ABC Takes Action Against Two Locations in San Jose

Agents Post Suspension Notices at a Bar and a Store

(San Jose) – On Thursday, March 21, 2013, ABC Agents posted a Notice of Suspension at Richard's Bar located at 1747 Alum Rock Avenue. The suspension notice was posted because agents discovered the bar was not compliant with the law. As a result, the bar will not be able to sell alcohol for 20 days and will be placed on probation for the next two years. Any future violations could result in further disciplinary action against the premises.

Today's action against Richard's Bar is the result of an investigation by ABC into violations involving employees who were illegally soliciting patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages for them which is a violation of sections 25657 (b) and 24200.5 (b) of the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Act.

ABC also took action on another San Jose location. On Tuesday, March 19, 2013, ABC Agents posted a 25-day Notice of Suspension at Stop N Save located at 2507 South King Road in San Jose. The action is a result of two separate violations of sales of alcoholic beverages to minors (age 19 and 20 years old) which occurred at the premises in November 2012 and January 2013. This is the second disciplinary action filed against the licensed premises within the previous three years. The store is also on probation for a period of two years. Any future violations could result in further disciplinary action against the premises.

ABC is a Department of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.
