minor was served drink she had ordered from evidence that she ordered coke and whiskey and was served drink by waitress without comment which, according to police officer, was amber colored fluid smelling of alcohol which he testified was bourbon, and where there was no evidence to contrary. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Evidence is sufficient to sustain ruling, suspending license, under this section, where it shows that minor was too young in appearance to be twenty-one years of age, that she weighed nineteen pounds more than person described in identification which she presented, and that she was three and one-half years younger than such person and had blue eyes instead of hazel. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Suspension of liquor licensee for selling or furnishing alcoholic beverage to minor was sustained by evidence that waitress placed alcoholic drink on table and it was handed to minor, and it was no defense that minor ordered nonalcoholic drink and got alcoholic one through misunderstanding. Nickola v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 162 Cal App 2d 449, 328 P2d 271, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1895.

Conviction of conspiracy to violate this section and § 25663 was supported by evidence that minor girls were employed by defendant as hostesses and waitresses, that defendant did not ask their ages but was on notice from their appearance that there was a question as to their minority, that defendant and manager of premises agreed to make as good use of girls as possible, that defendant gave orders to have girls “push” sale of champagne and that their purpose was to associate with male customers and induce them to spend money, that defendant encouraged girls with respect to their conduct with customers, and that he instructed one of the girls to serve champagne to customer and to other girls. People v. Holstun (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 479, 334 P2d 645, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2359.

7. Local Ordinances

State law did not preempt an ordinance that prohibited underage drinking, as shown by blood alcohol, because Cal Const Art XX, § 22, does not refer to consumption and the ordinance was not duplicative of H & S C § 11999, subd. (e); B & P C §§ 25662, subd. (a), 25665, 25658, subd. (b); or Veh C §§ 23136, 23140. In re Jennifer S. (2009, 1st Dist) 179 Cal App 4th 64, 101 Cal Rptr 3d 467, 2009 Cal App LEXIS 1803, review denied, (2010, Cal.) 2010 Cal LEXIS 1230.

§ 25658.1. Offer in compromise not permitted for violation of Section 25658; Revocation of license

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, no licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise pursuant to Section 23095 for a third or any subsequent violation of Section 25658 that occurs within 36 months of the initial violation.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 24200, the department may revoke a license for a third violation of Section 25658 that occurs within any 36-month period. This provision shall not be construed to limit the department’s authority and discretion to revoke a license prior to a third violation when the circumstances warrant that penalty.

(c) For purposes of this section, no violation may be considered for purposes of determination of the penalty until it has become final.

1999 Amendment: Added subd (c).
2004 Amendment: Substituted “third” for “second” after “23095 for a” in subd (a).

1959 Amendment: Amended the section to read: “Bona fide evidence of majority and identity of the person is a document issued by a federal, state, county, or municipal government, or subdivision or agency thereof, including, but not limited to, a motor vehicle operator’s license, a registration certificate issued under the Federal Selective Service Act, or an identification card issued to a member of the Armed Forces. Proof that the defendant-licensee, or his or her employee or agent, demanded, was shown and acted in reliance upon such bona fide evidence in any transaction, employment, use, or permission forbidden by Sections 25658, 25663 or 25665 shall be a defense to any criminal prosecution therefor or to any proceedings for the suspension or revocation of any license based thereon.”

1987 Amendment: (1) Amended the first sentence by (a) deleting “,” a registration certificate issued under the Federal Selective Service Act, after “operator’s license”; and (b) adding “,” which contains the name, date of birth, description, and picture of the person; and (2) deleting the comma after “employment, use” in the second sentence.

2005 Amendment: (1) Redesignated the first sentence of the section to be subd (a); (2) substituted “that” for “which” in subd (a); (3) redesignated the last sentence of the section to be subd (c); (4) added subd (b); and (5) substituted “Section” for “Sections” in subd (c).

2006 Amendment: Amended subd (c) by (1) adding “or her” after “defendant-licensee, or his”; (2) adding the comma after “demanded, was shown”; (3) deleting “such” after “in reliance upon”; (4) adding the comma after “transaction, employment, use”; and (5) adding the comma after “Section 25658, 25663.”

2009 Amendment: (1) Amended subd (a) by (a) substituting the comma for “or” after “operator’s license”; (b) deleting the comma after “Armed Forces”; and (c) adding “, or a valid passport issued by the United States or by a foreign government”; and (2) substituted “but does include date of birth and a photo, further proof of majority shall not be required” for “proof of majority may be further substantiated if a motor vehicle operator’s license or other valid bona fide identification issued by any government jurisdiction is also provided” in subd (b). (As amended Stats 2009 ch 405, compared to the section as it read prior to 2009. This section was also amended by an earlier chapter, ch 142. See Gov C § 9605.)

2010 Amendment: (1) Added “any of the following:” in the introductory clause of subd (a); (2) added subdivision designations (a)(1) and (a)(3); (3) amended subd (a)(1) by adding (a) “valid”; and (b) “that contains the name, date of birth, description, and picture of the person.;” (4) added subd (a)(2); (5) amended subd (a)(3) by (a) substituting “A valid” for “an”; (b) substituting “includes a date of birth” for “contains the name, date of birth, description,”; and (c) deleting “, or a valid passport issued by the United States or by a foreign government” at the end; (6) deleted former subd (b) which read: “(b) In the event an identification card issued to a member of the Armed Forces is provided as proof of majority and lacks a physical description, but does include date of birth and a photo, further proof of majority shall not be required.”; and (7) redesignated former subd (c) to be subd (b).

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

This statute does not impose on licensee the duty of determining at their peril whether the drivers license in a bona fide of the party presenting it and they have a right to assume the validity of such license and to accept the holder as the legal owner unless his personal appearance demonstrates the contrary above mere suspicion. Conti v. State Board of Equalization (1952, Cal App) 113 Cal App 2d 465, 248 P2d 31, 1952 Cal LEXIS 1391.

If liquor licensee delegates to employee task of ascertaining because of appearance of majority and identity, required by this section, as defense to proceeding for suspension of license for selling intoxicating liquor to minor, he is bound by employee's conduct as if he had acted in person. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

A licensee does not act at his peril in selling liquor, and if he uses due care and acts in good faith his license is not to be jeopardized because a minor representing himself as an adult succeeds in purchasing liquor. Raab v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 4th Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 333, 2 Cal Rptr 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1273.

Although a violation of B & P C § 25658 (prohibition against sale of alcoholic beverages to minors), can occur despite the seller's lack of knowledge that the purchaser is under the age of 21, the seller's liability is not absolute, since B & P C § 25660, allows the seller to rely on bona fide evidence of majority and identity. Pub Co. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 638, 869 P2d 1163, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

2. Purpose

Purpose of section, when enacted, was to relieve vendors of alcoholic beverages from having in all events to determine at their peril the purchaser's age, and it was intended to furnish readily applicable standard usable under conditions generally obtaining which, when complied with, would constitute a defense to liquor licenese was under 21. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1376.

Purpose of requiring documentary evidence as proof of identity is that licensee, or his agent, may, by comparing picture, description, or signature appearing on documents with appearance or handwriting of person representing them, have reasonable basis for concluding that person in question is individual depicted in documents, and has reached his majority as indicated by information therein. Pastime Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 114, 323 P2d 551, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

In adopting this section legislature provided method whereby liquor licensee can protect himself in any case of doubt as to age of prospective customer. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

The provisions of B & P C § 25660, relating to bona fide evidence of majority and identity, furnish a licensee under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act with a procedure to protect himself and in effect establish an exception to the general prohibition against transactions with minors. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

3. Construction

Section, as it read prior to 1955 amendment, should be interpreted to apply to each individual sale, and any seller acting in violation of such requirement must have done so at his own risk. People v. Garrigan (1955, Cal App Dep't Super Ct) 137 Cal App 2d Supp 584, 289 P2d 892, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1273.

Act of questioning minor and seeing proof of age two or three weeks before sale is not "immediately prior" to sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

4. Requisites for Successful Defense

To protect a vendor, evidence of majority and identity of purchaser would have to be presented by person whose appearance is such as to make it doubtful on which side of line dividing minority from majority the purchaser is; when doubt as to fact would arise in good faith, vendor can rely upon documentary evidence of majority and identity, such as motor vehicle operators' licenses and draft board certificates, but bona fides of such documents must be ascertained if lack of it would be disclosed by reasonable inspections, circumstances considered; such circumstances include vendor's right to rely upon usual presumptions of CCP § 1963. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1376.

To prevail with defense section, it is incumbent on merchant to demand documentary proof of customer's majority "before furnishing any alcoholic beverage to a minor," and where hearing officer and department do not believe merchant's story that minor exhibited driver's license which purportedly proved his majority, such defense is not established. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1382.

It is essential to successful defense under this section that operator's license or other evidence of majority be presented by one whose appearance indicates that he or she could be twenty-one years of age, and reasonable inspection of document must be made by licensee or his agent. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

There are three tests by which to measure conduct of liquor...
licensee in determining whether there has been compliance with this section: (1) licensee who makes diligent inspection of documentary evidence of majority and identity offered by customer is entitled to rely on its apparent genuineness; (2) he must exercise caution that would be shown by reasonable and prudent person in same or similar circumstances; and (3) he must make inspection of documentary evidence and his appraisal of physical appearance of customer “immediately prior” to sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

In proceedings for suspension of a license under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act for violation of B & P C § 25658, subds. (a), (b), by selling and furnishing an alcoholic beverage to a minor and by permitting the minor to consume an alcoholic beverage in the licensee’s premises, the licensee may assert reliance on the original demand and exhibition of evidence of majority and identity (B & P C § 25660), on entry upon the premises, in selling, furnishing or permitting the consumption of an alcoholic beverage by that minor following the entry and such defense is not lost because a second employee pursued an inadequate inquiry before serving the minor, where the minor patron had exhibited to one employee on entry on the premises, and at all times thereafter had on his person, what was found to be bona fide evidence of majority and identity. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Reliance in good faith upon a document issued by one of the governmental entities enumerated in B & P C § 25660, constituting a defense to a liquor liability suit based upon dealings with a minor, even though the document is altered, forged, or otherwise spurious. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 5th Dist) 267 Cal App 2d 895, 73 Cal Rptr 352, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

B & P C § 25660 applies to fake identifications that purport to indicate majority, apparently complying with this section, and bartender testified that he believed document to be official, Board of Equalization and courts could not suspend license for selling to a minor, in absence of a supported finding that bartender acted in bad faith and without diligence. Keane v. Reilly (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 130 Cal App 2d 407, 279 P2d 152, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1378.

Where purchaser of liquor presented card issued by draft board to purchaser which accurately described him, and his appearance physically was that of one who might either be a minor or have attained his majority, vendor is entitled to rely upon presumption that purchaser had not committed crime of altering certificate. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

Liquor licensee establishes defense under section where licensee shows that he relied on draft card from which it appeared that minor was 21, and where, notwithstanding the birth date on card had been altered, there is no substantial support for court’s finding that alteration should have been apparent from reasonably careful inspection, where there is no finding that licensee acted in bad faith or discovered alteration, where card accurately described minor, and where his physical appearance was that of person who might be under or over 21. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

If document presented does not contain sufficient information to enable licensee or his agent reasonably to conclude that holder is person described therein, it does not meet requirements of this section. Pastime Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 114, 323 P2d 551, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1969.

In disciplinary proceeding against on-sale liquor licensee charging sale of liquor to named minor and that he was evidence of the employee’s majority relied upon by him did not consist of documents issued by a governmental entity (B & P C § 25660); a licensee in such case has the dual burden of showing, not only that he acted in good faith, free from an intent to violate the law, but also that he exercised such good faith in reliance upon a document delineated by § 25660, and he may not meet his burden by a showing of good faith in relying on other evidence. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 5th Dist) 267 Cal App 2d 895, 73 Cal Rptr 352, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

6. Evidence: Sufficiency

A finding that the State Board of Equalization’s decision was not supported by substantial evidence would not be disturbed on appeal, where it appeared that the clerk in charge of the cafe asked the minor to show his identification as to his age, that the minor exhibited a registration card issued in the name of another person; that the minor signed a piece of paper copying the name of the other person, and that the clerk compared the signatures, thought there was a fair resemblance, and made the sale. Young v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 90 Cal App 2d 256, 202 P2d 587, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 968.

Where evidence showed that before purchasing an intoxicant purchaser submitted to the bartender a card purporting to indicate majority, apparently complying with this section, and bartender testified that he believed document to be official, Board of Equalization and courts could not suspend license for selling to a minor, in absence of a supported finding that bartender acted in bad faith and without diligence. Keane v. Reilly (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 130 Cal App 2d 407, 279 P2d 152, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1378.

§ 25662. Possession by person under 21 years of age in public place; Penalties; Seizure, destruction, and impoundment by peace officer

(a) Except as provided in Section 25667 or 25668, any person under 21 years of age who has any alcoholic beverage in his or her possession on any street or highway or in any public place or in any place open to the public is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or the person shall be required to perform not less than 24 hours or more than 32 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed or is not attending school. A second or subsequent violation shall be punishable as a misdemeanor and the person shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or required to perform not less than 36 hours or more than 48 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed or is not attending school, or a combination of fine and community service as the court deems just. It is the intent of the Legislature that the community service requirements prescribed in this section require service at an alcohol or drug treatment program or facility or at a county coroner’s office, if available, in the area where the violation occurred or where the person resides. This section does not apply to possession by a person under 21 years of age making a delivery of an alcoholic beverage in pursuance of the order of his or her parent, responsible adult relative, or any other adult designated by the parent or legal guardian, or in pursuance of his or her employment. That person shall have a complete defense if he or she was following, in a timely manner, the reasonable instructions of his or her parent, legal guardian, responsible adult relative, or adult designee relating to disposition of the alcoholic beverage.

(b) Unless otherwise provided by law, where a peace officer has lawfully entered the premises, the peace officer may seize any alcoholic beverage in plain view that is in the possession of, or provided to, a person under 21 years of age at social gatherings, when those gatherings are open to the public, 10 or more persons under 21 years of age are participating, persons under 21 years of age are consuming alcoholic beverages, and there is no supervision of the social gathering by a parent or guardian of one or more of the participants.

Where a peace officer has seized alcoholic beverages pursuant to this subdivision, the officer may destroy any alcoholic beverage contained in an open container and in the possession of, or provided to, a person under 21 years of age, and, with respect to alcoholic beverages in unopened containers, the officer shall impound those beverages for a period not to exceed seven working days pending a request for the release of those beverages by a person 21 years of age or older who is the lawful owner or resident of the property upon which the alcoholic beverages were seized. If no one requests release of the seized alcoholic beverages within that period, those beverages may be destroyed.

(c) The penalties imposed by this section do not preclude prosecution or the imposition of penalties under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 13202.5 of the Vehicle Code.

Amended: 1963 Amendment: Added “or in any place open to the public” before “is guilty”.

1996 Amendment: Substituted (1) “that” for “which” after “in plain view” in the first paragraph of subd (b); and (2) “possession” for “possession” after “container and in the” in the second paragraph of subd (b).
1999 Amendment: The amendment made no changes.
1990 Amendment: Substituted subd (b) for former subd (a) which read: “(a) Any person under the age of 21 years who has any alcoholic beverage in his or her possession on any street or highway in any public place or in any place open to the public is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section does not apply to possession by a person under the age of 21 years making a delivery of an alcoholic beverage in pursuance of the order of his or her parent, responsible adult relative, or any other adult designated by the parent or legal guardian, or in pursuance of his or her employment. That person shall have a complete defense if he or she was following, in a timely manner, the reasonable instructions of his or her parent, legal guardian,
2. Construction with Other Laws

Defendant, placed under arrest for possession of alcohol by a minor, could not be arrested or prosecuted under B & P C § 25662, relating to possession of an alcoholic beverage by a minor in a public place, but was chargeable under Veh C § 23123.5 [renumbered], covering such possession “in a motor vehicle”; defendant was not only subject to the extra penalties imposed by that section but was also entitled to the rights of a person charged thereunder, including the right to be taken before a magistrate so that he might be admitted to jail. People v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 1st Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 935, 92 Cal Rptr 545, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1043.

A booking search of a juvenile defendant legally arrested under B & P C § 25662, for possession of alcoholic beverages in a public place was proper, and marijuana found on his person was therefore admissible in evidence against him. While B & P C § 24209, provides that a person arrested for such an offense may be released without being taken before a magistrate on his signing an agreement to appear in court, there is no requirement that such a person must be released without bail or without booking; it is a matter within the discretion of the arresting officer or the booking officer. People v. Superior Court (1973, Cal App 1st Dist) 30 Cal App 3d 257, 106 Cal Rptr 211, 1973 Cal App LEXIS 1155.

State law did not preempt an ordinance that prohibited underage drinking, as shown by blood alcohol, because Cal Const Art XX, § 22, does not refer to consumption and the ordinance was not duplicative of H & S C § 11999, subd. (e); B & P C §§ 25662, subd. (a), 25665, 25658, subd. (b); or Veh C §§ 23136, 23140. In re Jennifer S. (2009, 1st Dist) 179 Cal App 4th 64, 101 Cal Rptr 3d 467, 2009 Cal App LEXIS 1803, review denied, (2010, Cal.) 2010 Cal. LEXIS 1230.

Defendant was not advised of his right to elect a misdemeanor prosecution as provided in Pen C § 17(d)(1), and of his right to a jury trial and appointed counsel if he so elected. This was fundamental structural error; thus, defendant's conviction for being a minor in possession of an alcoholic beverage in violation of B & P C § 25662(a), which had been charged as an infraction pursuant to Pen C § 19.8, had to be reversed. People v. Smith (2012) 2012 Cal App LEXIS 535.

§ 25663. Employment of person under 21; Employment of person under 18 by off-sale licensee; Employment in bona fide public eating place licensed for on-sale of alcoholic beverages

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no licensee that sells or serves alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises shall employ any person under 21 years of age for the purpose of preparing or serving alcoholic beverages. Every person who employs or uses the services of any person under the age of 21 years in or on that portion of any premises, during business hours, which are primarily designed and used for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Any off-sale licensee who employs or uses the services of any person under the age of 18 years for the sale of alcoholic beverages shall be subject to suspension or revocation of his or her license, except that a person under the age of 18 years may be employed or used for those purposes if that person is under the continuous supervision of a person 21 years of age or older.

(c) Any person between 18 and 21 years of age employed in any bona fide public eating place, as defined in Sections 23038 and 23038.1, which is licensed for the on-sale of alcoholic beverages, may serve alcoholic beverages to consumers only under the following circumstances: such service occurs in an area primarily designed and used for the sale and service of food for consumption on the premises; and the primary duties of the employee shall be the service of meals to guests, with the service of alcoholic beverages being incidental to such duties. For purposes of this subdivision, “serve” or “service” includes the delivery, presentation, opening, or pouring of an alcoholic beverage.

2. Abuse of Discretion

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse its discretion in suspending a liquor license because of the licensee’s employment of a minor in violation of B & P C § 25663, where, although the licensee acted in good faith, the evidence of the employee’s majority relied upon by him did not consist of documents issued by a governmental entity (B & P C § 25660); a licensee in such case has the dual burden of proving, not only that he acted in good faith, free from an intent to violate the law, but also that he exercised such good faith in reliance upon a document delineated by § 25660, and he may not meet his burden by a showing of good faith in relying on other evidence. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 5th Dist) 267 Cal App 2d 895, 73 Cal Rptr 352, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

§ 25663.5. Employment of persons 18 to 21 years of age as musicians

Notwithstanding Section 25663 or any other provision of law, persons 18 to 21 years of age may be employed as musicians, for entertainment purposes only, during business hours on premises which are primarily designed and used for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, if live acts, demonstrations, or exhibitions which involve the exposure of the private parts or buttocks of any participant or the breasts of any female participant are not allowed on such premises. However, the area of such employment shall be limited to a portion of the premises that is restricted to the use exclusively of musicians or entertainers in the performance of their functions, and no alcoholic beverages shall be sold, served, consumed, or taken into that area.

$ 25664. Advertisements appealing to minors

(a)(1) The use, in any advertisement of alcoholic beverages, of any subject matter, language, or slogan addressed to and intended to encourage minors to drink the alcoholic beverages, is prohibited.

(2) Signage or flyers advertising an establishment that serves alcoholic beverages to individuals under the age of 21 years are prohibited under § 25665. Persons under 21 years of age on premises

Any licensee under an on-sale license issued for public premises, as defined in Section 23039, who permits a person under the age of 21 years to enter and remain in the licensed premises without lawful business therein is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person under the age of 21 years who enters and remains in the licensed public premises without lawful business therein is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200), no part of which shall be suspended.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: (1) Substituted “in” for “on” before “the licensed premises” in the first sentence and (2) added the second sentence.

3. Local Ordinances

1. Generally
Where minor is present in barroom and bartender is inactive or passive with respect to his affirmative duty to ascertain age of patrons, such passive conduct on part of bartender amounts to “permitting” minor to be present in barroom. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.

Married woman 18 years of age who accompanies her husband into on-sale licensed premises does not come within exception stated in this section that prohibition against minors being on on-sale premises is not applicable to person under 21 years of age who is on premises on lawful business, where husband was in barroom merely as patron of alcoholic beverage licensees. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.
§ 25666. Appearance of minor at hearing

In any hearing on an accusation charging a licensee with a violation of Sections 25658, 25663, and 25665, the department shall produce the alleged minor for examination at the hearing unless he or she is unavailable as a witness because he or she is dead or unable to attend the hearing because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, or unless the licensee has waived, in writing, the appearance of the minor. When a minor is absent because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, a reasonable continuance shall be granted to allow for the appearance of the minor if the administrative law judge finds that it is reasonably likely that the minor can be produced within a reasonable amount of time. Nothing in this section shall prevent the department from taking testimony of the minor as provided in Section 11511 of the Government Code.

Amendments:
1987 Amendment: (1) Added “he or she is unavailable as a witness because he or she is dead or unable to attend the hearing because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, or unless” in the first sentence; (2) added the second sentence; and (3) substituted “the” for “such” after “testimony of” in the third sentence.

§ 25667. Immunity from prosecution under specified circumstances

(a) Any person under the age of 21 years shall be immune from criminal prosecution under subdivision (a) of Section 25662 and subdivision (b) of Section 25658, where the person establishes all of the following:

(1) The underage person called 911 and reported that either himself or herself or another person was in need of medical assistance due to alcohol consumption.

(2) The underage person was the first person to make the 911 report.

(3) The underage person, who reported that another person was in need of medical assistance, remained on the scene with the other person until that medical assistance arrived and cooperated with medical assistance and law enforcement personnel on the scene.

(b) This section shall not provide immunity from criminal prosecution for any offense that involves activities made dangerous by the consumption of alcoholic beverages, including, but not limited to, a violation of Section 23103 of the Vehicle Code, as specified by Section 23103.5 of the Vehicle Code, or a violation of Sections 23152 and 23153 of the Vehicle Code.

Former B & P C § 25667, similar to the present section, was added Stats 1976 ch 486 § 1, and repealed Stats 2008 ch 508 § 6 (AB 3071), effective January 1, 2009. See B & P C § 5663.
§ 25668. Qualified students exempt from prosecution for tasting alcoholic beverage as specified

(a) A qualified student may taste an alcoholic beverage, and both the student and the qualified academic institution in which the student is enrolled shall not be subject to criminal prosecution under subdivision (a) of Section 25658 and subdivision (a) of Section 25662, if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The qualified student tastes the alcoholic beverage while enrolled in a qualified academic institution.

(2) The qualified academic institution has established an Associate’s degree or Bachelor’s degree program in enology or brewing that is designed to train industry professionals in the production of wine or beer.

(3) The qualified student tastes the alcoholic beverage for educational purposes as part of the instruction in a course required for an Associate’s degree or Bachelor’s degree.

(4) The alcoholic beverage remains in the control of an authorized instructor of the qualified academic institution who is at least 21 years of age.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a student under 21 years of age to receive an alcoholic beverage unless it is delivered as part of the student’s curriculum requirements.

(c) A license or permit is not required to be held by a qualified academic institution engaging in the activities authorized by this section, provided an extra fee or charge is not imposed for the alcoholic beverages tasted.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

1. “Qualified academic institution” means a public college or university accredited by a commission recognized by the United States Department of Education.

2. “Qualified student” means a student enrolled in a qualified academic institution who is at least 18 years of age.

3. “Taste” means to draw an alcoholic beverage into the mouth, but does not include swallowing or otherwise consuming the alcoholic beverage.

§ 25750. Power of department to make rules; Nude persons; County option

(a) The department shall make and prescribe those reasonable rules as may be necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent of Section 22 of Article XX of the California Constitution and to enable it to exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred upon it by that section or by this division, not inconsistent with any statute of this state, including particularly this division and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(b) Any regulation which excludes nude persons from licensed premises shall not apply to a nude person at licensed premises located at a nudist resort or nudist campground which was in existence prior to January 1, 1977, and whose operation is in conformance with local land use regulations.

(c) Subdivision (b) is applicable only in a county where the board of supervisors of the county in which the licensed premises is located adopts an ordinance or resolution making subdivision (b) applicable in that county, and the sheriff of that county certifies that no extraordinary police problem would be created thereby.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Particular Rules and Regulations
3. Applications and Licenses
4. Prices
5. Employees and Entertainment

1. Generally

Former Board of Equalization could not, under the guise of rule making, in effect usurp the power of the legislature by attempting to enlarge and extend the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1945, Cal App) 69 Cal App 2d 639, 160 P2d 37, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 705.

An invalid rule of the State Board of Equalization was not ratified by the subsequent passage of this statute and former Stats 1935 p 1123 § 38 (now § 25006). Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 438, 199 P2d 34, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1487.

Fact that person could conjure up a hypothetical situation as to which rule of Board of Equalization might have been unreasonable did not require that rule be held unconstitutional in every case of facts actually before court. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Board of Equalization had broad power to determine what was contrary to public welfare or morals and to prohibit licensee from doing or permitting any such acts on licensed premises. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

In determining whether rule of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control constitutes proper exercise of police power, appellate court is limited to ascertaining whether object of rule is one for which police power may be invoked and, if so, whether rule bears reasonable relation to object sought to be obtained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 729, 22 Cal Rptr 694, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2304.

In evaluating an equal protection attack against a regulatory statute or regulation, it is improper to isolate its effects on a specific segment of the affected class and to sustain the attack if found deficient as to that segment alone; the overall effect on the entire class must be viewed. Hence, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board improperly based its finding that a rule of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, disqualifying spouses of disqualified persons from holding liquor licenses, was unconstitutional sex discrimination, by considering the effect on spouses of law enforcement officers only and ignoring the multitude of spouses of other employees of sheriff, police, district attorney and Alcoholic Beverage Control offices, all of whom were disqualified from holding liquor licenses and most of whom would probably be male. Reece v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

2. Particular Rules and Regulations

Where the act itself defines what constitutes wine, a ruling contrary to that definition is ineffective. Tux Ginger Ale Co. v. Davis (1936, Cal App) 12 Cal App 2d 73, 54 P2d 1122, 1936 Cal App LEXIS 979.

Rule may not be enacted prohibiting licensed dealers in beer from purchasing or importing beer produced by out-of-state brewers unless the latter obtains certificates of compliance. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1945, Cal App) 69 Cal App 2d 639, 160 P2d 37, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 705.

Cal Adm Code § 70 [Cal Code Reg], requiring liquor licensee whose licensed premises have been placed “out of bounds” or “off limits” by armed forces disciplinary control board to post two notices of that fact in conspicuous places on his premises, is in excess of rule-making authority vested in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly set aside decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending on-sale beer license held by licensees who refused to comply with requirement. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 729, 22 Cal Rptr 694, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2304.

By adopting regulations that defined distilled spirits to include flavored malt beverages, the California State Board of Equalization exceeded its rulemaking authority under Rev & Tax C § 32451, because the regulations were inconsistent with the definitions of distilled spirits and beer in B & P C §§ 23005, 23006. Pursuant to Rev & Tax C §§ 32002, 32152, the board was required to apply those definitions and to coordinate with federal regulations that classified flavored malt beverages as beer; moreover, B & P C § 25750, gave the authority to interpret those definitions to the California De-

3. Applications and Licenses

Department may promulgate and interpret rules concerning surrender of licenses, such as 4 Cal Admin Code § 65 [Cal Code Regl.]. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Cal Admin Code tit 4 § 61.1 [Cal Code Regl], promulgated by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of university unless department is satisfied that location of premises is sufficiently distant from campus and nature of licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void, being in conflict with Pen C § 172e, removing restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to bona fide public eating places. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 2d 479, 45 Cal Rptr 450, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 947.

The issuance of an off-sale general liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to Admin Code, tit 4, Rule 65(d) was not unconstitutional and was not in excess of the department’s jurisdiction, where the power of the department to adopt Rule 65 and to interpret the rule was derived from Cal Const, art XX, § 22, and B & P C § 25750, and implied from the power granted thereby, and the department did not, by adoption of the rule, abridge or enlarge its authority or exceed the powers given to it by the constitutional provision and the statute. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1779, dismissed, (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 589.

The evident objective of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in promulgating rules disqualifying law enforcement officers and spouses from holding liquor licenses is to prevent a conflict of interest between liquor licensees and those involved in the enforcement of liquor laws. Hence, the record in proceedings challenging the departmental rules on equal protection grounds unequivocally disclosed justification for, and the rational relationship of, spousal disability where it was evident from the record that conflict of interest situations could readily develop should a person of questionable age be sold an alcoholic beverage by the licensee in the presence of those involved in the enforcement of liquor laws. Accordingly, no fundamental interest is abridged by rules of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control disqualifying law enforcement officials and spouses from holding liquor licenses, and the strict scrutiny test does not apply on a constitutional equal protection challenge to the rules. Reese v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

The liquor industry is one whose regulation is recognized as intimately related to the public interest, indicating deference to legislative judgment; there is undeniably no right, either explicitly or implicitly guaranteed by the Constitution, to engage in the liquor business. Accordingly, no fundamental interest is abridged by rules of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control disqualifying law enforcement officials and spouses from holding liquor licenses, and the strict scrutiny test does not apply on a constitutional equal protection challenge to the rules. Reese v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

4. Prices

A rule of the State Board of Equalization making a violation of the Federal laws or regulations relating to ceiling prices for alcoholic beverages a ground for revocation of a liquor license, did not set up an original standard which bound the board in advance to be guided by any and every regulation which the O.P.A. might turn out touching liquor prices. Moore v. State Board of Equalization (1946, Cal App) 76 Cal App 2d 758, 174 P2d 323, 1946 Cal App LEXIS 780.

Regulation by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of quantity sales of distilled spirits to retailers does not come within meaning or purview of “public welfare or morals” as that term is used in Const Art XX, § 22. Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, overruled on other grounds, Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

Legislature comprehensively covered entire field of alcoholic beverage control in enacting Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, but remained silent as to subject of permissible discounts on quantity sales of distilled spirits and did not delegate authority to act in this respect to Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, notwithstanding department’s authority to make “such reasonable rules as may be necessary or proper”; thus department did not have power or authority to enact rule prohibiting quantity sales of distilled spirits by manufacturers, rectifiers and wholesalers to retailers at discount which would amount to greater sum than seller’s cost saving resulting from quantity sale as compared with single-case sale. Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, overruled on other grounds, Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

A prohibition of quantity discounts of beer, effectively required by Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, constitutes, not “price-fixing” requiring explicit legislative authorization, but merely a prohibition against price discrimination, for which no explicit legislative authorization is required (disapproving, to the extent inconsistent herewith, the rationale in Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

5. Employees and Entertainment

Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises was reasonable and did not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule had reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, was in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and was valid and constitutional as against charge that it was too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting this section and §§ 25657, 24200.5 subd (b), relating to grounds for suspension and revocation of licenses. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Though the mere employment of “topless” waitresses by a liquor license is not ground for revocation of a license, licensees are not generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly dressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplinary action if they do; where such purveying of liquor is attended by deleterious consequences, the department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the department can adopt regulations covering the situation. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Authority of Department
3. Evidence: Admissibility
4. Search and Seizure

1. Generally
An agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, who, pursuant to an investigation of a public bar, failed to identify a man accompanying him as a police officer but merely identified him as a “new man” or by the officer’s name, could not be charged with fraud or bad faith which would vitiate the authority of agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers who make a reasonable search of a licensee’s premises where the announced purpose of the visit by the agent was to conduct an investigation; neither the agent nor the police officer were under a duty to inform an employee of the licensee being investigated the exact capacity of the police officer accompanying the agent.

2. Authority of Department
An investigation of a public bar by a police officer and an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not exceed the scope of authority conferred by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, which authorizes the inspection of liquor licensee premises by employees of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers for purposes of enforcing the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, where the record indicates that the investigating officer did not extend the search beyond

This section authorizes the Department to examine only books and records relating to the business enterprise. However in view of the fact that this section had never been judicially construed the acts of the agent in examining licensee’s personal bank records were discretionary and within the scope of his authority. Boreta v. Kirby (1971, ND Cal) 328 F Supp 670, 1971 US Dist LEXIS 13005, aff’d, (CA9 Cal) 485 F2d 582, 1973 US App LEXIS 7494.

3. Evidence: Admissibility

In a criminal prosecution, incriminatory statements made by the defendant to a police officer and an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control were not the fruits of an illegal search and therefore inadmissible evidence where the police officers and the agent were not a dwelling or a private place of business, but a public bar; where evidence is sought by governmental officers, pursuant to a regulatory function, such as the public regulation of traffic in spirituous liquors, both the privilege against self-incrimination and the guaranty against unreasonable search and seizure are limited. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

4. Search and Seizure

An entry onto the premises and an examination of the records of a public bar with or without the consent of an employee of the bar did not constitute an illegal search where the officers conducting the entry and search did not exceed the authority conferred on them by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, relating to the power given agents and local peace officers to visit and inspect premises of liquor licensees. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

A search of a bar, made because of an anonymous tip indicating that narcotics sales were occurring there, which search was conducted without a warrant and pursuant to provisions of the Business and Professions Code was constitutionally reasonable. It advanced a substantial government interest in that B & P C § 24200.5, subd. (a) (revocation of liquor license for permitting illegal sales of drugs or narcotics), reflects a legislative judgment that the use of licensed premises for the purpose of drug sales poses a unique threat to the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the state that must be dealt with more vigorously than other illegal acts taking place on licensed premises. Further, the prerequisite of a warrant in such instances could easily frustrate inspection, and the statutes under which the search was authorized collectively provide a constitutionally adequate substitute for a warrant: B & P C §§ 25753, 25755, advise the licensee that inspections may take place during business hours and adequately limit the discretion of the inspectors as to time, place, and scope. People v. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1480, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

An investigation of a public bar by a police officer and an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not exceed the scope of authority conferred by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, which authorizes the inspection of liquor licensees premises by employees of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers for purposes of enforcing the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, where the record indicates that the investigating officer did not extend the search beyond that incident to enforcement of the alcoholic beverage controls statute. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

2. Authority of Department

An entry onto the premises and an examination of the records of a public bar with or without the consent of an employee of the bar did not constitute an illegal search where the officers conducting the entry and search did not exceed the authority conferred on them by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, relating to the power given agents and local peace officers to visit and inspect premises of liquor licensees. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

An agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, who, pursuant to an investigation of a public bar, failed to identify a man accompanying him as a police officer but merely identified him as a “new man” or by the officer’s name, could not be charged with fraud or bad faith which would vitiate the authority of agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers who make a reasonable search of a licensee’s premises where the announced purpose of the visit by the agent was to conduct an investigation; neither the agent nor the police officer were under a duty to inform an employee of the licensee being investigated the exact capacity of the police officer accompanying the agent. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

3. Evidence: Admissibility

Proprietor of hotel who operated dining room where wines and beers were sold under on sale license, was not entitled to be free from policing on part of inspectors of Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, who were attempting to enforce provisions

When a person attends as a witness in any criminal case in which a person is charged with a violation of any penal provisions of the law prohibiting or regulating the sale, exposing for sale, use, possession, giving away, adulteration, dilution, misbranding, or mislabeling of an alcoholic beverage or intoxicating liquor, and the court in the exercise of its discretion does not authorize the payment of the witness from county funds under Section 1329 of the Penal Code, the department may expend any money available to it to pay him witness fees at the rate of three dollars ($3) for each day’s actual attendance and a reasonable sum for the necessary expenses of the witness, or, in the case of a witness attending from outside the State, to pay the witness the sum of ten cents ($0.10) for each mile and five dollars ($5) for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness.

Note—Stats 1981 ch 102 provides:

SEC. 157. It is the intent of the Legislature that cities which existed but did not levy a property tax in 1977–78 shall receive an in-lieu appropriation from the state for their loss of revenue if the subventions provided pursuant to Section 25761 of the Business and Professions Code, Section 4306 of the Public Utilities Code, and Section 26483 of the Revenue and Taxation Code are reduced or eliminated for the 1981–82 fiscal year.

Stats 1992 ch 900 provides:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the regulation of the sale and use of alcoholic beverages is among the highest priorities of state government. The abuse of alcohol can lead to a myriad of other criminal, legal, social, and economic problems. The fair, stable, and effective administration and enforcement of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and related laws, therefore, must be insured.

Stats 1996 ch 339 provides:

§ 25762. Disposition of fines and forfeitures

(a) All fines and forfeitures of bail imposed for a violation of this division and collected in any felony case after the indictment or the legal commitment by a magistrate, or at or after the sentencing hearing, shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the court is held.

(b) All fines and forfeitures of bail imposed for violation of this division and collected upon conviction or upon forfeiture of bail, together with money deposited as bail, in any misdemeanor or infraction case, or in any felony case at the preliminary hearing or at another proceeding before the legal commitment by a magistrate, shall be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the court is situated and the money deposited shall be distributed and disposed of pursuant to Section 1463 of the Penal Code.

(c) For purposes of this section, a case in which both a felony and a misdemeanor were charged shall be treated as a felony case.

Amendments:
1954 Amendment: Added (1) “other than a municipal court or a justice court” in the first paragraph; and (2) the second paragraph.

1998 Amendment: (1) Deleted “or a justice court” after “a municipal court” in the first paragraph; and (2) amended the second paragraph by (a) deleting “or justice court” after “any municipal court”; (b) substituting “the” for “such” after “county in which”; and (c) substituting “Sectionh 1463 of the Penal Code” for “Penal Code Section 1463”.

Law Revision Commission Comments:
1998—Section 25762 is amended to reflect elimination of the justice court. Cal. Const. art. VI, §§ 1, 5(b).

2012—Section 25762 is amended to reflect unification of the municipal and superior courts pursuant to former Section 5(e) of Article VI of the California Constitution. The amendment seeks to preserve the pre-unification status quo with regard to the distribution of fines and bail forfeitures collected for violations of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (hereafter, “the Act”).

Subdivision (a) is amended to replace the reference to such fines and bail forfeitures imposed and collected in “any court other than a municipal court.” The amendment tracks the criminal jurisdiction of the superior court as it existed before trial court unification.

Similarly, subdivision (b) is amended to replace the reference to fines, bail forfeitures, and bail deposits under the Act “in any municipal court.” The amendment generally tracks the criminal jurisdiction of the municipal court as it existed before trial court unification.

Subdivision (c) makes clear how this section applies to a case in which both a felony and a misdemeanor were charged. The case is to be treated as a felony, even if the felony charge was dismissed. This is consistent with pre-unification practice. See generally People v. Leney, 213 Cal. App. 3d 265, 268, 261 Cal. Rptr. 541 (1989) (superior court has jurisdiction to try remaining misdemeanor even if felony charge eliminated before trial); People v. Clark, 17 Cal. App. 3d 890, 897-98, 95 Cal. Rptr. 411 (1971) (same). 40 Cal. L. Revision Comm’n Reports 235 (2010).

10. Exceptions.
   1. Nothing in this rule shall prevent the holder of any license which permits the sale and consumption of beer on the premises from holding a beer tasting of beers legally acquired, provided the on-sale licensee shall charge for the beers presented in accordance with law.

§ 55.1. Applicant/Licensee Verification of Eligibility; Limitations on Alcoholic Beverage Licenses for Aliens.

(a) All eligibility requirements contained herein shall be applied without regard to the race, creed, color, gender, religion, disability, or national origin of the individual applying for the public benefit. This section shall apply to any natural person renewing or applying for the entire direct interest in a license issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

(b) Pursuant to Section 411 of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, (Pub. L. No. 104-193 (PRWORA)), (8 U.S.C. § 1621), and notwithstanding any other provision of this division, aliens who are not qualified aliens, nonimmigrant aliens under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.), or aliens paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)) for less than one year, are not eligible to receive any license issued pursuant to the ABC Act, BPC § 23000 et seq.

(c) A qualified alien is an alien who, at the time he or she applies for, receives, or attempts to receive a public benefit, is, under Section 431(b) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(b)), any of the following:

1) An alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.).
2) An alien who is granted asylum under Section 208 if the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1158).
3) A refugee who is admitted under Section 207 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1157).
4) An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)) for a period of at least one year.
5) An alien whose deportation is being withheld under Section 243(h) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1253(h)) (as in effect immediately before the effective date of Section 307 of division C of Public Law 104-208) or Section 241(b)(3) of such Act (8 U.S.C. § 1251(b)(3)) (as amended by Section 305(a) of division C of Public Law 104-208).
6) An alien who is granted conditional entry pursuant to Section 203(a)(7) of the INA as in effect prior to April 1, 1980. (8 U.S.C. § 1153(a) (7)) See editorial note under 8 U.S.C. § 1101, “Effective Date of 1980 Amendment.”
7) An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant (as defined in Section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980 (8 U.S.C. § 1522 note)).
8) An alien who, under Section 431(c)(1) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(c)(1)), meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) below:
   (A) The alien has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent, or by a member of the spouse’s or parent’s family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent of the alien consented to, or acquiesced in, such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term “battered or subjected to extreme cruelty” includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detection, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered as acts of violence.
   (B) There is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided in the opinion of the Director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

(1) An alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.).
(2) An alien who is granted asylum under Section 208 if the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1158).
(3) A refugee who is admitted under Section 207 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1157).
(4) An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)) for a period of at least one year.
(5) An alien whose deportation is being withheld under Section 243(h) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1253(h)) (as in effect immediately before the effective date of Section 307 of division C of Public Law 104-208) or Section 241(b)(3) of such Act (8 U.S.C. § 1251(b)(3)) (as amended by Section 305(a) of division C of Public Law 104-208).
(6) An alien who is granted conditional entry pursuant to Section 203(a)(7) of the INA as in effect prior to April 1, 1980. (8 U.S.C. § 1153(a) (7)) See editorial note under 8 U.S.C. § 1101, “Effective Date of 1980 Amendment.”
(7) An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant (as defined in Section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980 (8 U.S.C. § 1522 note)).
(8) An alien who, under Section 431(c)(1) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(c)(1)), meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) below:
   (A) The alien has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent, or by a member of the spouse’s or parent’s family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent of the alien consented to, or acquiesced in, such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term “battered or subjected to extreme cruelty” includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detection, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered as acts of violence.
   (B) There is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided in the opinion of the Director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:
1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien to become self-sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien from the abuser.

3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien’s separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien’s ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into a day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser’s sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien had when living with the abuser.

(C) The alien has a petition that has been approved or has a petition pending which sets forth a prima facie case for:

1. status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (ii), (iii), or (iv) of Section 204(a)(1)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(ii), (iii) or (iv)),

2. classification pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 204(a)(1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(B)(ii) or (iii)),

3. suspension of deportation and adjustment of status pursuant to section 244(a)(3) of the INA (8 U.S.C. sec.1254) as in effect prior to April 1, 1997 [Pub.L. 104-208, sec. 501 (effective September 30, 1996, pursuant to sec. 591); Pub.L. 104-208, sec. 304 (effective April 1, 1997, pursuant to sec. 309); Pub.L. 105-33, sec. 5581 (effective pursuant to sec. 5582)] (incorrectly codified as “cancellation of removal under section 240A of such Act [8 USCS sec. 1229b]” (in effect prior to April 1, 1997),

4. status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (i) of Section 204(a)(1) (A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1) (A)) or classification pursuant to clause (i) of Section 204(a) (1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(B)), or

5. cancellation of removal pursuant to section 240A(b)(2) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1229b(b)(2)).

(D) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(9) An alien who, under Section 431(c)(2) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(c)(2)), meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) below:

(A) The alien has a child who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent of the alien (without the active participation of the alien in the battery or cruelty), or by a member of the spouse’s or parent’s family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term “battered or subjected to extreme cruelty” includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detention, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered as acts of violence.

(B) The alien did not actively participate in such battery or cruelty.

(C) There is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided in the opinion of the Director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien’s child to become self-sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien’s child to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien’s child from the abuser.
3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien’s child’s separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien’s child to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien’s child to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien’s child requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien’s child’s ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser’s sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien’s child and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien’s child had when living with the abuser.

(D) The alien child meets the requirements of subsection (c)(8)(C) above.

(E) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(10) An alien child who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B) and (C) below:
(A) The alien child resides in the same household as a parent who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by that parent’s spouse or by a member of the spouse’s family residing in the same household as the parent and the spouse consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term “battered or subjected to extreme cruelty” includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detection, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered as acts of violence.

(B) There is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided in the opinion of the Director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien child’s parent to become self-sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien child’s parent to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien child’s parent from the abuser.

3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien child’s parent’s separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien child’s parent to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien child’s parent to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien child’s parent requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien child’s parent’s ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser’s sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien child’s parent and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien child’s parent had when living with the abuser.

(C) The alien child meets the requirements of subsection (c)(8)(C) above.
(d) For purposes of this section, “nonimmigrant” is defined as the same as in Section 101(a)(15) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)).

(e) For purposes of establishing eligibility for a license issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to the ABC Act (B.P.C. § 2300 et seq.), all of the following must be met:

(1) The applicant must declare himself or herself to be a citizen of the United States or a qualified alien under subsection (c), a nonimmigrant alien under subsection (d), or an alien paroled into the United States for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)). The alien shall declare that status through use of the “Statement of Citizenship, Alienage, and Immigration Status for State Public Benefits,” Form ABC-69.

(2) The applicant must present documents of a type acceptable to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) which serve as reasonable evidence of the applicant’s declared status. A fee receipt from the INS for replacement of a lost, stolen, or unreadable INS document is reasonable evidence of the alien’s declared status.

(3) The applicant must complete and sign Form ABC-69.

(4) Where the documents presented do not on their face appear to be genuine or to relate to the individual presenting them, the government entity that originally issued the documents shall be contacted for verification. With regard to naturalized citizens and derivative citizens presenting certificates of citizenship and aliens, the INS is the appropriate government entity to contact for verification. The Department shall request verification from the INS by filing INS Form G-845 with copies of the pertinent documents provided by the applicant with the local INS office. If the applicant has lost his or her original documents or presents expired documents or is unable to present any documentation evidencing his or her immigration status, the applicant shall be referred to the local INS office to obtain documentation.

(D) The document is one of the following: an INS Form I-181b notification letter issued in connection with an INS Form I-181 Memorandum of Creation of Record of Permanent Residence, an Arrival-Departure Record (INS Form I-94) or a foreign passport stamped “PROCESSED FOR I-551, TEMPORARY EVIDENCE OF LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENCE” that INS issued more than one year before the date of application for the license issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to the ABC Act.

(6) If the INS advises that the applicant has citizenship status or immigration status which makes him or her a qualified alien, a non-immigrant or alien paroled for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, the INS verification shall be accepted. If the INS advises that it cannot verify that the applicant has citizenship status or an immigration status that makes him or her a qualified alien, a non-immigrant or alien paroled for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, effects shall be denied and the applicant notified pursuant to the ABC Act regular procedures of his or her rights to appeal the denial of benefits.

(f) Pursuant to Section 434 of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1644), where the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control reasonably believes that an alien is unlawfully in the State based on the failure of the alien to provide reasonable evidence of the alien’s declared status, after an opportunity to do so, said alien shall be reported to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(g) Provided that the alien has completed and signed Form ABC-69, revised 2/98, under penalty of perjury, eligibility for renewal of a license shall not be delayed, denied, reduced or terminated while the status of the alien is verified.

(h) Pursuant to Section 432(d) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1642(d)), a nonprofit charitable organization that provides federal, state or local public benefits shall not be required to determine, verify, or otherwise require proof of eligibility of any applicant or beneficiary with respect to his or her immigration status or alienage.

(i) Any applicant who is determined to be ineligible pursuant to subsection (b) and (e) or who was made eligible for an alcoholic beverage license whose license is terminated, suspended, or reduced pursuant to subsections (b) and (e), is entitled to a hearing, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 24300.

(j) Failure to comply with this section shall be cause for revocation of the license held contrary to these provisions.

(c) On-sale beer and wine and on-sale general licenses for boats shall, at the request of the licensee or applicant, be issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 23800, subject to the following conditions:

1. There shall be no sales of alcoholic beverages while the boat is at any dock, except sales to passengers one-half hour prior to departing on scheduled trips or charters, and one-half hour after returning from designated commercial docks pursuant to (A) or (B).

(A) In addition to its primary home port dock, a licensee may designate up to ten (10) commercial docks each year at which it intends to embark or disembark passengers.

(B) A licensee may designate any public commercial dock within the state. Such designation shall be in writing.

(C) For purposes of these regulations, the term "commercial dock" shall mean a dock generally used by vessels carrying passengers for hire, for the embarkation or debarkation of passengers, or the loading or unloading of supplies.

(b) Temporary Continuation of Licensed Business Other Than Retail. The administrator, executor or guardian of the estate, or receiver, or assignee for the benefit or creditors, or trustee of the bankrupt estate of a licensee other than a retail licensee, may apply to the Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control for permission to operate under the provisions of Section 23102 and shall accompany such application with a surety bond as required by Part 14 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Permission to operate shall be made in writing by the Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and suspension or revocation of such permission to operate may be made by the department in accordance with the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act applicable to licenses.

(c) Sales by Former Licensees. A former licensee, or licensee whose license has been surrendered under Rule 65, may apply to a district office of the department in writing for permission to sell his stock of alcoholic beverages to a licensee or licensees authorized to resell such alcoholic beverages. The application shall state the date and hour of the proposed sale, which shall be not less than five nor more than 15 days from the date of filing the application, and shall be accompanied by an inventory of all alcoholic beverages to be sold to each licensee. The District Administrator may grant approval if he is satisfied that the stated facts are correct. The applicant shall be given written notice of such approval, which notice he shall present upon request to any peace officer at the time of the sale.
The above requirements shall not apply to a licensee whose license is in process of transfer and who, in conjunction with that transfer, sells his stock of alcoholic beverages to the transferee.

Any insurer or common carrier acting as an insurer shall, before completing a sale of damaged malt beverages to any other type of licensee, offer the merchandise back to the manufacturer who produced it if that manufacturer is a California licensee or to the importer of the merchandise involved if the manufacturer is not licensed in California. If such California manufacturer or importer meets the highest price offered for the merchandise by any other type of licensee within ten days of notification by the insurer of the highest offer, the sale of the damaged malt beverages shall be made to said manufacturer or importer rather than to the other licensee.

The Department may use a range of progressive and proportional penalties. This range will typically extend from Letters of Warning to Revocation. These guidelines contain a schedule of penalties that the Department usually imposes for the first offense of the law listed (except as otherwise indicated). These guidelines are not intended to be an exhaustive, comprehensive or complete list of all bases upon which disciplinary action may be taken against a license or licensee; nor are these guidelines intended to preclude, prevent, or impede the seeking, recommendation, or imposition of discipline greater than or less than those listed herein, in the proper exercise of the Department's discretion.

PETITION FOR OFFER IN COMPROMISE (“POIC”):

Business and Professions Code Section 23098 authorizes the Department may accept a Petition for Offer in Compromise (“POIC”) in lieu of the service of a suspension of 15 days or less. For purposes of determining whether the Department may accept a POIC in lieu of suspension, the total penalty imposed must be for 15 days or less, and shall not include any period of stayed suspension that would result in the potential suspension being for a period of greater than 15 days, nor can it include any period of stayed revocation. In the event that the suspension is for a period of 15 days or less with some portion thereof stayed, the POIC shall be calculated based upon the period of actual suspension (not including the stayed portion). In such cases, if the stayed period of suspension is later reimposed, the Department will generally not accept a POIC in lieu of serving the reimposed period of suspension.

No agreement to engage in an act of prostitution shall constitute a violation of this subdivision unless some act, in addition to the agreement, is done within this state in furtherance of the commission of an act of prostitution by the person agreeing to engage in that act. If the previous conviction is found to be true by the jury, upon a jury trial, or by the court, upon a court trial, or is admitted by the defendant, the defendant shall be imprisoned in a county jail for a period of not less than 45 days and shall not be eligible for release upon completion of sentence, on probation, on parole, on work furlough or work release, or on any other basis until he or she has served a period of not less than 45 days in a county jail. In all cases in which probation is granted, the court shall require as a condition thereof that the

In lieu of the suspension, the court may order a person’s privilege to operate a motor vehicle restricted, for not more than six months, to necessary travel to and from the person’s place of employment, the court may also allow the person to drive in the person’s scope of employment.  If two or more of these previous convictions are found to be true by the jury, upon a jury trial, or by the court, upon a court trial, or are admitted by the defendant, the defendant shall be imprisoned in a county jail for a period of not less than 90 days and shall not be eligible for release upon completion of sentence, on probation, on parole, on work furlough or work release, or on any other basis until he or she has served a period of not less than 90 days in a county jail.  In all cases in which probation is granted, the court shall require as a condition thereof that the person be confined in a county jail for at least 90 days.  In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who violates this subdivision from the obligation of spending at least 90 days in confinement in a county jail. 521 PENAL CODE
§ 14575. Annual processing fee and processing payment

(a) If any type of empty beverage container with a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560 has a scrap value less than the cost of recycling, the department shall, on January 1, 2000, and on or before January 1 annually thereafter, establish a processing fee and a processing payment for the container by the type of the material of the container.

(b) The processing payment shall be at least equal to the difference between the scrap value offered to a statistically significant sample of recyclers by willing purchasers, and except for the initial calculation made pursuant to subdivision (d), the sum of both of the following:

(1) The actual cost for certified recycling centers, excluding centers receiving a handling fee, of receiving, handling, storing, transporting, and maintaining equipment for each container sold for recycling or, only if the container is not recyclable, the actual cost of disposal, calculated pursuant to subdivision (c). The department shall determine the statewide weighted average cost to recycle each beverage container type, which shall serve as the actual recycling costs for purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). The department shall adjust the recycling costs annually to reflect changes in the cost of living, as measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(2) A reasonable financial return for recycling centers.

(c) The department shall base the processing payment pursuant to this section upon all of the following:

(1) The actual cost for certified recycling centers receiving a handling fee, of receiving, handling, storing, transporting, and maintaining equipment for each container sold for recycling.

(2) A reasonable financial return for recycling centers.

(d) Except as specified in subdivision (e), the actual processing fee paid by a beverage manufacturer shall equal 65 percent of the processing payment calculated pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) The department, consistent with Section 14581 and subject to the availability of funds, shall reduce the processing fee paid by beverage manufacturers by expending funds in each material processing fee account, in the following manner:
§ 14575

PUBLIC RESOURCES CODE

(1) On January 1, 2005, and annually thereafter, the processing fee shall equal the following amounts:

(A) Ten percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 75 percent.

(B) Eleven percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 65 percent, but less than 75 percent.

(C) Twelve percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 60 percent, but less than 65 percent.

(D) Thirteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 55 percent, but less than 60 percent.

(E) Fourteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 50 percent, but less than 55 percent.

(F) Fifteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 45 percent, but less than 50 percent.

(G) Eighteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 40 percent, but less than 45 percent.

(H) Twenty percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 30 percent, but less than 40 percent.

(I) Sixty-five percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate less than 30 percent.

(2) The department shall calculate the recycling rate for purposes of paragraph (1) based on the 12-month period ending on June 30 that directly precedes the date of the January 1 processing fee determination.

(f) Not more than once every three months, the department may make an adjustment in the amount of the processing payment established pursuant to this section notwithstanding any change in the amount of the processing fee established pursuant to this section, for any beverage container, if the department makes the following determinations:

(1) The statewide scrap value paid by processors for the material type for the most recent available 12-month period directly preceding the quarter in which the processing payment is to be adjusted is 5 percent more or 5 percent less than the average scrap value used as the basis for the processing payment currently in effect.

(2) Funds are available in the processing fee account for the material type.

(3) Adjusting the processing payment is necessary to further the objectives of this division.

(g)(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), every beverage manufacturer shall pay to the department the applicable processing fee for each container sold or transferred to a distributor or dealer within 40 days of the sale in the form and in the manner which the department may prescribe.

(2)(A) Notwithstanding Section 14506, with respect to the payment of processing fees for beer and other malt beverages manufactured outside the state, the beverage manufacturer shall be deemed to be the person or entity named on the certificate of compliance issued pursuant to Section 23671 of the Business and Professions Code. If the department is unable to collect the processing fee from the person or entity named on the certificate of compliance, the department shall give written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to that person or entity. The notice shall state that the processing fee shall be remitted in full within 30 days of issuance of the notice or the person or entity shall not be permitted to offer that beverage brand for sale within the state. If the person or entity fails to remit the processing fee within 30 days of issuance of the notice, the department shall notify the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that the certificate holder has failed to comply, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall prohibit the offering for sale of that beverage brand within the state.

(B) The department shall enter into a contract with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, pursuant to Section 14536.5, concerning the implementation of this paragraph, which shall include a provision reimbursing the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for its costs incurred in implementing this paragraph.

(3)(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if a beverage manufacturer displays a pattern of operation in compliance with this division and the regulations adopted pursuant to this division, to the satisfaction of the department, the beverage manufacturer may make a single annual payment of processing fees, if the beverage manufacturer meets either of the following conditions:

(i) If the redemption payment and refund value is not increased pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 14560, the beverage manufacturer's projected processing fees for a calendar year total less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).
(ii) If the redemption payment and refund value is increased pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 14560, the beverage manufacturer’s projected processing fees for a calendar year total less than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

(B) An annual processing fee payment made pursuant to this paragraph is due and payable on or before February 1 for every beverage container sold or transferred by the beverage manufacturer to a distributor or dealer in the previous calendar year.

(C) A beverage manufacturer shall notify the department of its intent to make an annual processing fee payment pursuant to this paragraph on or before January 31 of the calendar year for which the payment will be due.

(4) The department shall pay the processing payments on redeemed containers to processors, in the same manner as it pays refund values pursuant to Sections 14573 and 14573.5. The processor shall pay the recycling center the entire processing payment representing the actual costs and financial return incurred by the recycling center, as specified in subdivision (b).

(h) When assessing processing fees pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall assess the processing fee on each container sold, as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), by the type of material of the container, assuming that every container sold will be redeemed for recycling, whether or not the container is actually recycled.

(i) The container manufacturer, or a designated agent, shall pay to, or credit, the account of the beverage manufacturer in an amount equal to the processing fee.

(j) If, at the end of any calendar year for which glass recycling rates equal or exceed 45 percent and sufficient surplus funds remain in the glass processing fee account to make the reduction pursuant to this subdivision or if, at the end of any calendar year for which PET recycling rates equal or exceed 45 percent and sufficient surplus funds remain in the PET processing fee account to make the reduction pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall use these surplus funds in the respective processing fee accounts in the following calendar year to reduce the amount of the processing fee that would otherwise be due from glass or PET beverage manufacturers pursuant to this subdivision.

(1) The department shall reduce the glass or PET processing fee amount pursuant to this subdivision in addition to any reduction for which the glass or PET beverage container qualifies under subdivision (e).

(2) The department shall determine the processing fee reduction by dividing two million dollars ($2,000,000) from each processing fee account by an estimate of the number of containers sold or transferred to a distributor during the previous calendar year, based upon the latest available data.

§ 32101. Issuance of license as registration; Copy to board

Two guidelines for using this index are:

1. Consult the most pertinent subject. For example, if you were looking in an evidence book for information about depositions, you would start with DEPOSITIONS rather than broader headings like EVIDENCE, TESTIMONY or WITNESSES. The broader headings may also exist, but to find the material more quickly, look for the specific subject first.

2. Cross references. Pay close attention to and make full use of the index cross references. An index cross reference directs the index user to go to another part of the index to find treatment.

The index benefits from customer suggestions. Especially helpful are popular names or legal terms specific to your area of practice. We are grateful for your assistance in the ongoing improvement of the index.
