

UPDATE - NAPA-AMERICAN CANYON QUAKE INFORMATION

Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. has Requested a Major Disaster Declaration from President Obama.

In addition, the Governor has issued an Executive Order to California State Agencies detailing efforts to help California recover from the recent Napa-American Canyon Earthquake.

Please visit the following link <http://gov.ca.gov/home.php> and scroll down to the Governor's Executive Order. Item number 8 references the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and how it may be able to help affected licensed businesses with their recovery: Here is the Governor's exact language:

8. The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall have the discretion to waive the 500 foot limitation and 180-day time period in section 24081 of the Business and Professions Code for any businesses that have been forced to relocate as a result of the earthquake. The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall further have the discretion to waive transfer fees beyond the time limitations set forth in Business and Professions Code sections 24081 and 24082.