ABC Cites Four Clerks for Selling Alcohol To Minors

(Norwalk) - Investigators of the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC), Long Beach-Lakewood District Office, along with deputies from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department cited four clerks for selling alcohol to minors on November 30, 2006. The actions were the result of a minor decoy operation in which minors under the direct supervision of department investigators and sheriff's deputies, attempted to purchase alcohol from 14 retail licensees in the City of Norwalk.

The individuals who sold to the minor decoys face a minimum fine of $250, and/or 24 to 32 hours of community service for a first violation. In addition, ABC will take administrative action against the alcoholic beverage license of the business. That may include a fine, a suspension of the license, or the permanent revocation of the license.

ABC is conducting the compliance checks state-wide to reduce the availability of alcohol to minors. Statistics have shown that young people under the age of 21 have a higher rate of drunken driving fatalities than the general adult population.

Minor Decoy operations have been conducted by local law enforcement throughout the state since the 1980's. In 1994, the California Supreme Court ruled unanimously that use of underage decoys is a valid tool of law enforcement to ensure that licensees are complying with the law.

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

ABC is a department of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.
