Store Sold Alcohol to Minors

Seaside - On October 1, 2013, the California Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) suspended the alcoholic beverage license of La Estrella Market located at 1950 Fremont Blvd. in Seaside.

The license is suspended for 25 days. The enforcement action is the result of a second sale to minor violation within the past three years. ABC agents substantiated evidence of a sale to minor violation on June 22, 2013. There was a previous violation at the store back in April 2011.

The owner of the store can continue to sell groceries and other items but will not be allowed to sell alcohol until the suspension period is over.

ABC is a Department of the Business, Consumer Services and Housing Agency.
