MEDIA RELEASE

California Executive to Lead National Liquor Law Enforcement Association

Anaheim, California - August 23, 2010—Liquor law enforcement leaders throughout the United States and Canada have elected Steven Ernst of the California Alcoholic Beverage Control to the Executive Board as President of the National Liquor Law Enforcement Association.

The National Liquor Law Enforcement Association is an association of law enforcement agents dedicated to the enforcement of liquor laws throughout the United States and Canada. They are committed to improving the standards and practices of liquor law enforcement, the professional development of its member agents, and to protecting public safety while improving the quality of life in our communities.

Assistant Director Steven Ernst is a 27 year veteran with the California Alcoholic Beverage Control. He oversees 12 field offices and nearly 180 employees spanning an area from the Oregon border to Bakersfield, California. Throughout his career he has pioneered undercover ABC narcotic investigations in San Diego County, was instrumental in creating a regional law enforcement philosophy by coordinating enforcement efforts between State, local police and sheriff's departments. He has also provided training to allied law enforcement officers in California and Mexico. Mr. Ernst has also been a POST certified trainer in Defensive Tactics, Firearms, Baton and Officer Safety.

With his extensive experience and knowledge in liquor law enforcement the National Liquor Law Enforcement Association welcomes Steven Ernst as President.
